g Department booming with the

VOL. XIX.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1888.

PRICE FIVE CENT

s all the leading varieties of Worsteds, n the most carefully selected patterns,

arly inspection.

BROS.

WN & KING, TURERS OF AND DEALERS general hoisting poses, transmission

Telegraph & Electrical Apparatus & Supplies.

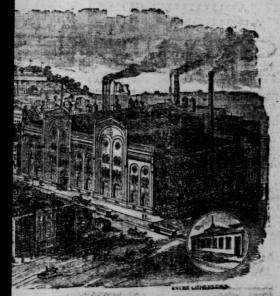

ELECTRO-PLATERS.

Stove Flue, absolutely Terra Cotta Chimney nd Stove Thimbles.

-MARBLE DUST,-

GEO. MOERLEIN, Vice-Pre WM. MOERLEIN, Ass't Sup

CINNATI, OHIO. 50,000 BARRELS YEARLY.

e Everywhere in Atlanta.

I. EXPORT" was awarded the first premium at every Cincinnativing it the best beer in Cincinnati, and, consequently, the finest in the HRISTIAN MOERILEIN BREWING CO. is guaranteed to be ewed at home or abroad. Export beer is put up in casks of Ten Dozen

ig, Atlanta Agent

DERS PROMPTLY FILLED. JACOB HAAS, Cashier

ERY DAY UNTIL 2, AND laysand Mondays Until 7 p. m England, Germany, France and all owest market rates. JOHN KEELY'S New Laces all In.

All the new patterns of Torchons, Florentines, Medicis, Smyrnas, Orientals, etc., at John Keely's.

JOHN KEELY'S

Arriving daily. Superb stock of Novelty Dress Goods at John Keely's.

JOHN KEELY

Has opened during the past week $5,000 worth more of new Embroideries. These, added to already superb stock, make it the completest and handsomest assortment of these goods in Georgia.

JOHN KEELY'S Embroidery Department

Is perfect. This assortment is bewildering. The patterns are exclusive. The prices are right.

JOHN KEELY'S Embroidery Department

Always noted for its completeness and beauty will be found to be handsomer than ever this season. No pains have been spared to make it attractive.

2,500 New Parasols Just opened at John Keely's. 900 Drummer's Samples. Fresh goods bought at half their value, to be given away at the same ratio, at John Keely's.

The rush for the bargain Hosiery during the past week, at John Keely's was something. wonderful.

Just Think of It! Hosiery at 20 cents and 25 cents per pair, worth 75 cents anywhere. The Hosiery sale will continued next week.

JOHN KEELY'S SPRING SHOES NOW OPEN.

63 cases Zeigler's Shoes.

20 cases of the celebrated "Keely" Shoes, just opened at John Keely's.

Is Swarmed with the Fashion, the Beauty, the Wealth and Vice Versa of the Gate City and Vicinity.

Marvelous Movements for Monday Morning's March!

WE MAKE NO IDLE BOAST,

And Still Further for this Sale we our own brand of Black Gro Grain Silks at 83e, 93c, $1.13, $1.23 and $1.43 per yard. ow, we come to colored surahs, beautiful new shades, at 65c per yard.

HERE IS ANOTHER GREAT BARGAIN FOR MONDAY! w and elegant Tricotine Silks; colors, Navy Blue, Cardinal, Cream, Light Tan and Black, at 371/4 Positively no more and but one dress pattern allowed each customer.

DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS!!

The season is now open and our dress goods department presents the largest and most varied assort ment to select from, with special inducements for Monday's sale.

Now, we present one of the best values that will be offered this season. As the goods cannot possibly be duplicated, we advise all to come early.

Lace Momile cloth, 42 inches wide, in Cream, Light Tans, Browns, Navy Blue and Green Shades, which are the most desirable shades of the season. The above goods are imported and of the very best quality—all wool. They were imported to sell at 75c per yard. We closed out the lot and are able to offer them at the ridiculous price of 29e per yard.

We have 10 pieces of new spring shades Henrietta Cashmeres, full 46 inches wide, worth 65c yard. Our price for this sale will be 27/2e yard. Remember the width; remember the price.

THE BEE HIVE

White Goods & Embroideries

EMBROIDERIES! EMBROIDERIES! To make our White Goods Sale a still greater success we have decided to mark down many new and high class novelties in flouncings, and atthe same time offer some startling bargains that we have just received. We merely ask you to examine the goods that you will think as we do, that they are the cheapest goods ever offered in Atlanta.

FLOUNCING!

$6 inch Flouncing for this sale $9c per yard; old price 50c. 45 inch Flouncing for this sale 42c per yard; old price 60c per yard. 45 inch Flouncing for this sale 65c per yard; old price $1.00. 45 inch Flouncing for this sale 55c per yard; old price $1.25. 45 inch Flouncing for this sale 85c per yard; old price $1.37½. 45 inch Flouncing for this sale $1.09 per yard; old price $1.37½. The above are all new and lively patterns and will prove great inducements to our patrons. Why do we do this? Because we mean for the BEE HIVE to be headquarters.

WASH GOODS, SATTEENS AND GINGHAMS.

We open the season with prices that will attract the attention of every lady. 50 pleces fine Apron Theck Ginghams for this sale, 5c per yard; regular price elsewhere 10c per yard. 100 pieces French Satteens in beautiful Oriental designs at 19c per yard; worth 25c. 100 pieces v fine quality Satteens at 12% yard. 00 pieces White Colored Ground Etumine Cloths, beautiful designs, always sold at 12% per yard; for this ale 5c rer yards. 100 pieces very fine quality Ginghams, new styles, at 10c per yard; worth 12% to 100 pieces Scotch Chambryo in every conceivable color at 8% per yard.

200 pieces Pongee finish, crinkly ginghams for Monday, 10c per yard.

150 pieces crinkly Ginghams at 4% per yard, worth 8% c. TABLE DAMASK

That will interest any housekeeper. We have 15 pieces left over from our great sale the past week and shall offer it for Monday at 49c per yard. This is satin finish—the same quality sold in Atlanta today for 85c yerd. We shall not be able to duplicate this damask at less than the regular price.

Real German turkey red Damask, 39c, worth 55c per yard.

Knotted fringe Towels, 125c, worth 20c

White Quilts at 50c, 75c and $1 that are genuine bargains.

10 pair all wool Blankets, 61c pair.

10 pair all wool Blankets, regular price $5 and $6,50, now reduced to $4 per pair.

HANDERCHIEF DEPARTMENT.

8 SPECIAL BARGAINS!

We shall offer for Monday and the week following, one lot, consisting of 150 dezen ladies' fancy bordered Hankerchiefs, very stylish, new designs, and exceptionally sheer goods. Never sold for less than 12½ ceach. Will be closed out at 5e each.

100 dozen elegant quality black bordered Handkerchiefs; never sold for less than 25c each. For this sale 12½ dozen ladies' fine embroidered hemstitched Handkerchiefs will be offered in this sale for 25c each; never sold before for less than 40c.

Gentlemen's Unlaundried Shirts. We desire to close our entire stock of these goods on account of needing the space for other goods; consequently we have cut the prices regardless of cost. And to clear our counters at once, the prices we shall name will, upon examination, prove to be just half the regular price charged by others.

50c Unlaundried Shirts for 37½c.

51c Unlaundried Shirts for 50c.

51c Unlaundried Shirts for 65c. Don't wait, but come early.

Hosiery Department!

The unprecedented sales in this department establish the fact that we are offering the best bargains. Be this city; and we claim the largest stock from which to select.

We offer again this week Ladies' Lisle Thread Hose in Black, Seal Brown and Navy Blue at 29c per pair; actually worth 50c.

Children's Lisle Thread Hose in Black and Colors at 25c per pair. Sizes: 4, 5% to 8% inches. These hose would be cheap at 50c per pair.

To dozen Ladies' Pin and Roman Striped Hose—full regular made at 15c per pair—sold by others at 25c-23 dozen Children's Fast Black full regular made hose at 15c per pair. Sizes: 5% to 8% inches.

10 dozen Ladies' all silk hose in black and colors. Would be cheap at $1.25 per pair. Our price, 75c.

GLOVES! GLOVES! LACE MITTS! LACE MITTS! Our new stock is now open, and we feel confident in saying that it is the best line in Atlanta. For a sale, 20 dozen pure silk mitts in bark and colors at 10c per pair. 100 dozen Ladies' Lisle and Silk flets Gloves, beautiful embroidered bucks at 25c per pair; worth double the price.

Great bargains in Kid Gloves. Every lady purchasing gloves at this sale on Monday will receive an eart oxidized silver glove buttoner as a souvenir.

SMALL WARES.

Nice Whisk Brooms, 10c each. Furkish Bath Soap, 5c cake. Handsome Garter Web at 5c per yard. lifable and some Garter Web at 5c per yard.

Jess Shields, 10c per patr.

Jidized Sliver Pins, 10c each; sell everywhere for 25c. 7

Hair ornaments at half the regular price.

Jood Hair Brushes, 10c each.

And hundreds of articles that can be bought at the BEE HIVE at our reduced prices.

ART DEPARTMENT.

WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS, NO. 30 WHITEHALL STREET. JAS. A. ANDERSON & CO.'S Grand Opening

Merchant Tailoring Dep'tm't FEBRUARY 15TH.

We have now in store, all the Novelties and new Spring Styles of Foreign and Domestic Cloths, Cassimeres, Cheviots, Worsteds, Corkscrews, Bannockburns, Tricots, Granites, Flannels, to which we invite your inspection. We guarantee a perfect fit.

Our Cutters are C. G. GROSSE. HARRY McKAY

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. EUGENE M. MITCHELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW,
No. 8 S. Broad Street, Atlanta, Ga., Grant Buildin
Damage suits a specialty.
PROF. OTTO SPAHR,
Teacher of Vocal and Instruments. Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music, 171 South Forsyth Street. ROBERT HARBISON, Counselor and Attorney at Law, Gate City Bank Building, Rooms 51 and 55.

Attorney and Special Agent in Georgia for the AMERICAN SUEETY COMPANY OF NEW YORK. (Paid up cash capital $1,000,000.) Guarantee and Surety Bonds.

G. T. OSBORN,

DEFICIAL STENGGRAPHER COWETA CIRCUIT

All calls by telegram or otherwise promptly attended to. Office 21 Marietta Street. HUGH ANGIER

CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR, d and Sanitary work a specialty.

14½ Whitehall St. Room No. 22. AMUEL W. GOODE. CLIFFORD L. ANDERSON.
GOODE & ANDERSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Offices No. 1 Marietta street, corner Peachtree. Will do a general practice in all the courts, State and Federal, Real Estate and Corporation Law specialties.

N. J. & T. A. HAMMOND,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW.
Booms Nos. 41 and 42 Gate City Bank Building.
Corner Alabama and Pryor Streets.
T. A. Hammond, Jr., Commissioner for taking bepositions in Fulton County. EDMUND W. MARTIN, Attorney and Counselor at Law, No. 55½ Whitehall Street ta, Ga. Telephone 512. WILLIAM A. RAYGOOD. HAMILTON DOUGLAS, HAYGOOD & DOUGLAS,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office 17½ Peachtres St.
Telephone 117. WALTER GREGORY,

Attorney and Counselor at Law, om 5, Jackson Building. Special attention given damage and insurance cases, and collections. Thoams C. Carleton HJA. Hall CARLETON & HALL, CARLETON & HALL,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Commercial Law a specialty.
Newnan, Ga
JOHN M. SLATON,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Healy Bunding.
July 19
Atlanta, Ga. E. C. JOHNSON.

JOHNSON & JOHNSOL.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW. (N. J. Hammond's Old Office). 21% E. Alabama Street, Atlanta, Georgia.

A.R. WRIGHT.

MEYERHARDT. & WRIGHT,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Rome. Ga.

Collections a specialty.

ARCHITECTS.
EDMUND G. LIND,
ARCHITECT,
Office, 63% Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga.
-d3m

W. H. PARKINS,
ARCHITECT,
Office 7½ N. Broad Street, Atlanta, Ga.
L. B. WHEELER,
ARCHITECT, Atlanta, Ga.
Office 4th floor Chamberlin & Boynton building, for. Whitehall and Huter streets. Take elevator

Take the Midland Route (Georgia Midland and Gulf R. R.)

SHORTEST AND QUICKEST ROUTE NO CHANGE OF CARS

-BETWEEN-

ATLANTA * COLUMBUS

-AND ONLY ONE CHANGE TO-UNION SPRINGS, TROY AND EUFAULA

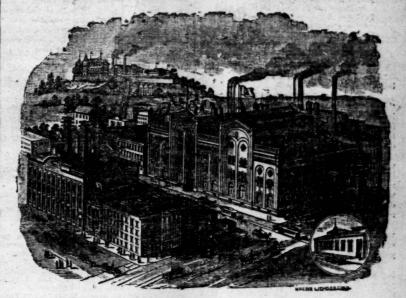

TRAIN LEAVES ATLANTA (via C. R. R. an ARRIVES COLUMBUS 7:15 p. m.

NORTH BOUND TRAIN.

LEAVE COLUMBUS 8:20 a. m.,
ARRIVE ATLANTA 1:15 p. m.
In advance of other trains.
Making connection certain in Union Depot for all points beyond Atlanta.
Trains leave McDonough couthbound at 2:30 p. m.
Accommodation train leaves Griffin at 5:00 a. m., arriving Columbus 10:55 z. m.
C. W. CHEARS,
M. E. GRAY,

CHRISTIAN MOERLEIN, Pres JNO. GOETZ, Jr., Sec. v.

CINCINNATI, OHIO. CAPACITY 350,000 BARRELS YEARLY.

For Sale Everywhere in Atlanta.

on is invited to our "NATIONAL EXPORT" which is brewed from the fine stic hops and mair, and prepared according to the most approved method lager; does not contain a particle of any injurious ingredients, and be ulterations is invariably prescribed by the most prominent physicians and the aged. The "NATIONAL EXPORT" was brewed originally for the the output our increased facilities, we are now prepared to furnish it to our than trade exclusively. ..., with our increased accentices, we are now prepared to intrinsing to ocers throughout the world.

MOERLEIN'S "NATIONAL EXPORT" was awarded the first premium at every Exposition over all competitors, proving it the best beer in Cincinnati, and, consequently, the fivorial. The barrel teer of THE CHRISTIAN MOERLEIN BREWING CO. is guarante equal, if not superior, to any beer brewed at home or abroad. Export beer is put up in casks of Pints, and is guaranteed to keep in any climate. Emil Selig, Atlanta Agent.

ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

DOORS, SASH, BLINDS! MANTELS, MOULDINGS, SCROLL WORK, NEWEL BALUSTERS, RAILS, WINDOW GLASS, BUILDERS' HARDWARE, ETC.
REMEMBER, I MANUFACTURE MY OWN GOODS, AND AM HEADQUARTERS FOR ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL, WEITE FOR ESTIMATES.

W. L. TRAYNHAM, 74 Decatur SE.

JOSEPH THOMPSON, NOS. 21 AND 23 DECATUR STREET, ATLANTA, GA.
Agent for J. H. CUTTER WHISKIES for Georgia and Alab

CAUTION!

THE PUBLIC

IS PARTICULARLY CAUTIONED AGAINST A PHILADELPHIA BEER WHICH IS BEING FOISTED UPON UNWARY PURCHASERS AS THE GENUINE IMPORTED

HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT!

THE GENUINE AND ONLY IMPORTED JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT, troduced into the U. S. by Leopold Hoff in 1856, the unrivaled nutritive tonic and food for Invalid aring Women, Typhoid Patients and weakness incident to age and convalescents. Prescribed by its dy physicians throughout the world; is received ONLY by us monthly per steamers of the Hamburg and incident Packet company, and is Guaranteed genuine and imported by the signature on metallic cap of

TARRANT & CO., 278, 280 AND 282 GREENWICH STREET, AND 100 WARREN STREET. NEW YORK

Sole Importers and Agents since 1869, to counterfeit which is FELONY. In order to pre-tect themselves against imposition the Public is requested to specify HOFF'S WALT EXTRACT "TABRANTS," When Ordering

PLUNKETT'S TALK.

What He Thinks of Predestination.

A Pathetic Story of Charlie Holland, Who Escaped Through the War But Never Arrived at Home.

As the household filed in from the supper table, Plunkett opened a little book that lay on the table, and taking therefrom a srap of paper, without a word of comment he handed it to one of the girls to be read. Here

We haint axed narry question,
Since the nigger was set free.
But went erions up to the polls
To elect the nomine;
But we're getting kinder jubus
And opening up one eye.
For old Blaine has taught the lesson
That er 'yank' is mighty ely.

They are sending out their letters— And fore they we axed decline— And the trick would be er good one

If the people were all blind; We are on to agitation, But we call no man er lie,

We're too polite to be so harsh. So we say its mighty sly. bet em write and talk of tariff And these complicated things
But the most they want is office—
Or the good that office brings.
The south's been fed upon the scraps,
Of the nation's chicken ple—
We want a just division now,
They've learned us to be shy.

"Well " said Plunkett, "what is to be will

"I 'bleved that doctrine," spoke up Brown,
"till I went to the war. I was er Hardshell, but when the balls begin to fly erround I'd forget all erbout my church doctrine, and it took er mighty suple man to get into er hole quicker than me."

"I knowed er man," said Plunkett, "that went clear through the war and fit in every battle from Seven Pines to the surrender, that never got er scratch, and never was sick worth talking erbout, that got killed by an old broke down mule er kicking him the very next morning arter he got home."

"I heard of one," chimed in Brown, "that went through the same way and got killed by er ram er butting him in er few days arter he

"But." continued Plunkett, without seem ing to notice Brown's remarks, "I could tell erbout erthing that happened over on the river that was erbout the worst thing that river that was erbout the worst thing that happened during of the whole war, leastwise it made me feel the worst, for I knowed 'em all, and I knowed what er good little woman the wife was, if she did play on one of these here planos.

"Yes, I seed him the day he volunteered." spoke Brown, seeming to know what was going to be said, "and I seed his little wife when she caught him by both hands and leaned her face down on the brass buttons of his coat and cried, the day they took the train to start for Virginia. I haint brave, and I'm dadburned glad of it."

glad of it."
"Them were mighty bad times," resumed Plunkett, "when the soldiers would tell their folks goodbye. There's many er one living now that can remember the partings, and the longer the war went on, the harder it got to be, but it was just erbout as had to watch the old fathers and mothers, and sisters and wives, and see 'em cry when the other fellows begin to come home, and they knowed their loved ones were killed, and wouldn't come at all.
"But what I was going to tell you was erbout ones were killed, and wouldn't come at all.

"But what I was going to tell you was erbout Charlie Holland, who wasn't killed, but who never did get home."
The old man took a whiff or two at his pipe, and then proceeded:

"Charlie Holland went off to the war and left his wife and two little children, a little boy and er little girl, and they lived on the river and done the best they could till they hazd that the war was over and then the whole take we be a bright and early and the little wife would be up the children as clean as er pin and they'd go out and set on the fence and watch up the road and when they'd see er fellow er coming they'd holler to their mama and here she'd come with her sewing throwed over her head for er bonnet and would watch till the fellow would get closer and closer, till at last she'd say 'that's not him;' and she'd turn and walk back in the house and the children would watch, and directly they'd holler to her ergin: 'Yonder comes papa,' and they'd clap 'Charlie Holland went off to the war and would watch, and directly they'd holler to her ergin: 'Yonder comes papa,' and they'd clap their little hands and run and catch the mother by the dress, and pull her erlong faster and she'd put her hands up to her eyes to shade 'em from the sun and look with all her might, but directly it would be the same old taying: 'That's not papa,' and turn and walk back to her chair on the porch.

"It went on this way day after day, till it got so she begun to cry and she quit sitting in the porch, but stayed out at the gate with the children, and there was no soldier that passed erlong that road but what felt like crying when they seed her and them children watching there, and how the tears would come when she'd ask 'em if they knew where Charlie was, till at last the soldiers quit coming by. They were all at home and Charlie hadn't come yet. The little wife kept up the watch and kept the children dressed to run an meet papa, till one day the little boy run in to her and said that he heard some men say that they expected that Charlie had found er wife out in the war that he liked the best and he was going to stay. She broke down right then and she took to bed and the doctors couldn't do nothing for her and she died in a few days, and the last words she said, was:

"Watch at the gate for papa."

"I helped to dig her grave," spoke up Brown, 'and I never will forget how the folks talked erbout Charlie."

"Yes," resumed Plunkett, "they did talk erbout him, but they were sorry of it after they found out how it was."

The old man stopped to change the position of his chair, but soon went on:

"The railroads were all tore up and Charlie had struck out through the country, taking all the near cuts in order to get home to his little wife and children. He got to the river bank on the other side from his house and he could see the light through the window, but the night was dark and the storm was raging and he could of the river on the very evening that his poor little wife was buried from a broken heart, because he did not come. T

The authorship of the dramatic productions ttributed to the last of the above named is attributed to the last of the above named is agitating literary circles to the very center, but affects the practical masses far less than the momentous question, how to regain or preserve health, that essential of bodily and mental activity, business saccess and the "pursuit of happiness." We can throw far more light on this latter subject than the most profound Shakspearian can on the question first propounded. If the system is depleted, the nerves shaky; if indigestion or constingation bothers one at times, or constantly: if the skin is vellow and tongue furred as in biliousness; if there are premonitory twinges of oncoming rhoumatism or neuralgia; if the kidneys are inactive—use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest recuperant of an age prolific in beneficial and successful remedies. Remember, if malaria threatens or afflicts, that it neutralizes the poison and fortifies the system.

Stamps of all denominations for sale at Constitution business office. Open until 9

MISS MINTY'S SOLDIER

E. B. Dane, in Detroit Free Press. It was not long after Miss Minty had hid the pies in her own original and effective way, by making the children "eat 'em and not leave a crumb big enough for a yank ter smell!"
when she had an adventure, an adventure to which this thoroughbred southern woman was afterwards known to allude with tears.

The colonel's colt was lost. The one par ticular pet, the fastest trotter in the county, and Balaam's pride and joy.
"Brung up by han' same ez a baby!" said the old man, with tears in his eyes. "I bin huntin' since fo' o'clock dis mo'nin', an' I dunno who gwine tell marster, he sets sich sto' by dat colt, dee ain't none kin tech 'im, pears like!"

Balaam sunk upon the back porch steps and put his shoestring hat beside him.
"Seems like somebuddy's been keerless," said Miss Minty, pursing up her month; she was in her rocker, stringing beans. "No, dee aint, Miss-Mint; you knows dat! I's de lasses one ter go nigh dat colt las' night when I put de bars up, an' you knows dee ain't nobuddy tickler ez I 'bote de stock, eben de kyrnul. Dat colt ain't daid, 'cause he well an' kickin' las' night. He ain't drown, 'cause he got too much sense. Ef 'twar dat ole fool horse Obediah, I'd go down yander'n look in Satan swamp fo'm, but dat colt's ben tuk, clean kyarried off, 'cause ef he's in dese parts he'd come a-lopin' up af' his oats dis bery "That's so," allowed Miss Minty; "he'd find his way cl'ar from de branch, he's so know-

"Well, et he den't turn up tonight some-buddy get ter sen' an' specify ter de kyrnel, 'n' I reckon then we'll heah sumpin sho nuff!" The old man scratched his head in perplexity and hobbled off. Miss Minty shook the beans together and called;

"Here, Bet, come 'long'n get these beans!"

Bet came leisurely around the house, critically examining something as she walked.
"Come 'long, can't you? Massy on us, what she got! Throw it down, quick!"

"'Tain't live," said Bet complacently, holding out a dead snake by its tail. "Ki! Warn't ing out a dead snake by its tail. "Ki! Warn't he long?"

"You go tling 't away an' come here'n tend to yo' business," said Miss Minty, waxing wrathy; "you got sumpin to do 'sides killin' rattlers."
"Didn't kill it," rejoinca Bet, flinging it down the hill; "man done it, done it quick. Zip! Jes' like dat. Ki! I jumped."
"What man you talkin' about? You sech a fool nigger, Bet—here, take these to yer mammy."

"Sojer man, recken; he's got sojer close on jes' like Marse Robert, 'cep' he an't got epilepsys on 'is shoulders."

Miss Minty eyed the little darky sharply as she gathered up the beans.

"There ain't no sojer roun' this here place," she said sharply; "'twas George Green you saw; he's on furlough, you know that; you been 'sleep in the shucks!"

"No, 'twam't Massa George Green, an' I ain't been in de shucks, but dat's whar he is," said Bet, rolling her eyes; "he lyin' jes' so, said Bet, rolling her eyes; "he lyin' jes' so, longside fust. I hardly see 'im fo' de shucks;

den he crawl in!"

"You keep yo' mouth shut; it's too big!"
said Miss Minty, as Bet dashed off with the beans. When her black feet had disappeared Miss Minty arose and smoothed down her check apron, took a little shawl from a nail, and, putting it over her broad shoulders, slowly descended the porch steps and made her way down past the barn where a great pile of corn huskings stood.

way down past the carry where a great. She of corn huskings stood.

With an air of Drace the determination, she approached it. The husks were piled on boards, and at one side an opening had been made large though to admit of a person creep-g in.

Miss' Minty folded her arms and spoke:

"Ef you're there, come out."

The invitation was declined, the stack giving o sign of inward life. "I say, ef you're there, come out. I ain't a-goin' to tech you, but I'm a-going to stand here 'n' wait, an' it'll be tiresome fur both of

This was more effective. A hand appeared, then a blue-coated arm, and finally the whole man, who arose and shook himself, saying: "Close quarters, 'm; howdy?"
Miss Minty eved him with a like degree of Miss Minty eyed him with a like degree of coolness.

"What you doin' there?"

The man pushed his hair back, disclosing a rather handsome face, and said:

"I wasn't doin' no harm. I'm on furlough; I'm hurt in the foot; my place is further up country, but there's so many scouts around Winchester I'm a layin' low an' makin' my way at night, but my foot's so bad I can't go no further today, so if you'll just let me lay in the shucks I won't do no harm."

The man was evidently suffering, and Miss Minty's face relaxed as she said:

"I reckon I'll have to do better by you than that; 'twouldn't do to let a blue-coat stay out here all night; come 'long with me."

She retraced her steps up the hill to where the spring house stood, and pointed to a light ladder leading to the window above.

"Go up yonder fur tonight; nobody never goes up there now, Robert ain't home"—the man went up as fast as the lameness of his foot would allow—"and if I bring you a snack out reach down fo' it; my climbin' days are over."

"All right," said the man from above, and over."

"All right," said the man from above, and out reach down to it; my chimoin days are over."

"All right," said the man from above, and disappeared.

That day Miss Minty went around with a suppressed air of self-elation. Bet was cuffed and summarily quelled upon a chance allusion to the "man in de shucks." The children were ordered not to "dare'n climb that spring house ladder les' they fall an' break their necks while their maw's away!"

She made periodical visits herself, at meal time and again at night, armed with a blanket. About 6 o'clock the next morning, while Bet "clared up" the breakfast dishes, Miss Minty, with a bountiful plate of bread and meat, started for the back door, when Balaam, hobbling breathlessly in, met her.

"He done foun"! He done foun', hooray!" cried the old man, waving his hands excitedly, "Dey fotched 'im back, he and Major Lipscomb's mule an' Mrs. Petty's pony. Dee stole a lot 'n' got 'em to de landin', and he dun tun black, but hit's 'm. hit's Selim, sho', an' dee waitin' fo' you at de do' now, Miss Mint!"

Miss Minty put the plate down in some confusion. Balaam's joy made but little impression on her. A load knock sounded at the front door. It had come, then; they had tracked the poor fellow and she must give him up. Or, again, suppose he had not told her true? Suppose he was a deserter? A deserter under the colonel's roof!

It was with conflicting emotions that Miss Minty walked resolutely to the door.

In the place of officers there stood the county magistrate and George Green, She breathed a little freer.

"Well, Sister Meekins, we got your colt back, but if he warn't such a knowin' beast we couldn't ha' told him, for they dyed him black as my hat; but he wouldn't go past the gate'n Balaam knew him soon's he sot eyes on him," said one.

"Dyed him black!" exclaimed Miss Minty, raising her hands. "Lor' sakes! Who did'" raising her hands. "Lor' sakes! Who did'" couldn't ha' told him, for they dyed him black as my hat; but he wouldn't go past the gate'n Balaam knew him soon's he sot eyes on him," said one.

"Dyed him black!" exclaimed Miss Minty, raising her hands. "Lor' sakes! Who did?" "Horse thieves, Miss Minty," said the magistrate; "ain't you heard? There's a gang of three in the county. We nabbed two yesterday and we're after the one now. He's the worst of the lot; he sneaks the horses and passes 'em on to the others. They say he can manage any beast on four legs. He's layin' low roun' here somewhere, 'cause he ain't had a chance to get off."

"Land alive!" said Miss Minty, "and to think they got Selim!"

"You ain't seen a man go through the place?" asked the first man.

Miss Minty changed color slightly.

"There ain't been but one person 'long here, and he ain't the one you're lookin' fur. I kin tell you that. Come in, though, Brother Blackwell, an' you too, George."

"Ain't got time jest now, Miss Minty, les' you kin help us. The rogue 'll get ahead of us agin. I don't want to bother you, but you'll have to tell us what the fellow looked like who came through."

Miss Minty straightened herself up.

"Now, look here; you beth know me well; I ain't a harborer, an'! I kin trust you, so I'll jest my thet I housed one o' our own men fur

the night; that's all. He'd got hurt, an' couldn't get along by day." "Is he here now?" "Well, then, he is; but you needn't say

"Little man-red hair-stoops?" put in the "No, he warn't; he's tall an' well made, an'

a brown beard."
"That's him! Tall-brown beard-corduroy breeches-checked shirt-red handkerchief preeches—checked shift—red handsercher round his neck!"

"Dat's dem! dat's de close!" cried Bet, darting from behind the door, and dancing up and down on one foot; "dey up yanderward!"

"Show us, quick, where?" Beg yer pardon, Miss Minty, don't lose, any time!"

"You're all clean cracked," said Minty, following in rather contemptuous bewilderment. "That fittle nigger don't know nothin'; I tell you my man has on blue sojer close!"

The men, however, were following at Bet's flying heels, and Miss Minty came panting after to the foot of the spring-house ladder.

"He's given us the slip again," said one of them, who had scaled it and was looking in; here's the rascal's clothes though," he added, dlving in and dropping a bundle of garments down to the ground.

"Et dat ole fool hoss Obediah ain't clean down to the ground.

"Ef dat ole fool hoss Obediah ain't clean gone now!" cried Balaam, suddenly appearing.

"I reckon so," said Brother Blackwell," he got away on it."
Miss Minty pointed severely to the bundle round which Bet was dancing, and said grimly: "An' I've been housin' an' feedin' a horse thief!"

"Pears like it," said the man; "here's his clothes—corduroy pants—shirt—red handker-chief—all here!"

chief—all here!"

He unpinned a piece of brown paper from the handkerchief on which was scrawled:
"Thanky fur the Blankit."
"But where'd he get the soldier clothes?"
Miss Minty looked up to the window above and said:

"I suppose he climbed up yonder fust thing, an' put on Robert's old unsthet hung up there; and I a-lookin' at that darn in the shoulder an' never to know it!"

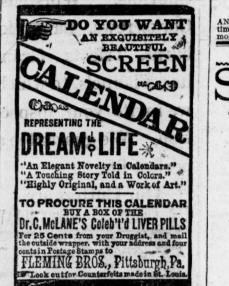

"Yes'm; dat's it; dat's what he done!" cried Bet, jumping up and down; "he'd got'em on when he climb down las' night!"

Miss Minty's countenance underwent a rapid change.

change.

"Saw him git down, did yer! You no 'count little nigger, why didn't you come tell me?"

"'Cause you say I keep my mouf 'bote de man in de shucks less you sh-shake—ev'y—bo-bone out o' my sk-skin—ow!"

ATLANTA LUMBER COMPANY

YARDS. MILLS, Humphries St. On Line C. R. R. & E. T., V. &G. Ry.

Long Leaf Pine; KILN-DRY DRESSED FLOORING

WEATHERBOARDING, SHINGLES AND LATHS, BRIDGE AND TRESTLE TIMBERS.

Best in quality, lowest in price. Write for, estimates on house bills. NOTICE TO JAIL CONTRACTORS SEALED BIDS WILL BE RECEIVED UNTIL April 3d, for the building and furnishing of a jail for Jefferson county, according to plans and specifications now on file with the undersigned.
The Board of Roads and Revenues reserve the right to reject any or all bids. Address
JAMES F. BROWN,
feb 9 Im Louisville, Jefferson County, Ga.

PURE English Acid Phosphate!

WE OFFER THIS FAVORITE ARTICLE, DE-liverable from a small cargo to arrive soon. Offer, for immediate delivery a moderate quantity of our Manipulated and Excellent Georgia Standard Savannah, March 5th. GIBBS GUANO CO. meh8-th sa tu wky

GEORGIA'S DAY -AT THE-Sub-Tropical Exposition

WILL BE MARCH 18th, 1888, SPECIAL GRAND EXCURSION VIA THE CENTRAL RAILR'D

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA. MARCH 12th, 1888. ONLY $12.30 ROUND TRIP.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Will sell round trip tickets from Atlanta or MARCH 12TH,

At $12:50 round trip, good for continuous passage in each direction, and limited to return within 20 cays from date of sale.

This will probably be the last grand excursion to Florida this season. Remember, these tickets will be sold only on March 12th.

For further information write or call on, D. W. APPLER, CLYDE BOSTICK, General Agent, Passenger Agent, 9 Pryor Street, Kimball House.

ALBERT HOWELL Ticket Agt, Union Fass, Depot. E. T. CHARLTON, General Passenger Agent.

AUTOGRAPHS. SEND FOR A SAMPLE COPY OF THE COLLECTOR, thly journal devoted to autographs.

W. R. BENJAMIN,
5 East 17th St., New York City
est dealers in autograph letters in America

Purify Your Blood

Good health depends upon pure blood; therefore, to keep well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys, and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired, and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system. to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action, also, upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system all humors, impure particles, and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys, and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired, and debilitated organs, invigorates the nervous system, tones the digestion, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body. A peculiarity of while it eradicates disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me ever so much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon I felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is vore. felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." Mrs. M. V. Bayard, Atlantic City, N. J.

N. B.—Be sure to get

"I keep Hood's Sarsaparilla in my home all the time and would not be without it for anything. It is all, and more, than is claimed for it." J. W. Durand, Quitman, Nordaway County, Mo.

Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

onvinced of its peculiar merit.

"Hood's Barsaparilla has driven the poison from my blood, and though 76, I feel active and strong as at 50," W. H. GROESBECK, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Spring Medicine

100 Doses One Dollar

SECURITY INVESTMENT COMPANY.

The Georgia Security Investment Company OF ATLANTA, GA.

CAPITAL - $50,000.00

W. R. HAMMOND, Secretary, HALL & HAMMOND, Attorneys, L. J. HILL, President. JOHN KEELY, Vice President.

DIRECTORS.

W. R. HAMMOND.

We wish to SELL NOTES running FIVE YEARS from date, with interest at 7 PER CENT, payable ANNUALLY. They are SECURED by IMPROVED REAL ESTATE worth at least two and one-half times amount advanced, and THEIR PAYMENT GUARANTEED by THIS COMPANY. Parties having money to invest will consult their interest by addressing 1. J. HILL, President, Atlanta, Ga.

LIME, CEMENT AND COAL.

Terra Cotta Stove Flue, absolutely fire proof; Terra Cotta Chimney Tops and Stove Thimbles.

THE SOUTHERN GRANITE COMPANY, QUARRIES AT LITHONIA, GA.

General Contractors in Granite

We take pleasure in announcing that we are now prepared to furnish estimates upon the finest quality of Lithonia

For any and all purposes, especially in the line of FINE ARCHITECTURAL

MONUMENTAL AND STREET PAVING WORK

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND ESTIMATES WILL BE PROMPTLY FURNISHED. BRANCH OFFICE:
19-20 Wiggins Block,
CINCINNATI. PRINCIPAL OFFICE:
20 Kimball House,
jan14-d8m

RAILROAD SCHEDULE.

CENTRAL RAILROAD of GEORGIA

8:20 am 8:45 pm 4:05 pm 11:20 em † 7:08 pm * 4:58 pm 10:22 am 10:20 pm 4:47 pm 11:50 pm † 7:25 pm * 5:35 pm 4:10 pm 4:58 pm 11:50 pm 11:50 pm 7:35 pm 8:30 pm 11:50 pm 4:50 pm 11:50 pm 4:50 pm 11:50 pm 4:50 pm 11:05 pm 4:50 am 11:05 pm 4:50 am 5:00 pm 6:15 am

Passengers for Carrollton, Thomaston, Perry, Fort Gaines, Talbotton, Buena Vista, Blakeley, Clayton Ala., Sylvania, Sandersville, Wrightsville, Eatonton, Milledgeville, should take the 6:50 a.m. train from eave Montgomery via Eufaula. 5:40 pm 7:15 am 1:15 pm 10:35 pm + 8:15 am * 9:50 am + 1:40 pm

Sleeping Cars on all night trains between Atlanta and Savannah, Savannah and Macon, Savannah Augusta Atlanta and Albany.

Through car between Atlanta and Columbus via Griffin.

Tickets for all points and Sleeping Car berth tickets on sale at Union Depot ticket office, in Atlanta, CLYDE BOSTICK, Passenger Agent.

D. W. APPLER, General Agent.

ALBERT HOWELL, Union Ticket Agent, E. T. CHARLTON, Gen. Pass. Agent, SavannahGa.

W.A. HEMPHILL, President. JACOB HAAS, Cashier CAPITAL CITY BANK

OPEN EVERY DAY UNTIL 2, AND Open on Saturdays and Mondays Until 7p. m. Drafts issued on England, Germany, France and all parts of Europe at lowest market rates. DRESSMAKING.

MISS A. VAN DUSEN

Wraps and Costumes DRESSMAKING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES 62 West 46th St., NEW YORK.

QUICKEST ROUTE

COLUMBUS

Atlanta & West Point R. R. FARE ONLY $2.90!

And corresponding reduction to Union Springs,"

Troy and Enfaula. ONLY INE running solid trains Atlanta to Co-

ONLY LINE running double daily trains Atlanta to ONLY LINE over which trains can be run Atlanta to Columbus in 4 hours and 20 min-

Leave Atlanta 6:45 a. m. and 2 p. m. CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL, Gen'l Pass, Agen IMPORTANT

To Florida Tourists and Settlers

The Florida Railway and Navigation Co

MAKES DAILY CONNECTION WITH THE USE S. F. & W. fast mail train at Callahan (connection sure) and with all other trains at Jacksonville, leaving the latter place at 9:00 a. m., 12:20 p. m., and 8:30 p. m., for all points in south Florida, viz: Hawthorne, Gainesville, Cedar Key, Silver Springs, Blue Springs, Ocala, Wildwood, Pannsofikee, St. Catherines, Owensboro, Dade City, Plant City, Tampa, Bartow, PuntaGorda, Leesburg, Eldorade, Tawaras, Bartow, Pintagorda, Leesburg, Eldorade, Tawaras, Bartow, Pintagorda, Leesburg, Eldorade, Tawaras, Bartow, Pintagorda, Leesburg, Eldorade, Tawaras, Anopka, Orlando, Titusville and the Indian river country. The only line west coast of Florida, viz: Through Cedar Key, Lacoochee, Plant City and Orlando. The most beautiful and picturesque portions of the state are traversed by this line. Hundreds of bearing orange groves are passed and seen from the cara. The lovely lakes of Lochiosa, Orange, Harris, Griffin, Eustis, Dora, Panasofikee and Apopka are located on this line. The only line reaching most of the points named, 2nd close and direct connections made to all others. The famous Silver spring, the head of the Ocklawaha river, can only be reached all rail via this line. The short and direct route to the beautiful Homosassa country, abounding in fish and game, and passing Blue Springs, the reached all rail via this line. The short and direct route to the beautiful Homosassa country, abounding in fish and game, and passing Blue Springs, the head of the Weklya (Blue river). The only line to Fernandina, with its celebrated beach of twenty-two miles' drive, and only thirty-six miles from Jacksonville, three daily trains. The only line to Tallahassee, the capital of the state, Madison, Monticello and Quincy. Florida's great tobacco industries are located on this division of the F. R. & N. In fact, there is hardly an important point in the state not reached by this great trunk line system. First-cass road beds and excellent train service. Through tickets at low rates and baggage checked to all points. points.

Don't fail to send for elegant indexed township map of Florida. For any information regarding rates and routes, inquire of any of the company's agents or the following officers:

agents or the following omeers:

Jacksoville Ticket Office, 86 Bay st.
D. E. MAXWELL,
A. O. MACDONELL,
G. P. A. Gen. Supt.

INSURANCE AGENTS,

No. 6 1-2 Whitehall street, - - - Atlanta, Ga. TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS—I HAVE associated with me my son, Ben Hill Thompson, under the firm name of "Edgar Thompson & Son," and propose to build up a

PERMANENT INSURANCE business for the benefit of my family, In changing from one firm to another, and from company to company, I have let many of my expirations escape me. If you will kindly notify me when the policies expire, I will appreciate the kindness by placing your insurance where I will guarantee your interests will be protected and prompt settlements made in case of loss. Our companies are

Sun Fire Office, of England, assets over $00,000,000. Merchants, of N. J., assets over $1,200,000. Hibernia, of N. O., assets $51 Very truly, El

A little higher in price, but of unrivalled quality.

LADIES

PEERLESS DYES! THEY WILL DYE EVERYTHING. THE ARE sold everywhere. Price 10c a package. 40 colors. They have no equal for Strength, Brightness, Amount in Packages or for Fastness of Color, or on fading Qualities. They do not crock or smut. For ale by M. B. Avary & Co., and all Druggs ts. JUDICIOUS AND PERSISTENT uccessful. Before placing any Tewspaper Advertising consult LORD & THOMAS, ADVERTISING AGENTS, 45 to 49 Randolph Street, CHICACO. STOPPED FREE Adarvelous success.

Do Your Own Dyeing at Home With

Insune Parsons Restored
Dr. KLINE'S GREAT
NERVE RESTORES.
Outs use for Nerve Affections, Fits, Epichys, the PALLERE if taken as directed. No Fits after the day's use. Treathe and Sc trial bottle free at patients, they paying expressionings can box when

ELECTRIC RESORT.

TESTIMONIALS Wonderful Cures

Natural Electricity

ELECTRIFIED WATER

ELECTRIC HEALTH RESORT HILLMAN, TALIAFERRO COUNTY, GA.

While a great deal has been published about GREAT GEORGIA WONDER

The half has not been told of the SPEEDY AND PERMANENT RELIEF

Afforded to many who have suffered from Rheumatism!

> Kidney Diseases! Insomnia! Dyspepsia!

Loss of Appetite! Nervous Prostration! General Debility

Diseases Peculiar to Women!

Prof. J. R. Blake, Sr., of Greenwood, S. C.

Prof. J. R. Blake, Sr., of Greenwood, S. Crecently visited the resort, and gives the result of his observations in the following extract clipped from the Greenwood Tribune:

The curative value of the place for some diseases is very remarkable. Rheumatism, dyspepsia, paralysis and some forms of nervousness were signally relieved in individuals coming under my personal observation; one young man from McCormick, S. C., who had been prostrated for seventeen months by deranged digestion, was thoroughly cured, gaining eighteen pounds in one month. An elderly gentleman from Penfield, Ga., who had been partially paralyzed on one side for eight years, arrived at the shaft in the same hack with myself. His right hand was disabled, and he walked with great difficulty when he arrived, but after six days in the shaft he could write letters to his family, and walked with comparative case about the grounds. Many such cases are reported by reliable persons familiar with the history of the place.

Now as to the remedial agencies at work in effecting these wonderful cures, I must speak with more caution. A very common impression prevailing at a distance is that the relief afforded partakes of the nature of the "faith cures" of which we hear so much; but no one can remain long at the place without being convinced that this hypothesis is indefensible. In many cases cures come to the incredulous, and in spite of all the laws of faith. The prevailing theory among the vis.tors at the shaft is that the effect is produced from electricity derived from the walls and earth floor of the rooms. To test this belief in some practical form I made the following experiment: Two No. 16 copper wires, each 12 feet long, were insorted into the walls and earth floor of the rooms. To test this belief in some practical form I made the following experiment: Two No. 16 copper wires, each 12 feet long, were insorted into the walls and earth floor of the rooms. To test this belief in some practical form I made the following experiment: Two No. 16 copper w in identifying the sensation derived from the wires with the sensation given by the walls. There is much difficulty still remaining in this problem, as to the origin of the electricity, the irregular fitful way in which it acts, and many other points suggested by the abnormal conditions of the case.

Among the remedial agencies at work, the excellent mineral water cannot be everlooked, indeed, I was at first disposed to ascribe all the cures chiefly to this agent, which is obtained in abundance from pumps in the corners of the shafts, and freely used by the patients.

WASHINGTON, Ga., January 23, ISSS.—Mr.
James A. Benson, President: I certify that for ten years I have been a great sufferer with rheumatism, which became very much aggravated in the last two or three years. At times
I was confined to my bed and house; was unable to walk without crutches, and was compelled to give up all work. My sufferings were intense. I applied to different doctors for relief, but experienced none from their treatment. Last summer I visited the Electric Health Resort at Hillman, and after staying there awhile and drinking the Electric Waters, my rheumatism was entirely cured, and I have there awhile and drinking the Electric Waters, my rheumatism was entirely cared, and I have not had the slightest return of it. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the great healing properties of this wonderful place and its waters, and nothing that I could say would too strongly express my confidence in its virtues.

Edward Bonner.

EDWARD BONNER.

WASHINGTON, Ga., January 19.—Mr. James A. Benson, Fresident: I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the remarkable virtues of the Electric Health Resort. My little daughter, Bessie, 10 years old, had an attack of a very serious nature, affecting her neck, in June last.

Alarmed at her condition, I had her treated by the most skillful physicians in this place and Atlanta, who used artificial electricity and other remedies. In September she was still suffering, and no change perceptible, when, as a last resort, we went to the electric shaft. She only went twice. The first visit improved her, and the second night she remained all night in the rooms, and came home completely restored and has remained so.
Those are facts, and I state them with no other object than to inform others suffering as did my little girl of the wenderful virtues of this resort.

Mr. B. F. Brown: Dea Sir—This certides that during last May I was stricken with severe nervous prostration, was confined to my room for three months, and to my bed for the greater part of the time. About the 20th of August I went to the "Hillman Shaft" (Electric Resort,) and after spending four days there found that I was completely cured, and have been entirely well ever since thon. The cure in my case was a great wonder to me and my friends, and I am a strong believer in the virtues of the place.

(Signed)

MRS. J. K. DURST,
Greenwood, S. C.

January 23, 1883. For any further information address B. F. BROWN, wed fri sun n r m

Manager.

LOTTERY DRAWING.

Prepared only Dollar

npany

50,000.00

c'y Trens. & Gen. M'gr

pared to onia . . .

WORK.

INNATI.

RGIA ctro

am † 1:10 pm in Atlanta

7 p. m and all

MISS A. VAN DUSEN

DRESSMAKING.

Wraps and Costumes DRESSMAKING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES 62 West 46th St., NEW YORK,

QUICKEST ROUTE

COLUMBUS -VIA-

Atlanta & West Point R. R. FARE ONLY $2.90!

And corresponding reduction to Union Springs, ONLY INE running solid trains Atlanta to Co-ONLY LINE running double daily trains Atlanta to ONLY LINE over which trains can be run Atlanta to Columbus in 4 hours and 20 min-

Leave Atlanta 6:45 a, m. and 2 p. m. CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL, Gen'l M'g'r. IMPORTANT

To Florida Tourists and Settlers

The Florida Railway and Navigation Co

MAKES DAILY CONNECTION WITH THE S. F. & W. fast mail train at Callahan (connection sure) and with all other trains at Jacksonville, leaving the latter place at 9:00 a.m., 12:20 p. m., and 8:30 p. m., for all points in south Florida, viz: Hawthorne, Gainesville, Cedar Key, Silver Springs, Blue Springs, Ocala, Wildwood, Panssofikee, St. Catherines, Owensboro, Dade City, Plant City, Tumpa, Bartow, PuntaGorda, Leesburg, Eldorado, Tavares, Aropka, Oriando, Titusville and the Indian river country. The only line glying a choice of three routes to points on the west coast of Florida, viz: Through Cedar Key, Lacocchee, Plant City and Oriando, The most beautiful and picturesque portions of the state are traversed by this line. Hundreds of bearing orange groves are I assed and seen from the cars. The lovely lakes of Lochlosa, Orange, Harris, Griffin, Eustis, Dora, Panasofikee and Apopka are located on this line. The only line reaching most of the points named, and close and direct connections made to all others. The famous Silver Spring, the head of the Ocklawaha river, can only be reached all rail via this line. The short and direct route to the beautiful Homossasa country, abounding in itsh and game, and passing Blue Springs, the head of the Wekiva (Blue river). The only line to Fernandina, with its celebrated beach of twenty-two miles' drive, and only thirty-six miles from Jacksonville, three daily trains. The only line to Tallahassee, the capital of the state, Madison, Monticello and Quincy. Florida's great tobacco industries are located on this division of the F. R. & N. In fact, there is hardly an important point in the state not reached by this great trunk line system. First-ciass road beds and excellent train service. Through tokets at low rates and baggage checked to all points.

EDGAR THOMPSON & SON

INSURANCE AGENTS.

No. 61-2 Whitehall street, - - - Atlanta, Ga. TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS—I HAVE associated with me my son, Ben Hill Thompson, under the firm name of "Edgar Thompson & Son," and propose to build up a PERMANENT

INSURANCE business for the benefit of my family. In changing from one firm to another, and from company to company, I have let many of my expirations escape me. If you will kindly notify me when the policies expire, I will appreciate the kindness by placing your insurance where I will guarantee your interests will be protected and prompt settlements made in case of loss. Our companies are Sun Fire Office, of England, assets over $00,000,000, Merchants, of N. J., assets over $1,200,000.

Hibernia, of N. O., assets $517,400.

Very truly, EDGAR THOMPSON.

"Wilcox's Compound Tanay Pil" worthless nostrum said to be "just as good," but sen particulars and receive the only absolutely relis
by mail. WILCOX SPECIFIO CO.. Phillse

A little higher in price, but of unrivalled quality.

FINEST IN THE WORLD."

LADIES

Do Your Own Dyeing at Home With

PEERLESS DYES! THEY WILL DYE EVERYTHING, THE ARE sold everywhere. Price 10c a package. 40 coldons. They have no equal for Strength, Brightness, Amount in Packages or for Fastness of Color, ornon-fading Qualities. They do not crock or snut. For ale by M. B. Avary & Co., and all Drugget is.

JUDICIOUS AND PERSISTENT Advertising has always proven LORD & THOMAS, ADVERTISING AGENTS,

ELECTRIC RESORT.

Wonderful Cures

Natural Electricity

ELECTRIFIED WATER AT THE-

ELECTRIC HEALTH RESORT HILLMAN, TALIAFERRO COUNTY, GA.

While a great deal has been published about

GREAT GEORGIA WONDER

SPEEDY AND PERMANENT RELIEF

Afforded to many who have suffered from Rheumatism! Kidney Diseases!

Insomnia! Dyspepsia!

Diseases Peculiar to Women! Loss of Appetite! Nervous Prostration!

Prof. J. R. Blake, Sr., of Greenwood, S. C.

. General Debility

Prof. J. R. Blake, Sr., of Greenwood, S. Crecently visited the resort, and gives the result of his observations in the following extract clipped from the Greenwood Tribune:

The curative value of the place for some diseases is very remarkable. Bhoumatism, dyspepsia, paralysis and some forms of nervousness were signally relieved in individuals coming under my personal observation; one young man from McCormick, S. C., who had been prostrated for seventeen months by de-

BILL ARP

Has Something to Say on the Tariff Question.

Randall and Carlisle are the "Biggest Boys in the School," and They and Their Followers Will Fight it Out.

We are tired-very tired. We want some protection against the tariff. We want a little time to rest and digest. The people are torn all to pieces and no two are alike in their views. In fact, there is hardly any one alike. I am not alike myself and I believe I had rather pay my part and take a receipt and quit. The whole thing is in a tangle. The Constitution interviewed six men the other day and they all differed. If the differences were small we could compromise, but they are not. I believe that the politicians are making more fuss than the people. If you want to hear argument just circulate around these people who haven't got anything else to do. Get about three lawyers and two editors and one doctor and two or three gentlemany loafers together, and they will make the fur fly from the tariff. But it takes a candidate for the leg-islature to illuminate it. I overheard one talkislature to illuminate it. I overheard one talking to some farmers today and I couldn't tell which side he was on. He said "if" and "provided" and "however" so often that I was reminded of old Squire McGinnis who charged the jary that "if the cow was on the track in the train's time, or the train was on the track in the cow's time, then they must find for the cow, provided they could reconcile the evidence, and if they believed the lawyer on the cow's side, or the lawyer on the train's side, or nary one or both just as they pleased, then in on any one or both just as they pleased, then in that case they should find for the cow. But if the cow broke out of the paster with malice aforethought and jumped the track in front of the bullgine, then they must find for the cow—and my costs are two dollars and thirty-one and a quarter cents."

The propule who work hard for a living -and my costs are two dollars and thirty-one and a quarter cents."

The people who work hard for a living hiven't got time to fool with the tariff. They lose more than they make by it. I knew a man over in Rome who lost a whole week running about town trying it have a man beaten for mayor because he was in favor of building an academy and taxing the neople to pay for it. He just quit his work and cavorted about, saying it would ruin the hard working people to pay so much tax. I figured up his part and it was just forty-five cents, and so I gave him a half dollar and told him to hush. Cobe says he don't know nothin' about the dogon thing no how, and he don't 'keer,' and he thanks the Lord every night that he is out of jail. The rich folks who want to get richer seem very much concerned for fear the wages of the poor laborers will come down. I like that. It shows their humanity, their sympathy. I reckon that is the reason Mr. Candler is so mad about the reduction on marble. He is afraid that marble company over in Cherokee will cut down the wages of the men who are at work at the quarries.

I wonder if we hadent better let the whole thing alone and let that surplus get bigger and bigger and divide it out among the states. Just let the money go round and round like the rivers run into the sea and the sea evaporates into clouds and the clouds send down the rain and keep the rivers going all the time. Georgia would get about five millions a year that way and it would build a good school house at every cross roads and pay the teachers and work all the roads and build all the bridges. There are so many different interests all over the vast country that we can never harmonize on a tariff bill, but we could agree on a division clipsed from the freeword Trillion of some diseases is very conscibile. Hermatism of the common the following of the property of the property and slow, Tom Moore's beautiful lines came to me, and I almost murmared

"I feel like one who treads alone Some banquet hail—descred— Whose lights are feel; whose garlands dead; And all but me departed."

Mhose ights are Sed; whose garlands deau;
And all but me departed."

How small the world is to him—how old and shrunken. How few are his wants—the tariff does not trouble him, and it will not trouble any of us long.

But still we are troubled about the split and the dissensions in our party. The republicans are rejoicing over the tangle. They couldent make a tariff if they had the power and I wish our boys would turn them loose and let them try, just to see the fun. They would quarrel over it worse than we are doing, but they can agree on fighting and denouncing everything we do. Then let us quit fussing and agree on something and do it if the world comes to an end. Our people up here in north Georgia are not mad at all, for the bill as reported, dont hurt our iron industries. So let it pass and pass quick before some feller tacks on an amondment that will lurt us. Bill Arr. Ingalis is sorry he spoke. From the New York Graphic.

The indications are that Mr. Ingalls made the greatest mistake of his life in that ill-advised speech on Tuesday. Until that tirade came from his lip: he was re-garded as standing an equal of a see for the presi-dential results of the presidents.

dential nomination with Sherman, Hiscock, Hawley and all the dark horses.

Now he is out of the race entirely.

That is what his friends say, and his friends ought to know. They deplore the fact that he should have made such a bitter attack on the southern people, and at the same time made such a palpable bid for the nomination by appealing to the sentiment and war memories of the Graud Army of the Republic. It was an insult to the intelligence of these veterans. They saw through the subterfuge at once, and it looks as if they will resent it in a way that Mr. Ingalis is sorry he spoke.

To Meet a Long-Felt Want.

From the Springfield Republican.

The latest inventor of a new word to take the place of the awkward "his or her" is Professor J. W. Dozier, of a college at Hamilton, Ga. It is taken directly from the Latin, being simply "se," which, in that language, stands for either himself, herself, or itself, and may be inflected with exact correspondence with 'he," namely, nominative se possessive sis, objective sim. Professor Dozier has hit it; this is by far the best word suggested. Now let us see the scholars popularize it.

Going to See the Right Man.

From the Boston Courier.

"I hope I don't disturb you, madame," he sald, as he was squeezing past her to go out between the acts.

"Not at all, sir," she answered, with a charming smile; "not at all. I am pleased to see you going out. My husband keeps the saloon nearest the

The Result of Merit.

When anything stands a test of fifty years among a discriminating people, it is pretty good evidence that there is merit somewhere. Few, if any, medicines have met with such continued success and popularity as has marked the progress of Brandreth's Pills, which, after a frial of over fifty years, are conceded to be the safest and most effectual blood purifier, tonic and alterative ever introduced to the public. . That this is the result of merit, and that Brandreth's Pills per-form all that is claimed for them, is conclusively proved by the fact that those who regard them with the greatest favor are those who have used them the longest. . Brandreth's Pills are sold in every drug and medicine store, nov-sn wky top col or fol r m For 15 years at 37 Court Place, now at 322 Market Street, Innigville Ky either plain or sugar-coated.

Bet. Third and Fourth,

A ragularly educated and logally qualified physician and the most successful, as his practice will prove.

Cures all forms of PRIVATE,

CHRONIC and SEXUAL DIS.

EASES.

Spermatorrhea and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes. Sentinal Emissions, (arght emissions by draman), Dimeas of Eight, Deceive Memory, Physical Dreasy, Pimples on Face, Aversion to Society of Females, Consiston of Ideas, Loss of Sexual Power, &c., rendering marriage improper or unhappy, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Sy PHILL 18, cultivaly cured and eatirely eradicated from the asystem: Gonorrhea, GLEET, Stricture, Orebital, Bernia, (or kopture), Fles and celler put that a phy sician who pays special attention to a certain class of diseases, and treating thousands annality, acquires great skill. Physicians knowing this fact often recommend persons to my care. When it is inconvenient to visit the city for treatment, medicines can be east privately and ashy by mail or express anywher.

Cures Guaranteed in all Cases undertaken.

Consulations personally or by letter free and lavited. Charges reasonable and correspondence strictly confidential.

PRIVATE COUNSELOR.

PRIVATE COUNSELOR

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE GENTLEMEN.

The only fine calf $3 Seamless Shoe in the world made without tacks or nails. As stylish and durable as those costing $5 or $6, an $ having no tacks or nails to wear the stocking or hurt the feet, makes them as comfortable and well-fitting as a land sewed shoe. Buy the best. None genuine unless stamped on bottom "W. L. Douglas $3 Shoe, warranted."

warranted.

W. L. DOUGLAS 84 SHOE, the original and only hand sewed welt $4 shoe, which equals custom-made shoes costing from $6 to $9.

W. L. DOUGLAS 82.50 SHOE is unexcelled for heavy west.

W. L. DOUGLAS 32 SHOE is worn by all Boys, and is the best school shoe in the world.

All the above goods are made in Concress, Button and Lace, and if not sold by your dealer, write W.L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. G. H. & A. W. FORCE, Agents, G. W. PRICE, Agent, Atlanta.

The Seven Cuticura Boys

These seven beautiful boys owe their beauty of I These seven beautiful boys owe their beauty of skin, luxuriance of hair, purity of blocd, and freedom from hereditary taint of humors of the skin or scalp to the celebrated CUTICURA REMIDIES.

For cleansing, purifying and beautifying the skin of children and infants, and curing torturing, disfiguring, itching, scaly and pimply diseases of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to old age, CUTICURA, the great skin cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite skin beautifier, prepared from it, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally, are infallible. new Blood Purifier, internally, are infallible.

Your most valuable CUTICUEA REMEDIES have done my child so much good that I feel like saying his for the ben fit of those who are troubled with skin disease. My little girl was troubled with Eczema, and I tried several doctors and medicines, but did not do her any good until I used the CUTICUEA REMEDIES, which speedily cured her, for which I owe you many thanks and many nights of rest. I owe you many thanks and many pights of rest. ANTON BOSSIMER, Edinburgh, Ind.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are in great demand.
The CUTICURA RESOLVENT sells better than any other blood purifier. The CUTICURA SOAP is praised by my customers, especially mothers, who say it is the best for babies, preventing and curing scall head and similar diseases.
GEORGE HOBBS, P. M., Collins, Texas.

Offices, Conservatories, etc. BY HOT-WATER CIRCULATION.

SELLING AGENCIES.—M. H. JORSSON, 140 Centre St., N. Y.; RICE & WHITACRE MFG. Co., 42 and 44 W. Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.; T. R. Chase, 31 Edmund Place, Detroit, Mich.; WILLIAM GARDINER & Co., Portland, Oregon; J. L. Frisbir, 529 Fhila St., Covington, Ky.

It pays to do work early.

Send for new illustrated descriptive Catalogue, free.

IRON ROOFING.

TERRECEEENTED ATTRACTION I CAPITAL PRIZE, $300,000 Louisiana State Lottery Company Incorporated by the Legislature in 1805, for Educational and Charitable purposes, and its franchise made a part of the present State Constitution, in 1879, by an overwhelming popular vote.

Its Grand Single Number Drawings take place monthly, and the Grand Cuarterly Drawings regularly every three months
(March, June, September and December.) "We do bereby certify that we supervise the ar rangements for all the Monthly and Quarterly Drawings of The Louisiana State Lottery Company, and in person manage and control the Drawings themsoives, and that the same are conducted with honesty, fairness, and in good faith toward all par-ties, and we authorize the Company to use this cer-tificate, with fac-similes of our senatures attached,

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong lininguits. and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the RESOLVENT about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady.

H. E. RYAN, Cayuga. Livingston Co., Ill.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this fourth day of January, 1857.

C. N. COE, J. P.

Sold everywhere. Price: CUTICUEA, 50c; SOAP,

25c; Resolvent, $1. Prepared by the Potter Daug And Chemical Co., Boston, Mass. ♣3 Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustratious, and 100 testimonials.

Private Dwellings, Public Buildings,

Saves 25% in Fuel.

ven Temperature.

Noiceless.

Non-explosive.

Gents,—Regarding the No. 25 Gurney Heater which you placed in my residence last fall. I have to say that Lam well pleased with its working and would not know how to get along without I. I know of no other Heater that would take its place, as I have tried two other styles, and speak from experience.

Yours respectfully.

Styles, and speak from experience.

We L LAMPMAN, CATSKILL, N. Y., March 5, 1887. GURNEY HOT-WATER HEATER CO., 237 FRANKLIN ST., BOSTON, MASS.

We the undersigned Banks and Bankers will pay all Prizes drawn in The Louisiana State Lotteries which may be presented at our counters. J. H. OGLESBY, Pres. Louisiana Nat'l Bk. PIERRE LANAUX, Pres. State Nat'l Bk. A. BALDWIN. Pres. New Orleans Nat'l Bk. CARL KOHN, Pres. Union National Bank. GRAND QUARTERLY DRAWING CAPITAL PRIZE, $300,000.
100,000 Tickets at Twenty Dollars each.
Halevs $10; Quarters $5; Tenths $2; Twentieths $1. 1 PRIZE OF $500,000 is.....

1 PRIZE OF $800,000 is.

1 PRIZE OF 100,000 is.

1 PRIZE OF 50,000 is.

1 PRIZE OF 50,000 is.

2 PRIZES OF 1,000 are.

5 PRIZES OF 5,000 are.

50 PRIZES OF 5,000 are.

100 PRIZES OF 500 are.

200 PRIZES OF 500 are.

500 PRIZES OF 500 are.

4PROXIMATION PRIZES.

100 Prizes of $500 approximating to $500,000 Prize are.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES. APPROXIMATION PRIZES.
100 Prizes of $500 approximating to $500,000 Prize are. $300,000 Prize are 100 Prizes of $300 approximating to $100,006 Prize are
100 Prizes of $200 approximating to $60,000 Prize are
$60,000 Prize are
$1,000 Prizes of $300 decided by $500,000
$100 Prizes of $300 decided by $500,000 prizes of $300,000 prizes of

I,000 Prize of $100 decided by ......$100,000 Prize are.....

or M. A. DAUPHIN, Washington, D. C.

Address Registered Lefters to NEW ORLEANS NATIONAL BANK.
REMEMBER That the presence of denerals for the barge of the drawings, is a guarantee of absolute fairness and integrity, that the chances are all equal, and that no one can possibly divine what number will draw a Prize. will draw a Prize.

REMEMBER that the payment of all Prizes is GUARANTEED BY FOUR NATIONAL BANKS of New Orleans, and the Tickets are signed by the President of an Institution, when the prize of the President of any institutions of courts; therefore, beware of any institutions or support of the prize schemes.

Printing Material For Sale.

OR SALE-All that elegant outfit with which the 1,200 pounds minion body type, Cincinnati Type 1,200 pounds infinite and the Foundry.

About 1,000 pounds brevier body type, Cincinnati
Type Foundry:

About 400 pounds nonpariel body type, Cincinnati Foundry.

About 100 pounds pica body type, Cincinnati

About 100 pounds possible from dry.
About eighty pounds long primmer body type, Cincinnati Foundry.
Primmer body type, Cincinnati Foundry.
Primmer body type, Cincinnati Foundry.
Prity-four fouts newspy per display type, from four line pica to noupariel, well assorted.
Stands, stones, galleys, cases, etc., complete.
The above material was bought new and has been in use only a short while.
Write for prices. Address.

THE LAND OF FLOWERS, OF ORANGE GROVES,
OF PERPETUAL SUMMER! HEALTHY, PROSPEROUS, DELICHTFUL! NATURE'S SANITARIUM! THE GRANDEST COLONIZATION ENTERPRISE EVER OFFERED

THE PEOPLE'S HOMESTEAD CO. Offers you a Beautiful House Lot, Cottage Site or Orange Grove FREE WARRANTY DEED, FREE OF INCUMBRANCE. TITLE PERFECT. LAND AND LOCATION UNEXCELLED

After you have received your bond, if you will fill it out its full name complying with its provisions and return us, we will then execute and forward to you a WAR ANTY DEED which makes you absorpts owner for ex. No charge w hatever is made for the furrant bed Option Hond, but we require all to sense, when a seal of the Hond, but we require all to sense, when a seal on the contract of the contra

*CLIMATE AND HEALTH. *

WARRANTY DEED, FREE OF INCUMBRANCE.

TITLE PERFECT.

LAND AND LOCATION UNEXCELLED

MARION CO., FLORIDA, ten miles from Ocala, in Marion County, Florida, 187, feet above the sea level, and consisting of high, dry, relling, fer dile pine land, free from wet spots, it is ultimated ownershing of high, dry, relling, fer dile pine land, and value of all this land by large and diversified ownershing the Company propose to give and the value of all this land by large and diversified ownershing, the Company propose to give and sever the original property in cottage sites, and five, ten, twenty and forty acc tracts, suitable for orange grove and vegetable culture, and it is an individual think $5,000 no extraordinates and five in the suitable for orange grove and vegetable culture, and it is an individual think $5,000 no extraordinates and sever in the suitable for orange grove and vegetable culture, and it is all single for the least of about one of the following tracts as opening the following tracts are posted of the follo

THE PEOPLE'S HOMESTEAD CO.

LEROY MARION GOUNTY, FLORIDA.

MONEY LOANED, This Company is prefor improvements for improvements are located in and around LERBY,

REFERENCES. ROBERT BULLOCK, County Clerk, Ocala, Fla.; T. W. HARRIS, Editor Rural Free Press, Ocala; FRANK

BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

It is proved from the Company, giving five brown business men:

REFERENCES. ROBERT BULLOCK, County Clerk, Ocala, Fla.; T. W. HARRIS, Editor Rural Free Press, Ocala; FRANK

BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with the North River Bank, N. Y.

We do business with th and Change of Lite Invigorine regular A CO., Manufra, ATLANTA, GA.

KIDNEYS, AND BLOOD,

The Best Nutritive Tonic

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY For the Weak and Debilitated

INDORSED BY ALL PHYSICIANS, THROUGHOUT THE CIVILIZED WORLD.

This Malt Extract has remarkable nutritive action, both tonic and invigorating. As an aid to digestion it is wonderful in building up lost power.

Prof. PROSP. de PIETRA SANTA, Paris.

JOHANN HOFF, BERLIN, PARIS, VIENNA. New York, No. 6 Barclay Street. Beware of Fraudulent Imitations.—I have a suit pending in the Supr. Court of the U. S., against Tarrant & Co. of New York, who are selling another preparation under the same name. The UENUINE has the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck, and comes in flat souarty bottles with a German Label thereon. TAKE NO OTHER.

all diseases caused by any derangement of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, ous Complaints and Malaria of all kind system, restores and preserves health.

BURKLI litch

It is purely Vegetable, and cannot fail to brove beneficial, both to old and young s a Blood Purifier it is superior to all thers. Sold everywhere at $1.00 a bottle

In the Stud. WILKERSON.

Description: Dark manogany bay, foaled 1884; 153% bands, of the kindest disposition, with perfect action, great courage, very speedy and a model in style and finish; brod by Frank Maupin in Madison county, Ky. Will make the season of 1888, ending July 18t, at the stables of Cox, Hill & Walker, 26 West Hunter street, Atlanta, Ga. Limited to 30

West Hunter street, Atlanta, Ga. Limited to 30 mares.
Pedigree: Sired by Count Wilkes, (son of George Wilkes, the greatest trotting sire that has ever lived dam by Embry's Lexington; 2d dam by Walker' Wagner; 3d dam by Grey Eagle.
His sire, Count Wilkes, No. 460l, is one of the very best bred sons of the great George Wilkes; dam Jewel, winner of grand prize at St. Louis and the dam of Gambetta; record, 2:26 and The King, record, 2:36, and smile record of 7:35 by Gill's Vermont, No. 104, 2d dam by Cannon's Whip; 3d dam by imported fuzzard. The dam of Wilkerson is strictly thoroughbred and a poted mare in Kentucky. From her he inherits fluids and great endurance and he is a very desirable horse to mate with the mares of this section. Terms, 25:00 the scason; 25:00 insure. Strictly cash at time of service. Apply to
T. J. POLLARD, 43 Loyd St., of
B. F. WALKER, 26 W. Hunter St.

Receiver's Sale.

ATLANTA MACHINE WORKS AND FOUNDRY

NLESS SOONER DISPOSED OF, THE ABOVE works will, under the order of the Superior unt of Fulton county, and subject to confirmation the same, be sold to the highest bidder on WED-SDAY, the 28th DAY of MARCH, 1888, at 12

NESDAY, the 28th DAY of MARCH, 1888, at 12 o'clock noon upon the premises.

Lot of land, nearly two acres, only 800 yards from center of Atlanta, fronting on Hunter and King streets and the Georgia railroad, with spar tracks directly into the grounds. Largest works in Atlanta, commanding the trade of the entire South! The most complete plant in the south for manufacturing every variety of machinery, including engines, boilers, marble-cutting and gold-mining machinery, with other specialities, the demand for which is daily increasing. Substantial brick buildings with metal roofs. Apply soon for a bargain and easy payments. For full particulars address, W. H. SMYTH, Receiver.

PETER LYNCH,

95 Whitehall Street, ATLANTA, - - GEORGIA.

Retail Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Liquors ine Liquors and Wines for medicinal purposes a ciaity. Also bottled English Ale, Dublin Porter d Lagor Beer. Tobaccos, Cigars and Snuff, Guns d Ammunition; Pistols and Cartridges; also Field d Garden Seeds in their seasons; Glass and ockeryware, Boots and Shoes, and many other ooks too numerous to mention. A perfect Variety one. Terms cash. Prices as low as the lowest.

Tom and I sat by the cozy fire in my den, chatting over old times, and talking of our boyhood days.

It was a cold day in January, and though the wind was whistling shrilly without, yet within, all was comfort, and we laid back in within, all was comfort, and we laid back in our easy chairs, smoked our fragrant cigars, and thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.

After spinning out yarn after yarn, we sat for some time ruminating. Finally I said: "By the way, Tom, did I ever tell you about the trouble I once got into about my whiskers?" and I stroked them with a little pardonable pride, for I flatter myself they are a little above the average.

"Your whiskers? No, I don't know as you

"Your whiskers? No, I don't know as you ever did, tell me about it," and he lit a fresh cigar and settled himself comfortably.
"Well," I began, "one chilly morning in the latter part of November, just after I had turned twenty-one, (what a long time ago it seems) I was walking down Broadway, New York, thoughtfully stroking what little down there was on my upper lip and a few straggling hairs on my face, when I was accosted by Will Evans," (you remember him I added looking at Tom who nodded assent) "who said, 'Hello, old feliow! where are you bound for, so early in the morning?"

said, 'Hello, old fellow! where are you bound for, so early in the morning?''

"Bound for my office," I answered. "You see, Will, my father has set me up in business and I intend to get about it, quit loafing, and see if I can make a man of myself."

"And so you have started out by trying to grow some brushwood," he said, laughingly, giving a pull to one of the straggling hairs on my face.

ny face.

I was rather tender on that subject and so I I was rather tender on that subject and so I said, a little too shortly, perhaps, than the occasion demanded, "I bet you in six months' time I can have a better set of whiskers than you have right now, though you have been trying eight months at least."
"It's a bargain, Joe," he answered, "I'll bet with you, here, let's stop in Canton's office and draw up the sign something which I have in my mind's eye, and give it to old Canton to keep for us.

my mind's eye, and give it to old Canton to keep for us.

"All right," says I, and in we went. He sat down to a desk, and, taking a pen and ink, wrote on a slip of paper: "It is hereby agreed by Joe Randall and Will Evans that if either by Joe Randall and Will Evans that if either shave before the first of next April, the one so doing shall forfeit the right of accompanying Miss Stella Greyson to any place whatever between the time of shaving and the said first of April, and shall not give any reasons during that time for not doing so, besides making the other party a present of a thirty dollar suit of clothes."

"You see, Tom, I remember it word for word; if is indelibly impressed on my mind, but to go on."

but to go on."

Will handed me the paper. I read it rather dubiously, but seeing a sneering smile on his handsome face, I quickly decided I would do it, and without a word sat down and signed my mame to the paper.

We gave it into to Mr. Canton's keeping and parted for the day.

Misgivings kept thronging to my mind, but I worked them off, and went home that night resolved not to shave "come what would or go whet might" worked them off, and went home that night resolved not to shave "come what would or go what might."

Things went on smoothly enough for several days, though my sister May asked me "why I did not shave?" adding ingenuously "that I looked abominable."

That set me on my dignity and "I told her that I did not intend to shave, but I expected soon to turn out a fine set of whiskers."

She said nothing but lifted her hands in a way that expressed volumes.

About two days after that I was called out of the city on important business on which I was absent five weeks.

If I had not been obliged to returu, I verily believe I would have staid five weeks longer, rather than go home and face the battery of pleadings, scoldings and threats which I knew awaited me from my fastidious and fashionable sisters, on account of my whiskers, if so they might be designated; for they had grown after a fashion peculiarly their own. In some places there was nothing but down, such as you see on young ducks, while in others long straggly hairs were drooping gracefully downward, while at still other points on my highly adorned face, the hair was thick and bushy.

I took the scissors and viciously whacked off the long hairs, as there was no law against cutting it off, and, with as good a grace as I could command, started for home. The first thing that Mary said when I got in was, "Oh, look at the fright!"

And Grace absolutely refused to kiss me and wanted me to go right up-stairs to my room and shave.

I told, them "I wasn't going to do it," and then they commenced, they pleaded with me, "to please, for their sakes, to take them off;" they scolded me, said, "I looked fearfully ugly," (of which fact I was sadly conscious); they threatened me, said "I should not go out with them or any of their friends."

Moreover, my cup of misery was filled by the fact that Stella Greyson was coming there to dinner that Stella Greyson was coming there to dinner that day, and that the whole party were going to the opera in the evening; and I thought rushills dinner that day, and that the whole party were going to the opera in the evening; and I thought ruefully of the many things that would occur in the fashionable world between that time and the first of April, but I also thought of the consequences of shaving, and concluded that as I had made my bed so I must lie on it. I would have given up and have bought the suit of clothes, though at that time I could have ill afforded it, but it was the part about the girl that I didn't like.

I knew Will Evans as well as myself, was in love with Miss Stella, and saw then that that was the reason he had put that part in, he wanted to get me out of the way, the more so, as he had its idea she liked me the best, and he thought if I did shave, and according to our pledge, gave no explanation for slighting her, that he would get so well established in that time that I would have no chance.

"So you see old fellow what a pickle I was in."

"I think so," said Tom, nodding his head.

in."

"I think so," said Tom, nodding his head.
But I had rather a slim chance anyhow, for I looked so ugly that she was not very favorably impressed with me.

She came to dinner that day, and though the of course was too polite to make some impressed with me.

She came to dinner that day, and though she, of course, was too polite to make any remarks on the subject, still I could see that my cause had not gained any. A miserab'e time I had of it on that day, and for many days following. Every place I went I was tormented by outspoken words, or, still worse, by glances hard to be borne.

I avoided the presence of Will Evans, as much as possible, but would occasionally meet up with him, when he would ask me "If I was sick of my bargain?"

His whiskers, it is unnecessary to mention, were in a flourishing condition.

So I was tormented by day and harassed at night by dreams and nightmares, which left my eyes heavy and my countenance pale and made me ugier than ever. I was almost in despair and had nearly concluded to cut them off and abide by the consequences.

So I sat one night meditating on the pros and cons, trying to determine what to do; but I was so much in love that I couldn't make up my mind to banish myself from Miss Stella's presence as long as she would have anything at all to do with me.

I sat and thought and thought and thought till I nearly went distracted, till I was mad at myself for being such an idiot, mad, very mad at Will for getting me into such a scrape, and mad because I couldn't get out of it.

In this state of mind I went to bed. I weke up in the morning, not having remembered dreaming anything in particular. It was late when I awoke, so I got up and dressed hurriedly.

when I awoke, so I got up and dressed hurriedly.

I felt very singular about the face, I put my hands up and felt, to my intense surprise, my face was perfectly smooth. I rushed to the glass, a clean-shaved face met my gave.

My first thought was one of joy, that those detestable hairs were gone, but the thought came rushing to my mind, how did they, when did they go?

I tried the door, it was locked and bolted just as I had left it the night before. The windows were closed and fastened as the night was bitterly cold and the rooms had been well ventilated during the day.

How could they have disappeared?

Ah, I had it! some one was concealed in the room. I searched in vain for any trace.

Could it have been a—a ghost? I laughed at the foolish fear, but it was rather a nervous laugh.

looked at my shaving-pad, there was lather and those very shagrly hairs on it. I looked at my shaving-cup, it was clean as I always left it when through with it, and I knew then that I had used it in my sleep.

The mystery was now plain as day. I sometimes walked in my sleep. I knew, having been caught on the roof in that condition. I had gone to bed with my mind in a very wrought up state, and had done in my sleep what I had longed to do in my waking hours.

But then the thought came, will I be held responsible for unintentionally breaking my pledge? I thought of the man with whom I had to deal, and I felt that it was "as unchangeable as the law of the Medes and Persians."

When I went down to breakfast the next morning many were the exclamations with which I was greeted. They were all well pleased, of course, which was the only satisfaction I had had in weeks, but it was shortlived. I did not tell them the way I had shaved nor why I did not do so before.

As ill luck would have it, I met Will Evans that very day. He also was surprised—and pleased. "Why, hello, Joe! Given in after having held out so long; what's the matter?" I explained everything to him. He would not believe it, or said "he didn't." He said: "There it was in black and white; if we shaved, it didn't say anything about how."

I forked out the thirty dollars with a very good grace, considering my poverty. I was willing to pay that to get rid of the whiskers, but the other part, I didn't like that. I tried to beg off, saying: "It was a foolish bargain, foolishy made." He said, "a bargain was a bargain the world over, and your honor as a gentleman, Mr. Randall, will forbid your not keeping to it." With that he left me. What could I do? Just what I had promised; nothing more, nothing less.

And so day by day I was forced to see that "wound mystart." as I mentally styled him.

keeping to it." With that he left me. What could I do? Just what I had promised; nothing more, nothing less.

And so day by day I was forced to see that "young upstart." as I mentally styled him, take Miss Stella riding, skating, to the theater—every place, in fact, that he could. One consolation, she smiled sweetly upon me at first; so I knew that she really liked me; but as week after week went by and I, though always treating her well, very well, where accidentally thrown in her presence, never asked her to go to any place, I who had formerly been so eager for her company, of course she knew that something was the matter, and she gradually began to treat me coolly, until I could endure it no longer, and, packing up, went off on a trip. When I came back the first thing I heard was that Stella and Will were engaged, and were to be married the first of May.

"I thought you formerly had some intentions in that direction," said Grace, looking at me askance. I ground my teeth in rage, but made no answer at first; but, then, like a drowning man catching at a straw, I asked when did you say they were to be married?

"The first of May," she answered.

I immediately became cheerful, almost happy.

My lips were sealed only to the first of April,

happy.

My lips were sealed only to the first of April,
I would have a month in which to woo her I kept my face shaved clean, and went about

The my lace snaved clean, and went about my business.

The month sped by. I saw Will was looking uneasy. I could hardly wait. But the first of April came at last. The very first day, I sent a note to Miss Stella, asking her to let me call in the evening. I received a very polite note, to the effect that I could come. I was in extension.

I went early, and stayed late.

She received me cordially. I confessed the whole miserable business.

She laughed heartily at it, and at last I was

She laughed heartily at it, and at last I was forced to join in.

When she "had had her laugh out," so to speak, I told her of my love, and asked her if my case was hopeless, even though she was to be married in a month?

She said "it was not, and the next night we ran away and got married.

Will Evans was sadly left.

As I finished my story Tom goused up and asked me, "how I ever grew such fine whiskers afterwards?" I answered, "Oh, they came out all right two or three years afterwards, and I never look at them but that I think of the lesson which I learned so well, never make a bet."

EXAUSTED VITALITY A

Debility, Premature Decline, Errors of Youth, Exhausted Vitality, Lost Manhood, Impaired Vigor and Impuisties of the Blood and the untold miseries consequent thereon. Contains 800 pages, substantial embossed binding, full gilt. Warranted the best copular medical treatise published in the English language. Price only 81 by mail, postpaid, and concealed in a plain wrapper. Illustrated sample free if you send now.

Published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, No. 4 Bulfinch street, Boston, Mass. WM, H. PARKER, M. D., Consulting Physician, to whom all orders should be a d dressed.

Street, NEW YORK,

MARCH 2, 1888.

SAVED FROM THE FLAMES!

"Occupied by wood-workers, the immense building was filled with combustible mate-rial and the heat was intense, Our Herring's Safe was subjected to this severe trial. To-day it has been opened and we find the con-tents preserved."

JOHN LOCHNER

HERRING & CO., MANUFACTURERS. Nos. 251 & 252 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Best of All.

Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."— Etrest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fall. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.
"Six years ago I contracted a severe

Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without beneft, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."

— Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

THE GREAT PURIFIER FOR THE BLOOD

A POSITIVE CURE FOR SCROFULA RHEUMATISM, SCALDHEAD OR TETTER BOILS PIMPLES OLD OR CHRONIC SORES

of ALL KINDS AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD
$1 PER BOTTLE

FROM ROOT

RANGUM ROOT LINIMENT. IS THE BEST ON EARTH FTHIOPIAN PILE NEVER FAILS TO CURE

TINC TOR NEURALGIA SOLD EVERYWHERE RANGUM ROOT MED, G

- MASHVILLE TENN Asa G. Candler & Co,, Atlanta, Ga. David W. Curry, - - Rome, Ga. Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga

LUMBER

LONG LEAF YELLOW PINE

FLOORING, CEILING,

WEATHERBOARDING SHINGLES LATHS, MOULDINGS, ETC. HUDSON & DOBBS,

Cor. Hunter St. & CentralRR. TELEPHONE 1040.

ALL PERSONS intending to travel in EUROPE may obtain valuable information free by addressing E. TOURJEE, Boston, Mass. ARTISTS' MATERIAL, A. P. TRIPOD.

Paints, WINDOW GLASS. Artists Materials

A SPECIALTY. Agents for Anti-Kalsomine

The best and cheapest prepara-tion for finishings, walls and ceilings of dwellings, churches, stores, etc. Send for color cards, testi-45 Decatur Street, Atlanta, Ga. THE GEORGIA PACIFIC BAILWAY.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

The Most Splendidly Constructed and Equipped Line, Affording the Most Luxurious Traveling Accommodations East of the Mississippi River. The Direct Line to Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Missiouri, Kansas, Oregon Colorado, California and the Northwest.

	No. 50.	No. 52	No. 54.
Ly Atlanta, Ga. Pac	1 25 pm	11 00 pm	5 00 pm
Ar Taliapoosa, Ga. Pac	3 53 pm	1 30 am
Ar Anniston, Ga. Pac		3 09 am
Ar Birming'm, Ga. Pac		6 00 am
Ar Columbus, Ga. Pac.		1 25 pm
Ar Artesea, Ga. Pac		2 23 pm
Ar Starkesville, Ga. Pac		3 15 pm
No. 50.			No. 52.
Ly Birmingham11 00 pr		mingham
Ar Tuscaloosa12 48 an		mphis
Ar Meridian 4 00 an	Ar Spi	ingfield
Ar New Orleans 9 30 an		t Scott
Ar Jackson 8 05 an		nsas City.
Ar Vicksburg 10 30 an			- or pin
Ar Shreverort 8 15 pm		mphis	5 40 pm
Ar Dallas 6 55 an		lle Rock.	2 35 am
Ar Fort Worth 8 20 an		arkana
	. Ar Dal	las
		Worth

No. 50—Mann Boudour Sieeping Cars Atlanta to Shreveport and New Orleans, La.

No. 62—Mann Boudour Sleeping Cars Atlanta to Birmingham. Passenger Coaches Atlanta to Memphis without change. For further particulars address

A. A. VERNOY,
A. A. VERNOY,
A. A. VERNOY,
A. A. YERNOY,
A G. S. BARNUM, Gen. Pass. Agent. General Maager Birmingham, Ala.

THE GEORGIA RAILROAD.
GEORGIA RAILROAD COMPANY,
UPFICE GEN'L MANAGER,
AUGUSTA, GA., Sept. 17th 1887.

ATTrains run by 90th meridian time.

Leave Augusta
Leave Washington
Leave Athens
Leave Gaines-ille
Arrive Atlanta DAY PASSENGER TRAINS No. 2 EAST-DAILY. No. 1 WEST-DAILY.

NIGHT EXPRESS AND MAIL No. 4 EAST-DAILY. | No. 3 WEST-DAILY. Lv. Atlanta ....... 9 06 p m Lv. Augusta — .10 15 p m Ar. Augusta ....... 5 00 a m Ar. Atlanta ....... 6 30 a m DECATUR TRAIN—Daily except Sunday.

Lv. Atlanta 9 27 a m Lv. Decatur 9 45 a m Ar. Decatur 9 30 a m Ar. Atlanta 10 15 a m COVINGTON ACCOM'N—Daily except Sunday. MACON NIGHT EXPRESS—DAILY No. 81 WESTWARD. No. 32 EASTWARD.

CHATTANOOGA, ROME & COLUMBUS -0-TIME FABLE NO. 3.

In Effect November 22, 1887. South Bound. No. 1. | No. 3.

Rome
East Rome	6 30 am	2 80 pm
Holmes		2 40 pm
Holders	6 51 am	2 51 pm
Chambers		3 02 pm
New Bethel		3 15 pm
Summit		3 26 pm
Danaba	7 20 BIII
Brooks	7.34 am	3 34 pm
Lake Creek
Dyars		3 52 pm
Cedartown	8 10 am	4 10 pm
North Bound.	Daily.
	No. 2.	No. 4.
Cedartown	8 50 am	5 00 pm
Dyars		5 18 pm
Lake Creek	9 21 am	5 31 pm
Brook s	9 26 am	5 36 pm
Summit		5 45 pm
New Bethel	9 60 am
		5 54 pm
Chambers		6 09 pm
Holders	10 08 am	6 18 pm
Holmes		6 31 pm
East Rome	10 30 am	6 40 pm

Rome...
All trains run to East Tennessee, Virginia and corgia passenger depot in East Rome.
Connect at Rome with East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, and with Rome railroad a Cedartown with East and West Railroad of Ala-J. D. WILLIAMSON, President. F. H. HARRIS, Acting Supt.

A TLANTA AND NEW ORLEANS SHORT

ATLANTA AND WEST POINT RAILROAD CO The most direct and best route to Montgomery, New Orleans, Texas and the southwest.

The following schedule in effect Feb. 26th, 1888; SOUTHBOUND. No. 50 No. 52 No. 56 Daily Daily Fast D'ily Arrive Columbus ..... 6 40 pm 11 05 a m 11 05 a m TO SELMA, VICKSBURG AND SHREVEPORT NORTHBOUND. | No. 51 | No. 53 | No. 57 | Daily | Fast D'ily

Train 57 runs solid daily from Columbus to Atanta.
CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL,
Gen'l Manager. Gen'l Pass. Agent.
JOHN A. GEE, Passenger Agent.

A TLANTA AND FLORIDA R. R. Time Table No. 4.

If you don't understand the rules, ask for infor-Read Down Trains South Trains North. No. 2 No. 4 No. 1. No. 3.

A. M. P. M. 5 35 4 30 l.v.....Hapeville....Ar. 8 00 5 15 6 00 4 50 l.v.McCulloughSAr. 7 40 4 50 5 20 Lv..FAYETTEVILLE. ... Lv......Nash's F...... 5 50 Lv.....Wools y's........ 6 30 6 12 Lv. Flint River S'ng, Ar. 6 20 3 40 8 15 7 00 Ar......CampSiding..... 5 50 3 00

NOTES—F, Flag stations. Read rules on back of time table. Nos. 2 and 3 run daily. Nos. 1 and 4 daily, except Sunday. Trains Nos. 2 and 3 leave from and arrive at E. T., V. & G. Railway Passenger Depot. Trains Nos. 1 and 4 leave from and arrive at E. T., V. & G. Railway Junction. Nos. 1 and 2 meet at Fayette-ville. Nos. 3 and 4 meet at McCullough's. Meeting points in bold type.

JOHN N. DUNN, H. L. COLLIER.
H. C. HARRIS, General Manager. Superintendent.

EAST TENNESS EE VA.& GA. RAIR'AD (GEORGIA DIVISION,)

Knoxville, Warm Springs, Asheville and the East, via Kennesaw Route.

General Manager.

Leave Atlanta. 10 30 pm 12 55 pm 140 pm Leave Rockmart. 12 37 am 3 65 pm Arrive Rome 1 35 am 3 55 pm Arrive Dalton 3 42 am 5 20 pm Arrive Chattanooga. 10 00 am 10 00 pm Arrive Chattanooga. 10 00 am 10 00 pm Arrive Chevelaud. 11 15 am 11 15 pm Leave Knoxville. 2 05 pm 2 00 am Leave Knoxville. 2 05 pm 2 00 am Arrive Choxville. 3 56 pm 3 30 am 7 45 a Leave Morristown... 4 00 p m 7 45 a m 7 45 a m Arrive Units ..... 5 45 p m 9 20 a m 9 30 a m Arrive Hot Spring... 6 00 p m 9 35 a m 9 35 a m Arrive Asheville... 8 49 p m 11 55 p m 11 55 p m

SOUTHBOUND.

9 85 a m 8 15 p m 3 20 p m 4 40 p m 6 59 p m 7 45 p m Arrive Callahan..... Arrive Jackson ville 3 35 p m 5 35 p m 6 16 p m 7 58 p m 1 15 a m

NORTHWARD.

12 carries Pullman or Mann sleeping car o. 12 carries Pullman or Mann sleeping car att anooga to Cincinnati.

No. 12 carries Pullman Buffet sleeping car Chattanooga to New York via Roanoke and Shenandoah Valley; also, company's sleeping car Chattanooga to Knoxville, in which passengers can remain until 8a.m.

A fast train for the east leaves Rome at 8:10 p. m., carrying Pullman Buffet sleeping car to Washington via Lynchburg.

Pullman buffet sleeping car leaves Atlanta at 7:10 a.m. for Cincinnati. via Lynchburg.
Pullman buffett sleeping car leaves Atlanta at 7:10 a. m. for Cincinnati.

B. W. WRENN,
G. P. & T. Agent, Knoxville, Tenn,
Tonn, Ellis, A. G. P. Agent, Atlanta, Ga. THE GREAT KENNESAW ROUTE.

-W. & A. R. R. AT The following time card in effect Sunda February 19, 1888.

NORTHBOUND-No. 8 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 1 EXPRESS-DAILY. Leave Atlanta....... Arrive Dalton.... Arrive Chattanooga. No. 14 ROME EXPRESS - Daily except Sunday Leave Atlanta..... Leave Atlanta..... Stops at all way stations and by signals. No. 11 EXPESS-DAILY

No. 19 KENNESAW EXPRESS-DAILY,

Leave Chattanooga.

Leave Dalton.

Arrive Atlanta.

Stops at all important way stations No. 20 EXPRESS-DAILY. Leave Chattanooga....

No. 12 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 17 MARIETTA EXPRESS - Daily except Sunday Leave Marietta..... Arrive Atlanta..... No. 14 ROME EXPRESS - Daily except Sunday .....7 55 a m

Stops at all way stations and by signals.

THROUGH CAR ARRANGEMENTS.

No. 2 has first-class coach, daily, Waco, Texas, to Atlanta without change.

No. 4 has either Mann Boudoir Enflet or Pullmant Palace Buffet and sleeping cars, daily, Cincinnati to Jacksonville without change, and first-class coach, daily, Chattancoga to Jacksonville without change and without extra charge.

No. 12. has either Pullman Palace Buffet or Mann Boudoir Buffet sleeping car, daily chattencoga to Wayeross, without change, and change in the without change.

No. 20 has Pullman sleeper Nashville to Atlanta without change. Pullman sleeper Chattancoga to Atlanta, openor passengers at 9:00 p.m., gad first-class coach Little Rock to Atlanta without change, R. A. ANDERSON, Sup't, uburban Farms at Auction, Tuesday, March 13, 3 P. M., on the Premises. miles west of the city, directly on the line of simpsou street, one mile north of the end of the Westview dummy line, between it and the W. & A. R. R., known as the Coursey property, a fact of 69½ acres, sub-divided into 7 tracts or parcels containing from 7½ to 10 acres each. Some of them are covered with groves and timber, some of them open and cultivated, small house on each of two tracts, two branches through the whole tract; admirably adapted for dairy, truce, fruit and chicken tarms; conveniently accessible to the city. Plats are now ready. Free hacks will leave our office at 2:15 p. m. sharp on day of sale. Be on hand promptly and go with us. Terms of sale: One-half cash, balance in six and twelve months with 8 per cent interest.

ODE, R. H. WILSON. SAMUEL W. GOODE & CO. AGENTS. N. R. FOWLER, Auctioneer.

Desirable Store and Dwelling, NO. 200 DECATUR STREET,

NO. 200 DECATUR STREET,

In Front of the Air Line Depot, at Auction, Tuesday, March 20, at 11 a. m. on the Premises.

This valuable s one and residence property is on the north-side of Decatur street, just beyond Pratt and immediately in front of the Air Line Freight Depot. The store is a new, one-story frame building, renting for $15 00 a month, and the dwelling, which adjoins the store at the side and rear, has five, good, large rooms, with hall and front veranda.
All nicely furnished, in good repair and renting for $15 00 a month. This gives you a rare opportunity of securing a splendid central lot that will pay a high rate of interest on the investment. Property can be inspected at any time.

30 Desirable Vacant Lots. 80 NEAR E. T., V. & GA. SHOPS. On McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell Streets at Auction, Wednesday, March 21, 11 a. m.

This tract is well known as the "Burckel Property," and we have subdivided it into 80 desirable residence lots, fronting McDaniel, Burchel, Rockwell and Middle streets. It is the most desirable vacant property so close to the shops now on the market, and parties working in the East Tennessee. Virginia and Georgia Shops, Glass Works and Atlanta Lumber Company Works should avail themselves of this opportunity to secure a desirable lot for a home on easy terms and at his own price. The lots fronting McDaniel street are admirable adapted to stores, etc. No part of Atlanta has -built up so rapidly in the past four years as around these shops, and property has steadily enhanced in value. You can make no better or safer investment than to buy one of these lots.

10

WE

LARGE 43 White

$3

W

chines advan sales p cash p H. Wo

THE HOWARD PLACE.

No. 179 East Fair Street, BETWEEN CREW AND CAPITOL AVENUE. AT AUCTION

Thursday, March 22d, 11 a. m. on the Premises, This handsome, central home contains eight large rooms, besides closets, kitchen, pantry and servant's house. All modern conveniences. The lot is large and level. The neighborhood is the best in the city. Judge George Hillyer, Captain Milledge, Mr. Patillo, Majot Campbell Wallace, Mr. Haygood and Mr. George Muse living in the immediate vicinity. The house is now open for inspection.

THE CUMMING PLACE NO. 84 COOPER STREET. AT AUCTION.

Tuesday, March 27, 11 A. M.-Sale Absolute Thestay, March 27, 11 A. M.—Sate Absolute This is a complete home in a first-class neighborhood. The dwelling is comparatively new, has nine large rooms, all modern conveniences, closets, wide halls up and down stairs, wide verandas, good servant's room and kitchen, carriage house, barns and stables. The lot is 112x216 feet, high, well drained, and really very choice; only a short distance from Whitehall car line, and a pleasant walk from the business center of the city. THE DR. WILSON PROPERTY.

On the Dummy Line, Just Beyond West End Will be Platted and Sold at Auction at an Early Day. The Foreacre Place, opposite Capital City Club, for sale in one lot, or in two lots. Whole lot 100x 300-feet, separated, each lot 50x300 feet. Terms easy. Central Peachtree lots are scarce.

San't. W. Goode & Co.

No. 1 Marietta street, corner Peachtree.

J. L HARRISON.

Q CHOICE LOTS ON BOULEVARD $1,000 EACH. 7 large lots, fine grove. West End The handsomest lot on Peachtree street at a bar-pain.

11 room central residence, every convenience.
11 lots on Gresham street. 11 lots on Gresnam street.
Large lot on Jones street, near in, $750.

2 beautiful lots, West End.
10 room house, large lot, West End.
2 shaded lots on Gartrell street.
2 lots on Garibaldi street, near East Tennessee

We have a number of lots on Capitol avenue, from We have a number of lots on Capitol avenue, from which you can select one to suit you.
6 room house, large lot, Crew street, $2,700; the best bargain in the market.
5 room house, good lot, Plum street, $1,200.
Large lot on corner Spencer and Doris streets—must be sold—make us an offer.
4 room house on Newton street, $600.
Large lot on Boulevard and Jackson—two fronts.
2 large lots on Johnson arenne.
2 commanding lots on Morris street, between Jackson and Boulevard.
4 large lots on Beuna Vista avenue, near glass works and East Tennessee shops.
3 splendid lots next Mr. Ware's new residence, bear East Teunesse's shops.

3 splendid lots next Mr. Ware's new residence, bear East Teunessee shops.
3 shaded lots on Pryor street.
3 shaded lots on Formwalt street.
Choice lots on Luckie near Alexander.
4 lots on Magnolia street at a bargain.
4 choice residence lots on Washington street.
Houses of all classes.
Lots of all sizes.
Lots of all sizes.
Call on us and talk over the matter. No trouble to give information.
125 acre Peachtree creek farm; 50 acres bottom; many Peachtree street mad, magadamized all the

J. C. HENDRIX & CO., 31 South Broad Street.

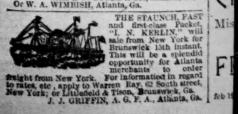

Adapted especially to the production of LeConte Pears and the finest grades of Havana to-

La Loma plantation, comprising 1.369 acres of highly fertile land, is located on the Florida border, near Thomasville, Ga., immediately on the S.F. & W. R.Y. Railway station; churches and schoola; posral, telegraph and express facilities. Handsome 42-room mansion house, and all appropriate improvements. In the heart of an elevated and beautiful country, noted for fertility and healthfulness. Adapted to all southern staples, and especially to HAVANA TOBACCO, yielding $400 to $600 an acre. A New York syndicate has just invested nearly half a million dollars in the culture of tobacc in this region. Thirty acre orchard of LeConte pears, which in this climate are exempt from all disease, and never fall to produce enormously. $500 an acre is not an extravagant estimate of the yield to be expected. The climate is simply delightful, and its healthfulness at all seasons is unquestioned. Assolutely no malaria or mosquitoes. Water pure and cool, without any trace of lime. Superb drives Fish and game abundant. This property is offered for sale for division among heirs.

Vista Hermosa, lying on railroad near La Loura, also for sale. 101 acres of very fertile land, four-room cottage, and li 5 acres in pears.

For prices, terms and further information, call on or addsess

GEORGE FEARN, Thomasville, Ga. SAM'L W. GOODE & CO., Atlanta, Ga. Or W. A. WIMBISH, Atlanta, Ga.

A TLANTA AND FLORIDA R. R. clock a. m.

For the use and information of employes only, ind the company reserves the right to vary time of trains at pleasure. Trains ruh on Ceniral (Sont Ieridian) Standard Time. Clocks at Passenger repot and at R. T. shops will be regarded as stendard time. Conductors and engineers will compare. ABAMA usas, Texas, No. 2. No. 4. A. M. P. M. 5 00 4 05 Lv. ATLANTA ... Ar. 8 30 5 30 Lv. University Pl'eF. Ar. 5 35 4 30 Lv......Hapeville....Ar. 8 00 8 15 6 00 4 50 Lv.McCULLOUGHSAr. 7 46 4 50 Lv...Selina F.... Lv....Davis .... 7 00 5 20 Lv. FAYETTEVILLE... 7 00 4 15 Lv.....Nash's F...... 5 50 Lv.....Wools y's....... 6 30 6 12 Lv. Flint River S'ng, Ar. 6 20 3 40 8 15 7 00 Ar......CampSiding..... 5 50 3 00 NOTES—F, Flag stations, Read rules on back of time table. Nos. 2 and 3 run daily. Nos. 1 and 4 daily, except Sunday. Trains Nos. 2 and 3 leave from and arrive at E. T., V. & G. Railway Passenger Depot. Trains Nos. 1 and 4 leave from and arrive at E. T., V. & G. Railway Junction, Nos. 1 and 2 meet at Fayette-ville. Nos. 3 and 4 meet at McCullough's. Meeting points in bold type.

JOHN N. DUNN, H. L. COLLIER, President, H. C. HARRIS, General Manager.

Superintendent I. Y. SAGE, eneral Maager. H. L. COLLIER, Chief Engineer. A. SHAW, Superintendent. COMPANY, NAGER, 17th 1887. CAST TENNESS EE VA.& GA. RAIR'AD the following (GEORGIA DIVISION.)

Knoxville, Warm Springs, Asheville and
the East, via Kennesaw Route.

SOUTHBOUND.

3 35 p m 5 35 p m 6 16 p m 7 58 p m 1 15 a m | NORTHWARD | LeaveAtlanta | 10 30 p m | 7 40 a m | 12 55 p m | Arrive Rome | 1 35 a m | 10 40 a m | 3 85 p m | Leave Rome | 2 20 a m | 10 45 a m | 4 00 p m | Arrive Dalton | 3 42 a m | 12 00 n | 10 5 20 0 m | Arrive Chattanooga | 5 20 a m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m | 1 35 p m | 6 50 p m | 1 35 p m |

p. 13 carries Pullman or Mann sleeping ear Atanta to Jacksonville, Pullman sleeping cars Atanta a in swick.

o.16 carries Pullman or Mann sleeping car to tanooga, open for passengers at 8 p. m. Pasers can remain in sleeper at Chattanooga until 12 carries Pullman or Mann sleeping car att anooga to Cincinnati. No. 1 carries Pullman Buffet sleeping car Chatta-nooga to New York via Roanoke and Shenandoah Valley; also, company's sleeping car Chattanooga to Knoxville, in which passengers can remain until COLUMBUS. A fast train for the east leaves Rome at 8:10 p. m., A fast train for the east leaves Rome at 8:10 p. m., carrying Pullman Buffet sleeping car to Washington Pullman buffett sleeping car leaves Atlanta at

THE GREAT KENNESAW ROUTE.

-W. & A. R. R.

An The following time card in effect Sanda February 19, 1888.

NORTHBOUND-No. 8 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 1 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 14 ROME EXPRESS-Daily except Sunday

Leave Atlanta.
Arrive Marietta.
Stops at all way stations and by signals. No. 11 EXPESS-DAILY. No. 19 KENNESAW EXPRESS-DAILY

Stops at all important stations when signaled.

THROUGH CAR ARRANGEMENTS:

No. 3 has first-class coach, daily, Waco, Texas, to Atlanta without change.
No. 1 has either Mann Boudoir Buffet or Pullman Palace Buffet and sleeping cars, daily, Jacksonville o Cincinnatt without change, and first-class coach, laily, Jacksczville to Chattanooga without change and without extra charge.
No. 14 runs solid to Rome
No. 11 has either Pullman Palace Buffet or Mann Boudoir Buffet Sleeping car, daily, Waveross to Chattanooga without change, and has Pullman Palace leeping cars Atlanta to Chattanooga, open for pasengers at 9 00 p.m.

sengers at 900 p m.

No. 19 has Pullman sleeper Atlanta to Nashville without change, and first-class coach Atlanta to Little Rock without change.

No. 2 EXPRESS-DAILY. Arrive Atlanta No. 12 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 17 MARIETTA EXPRESS-Daily except

THROUGH CAR ARRANGEMENTS.
No. 2 has first-class coach, daily, Waco, Texas, to Allanta without change,
No. 4 has either Mann Boudoir Buffet or Pullman Palace Buffet and sleeping cars, daily, Cincinnati to Jacksonville without change, and first-class coach, daily, Chattanooga to Jacksonville without change and without extra charge.
No. 12, has either Pullman Palace Buffet or Mann daily, Chattanooga to Jacksonville without change and without extra charge.

No. 12. has either Fullman Palace Buffel or Mann Boudoir Buffel sleeping car, daily Chattanooga to Waycross, without change.

No. 20 has Fullman sleeper Nashville to Atlanta without change: Pullman sleeper Chattanooga to Atlanta, openor passengers at 9:00 p. m., and first-class coach Little Rock to Atlanta without change, R. A. ANDERSON, Sup<sup>2</sup>4, J. M. EROWN, Ged. Pass. Agent.

REAL ESTATE. FAM'L. W. GOODE, R. H. WILSON.

SAMUEL W. GOODE & CO AGENTS.

N. R. FOWLER, Auctioneer.

N. R. FOWLER, Auctioneer.

Suburban Farms at Auction, Tuesday, March

13, 3 P. M., on the Premises.

Miles west of the city, directly on the line of Simpson street, one mile north of the end of the Westview dummy line, between it and the W. & A. R. R., known as the Coursey property, a fact of 66½ acres, sub-divided into 7 tracts or parcels containing from 7½ to 10 acres each. Some of them are covered with groves and timber, some of them open and cultivated, small house on each of two tracts, two branches through the whole tract; admirably adapted for dairy, truck, fruit and chicken farms; conveniently accessible to the city. Plata are now ready. Free hacks will leave our office at 2.15 p. m. sharp on day of sale. Be on hand promptly and go with us. Terms of sale: One-half cash, balance in six and twelve months with 8 per cent interest.

Desirable Store and Dwelling, ront of the Air Line Depot, at Auction

In Front of the Air Line Depot, at Auction, Tuesday, March 20, at 11 a.m. on the Premises.

This valuable s or a aid residence property is on the north side of Decatur street, just beyond Pratt and immediately in front of the Air Line Freight Depot. The store is a new, one-story frame building, renting for $15 00 a month, and the dwelling, which adjoins the store at the side and rear, has five, good, large rooms, with hall and front veranda. All nicely furnished, in good repair and renting for $15 00 a month. This gives you a rare opportunity of securing a splendid central let that will pay a high rate of interest on the investment. Property can be inspected at any time.

30 Desirable Vacant Lots. 80 NEAR E. T., V. & GA. SHOPS.

On McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell Streets at Auction, Wednesday, March 21, 11 a. m. This tract is well known as the "Burckel Property" and we have subdivided it into 80 desirable residence lots, fronting McDaniel, Burchel. Rockwell and Middle streets, It is the most desirable vacant property so close to the shops now on the market, and parties working in the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Shops, Glass Works and Atlanta Lumber Company Works should avail themselves of this opportunity to secure a desirable lot for a home on easy terms and at his own price. The jots fronting McDaniel street are admirable adapted to stores, etc. No part of Atlanta has -built up so rapidly in the past four years as around these shops, and property has steadily enhanced in value. You can make no better or safer investment than to buy one of these lots.

THE HOWARD PLACE. No. 179 East Fair Street.

BETWEEN CREW AND CAPITOL AVENUE, AT AUCTION Thursday, March 22d, 11 a. m. on the Premise

This handsome, central home contains eight large rooms, besides closets, kitchen, pantry and servant's house. All modern conveniences. The lot is large and level. The neighborhood is the best in the city, Judge George Hillyer, Captain Milliedge, Mr. Patillo, Major Campbell Wallace, Mr. Haygood and Mr. George Muse living in the immediate vicinity. The house is now open for inspection.

THE CUMMING PLACE NO. 64 COOPER STREET, AT AUCTION.

Tuesday, March 27, 11 A. M.—Sale Absolute This is a complete home in a first-class neighborhood. The dwelling is comparatively new, has nine large rooms, all modern conveniences, closets, wide halls up and down stairs, wide verandas, good servant's room and kitchen, carriage house, barns and stables. The lot is 112X216 feet, high, well drained, and really very choice; only a short distance from Whitchall car line, and a pleasant walk from the business center of the city. THE DR. WILSON PROPERTY.

On the Dummy Line, Just Beyond West End Will be Platted and Sold at Auction at Early Day.

The Foreacre Place, opposite Capital City Ciub, for sale in one lot, or in two lots. Whole lot 100x 300 feet; spurated, each lot 50x300 feet. Terms easy, Central Peachtree lots are scarce. SAN'L W. Goode & Co. No. 1 Marietta street, corner Peachtree.

J. C. HENRIX: J. L. HARRISON

2 CHOICE LOTS ON BOULEVARD $1,000 EACH. large lots, fine grove. West End The handsomest lot on Peachtree street at a bar gain.

11 room central residence, every convenience.
11 lots on Gresham street. 11 lots on Gresham street.

Large lot on Jones street, near in, $750.

2 lots on Garibaldi street, near East Tennessee shops.
We have a number of lots on Capitol avenue, from which you can select one to suit you.
6 room house, large lot, Crew street, $2,700; the best bargain in the market.
5 room house, good lot, Plum street, $1,200.
Large lot on corner Spencer and Doris streets—must be sold—make us an offer.
4 room house on Newton street, $500.
Large lot on Boulevard and Jackson—two fronts.
2 large lots on Johnson avenue.
2 commanding lots on Morris street, between Jackson and Boulevard.
4 large lots on Beuna Vista avenue, near glass works and East Tennessee shops.
3 splendid lots next Mr. Ware's new residence, Bear East Teunessee shops.
3 shaded lots on Frormwalt street.
Choice lots on Luckie near Alexander.
4 lots on Magnolia street at a bargain.
4 choice residence lots on Washington street.
Houses of all classes.
Lots of all sizes.
Lots at all prices.
Lots at all prices.
Lots query between the matter. No trouble to give information.

to give information.

125-acre Peachtree creek farm; 50 acres bottom; near Peachtree street road; macadamized all the way. This is your opportunity to get a farm.

2 4-acre lots in first ward; choice for subdivision.

Lots adjoining the Davis street school, $150 to $200.

8-room house, 2 acres land, on paved road, 2% miles from carshad, at a bargain.

J. C. HENDRIX & CO. 31 South Broad Street.

La Loma Plantation.

Adapted especially to the production of LeConte Pears and the finest grades of Havana to-

La Loma plantation, comprising 1,369 acres of highly fertile land, is located on the Florida border, ear Thomasville, Ga., immediately on the S. F. & W. R. Y. Railway station; churches and schools; posral, telegraph and express facilities. Handsome 42-room mansion house, and all appropriate improvements. In the heart of an elevated and beautiful country, noted for fertility and healthfulness. Adapted to all southern staples, and especially to HAVANA TOBACCO, yielding $400 to $600 an acre. A New York syndicate has just invested nearly half a million dollars in the culture of tobacc in this region. Thirty acre orchard of LeContre pears, which in this climate are exempt from all disease, and never fall to produce enormously. $300 an acre is not an extravagant estimate of the yield to be expected. The climate is simply delightful, and its healthfulness at all seasons is unquestioned. Absolutely no malaria or mosquitoes. Water pure and cool, without any trace of lime. Superb drives, Fish and game abundant. This property is offered for sale for division among heirs.

Vista Hermosa, lying on railroad near La Loma, also for sale. 101 acres of very fertile land, four-room cottage, and 15 acres in pears.

For prices, terms and further information, call on or address.

WANTED-MISCELLANEOUS.

OLD KEY-WINDIFG WATCHES TAKEN IN exchange for new style stem winders at A. L. Delkin & Co., 93 Whitehall street.

WANTED—THE PEOPLE TO KNOW THAT the Excelsion steam Laundry, No. 12 W. Mitchell street, is now open for business with a new and complete outflior the most approved machinery. Goods called for and delivered. WANTED—A SMALL FAMILY TO RENT HALF of house (4 rooms). Suitable for flousekeeping.
Price $12.36. Neighborhood first-class. Parties without children preferred. Exchange of references desired. Address C., care of Constitution.

WANTED-A JOB LOT OF ASH, DRY AND clear, 1 to 10,000 feet, from 1 to 3 inches thick.

Apply to Osler & Co., 23½ Mareitta st. Apply to Osier & Co., 23% Mareitta st.

WANTED—EVERY ONE TO ASK HIS NEIGHbor about Dr. Woolley's Invigorine. If your system is let down by either mental or physical work, Invigorine will build you up. WANTED-YOUR HOUSE PROTECTED WITH Delkin & Ladd's cable lightning nods. 16 S.

WANTED-TO BUY ONE OR TWO GOOD mules. A. M. Allen, 49 West Mitchell st. WANTED-ONE 20-HORSE POWER ENGINE in good order. I wish to rent, or get a partner to run same in saw mill. W. F. Smith, Social Circle, Georgia.

WANTED-EVERYBODY WHO WANTS A watch for less than cash price, and only have to pay $1 a week for it, to write to E. W. Blue, 97 Peachtree. WANTED-ABOUT HALF MILLION ACRES OF Y southern lands, in a body if possible, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabar and Georgia. Send for particulars to A Wester gard, No. 181 Washington street, Chicago, Ills, feb 19 au sat FOR SALE-MISCELLANEOUS.

OLD DOMINION GUANO—WILL SELL AND deliver at the warehouse any of our different brands of fertilizers manufactured by ourselves for either cotton or currency to solvent farmers and others. Maddox, Rucker & Co. maril-dlw FOR SALE-LIGHTNING RODS. WEATHER vanes, etc. Delkin & Ladd, 16 S. Forsyth st. 1 O MILK COWS FOR SALE: ONE REGISTER-half to four gallour per day. Stamps's Stock Yard, 205 Peters street. 295 Peters sfreet.

OVER TAXED—FOR MENTAL OR PHYSICAL exhaustion from whatever cause, use Dr. Woolley's Invigorine. Its action will delight you.

THE LOWEST PRICES AND BEST WORK done by A. L. Delkin & Oo., Jewelers, 98 Whitehall st.

WE HAVE FOR SALE MARIETTA AND NORTH Georgia railroad bonds, J. H. & A. L. James. DR.WOOLLEY'S IVNIGORINE IS FOR SALE BY ull druggists. Kidney and liver troubles are quickly relieved by the use of Invigorine, it makes strong muscles, steady nerves. ONION SETS. AND ALL NEW AND FRESH garden, field and flower seeds at Mark W. Johnson Seed Co.. 48 South Broad st. 2t

GILT SUNFLOWER CLOCKS: VERY HANDsome and warranted, $2.50; Plushed Clocks, $2.
Atlanta office, Furniture Co., 30 Peachtree street.

FOR SALE—AN ELEGANT SILK PLUSH PARlor suit, cheap. Apply at 408 Whitehall street. FOR SALE CHEAP — SEVERAL IMPOSING stones, with tables, almost new. Call on or address Weekly Department of Constitution. deci0-tf

MISCELANEOUS. DR. WOOLLEY'S INVIGORINE THE PEST OF all tonics for loss of energy, mental or physical depression, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles. Is sold by all your druggists. L ARGE SIZE, SILK SUN UMBRELLAS, PARA-gon frame, $1.35; worth $2. Simon & Frohsin,

FOR SALE --- HORSES, CARRIAGES FOR SALE-1 FINE FADDLE HORSE, CHEAP; come quick. Adair Bros. & Co. FOR SALE-A SPLENDID PONY FOR SALE cheap at Haney & Dunlap's store, 85 and 97 De-L ANDAUS AND VICTORIAS, McLEAR & KEN dail's make; best quality; reasonable prices say terms, 39, 41 and 43 Decatur street. Standard Wagon Co. Wagon Co. sun-wk Jump-SEATS AND SURREYS; CANOPY TOPS of every style; largest assortment in the south.
39, 41 and 43 Decatur street, Standard WagonCo. TARM WAGONS, DRAYS AND DELIVERY wagons, low wheel, wide tire, one, two and three borse wagons. 39, 41 and 43 Decatur street. H. L. Atwater, manager.

POAD CARTS, VARIOUS KINDS: PRICE lower than ever. 39, 41 and 43 Decatur stree Standard Wagon Co.

Family Carriages, LATEST STYLES AND first-class goods; a large variety. 39, 41 and 43 Decatur stree standard street. Standard Wagon Co.

Decatur street, Standard Wagon Co. sun-wk

DUGGIES, PHAETONS AND BUCKBOARDS, every style and price. Call and examine. 39, 41 and 43 Decatur street. H. L. Atwater, manager. sun-wk

MONEY TO LEND-I CAN OBTAIN WITHOUT delay for clients loans of money in either large or small sums, for long or short time, on real estate or other good security. W. T. Moyers, attorney, office 10 and 11, No. 2014 East Alabama street. ONEY TO LOAN ON SEVERAL YEARS TIME M on Atlanta real estate or country property terms reasonable. Address Confidence, care Consti

$3800 TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE IN Per cent interest. Read & Candler. sat tues

AUCTION SALES. WOLFE'S BARGAIN HOUSE, 98 WHITEHALL street—The only place in this city where you can buy anything you want at your own price; bed steads $1.50 to $8; bureaus $3.50 to $12; dressers $6 to steads $1.50 to $8; bureaus $3.50 to $12; dressers $6 to $15;good cassimere pants $1.50 to $2.50;good cassimere coats $1.25 to $2.50; boys knee pants $1.50 to 75c. Constantly on hand carpets, spring mattresses, lounges, oil paintings, writing desks, show cases, sewing machines, lambraquins at slaughtering prices; money advanced in any amount on consignment; auction sales promptly attended to on liberal terms; highest cash price paid for office and household furniture. H. Wolfe, agent.

POR SALE—A COMPLETE SET TO DATE, 29 volumes, "War of the Rebellion; Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies," with order to receive all future issues. 5 of these books are out of print and cannot be obtained at any price, nor can any of the set be purchased from book houses. This is a chance of a lifetime.

WANTED - BOARD WITH A PRIVATE family, close in, by a strictly moral young man. References exchanged. Address 67 South Broad.

FOUND OUT THAT DELKIN & LADD HAVE the best solid copper cable lightning rods in the world, and are putting them up at prices usually charged for inferior jointed stuff. Office 16 S. Forsyth street.

WANTED-HOUSES, ROOMS, ETC. WANTED-A SMALL NICE COTTAGE OR PART of house close in. Address, stating location and terms, H. L. F., care Constitution. fri sun MACHINERY FOR SALE.

OR SALE—ONE NEW 26 INCH SEPARATOR, or will exchange for a serviceable pair of horses.
P. Dearing, Athens, Ga. FRANK CARTER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, 12½ E. Alabama St., Atlanta, Ga. Reiers to Moore, Marsh & Co., Gate City National Bank. 'Phone 333.

Bankrupt Sale. vill be sold to the highest bidder for cash, in SATURDAY, MARCH 18,

P. H. HANES & CO.'S CELEBRATED BRANDS OF FINE Cheming Topacco! Missing Link, Forest Flower,

Golden Age, Brigham Young, FRANK E. BLOCK, WHOLESALE AGENT,

WANTED-AN ACTIVE MAN OR WOMAN IN every county to sell our goods. Salary $75 per month. Canvassing outlit and perticulars free. James Smith & Co., 124 Van Buren st., Chicago. Name this paper.

WANTED-ONE OR TWO GOOD TAILORS, ADdress Merchant Tailor, 2103 Second avenue, Birmingham, Ala.

WANTED-A PAPER HANGER, DR. D. SMITH, 601/4 Whitehall street W 6634 Whitehall street.
WANTED—TWO RESPECTABLEMEN TO CAN vas for the sale of Domestic sewing machines office 28 Whitehall street.

Wanted a First-Class General Blackmess klein & Martin, Athens, Ga.

Wanted—Energetic Men to Solicit For advertisements and subscriptions. Good salaries paid to right party. Chas. D. Barker, 19% South Broad street.

WANTED-SIX OR EIGHT GOOD STEADY yv boiler makers. Permanent employment and good wages. Apply to Union Iron Works Co., Chat-tanooga, Tenn.

WANTED-THREE HONEST, PUSHING MEN in your vicinity; special inducements now; ast selling specialties. Don't delay. Brown brothers, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y. sat sun WANTED-A STENOGRAPHER WHO IS COR-V rect at figures and can keep a simple set double entry books. Lady preferred. Address B, this office, stating compensation expected. WANTED-A THOROUGHLY COMPETENT wand experienced "chei" to take charge of kitchen in seventy-room hotel. Address with ref-erences reclosed, Lock Box "B.," Greenville, S. C. wed till mon WE WANT A SITUATION AS BOOKKEEPER VV or assistant and collector, for a young mai 18 years or age, recently graduated in our busines college, of good moral habits. Salary will not be in the way, as his parents reside in the city and are amply able to look after his wants. Goldsmith & Sullivan. WANTED—BY THE PRESIDENT OF A MANufacturing company, private secretary to go to New York. Must have one or two thousand dollars and give first-cless references. Address Mig Co., this office.

WANTED-SEVERAL LADIES AND GIRLS TO W solicit subscribers for the new temperance paper. Good wages paid. Southern Star, 19½ South Broad street!

WANTED-A NEAT, TIDY GIRL FOR NURSE WANTED-A COMPETENT, SETTLED WOMAN WANTED—A COMPETENT, SETTLED WOMAN for the pantry of a first class house of twentyfive rooms: Imust be unencumbered with familythoroughly conversant-with making pastry and cake. It is a good home for the right person. References required. Address postoffice box 232, Atlanta, Ga.
tu th su

LANDS WANTED TO MAKE

E pants at Selig Bros. & Co., 47 Decaturstreet. WANTED-YOUNG LADIES AT HOME TO color photographs for us by a new process. No. Color photographs for us by a new process. No instructions to buy. Fascinating employment. Work can be mailed anywhere. $1 to $2 per day can be made. Particulars mailed with a sample cabinet photograph, beautifully colored, for four cents. Address Home Co., P. O. Box 1816, Boston Mose.

WANTED-EXPERIENCED PANT MAKER WANTED IMMEDIATELY-LADIES TO WORK for a wholesale house on Needlework at their Washed lamedlately—Ladles To Work for a wholesale house on Needlework at their homes—sent any distance: good pay can be made; everything furnished; particulars free. Address Artistic Needlework Co., 135 8th St., New York City sun,tue, thur,sat-6m

SITUATIONS WANTED-MALE. A N EDUCATED GENTLEMAN, EXPERIENCED in business, good standing, some means, desires suitable business connection. General agency, or manufacturing preferred. F., Constitution.

A YOUNG MAN WHO UNDERSTANDS MILK-ling and making butter wants a situation.

Apply to O. T., cere Constitution. Apply to O. T., cere Constitution.

WANTED—A PLACE AS TRAVELING SAIE: man for any first-class house. Best references given. Address, V. S. Joyner, Sandersville, Ga.

WANTED—EMPLOYMENT BY AN HONEST, mended; some experience in business, and not afraid of work. Address "Worker," 319 Courtland street.

afraid of work. Address Tolker.

A LIVE, SOBER YOUNG MAN DESIRES A position. Has had experience in bookkeeping, clerking, and all branches of the lumber business. Also uses type writing muchine. Best of reference can be given from former employers. Will work for moderate wages. Address at once L. R. Bull, Spartanburg, S. C. sun it tanburg, S. C.

WANTED — OUTSIDE WORK — REPAIRING boilers, flues, oil tanks, smoke stacks, by a practical machinist. Address, J. C. Corbine, 30 Mechanic st., Atlanta.

SITUATIONS WANTED --- FEMALE WANTED - POSITION BY A COMPETENT stenographer and type-writer. Good references given. Address, stating terms, Miss A., care Constitution. HOME WANTED BY A WHITE GIRL FOUR-teen years old; willing to work. Apply 57 A LADY RAPID WRITER AND CORRECT OF figures wants employment. Best of references. Address M., Postoffice box 474.

A MIDDLE AGED WHITE WOMAN WISHES situation as a cook in a small family. Address WANTED-BY YOUNG LADY TO DO OFFICE work or copying; writes fine business hand address, M, 337, Jones street.

BOARDERS WANTED. BOARD-FOR COUPLE, OR WITH BABY, AT West End. Very desirable for summer. Address

BOARD WANTED-BY YOUNG LAWYER WHO offers best references; prefers north side, some LORIDA HOUSE, 58 NORTH FORSYTH ST.; double rooms, either furnished or unfurnished, vith board; also, day boarders wanted. Rates very 14 COOPER STREET—NEAR IN. NICELY furnished rooms. Table the best. Gas, water and bath rooms. Terms reasonable. 3t AT NO. 9 HOUSTON, GOOD ROOM SUITABLE for young men or married couple can be occupied by persons desiring excellent board. BARTOW HOUSE—BOARDERS WANTED— best market affords. Four dollars per week; 20 Bar-town street.

BOARDERS WHO SUFFER FROM DYSPEPSIL.
Woolley's Invigorine. It tones up the system and increases the appetite. Sold by druggists. MORELANDS PARK—A DELIG HTFUL PLACE to board: situated on the Georgia railroad only ten minutes' run from the carabed. Trains every two hours. Apply on the premises, or by mail to thorace Powers, proprietor, care No. 8½ Marietta street, Atlanta, Ga.

Breet, Atlanta, Ga.

BOARDERS WANTED—TWO NICE, LARGE connecting rooms, with bath room attached. Will be vacant Wednesday, at 92 Ivy street.

EYDEN HOUSE, CLEAN, HEALTHY LOCATION. Board and rooms as reasonable as any first-class house can afford. No. 124 Peachtree st.

KIRBY HOUSE, NO. 11 WHEAT STREET, NOW affords best fare and attention to local and transient. Terms moderate. Tolephone 1043. Im

COCAI, TRANSIENT AND DAY BOARDERS CAN obtain delightful rooms, polite attention and excellent board at Nos. 26 and 28 N. Forsyth street.

WANTED-AGENTS. WANTED—LADY AGENTS—"A" SKIRT AND Bustle Combined and B. Hose Supporters. Both new. Big profits. Secure fowns for spring trade.
Ladies' Supply Co., 287 W. Washington St., Chicago.
Sm wed fri sun WANTED EVERYWHERE AGENTS FOR O but sell for $2 and pay 160 per cent profit. A yen's can carry stock and put them up in $5 minutes. Biggest bonanza out. For free sample, circular of plates, burglar alarm, door bells, house nos. and other novolties, address, enclosing 2 cent stamp, N. Y. DOOR PLATE CO., 675 Broadway, Albany, N. Y. sat sun tues thurs

DOOR PLATE CO., 675 Broadway, Albany, N. S. sat sun tues thurs

WANTED — AGENTS. GRANDEST MONEY making business ever offered. A golden harvest for the next two months; 875 per month and expenses to active men to sell our goods. No capital required. Sample case of goods and full particulars free. We mean just what we say. Address Standard Silver ware Co., Boston, Mass. now—tue thu sat sun WANTED—LADY AGENTS FOR THE IMproved combination busile-skirt. Removable hoops. Can be laundried. Latest Paris style. One agent sold 500 in Columbus last spring, and made 500. Spring trade now. Address with stamp, E. H. Campbell & Co., 48 W. Randolph street Chicago.

WANTED—LADY AGENTS FOR BUSTLE AND extender combined; just the taking for winter dresses. Also the "8" hose supporter. Both entirely new. Ladles' Supply Co., 257 Washington Boulevard, Chicago. Boulevard, Chicago.

S100 TO $300 A MONTH CAN BE MADE who can furnish their own horses and give their whole time to the business. Epare moments may be profitably employed also. A few waennice in towns and cities. H. F. Johnson & Co., 1009 Muine street, Richmond, Va.

FOR SALE—HOME IN KIRKWOOD, 7 ROOM cottage, 12 acres fronting 650 feet on Georgia railroad, adjoining Governor Gordon's. Apply at cash office, Georgia Railrod Co.

railroad, adjoining Governor Gordon's. Apply at cash office, Georgia Railrod Co.

Prancy Lots in West End, one Corner the place on which I live: also some West End catsup, pickles, etc. A. B. Mathews.

Por Salle Or Exchange For Atlanta City Property—No. 1—A fine farm of 500 acres in Newton county, Georgia, and near Georgia railroad. Place well improved, and a large portion in a high state of cultivation, paying a handsome investment. A large amount of original forest pine of superior quality on the place. No. 2. Two hundred (200) acres of choice land, also in Newton county. Small portion cleared, balance in original forest, finit class pine forest and best creek bottom, in a splendid neighborhood, convenient to churches and schools, really a good place. No. 3 (adjoining No. 2) is to avaluable water power sufficient to run almost any amount of machinery, a fine opening for mills of any kind. No. 4 is two hundred (200) acres in Jasper county, Georgia. Jasper is noted for the fertility of her soil. and this is a part of a large farm widely known so one of the most valuable lots on the public square in the town of Monticello, the county site of Jasper. Monticello is on the new Macon and Covington railroad, has slaways been a splendid business point, but is now starting on a regular boom, in consequence of her newly acquired railroad facilities. For further particulars, call on or address A. O. M. Gay, 13 Howard street Atlanta.

POR SALE—AT EDGEWOOD, Ga. 20 ACRES well improved land, fronting on Georgia railroad. Convenient to schools and regular stopping places of trains. Apply it No. 1 Peachtree street.

O EXCHANGE FOR ATLANTA PROPERTY-TO EXCHANGE FOR ATLANTA PROPERTY—A handsome villa, 18 miles from New York on Jersey Central railroad; fourteen rooms, all modern improvements, eithteen acres in tracts; abundance of fruit. A bargain. Enquire of Southern States Investment association, 63 Gate City Bank building.

IF YOU WANT THE BEST VACANT LOT ON Capitol avenue, one block from new capttol, or a vacant lot or house and lot ons less expensive street, apply 17½ Peachtree street, room 8, from 3 to 5 p.m.

GREAT BARGAIN—SUNNY FLORIDA! A home on a beautiful clear lake of soft water in genial Florida in Volusia county, Five acres set in a choice variety of semi-tropical fruits. For full particulars and description address J. A. B. Hull, West Point, Ga.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

A T FORT WORTH THE GREAT RAILROAD
A center of Texas, the various lines of business pay 30 to 60 per cent profit. Purchases of Farm, Business and Suburban lands, pay from 60 to 100 per cent per annum, and the obvious explanation of these grand opportunities, is, that Texas is now the only state in which fertile lands, in a climate free from malaria and blizzard, remain open to humingration. It is a fact that six hundred and forty acres can be purchased by actual settlers at 82 per acre, with credit extending 40 years, at 5 per cent. That the country containing these cheap and fertile lands is now for the first time being penetrated by railroads, and is rapidly peopling up. The trade of this country is subservient to Fort Worth alone, the great Railroad Center of Texas.
Ten years ago, Fort Worth was a frontier village with one railroad outlet and one thousand, population. Today, it has 13 railroad outlets and 30,000 people; is growing more rapidly than ever, and soon will have 100,004. Fort Worth never has been boomed, and projecty can be bought, now, at Onetenth the Frice asked in similar wholesale centers, such as Minneapolis, Omaha, Kanasa City, Denver, or Los Angeles. Tickets can be secured at haif ates, and full information about investment, given, by applying to Secretary of Texas. Information Office, Fort Worth, Texas.

CIGAR AND CONFECTIONERY STORE, STOCK and fixtures for sale, rent reasonable. Call 19 South Broad st. V and fixtures for sale, rent reasonable. Call 18
South Broad st.

A MANUFACTURING COMPANY WISHES A good man, with from $3,500 to $5,000 to take an interest and a position in a very safe, legitimate, paying business, or the company will use his money at a stipulated interest, well socured; until the becomes acquainted with the business. Money needed for extending the business. Address, with references, etc., P. O. Box 546.

W ANTED—A SPECIAL PARTNER IN ONE OF Albants; a guarantee of 2 per cent on capital invested. Address Manufactory, care Constitution office.

A MAN OF INTELLIGENCE, ENERGY. PUSH half interest in a safe and paying business. Address "Safe." care Constitution. WANTED—TO INVEST THREE TO FIVE thousand dollars in safe-paying mercantile business, or will loan money to employer; am experienced and competent. Address "X. Y. Z.," care Constitution.

FOR SALE CHEAP—CENTRALLY LOCATED fruit and cigar stand, paying a steady profit. Other business demands owners attention. Address "C," this office. Wanten of the sale-paying mercantile business, or will loan money to employer; am experienced and competent. Address X Y Z, Constitution.

TOR SALE—A COAL, WOOD AND GROCERY store; well located, good trade; other business demands my attention; will give good bargain; small capital required. Address H., Constitution office. FOR SALE-HALF INTEREST IN WELL EStablished wholesale business, party buying to take charge of business. Best reasons for making this change. Address Y, care Constitution. Iw

BAKERY FOR SALE—THE BEST IN ATLANTA
Center of city, large patronage changes. BARERY FOR SALE—111E BEST ATTACHED CENTER OF STREET OF S

LADIES' COLUMN. OR SALE—SOLID GOLD RHINE STONE EAR rings at $1.00 per pair. A. L. Delkin & Co., $3 Whitehall street.

THE LATEST AND MOST IMPROVED FLOWER and garden seed for sale cheap by the Atlanta Seed Co., 61 Peactree. PURE SILK GLOVES, IN BLACK AND COL-ored; worth 60c., at 35c. Taffeta gloves, black and colors. 20c.; worth 40c. 40 nee lot liste gloves, 5c. Simon & F.ohsin, 43 Whitehall.

A LL THE CHOICEST FLOWER AND GARDEN seed for sale by the Atlanta Seed Co., 61 Peach-DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINES, WITH WOOD work to match all kinds of furniture, on exhibition at Thornton's book store by C. J. Daniel.

ADIES' FANCY BORDER, HEMSTITCHED handkerchiefs, 5c.; worth 10c. Simon & Frob TUBE ROSE BULBS, PANSIES AND EVENING Glory Seeds for sale at the Atlanta Seed Co., 61 Peachtree. M. W. W. HASKELL HAS RETURNED FROM New York and moved into his new corner at So. 57/2 Whitehall street, over M. Rich & Bro. sun wed

and wed

ADIES' GAUZE VEST, HIGH OR LOW NECK, short and long sleaves, and Jersey bodies, 25c. worth 50c. Simon & Frohsin. WE HAVE THE PRETTIEST STOCK OF Rhine-Stone Ear-Rings in the city: solid gold, from $1 up. A. I.. Delkin & Co., 93 Whitehall street. GENTS' 4PLY LINEN COLLARS 10 CENTS cuffs 15 cents. Simon & Frohsin, 143 Whitehal

WANTED—LADIES TO USE "CHICHESTER"

Reglish, "Diamond Brand, Pennyroyal Pills Safe. Always reliable. The original. The only genuine. Ask druggists or send 4c stamps for particulars, return mail. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Su we. Philadelphia, Pa. su we 150 DOZEN LADIES SOLID COLORS, BLACK and fancy striped hose, full regular made his week, 15 cents, regular price 25 cents. Simon Frohsin, 43 Whitehall street.

L'ADIES ONLY—ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED paper (monthly) prapared especially for ladies use; valuable, indispensable; 3 mos. 10c; 6 mos. 20 cts. 1 year 25 cts. Ladies' Journal, 74 La Salle st., Chicago, Ill.

OTTA BUSTLES 25 CENTS. 3 ROLE WIRE bustles 20 cents at Simon & Frohsin. THE DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE ON SALE for cash or installments at the New Domestic office, 28 Whitehall street. 45 cents; 23 dozen French woven corsets cents, worth $1. Simon & Frohsin, 43 Whitehal

TR. WOOLLEY'S INVIGORINE SHOULD BE used by all feeble or delicate ladies. It tones up the system clears the skin and gives new life and energy. Try it.

NEW STYLES OF BUSTLES RECEIVED.
Simon & Frobsin. PEATHERS CLEANED, CURLED AND DYED also kid gloves, at Phillip's, 14 Marietta street

$200 WANTED-WILL GIVE ORDER ON and mortgage on $500 worth of machinery and working material, insured for $300, for $200 on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. Address Lock Box 200 cits. $5000 -WANTED FOR INTEREST IN business; first class in every particular. Address T. D.
$2500 -WANTED - PARTY WITH A valuable process having sold same to a syndicate for $150,000 of preferred stock desires loan $2,500. The right party can get first class position with company if desired. Address R. H.

WANTED-MONEY.

FOR SALE-REAL ESTATE Henry L. Wilson, Real Estate Agent, No. 28 Peachtree Street.

HAVE A BEAUTIFUL AND VALUABLE 5-room house on Ellis street for sale that can be at at very reasonable figures; good place to put our money. Must be sold at once. H. L. Wilson. JF YOU WOULD LIKE TO BUY THAT NEW house, elegant in all its appointments and surundings, come in and I will show it to you, on Pryor street. I also have one on Formwait street; cheap and new; nice, sweet home for a family. II. L Wilson.

VACANT LOTS FOR SALE ON GEORGIA AVE-nue, Capitol avenue and Fair street. 4 lots, 100x200, near Georgia avenue, for $300 apiece, re-markably cheap; $2,300 for a house and lot on Fair, near Walker street; good investment. H. L. Wilson. AM OFFERING A BARGAIN IN A BIG LOT to corner Merrits avenue and Butler street, 180 1190 to 20 foot alley. Come at once, if you want the benefit. It takes only a little money to secure this place; your own time on the most of the purchase money. H. L. Wilson. money. H. L. Wilson.

F YOUR PURSE IS FULL I CAN SUIT YOU On Peachtree, east or west, on Ponce de Leon avenue or around the Baltimore syndicate property. If you are a little short, see me about property on Spring, Pine or Currier streets. I will fix for all the limo you want. Forest avenue is a bantiful and desirable street. I can furnish some rare lois there at very low prices. In one or two years the price will double. Real estate beats the world for solid, safe investments. H. L. Wilson.

THERE IS A GREATER DEMAND FOR houses to rent than ever before. This means increasing peopulation and demand for houses. The wise man, if he has a few dollars and a little nerve, will buy now, when he can do so upon reasonable terms. Atlanta is only in her thiancy. No man ever lost money prudently invested in her real estate. I never expect to see property cheaper than light now. H. L. Wilson, 28 Peachtree st.

Harry Krouse, Real Estate and Renting Agent 2 Kimball House, Wall Street.

30000 ACRES OF PINE LAND IN A body, original growth, 10 miles $900 FOR NICE VACANT LOT, FOREST $3000 avenue.

S1000 -NEW 8-ROOM RESIDENCE public school.

$750 -NICE VACANT LOT, 50x100 FEET. $1200 FOUR ROOM HOUSE AND VA-$900-FOUR-ROOM HOUSE, BECKWITH street, near Walnut; rents for $10 per

$600 FOR 2 LOTS, 50x150 EACH, JOHN-son avenue; bargain; easy payments. $550 FOR CHOICE LEVEL LOT, HOUS

$1000 NICE LOT, WEST BAKER ST.; $3000 FOR 11 VACANT LOTS NEAR Washington street on long time $4250 FOR 6 THREE-ROOM COTTAGES, on lot 235x115; pays 12 per cent, per annum, rented to white tenants, ½ cash, balance one and two years, 8 per cent.

$2100 FOR THREE COTTAGES ON lot 150x115 feet; renting $270 per $1200 -NICE LOT, COOPER, NEAR RICHARDS 100x160 feet. $1600 FOR 6.ROOM COTTAGE, SMITH $2350 FOR 3-ROOM HOUSE, BEAUTI

$1500 FOR 5-ROOM HOUSE AND VA-

$600-NICE VACANT LOT, ALEXANDER near Luckie street. $1750 BEAUTIFUL SHADED LOT, Whitehall street, 60x200. $3500 BEAUTIFUL CORNER LCT West Peachtree street; nice shade-$850-VACANT LOT ON STREET CAR

Ansley Bros.—Real Estate Agents.

BEAUTIFUL HOUSES ON CAPITOL AVENUE,
$5,500—Beautini Pulliam street 9-room house.
$9,650—Nice I vy street home, near in.
$1,650—Last chance at that Richardson street lot.
$8,500—½ acre lot and 9-room house, West Harris street.
$6,000—10-room house, lot 58x170, West Baker street.
$1,000—6-room West Fair street house.
$4,000—6-room West Fair street house.
$1,000—Pretty lot on Windsor street.
$4,750—Beautiful home on Whitehall street.
$3,500—7-room house on Pulliam street.
$1,700—6-room orw ormond street house.
$2,000—2 5-room houses; will rent well.
$2,750—3½ acres land and 6-room house. Decatur.
$800—Georgia avenue lot.

$800—Georgia avenue lot. $800—Irwin street lot, near Jackson.

IF YOU WANT A HOUSE, OR WANT TO SELL one, come and see us. We want to buy house and lot, not to cost over $3,500, in northeast part of town, if possible Office, 28 South Pryor st. For Sale by Smith & Dallas, No. 43 South

LARGE VACANT LOT ON W. PEACHTREE street. Call on us.

Large vacant lot on Simpson street, near Marielta.
Call on us. lot on E Ellis street, with cheap improvement Large lot on E Ellis street, with cheap improvements

- a bargain.

7,000—Large lot with good seven room house, water and gas, in two and a half blocks of the Kimball house.

$5,500—Two nice new cottages on south side in seven blocks of Whitehall crossing.

$5,500—Lot fronting 130 feet on Central railroad, near the cotton compress.

$4,000—10 room brick house on Street Car line,
** three fourths of a mile from passenger depot,
$2,000—A most desirable store and vacant lot,
Peters street, near Walker.

$6,000—Good store and large wagon yard—at a sacrifice.

$6,000—Good store and large wagon yard—at a sacrifice.
$3,000—Store and residence, and four tenant house, on a large lot on Davis street—a great bargain.
$3,000—Six room house and large, splendid lot.
$3,000—Seven room house on Markham street, very large lot—a bargain.
$500—Vacant lot on Pine street, 50x182.
$700—Vacant lot on Formwalt street.
$4,500—Seven room house, Marietta street, very large 54.500—Seven room house, Marietta street, very large lot—at a bargain.

$6,000—Beautiful cottage and a gem of a lot on Whitehall.
$850—Vacant lot, Cooper street, near in.
$1.800—Six room house and 10 acres at Edgewood.
$800—Four room house, Vine street.
$400—Two room house, W. Hunter.
$3,000—Superior lot, well improved, 100x200, in the very best part of West End.
$2,000—Two acres in West End, very near Street Car line.

am'l W. Goode & Co.'s List of Auction Sales

am'l W. Goode & Co.'s List of Auction Sales.

ST—TUESDAY, MARCH 13TH, AT2 P. M., THE Coursey property, containing 66% acres, subdivided into 7 tracts of 7½ to 10 acres each. This is located just one mile from the West End dummy line and between it and Mason & Turner's ferry road. See other column for particulars.

—Tuesday, March 20th, at 11 a. m., a 5-room dwelling and store, No. 200 Decatur street, near Pratt street: splendid renting Property. See our special column for particulars.

—Wednesday, March 21st, at 11 a. m., 83 desirable vacant lots near the E. T., V. & Ga. railroad shops, on McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell streets. See our special column for particulars.

h—Thursday, March 221, at 11 a. m., the Howard place, No. 179 East Fair street, between Crew street and Capitol avenue; handsome two-story.
8-room residence. See our special column for particulars.

s-room residence. See our spectral particulars.

—Tuesday, March 27th, at 11 a. m., the Cummings place, No, 64 Cooper street; beautiful 9-room residence on lot 112x216 feet. See our special column for particulars.

—The Dr. Wilson property, on the dummy line just beyond West End, will be platted and sold at anction at an early day.

SHORTHAND — CRICHTON'S (ATLANTA) Shool of Shorthand and Correspondence. The most practical school of shorthand and type-writing in the country. Classes day and night. Special terms to ladies. Call and investigate our manner of teaching. Circulars free. E. C. Crichton, principal, 49¼ Whitehall street. Classification of the control of the BIRDS, CHICKENS, EGGS, ETC. OR SALE-A TRIO OF EXTRA FINE JAPI nese Bantams, Price $8, Address Zed Harrison

POR SALE—MOCKING BIRD. NOT A FINER singer nowhere. Call on or address. G. W. H., composing room, this office.

FIGS FROM FIRST FRIZE WYANDOTTES AND S. S. C. Brown Leghorns. Inquire at 108 Capitol Syenuc, or 14 W. Mitchell. M. A. Magbee.

FOR RENT-HOUSES. COTTAGES, FOR RENT-PART OF FURNISHED HOUSE. FOR RENT—4 AND 5-ROOM HOUSE. APPLY TO J. H. George, 24 Williams street.

GEO. W. ADAIR—BOARDING HOUSE FOR rent—1 have for rent a le room central boarding house, a good location and a first-class house. Geo. W. Adair, Wall street.

1-16-11 POR RENT-HOUSE NO. 15 WASHINGTON ST., corner Hunter and opposite new capitol, containing nine rooms. Location central and very desirable.

NOR RENT—BY TALLEY & JORDAN, 23 ROOM boarding house, furnished, and now full of good paying boarders. A very destrable location; and a live man can make money. Has now 30 regular boarders. Call early. Possession given on April 1st.
marf-wed-fri-sun
POR RENT—IN DECATUR, A NEW FIVE ROOM house, in three minutes' walk of depot. Apply to Mrs. G. A. Denham, sun 33 FOR RENT—A SIX ROOM HOUSE, NO. 408.
Whitehall, furnished or unfurnished. Will sell furniture. FOR RENT-HOTEL, WITH 24 ROOMS, CHEAP, in center of the city, with some furniture. J. H. and A. E. James.

RENT-ONE OR TWO ROOMS AND USE OF parlor in private family at West End; suitable for light housekeeping. Address P, care Constitu-FOR RENT-TWO ROOMS AT 58 WASHING-ton street; gas and water; board convenient. FOR RENT-A LARGE FRONT ROOM SUITA-ble for most any business, 70% Whitehall.

FOR RENT-TO YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE, two nice rooms, gas and water, four blocks from postoffice; apply 23 Barlow street. FOR RENT-THE SPLENDID SUIT OF ROOMS in the Block building, corper Alabama and Pryor streets, formerly occupied by the Brada reet company. Apply to Frank E. Block. FOR RENT-ROOMS FOR RENT. APPLY 111 E.

Furnished Rooms. TWO CONNECTING FURNISHED ROOMS, 32
Bartow street, corner Luckie. FOR RENT-TWO FRONT ROOMS; ONE FUR-nished; in a private family. Apply 112 South Pryor street. Pryor street.

FOR RENT-FURNISHED ROOMS, THREE connecting and one single. 83 Capitol avenue. FOR RENT-NICELY FURNISHED FRONT

FOR RENT—2 NICE ROOMS, FURNISHED OR unfurnished: meals in house. Centrally located, Address "T.," Constitution office.

Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished. POR RENT-ONE LARGE PLEASANT ROOM, furnished or unfurnished, at reasonable rates; near in: 58 Luckie street. near in: 58 Luckie street.

POR RENT—TWO OR THREE UNFURNISHED rooms to parties without children. Apply at 113 Walton street.

POOMS FOR RENT—FURNISHED AND UN furnished, in Nos. 32 and 41 North Forsyth street, and No. 31 Poplar street. Apply No. 83 Feach-tree.

GEO. W. ADATR—HOTELT FOR RENT—I HAVE for rent a 23 room suburban hotel—The Union house, opposite the Union depot. The most central hotel in Atlanta. Call at once. G. W. Adair, 5 Kimball House. FOR RENT-WE HAVE 4 ELEGANT STORES with basements and railroad fronts on West Alabama street for rent cheap. These are the first stores in the city for any heavy mercantile or manufacturing business, Leak & Lyle, 37 Marietta street, fit sun tie

8 -R. H., 487 PEACHTREE; GAS; VERY LARGE lot, $30.
7-f. h., Williams street; near W. Harris; gas. water, bath, etc.; good neighborhood; close in; $25.
6-f. h., 59 Fairlie street; close in; gas, water; $25.
5-f. h., Wheat street, near Jackson, (colored people;)

5-r. h., Wheat street, hear dackson, (choice pectac, $15.
5-r. h., 39 Smith street; $14.
4-r. h., 89 Plum street, near bridge works; $7.
4-r. h., No. 1 Dairy; near bridge works; $7.
4-r. h., 27 East North avenue, near Peachtree; $12.50.
4-r. h., High street, near Tatnall; $8.
4-r. h., 210 Spring, near Baker; $16.55.
4-r. b., Chodes, near W. & A. shops; $10.
4-r. b., Chodes, near W. & A. shops; $10.
4-r. b., Cooper street, near East Tennesse.

Always call at my office and examine my list before renting. My buggy always ready to show houses to parties desiring to rent.

For Rent by Smith & Dallas, No. 43 South Broad Street.

ONE LARGE EIGHT-ROOM BRICK RESIDENCE, very near the heart of the city; good location; suitable for boarders.

Two of the very best large retail stores on Whitehall street.

Nice four-room cottage and large lot, very near Whitehall and Windsor streets.

Nice four-room cottage, fine condition, with gas, near Fair street school.

Nice four-room cottage on Davis street.

Two superior lodging rooms or offices in the heart of the city.

Good store and residence near new capitol.

PERSONAL. GENTS FANCY STRIPED HALF HOSE, LARG-est variety of styles ever shown in Atlanta; worth 25 to 3:c. Price for this week, 20c. Simon & Frobsin, 43 Whitehall.

WANTED-A WIDOWER, 25, HIGH SOCIAL standing, lives in Virginia, with a spiendid income, wants to correspond with a refined lady between 25 and 35; object matrimony. Address from eweck from date of this paper, Charles O. Truxom, care Battle house, Mobile, Ala. GET THE BEST-BLANK NOTES WITH OR without mortgage clause; coupon notes, ten in A without mortgage clause; coupon notes, ten rest notes attached, at Bennett's, Broad street.

DOES YOUR WATCH NEED REPAIRING? IF so, have it done by skilled workmen at A. L. Delkin & Co.'s, 33 Whitehall st. HO! JUST OPEN, FINEST BRAND OF CIGARS and tobacco at the Little Gem, National hotel office. G. B. Mulligan. Motto: To please all. THE LADIES' PARSONAGE AID SOCIETY OF Walker street Methodist church will have an oyster supper and church reunion at the residence of Mr. F. A. Hilburn, No. 44 Walker street, Friday night, Maren 16th. All are invited.

CANCERS AND TUMORS OF EVERY SORT scientifically and successfully treated and cures effected by J. M. Curran, No. 89 South Pryor street. No knife or caustic used. Terms reasonable, No kine of existed esset

OFICE -IF YOU WANT FIRST-CLASS AND durable work done, Placksmithing, Iron and Woodwork prepared to order. Carriage Painting a specialty. Work done at lowest prices,
Satisfaction quaranteed. Vaughan & Bro., 169 Marietts
Erreet. DIVORCE LAW OF ILLINOIS—SEND 10 CTS, Andvice free, Cornell & Spencer, Chicago, Ill.

HELPING HAND, BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRAted, contains nearly 300 advertisements from ladies and gentlemen wanting correspondents.
Sent three months for 10 cents. Address Helping Hand, 70 La Salle street, Chicago, III.

Sun
CENTS—3 TEASING LOVE LETTERS, READ two ways. Mall 10c to Box 52, Baltimore, Maryand. MARRY—THE CORRESPONDENT IS AN 8page paper, devoted to marriage. Each issue contains nearly 500 requests for correspondents and 48 columns good reading. No charge to ladies for advertising. Malled one year, post paid, for 10c silver. Address, The Correspondent, Cincinnati, Sun3t

Ohio. Suns He Correspondent, Cinemati, sunst Sunst Picture of James McC. CREGITION, DEceased, letters testamentary on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment and those having claims, to present the same without delay to Louise H. Creighton, S. R. corner 48th and Chester ave. Philadelphia to the said said.

BUSINESS MEN DERIVE GREAT SATISFAG too from the use of our "Ironelad" notes which walve homestead rights and all the examptions. We now send, postpaid, the above described note, 100 in a book, for doc, or a book of 50 for 200, we have also the above form with seven lines blank for taking a mortgage, which we call an "Ironelad note with mortgage clause." We send these, postpaid, 100 in a book, for 600; 10 in a book for 300; Address The Constitution.

STOLEN-A REWARD OF FIVE DOLLARS will be given for the return of the nice binds—three each White Leghorn, Buff Cochin and Black Leghorn—stolen from my house Friday night. No questions asked. James F. Lynch, 59 Calhoun st. L OST—WILL THE GENTLEMAN WHO FOUND took them to Hawker' for examination, please return them there and receive reward from owner? LOST—A BLACK SHEPHERD DOG WITH A white spot in his face, tan-colored spot over each eye, and having a white stripe on breast. A liberal reward will be paid for his delivery at H. M. Patterson's, the undertaker, is Loyd street.

I OST-FROM 69 COURTLAND AVENUE, MARCH Ed, one red Irish settor-bitch, two years, old Pinder will be rewarded by Mills McNeal 26 Penchires street.

mbus to At-

phdayy, be parsengers to Grovetown, wood, Barnett, boro, Madison.

. 1. No. 3.

2 No. 4.

Virginia and

essee, Virgini ne railroad a filroad of Ala ANS SHORT AILROAD CO

152 No. 56 lly Fast D'ily am 9 17 am am 10 05 am a m 12 00 m

HREVEPORT p m 2 35 p m 5 35 p m 11 00 p m 10 30 a m 8 15 p m ta to Colum-

-DAILY. ...7 10 a m

-DAILY.

...6 30 a m ...5 40 a m ...7 25 a m ...7 55 a m a stop at

We have the largest stock of fine goods ever offered to the Southern trade. In Silks, Laces, Oriental Trimmings, English, German and French Woolens, Table Linens, Wash Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Shawls, Spring Wraps, etc., all in the most elegant styles. And in Carpets, Mattings, Draperies, etc., our stock is simply immense, comprising all the latest novelties and new designs. Also, in Ladies, Gents', Misses, Boys and Children's Shoes we have opened this spring the largest stock ever shown by us. Our new Spring Millinery is now coming. Miss Hol. royd and Mrs. Bernard have jus returned from New York after examining the latest designs and newest styles in Millinery and Dressmaking. See our immense stocks this week.

CHAMBERLIN, JOHNSON & CO., 66 AND 68 WHITEHALL STREET, 1. 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13 AND 15 HUNTER STREET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

CHURCH NOTICES.

es to be Held at the Various Churches Today.

METHODIST.

Trinity church, corner Whitehall and West Peters streets, Rev. J. W. Lee, D. D., pastor. Preaching today at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Subjectsmorning: "The Philosophy and Mission of Great Men." Evening: "Intemperance." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Teachers meeting and lecture by Major Slaton on Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Class meetings Monday and Friday at 7:15 p. m.

Sunday school at the Barracks today at 3 p. m., W. T. Wilson superintendent. Preaching this even-METHODIST.

Ing at 7:30 o'clock. Prayer meeting ruessay evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to these services.

First Methodist Episcopal Church South, junction of Peachtree and North Pryor streets—Rev. H. C. Morrison, D. D., pastor. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Subject of morning sermon, "The General Judgment." Sunday school at 3:30 a. m., R. A. Hemphill and H. E. W. Palmer, juperlatendents. Class insecting at 3:30 p. m., Young men's prayer meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., Toung men's prayer meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., and general prayer meeting to Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. The jubble is cordially invited. Seats free.

Marietla Street Miss on Sunday school at 9 a. m. John F. Farclay, superinthedent.

Prak street Methodist Church, West End—Rev. A. G. Wardlaw, pastor. Class meeting at 9 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m., H. L. Cuiberson, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Prayer meeting and lecture Wednesday evening at 7:30. The Society of Christian Endeavor meets Priday night at 7 o'clock in the pastor's study. The Normal class, for the study of the Sunday school lesson, in finant class room Friday at 8 p. m., conducted by the pastor. The public are cordially invited to attend all of the services.

Payne's Chapel, corner Hunnicutt and Luckie Streets—Rev. H. L. Crumley, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., A. J. Beil, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the presiding cider, Rev. W. F. Glenn, D. D., and 7:15 p. m. by the pastor to railroad men and their familes on "Head Lights." Class meeting at 3 p. m. by Rev. W. F. Glenn, D. D. Prayer meeting Thursday, 7, p. m. All invited.

Pierce church, Ira street, near E. T., V. and Ga. railroad shous.—Rev. W. S. Stevens, pastor, Preach.

Invited.

Pierce chutch, Ira street, near E. T., V. and Ga. railroad shops—Rev. W. S. Stevens, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. W. P. Patillo. Communion at the close of the merning sermon. Gospel service at 7:15 p. m., led by the pastor. Every member especially urged to be present at both of these pervice. Class meeting at 9:30 a. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m., W. S. Hubbard. superintendent. Weekly prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:16 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

St. Pauli schurch. Hunter street. near Bell—Rev.

St. Paul's church, Hunter street, near Bell—Rev.
M. L. Underwood, pastor. Preaching at it a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9 a, m. Class meeting every Friday night at 7:30. Prayer greety Wednesday evening at 7:30. Prayer age Aid Society meets Monday at 2:30 p. m. Marietta Street M. E. Church, between Spring and Barfow streets—Rev. A. F. Ellington, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Conseceration meeting Monday at 3 p. m. Frayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Asbury church, corner Davis and Foundry streets—Rev. J. T. Richardson, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Sunday school at 3 p. m., F. M. Akin, superintendent. Rev. Joseph Choren will lecture the stranger's class. Frayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

invited North Atlanta mission Sunday school at 3:00 p. m. W. T. Walker, superintendent.

Preaching at the residence of E. J. Stewart, No. 21 Ella street, old barracks, every Sunday at 11 o'clock, except the second Sunday of each month.

Grace Church, corner Houston and Boulevard—Rev. G. E. Bonner, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., J. C. Hendrix, superintendent. Prayer meeting Wednesday night. Class meeting Friday night. All invited.

Merritt avenue church, near Peachtree—Rev. T. J.

ivited.

riti avenue church, near Peachtree—Rev. T. J.
tinn, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:15
by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
Frazier, superintendent. Prayer meeting BAPTIST.

First Baptist church, corner of Forsyth and Walton streets, Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D., pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p.m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Young men's meeting at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening. Prayer and lecture meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Second Baptist church, corner Washington and Mitchell streets—Rev. Henry McDonald, D. D., pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Subject of morning sermon: "Grist's Love for the Church." Evening: "Jewish Prophecy and Providence."—this is the fourth in Dr. McDonald's series of sermons on "The Evidences of the Truth of the Bible." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., A. C. Briscoe, superintendent. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:32 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Third Baptist church, 31 Jones avenue.—Rev. W. C. McCall, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. by the pastor. Subject for evening: "To Whom Shall We Go?" Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m., W. H. Bell, Superintendent. The public are cordially invited to attend these services. Seats free.

Fifth Baptist church, corner of Bell and Fillmore streets, Rev. V. C. Norcross, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:15 p. m. by Rev. V. C. Norcross, Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., Y. J. Buchanan, superintendent. Prayer meeting every Thursday at 7:45 p. m. All invited.

Sixth Baptist Church, 179 W. Hunter street—J. H. Weaver, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:15 p. m. by the pastor. Prayer meeting Wednesday night. Voung people's meeting Thursday night. All are cordially invited to attend.

lend.

Ira street Baptist mission, corner Ira and Eads streets. Freaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:15 p. m. by Rev. W. B. Smith. Sunday school at 3 p. m., Henry Hillyer, superintendent. Gospel service every evening during the week at 7:15, fine music. Prayer and song service Thursday at 7 p. m. Singing school on Mondays and Fridays at 7 p. m. by Prof. James L. White. All invited.

White. All invited.

Central Baptist church, corner W. Fair and Peters streets.—J. A. McMurray, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7;15 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., Judge J. A. Anderson, superintendent. Regular prayer meeting Wednesday at 7 p. m. All are invited to these meetings.

West End Baptist Sunday-school meets in Dunn's chapel, corner Oak and Ashby streets, at 3 o'clock p.m. Dr. Wm. Crenshaw, superintendent.

Primitive Baptist church, corner Boulevard and Irwin streets.—Elder J. T. Jordan, pastor. Preaching third Saturday and Sunday in each month. All are cordially invited to attend.

McDonnough Mission Sunday school at 3 p. m., E. 8, Lumpkin, superintendent.

PRESBYTERIAN. First Presbyterian church, Marietta street—Rev. H. Barnett, D. D., pastor. Divine services at 11. m. and at 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Young men's rayer meeting Tuesday at 7:39 p. m. Regular myer meeting Wedneeday night at 7:39 p. m. unday school at 9:30 a. m. All are cordially inited. Marietta street mission Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will meet just to the right and apposite the Exposition hotel, on Marietta street, it 3:30 p. m. There will be preaching at the same lace on Friday at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. E. H. Baruett, b. D. All are cordially invited.

D, D. All are cordially invited.

Central Prosbyterian church, Washington street—
Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., pastor. Preaching at 11

a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., Professor W. W. Lumpkin, superintendent. Regular prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Young men's prayer meeting Thursday 7:30

p. m.
The mission Sunday school of the Central Presbyterian church will meet at corner Stonewall and Chapel streets, at 3 p. m., B. H. Cameron, Superintendent. All are cordially invited.
Rankin Chapel, corner Martin and Gleun streets.
Religicus services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., also on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school will meet at 3
p. m., Dr. J. W. Rankin, superintendent. All welcome.

arth Presbyterian church—Rev. T. P. Cleve-pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m. e postor. Sibbath school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer ing Wednesday at 7 p. m. Men's prayer meet-fouday at 7 p. m. A cordial invitation to all

West End Presbyterian church—Services will be held in Oak street chapel at 11 a.m. by Rev.J. N. Craig, D. D. Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., George B. McGanghy, superintendent. Cottage prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the residence of Mr. D. W. McGregor. All are cordially invited to attend.

St. Philip's church, Capitol Square, corner Washington and Hunter streets—Rev. Byron Holly, rector, Rev. W. H. Hunt officiating. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Morning service and sermon at 11 a. m. Evening service and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Strangors and visitors furnished sittings. All are welcome. Good Shepherd chap el Sunday school at 3:30 p. m. Emanuel chapel, North Atlanta. Sunday school at 3:30 p. m. at 3:30 p. m.

Epiphany chapel, Jackson street. Sunday school at 4 p. m.

CONGREGATIONAL. The Church of the Redeemer, corner of Ellis and Church streets—Rev. G. R. Turk, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Subject for morning, "A Plea for the Sabbath." Sabbath school at the close of the morning service, A. B. Carrier, superintendent. Strangers welcome. Seats free.

Emanuel church, west of E. T. V. & G. shops. Sunday school and pastor's Bible class at 10. a. m. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Kennedy, at 11. CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Central Christian church, Peters street, between Whitehall and Forsyth—Services conducted by Dr. A. G. Thomas at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., C. A. Rauschenberg, superinteudent. No service tonight. All are cordially invited to these Services. Sorvices.

Church of Christ—On Hunter street, Rev. T. M. Harris, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., W. S. Bell, superintendent. Bible class at 10 a. m., Rev. T. M. Harris, teacher. You are cordially invited.

German Lutheran church, corner Forsyth and Garnett streets, J. H. Klerner, pastor. Service at 11 a. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Everybody is welcome. UNITARIAN.

Church of Our Father, on Church street, near junction of Peachtree and Forsyth streets.—Rev. George Leonard Chaney will preach at 11 a. m. on "God, the Father," and at 7:30 p. m. on "Jesus Christ, His Son"—the first two sermons in a course on Christian doctrine to extend over four Sundays. Sunday school and Bible class at 12:15 p. m. Seats free, All are cordially invited.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Decatur street mission has removed to cornerDecatur and Butter streets. Sabbath school at 3 p. m., to which the public is cordially invited.

Y. M. C. A — Meeting this evening at the railroad rooms, 19½ S. Forsyth street, at 3:30, conducted by Rev. G. R. Turk. Bible study at 4:45 p. m., conducted by W. R. Bosard, secretary. Let every young man attend these services.

If your complaint is want of appetite, try half a wine glass of ANGOSTURA BITTERS half an hour befordinner. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

No such opportunity to buy FINE HATS at LOW PRICES was ever offered to the people of Atlanta, as that now offered at the closing out sale at the old stand of Pope, "the Hatter."

Mr. Von Finkelstein's Lecture.

Of this lecture the Rev. J. P. Newman, D. D.

LL.D., says: "Palestine is a changeless land. Customs two thousand years old are the customs today.

To reproduce these in illustrations of the sacred story is the mission of Mr. Von Finkelstein. To see him in his oriental costumes and hear him in his prayers and hymns is to spend an evening in the Holy Land."

The Pall Mail Gazette, one of the leading papers of England, says of it: Mr. Peter Von Finkelstein is a native of Jerusalem. and a gentleman whose is a native of Jerusalem, and a gentleman whose peculiar and striking talent for dramatic represen-tation made him a suitable exponent of life in the east, which to the western world is more or less unntelligible. All his ready utterances and varied descriptions of scenes of every-day life in Palestine of today, so far to bring the Book of books closer to those who read and would understand it."

Mr. Von Finkelstein will appear at Trinity church next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Tickets on sale at Wilson & Bruckner's.

From the Oglethorpe Hotel Company. BRUNSWICK, Ga., March 2, 1888.-Messrs. M. BRUNSWICK, Ga., March 2, 1883.—Messrs. M. Rich & Bros., Atlanta, Ga.; Gentlemen: In closing up the matters pertaining to the contract you made with this company to furnish it with its carpets and draperies, it gives us pleasure to tasiff to the very satisfactory manner in which you carried out your contract, both in letter and spirit.

The carpets furnished are excellent, both in quality and design, are well made up, and when laid, fit perfectly, while the draperies are the admiration fit perfectly; while the draperies are the admiration of all. No feature of the furnishing of "The Oglethorpe" has received more praise than the department supplied by you.

Trusting we may have frequent business relations

Trusting we may nave truly, in the future, we are yours very truly, W. E. KAY, Secretary and Tr

B. B. B.

The Great Blood Purifier and Tonic. I

Boils, etc., and is a wonderful tonic For the blood, use B. B. B.

For Catarrh, use B. B. B. For Kidney troubles, use B. B. B. For skin diseases, use B. B. B.

B. B. B.

(Botanic Blood Purifier.)

SALE LIST!

Steel Wire Door Mats. Double width Velvet Carpets. Single width Velvet Carpets. Double width Tapestry Car-

Single width Tapestry Car-

All grades Body Brussels Carpets. China Mattings. An entirely new stock. New Lace Curtains. New Parlor Suits. New Leather Goods. Chamber Suits. Dining Suits. Buy your Furniture and Carpets together.

Send for Catalogue of Furniture. Send for samples of Carpets. 42 and 44 Peachtree Street.

25 and 27 Broad Street. 122 Decatur Street. Fast Traveling.

The Queen and Crescent Route (Cincinnati Southern Ry.), famous for the speed of its trains and excellent condition of track, is now running a through sleeper from Cincinnati to Atlanta on the limited

Portfolio of Fashions and What to Wear for the Spring of 1888 Is a most comprehensive and beautiful book of 80 quarto pages, 10x13½ inches, with over 800 illustrations of the latest and best styles, including

The first eight pages are each composed of full length figures, of fashionable costumes, of the very latest designs. There are also many more large illustrations than formerly throughout the book. Price 25c; 5c extra by mail.

FROM NEW YORK

To Brunswick-Excellent Opportunity for Our Merchants to Ship by the Fast Line On the 15th inst the staunch, fast and firstclass packet, "I. N. Kerlin," will sail from New York for Brunswick. This will be a good opportunity for Atlanta merchants to have their goods shipped, as the rate will be low, and time short. If you have goods that you wish to bring close on the 15th, it will be to your interest to consult or correspond with Mr. Warren Ray, 62 South street, New York city, or Littlefield & Tison, Brunswick, Ga. Do not wait till last moment before making arrangements, but act at once. It will be to your interest. Parties in Atlanta can get information from Mr. J. J. Griffin,

HYGEIA TOBACCO. -Manufactured by-Thomas C. Williams & Co.

Richmond, Va. Guaranteed to prevent heartburn, nervousnes and maiaria. For testimonials and prices, address Frank E. Block, and Harralson Bros, & Co., Atlanta Ga. feble-d2m &p.

WANTED---500 MEN

To drink GOOD WHISKY at our bar every day. Will treat you right, and you'll call again. B. and B., 46 Marietta street.

Finance and Commerce.

Bonds, Stocks and Money.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE. New York exchange buying at 1/2 premium and day was intensely dull, except for two or three specialties, and while weak for them was steady to firm in main. New England was a great feature, springing into activity soon after opening and developing a marked weakness immediately. A very unfavorable report submitted to the railroad commissioners was the occasion of a rush to sell, and shorts, who had been inclined to cover, put ou fresh lines in stock, knowing it off 1½ per cent Reading, Lackayanna and Frie mapproximated in the receipts $48 bales; cross $48; sates none; stock 21,074; exports coastwise 1,306.

| New York exchange | Section | Sect NEW YORK STOCKS.

MEMPHIS, March 10—Cotton quiet; middling %; not receipts 189 bales; shipments 1,971; sales 1,300; refined quiet; C 5½; extra C 5½; extra C 5½; white extra c 5½; powdered 7; granulated ½; cuts loaf and a 6½; confectioners A 6½; cuts loaf and crushed 7½; powdered 7; granulated ½; cuts of x 1½; powdered 7; granulated ½; cuts of x 1½; powdered 7½; powdered 7½;

Reading. Lackawanna and Erie monopolized all the interest in the rest and they developed no feat ure of note, all fluctuating within a range of % per cent, while displaying a firm tone throughout the session. The remainder of the list, however, was absolutely stagnant. The close was very dull, but steady to firm at an insignificant change from first prices. The sales aggregated 71,000 shares. Final prices show only slight changes in the general list, though Wheeling and Lake Erie is down 1½.

Exchange dull but steady at 486@48. Money very easy at 11/4@ 2, closing offered at 11/4. Subtreasury balances: Coin $129,848.000; currency, $12,394,000. Governments dull but steady; 4s 125/4; 41/4s 106/4. State ernments dull but steady; 48 129/8, 19/8 109/8 58 50 50 60 do. Class B 58. 108 6a. 78 mortgage. 105/4 Norfolk & W'n pre. 4.2½ Norfolk & W'n pre. 4.2½

THE COTTON MARKETS. CONSTITUTION OFFICE, Net receipts for 1 day 7,122 bales, against 8,931 bales last year: exports 19,380 bales; last year 37,551 bales; stock 766,637 bales; last year 708,310 bales. Below we give the opening and closing quotations of cotton futures in New York today:

Grand total... 102.382

hipped today... 92,608 9,774

NEW YORK, March 10-Hubbard, Price & Co.,

in their circular today, say: Thelopening report from Liverpool was rather disap; o nting to most operators here. On the first call here this market responded to the extent of 7@8 points, but at this decline great steadiness at once became apparent, and prices were slowly bid up again until about 11:30 a. m., when the final report of the agricultural bureau making its appearance, the market became almost firm. The inference drawn by a majority of traders from this report is that it indicates a crop of 6,500,000 and 6,600,000 bales, and on this a steadier tone became apparent at the close, which was almost firm. The Cotton World publishes today statistics making the total crop in sight on the first of March 6,827,689 bales. Outside of statistical news the market has been rather uninteresting and partakes of the usual Saturday character.

NEW; YORK, March 10-The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 2,538,515 bales, of which 2,302,415 bales are American, against 2,983,252 bales and 2,437,352 bales respectively last year. Receipts at all interior towns 30,551 bales. Receipts from plan tations 51.380 bales. Crop in sight 6,370,358 bales.

By Telegraph.

IIVERPOOL, March 10—12:15 p. m.—Cotton, business good at unchanged prices; middling uplands 5%, middling Orleans 5:7-16: sales 10;000 bales; speculation and export 1:000; receipts 18:000; American 10;000; uplands low middling clause March delivery 5:22-64; March and April delivery 5:22-64; March and June delivery 5:23-64; May and June delivery 5:23-64; June and July delivery 5:27-64; July and August delivery 5:28-61; August and September delivery 5:28-61; September and October delivery 5:28-64; September and October delivery 5:28-64; September delivery 5:28-64; futures opened steady.

LIVERPOOL, March 10—1:00 p. m.—Sales of American 8:700 bales; uplands low middling/clause March delivery 5:22-64, seliers; March and April delivery 5:22-64, seliers; March and April delivery 5:28-64, seliers; March and April delivery 5:28-64, seliers; March and April delivery 5:28-64, seliers; March and May delivery 5:28-64, seliers; March and September 5:27-64, buyers: September and October delivery 5:19-64, seliers; futures barely steady.

NEW YORK, March 19—Cotton quiet; sales 88 bales; middling uplands 10:3-16; middling Orleans 10:5-16; net receipts 8:22; goos 8:285; consolidated net receipts 7,122; exports to Great Britain 7,470; to France 7,310; to continent 4,600; stock 299, 132.

GALVESTON, March 10—Cotton steady; middling 34: net receipts 23:29 sales 207:

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, March 10.-[Special.]-The opening this morning of markets gave evidence of moderate steadiness. Operators were not particularly anxious to trade, and, as is usually the case when business begins to drag, a general feet no of uncasiness de-veloped and values of grain receded almost steadily after the first ten minutes, and before noon declines of %.@7% had been recorded. Attempts to rally the markets were feeble, and the close was rather tame at fair declines from yesterday's. News from the contider was not for character to have considered. outside was not of a character to inspire confidence in the wheat market. Foreign houses were reported to be strong, but trading was mainly by the local scalping element, when, as a rule, were bea ish. The governorment report tended to increase the disposition of operators to selland assisted to force prices down. About the only support come from shorts, who were evening up for the week. May opened at 80%c, sold to 80%c, broke gradually to 80%c, rallied to 80%c and closed at 80%80%c. Corn was dull again today. Bulls who were long on corn succeeded in unloading Tue-day and have since let the market alone. The latter have been forced to unload at a loss. The closing prices today were ½c below outside figures. Trading today was smaller than any preceding day during the week and almost entirely local. May opened • 152% and sold to 52%@53c. Offerings became quite free and prices started downward, and before 12:30 touched 521/c. The government report, showing stacks in farmers hands of 100,000,000 bushels less than a year ago, created considerable discussion, and was construed by some operators as a bear'sh argument, as the effect of the reduction has, they claim, been dis-counted by an advance of 14c over prices current a year ago. A rally of %c followed the decline, but the market closed quiet at 521/4@521/sc, a decline of %c from yesterday's close.

Oats were slow and heavy. There was about 1/20 Oats were slow and neary. There was spout 346 4c advance in oats today. Speculative trading was light, and confined to May and June, which both ranged at 31346314c and closed at 31463 2c.

The provision market manifested more life to lay, and the feeling was stronger. The interest centered mainly in pork. Offerings on speculative account were fair, while the demand was active, especially when the feeling was along the recognition of the state. on behalf of local shorts. Prices ruled higher dur-ing the early part of the day, but the feeling was not so strong later, and outside figures were not supported to the close. Receipts of hors were our liberal for the closing day of the week, and prices ruled weak, which had some effect on the market during the latter part of the session. May perk sold during the latter part of the session. May perk sold at $14.10@$14.29\(\phi\) and closed at $14.17\(\phi\). May lard sold at 7.72\(\phi\). May short ribs sold at 7.72\(\phi\). The following was the range in the leading intures in Chicago today:

Wheat— Opening Highest Closing May \( \text{Nov} \) \( \text{Nov} June..... OATS-May ..... June..... PORK-

PROVISIONS, GRAIN, ETC.

... 7 27½ ... 7 35

CONSTITUTION OFFICE

ATLANTA, March 10, 1513;

Flour. Grain and Meal.

ATLANTA. March 10—Flour—Best patent $5.50; extra tancy $5.25; fancy $4.75; extra family $4.50; extra $3.75.

Wheat — No. 2 red $1.00; Georgia 1ed 39c. Brancharge sacks $1.15; smail $1.17. Corn Meal —Plain 72c; bolted 20c. Pea Meal—90c. Grits—$4.25.
Corn—Choice write 74c; No. 2 white Tannessee 72c; No. 2 maxed 70c. Oatis—No. 2 mixed 45c. Hay—Choice timothy, large beles $1.10; smail bales $1.10; clover 95c; No. 1 marge bales $1.10; smail bales $1.10; clover 95c; wheat straw baled 80c. Peas—Stock —
BALTIMORE, March 10—Flour steady and quiet; western and street and western superfine $2.37@$2.50 extra $3.00@$3.5; falo brands $4.50; $5.00. Wheat, southern imm and quiet; western micher but quiet; southern imm and quiet; western micher but quiet; southern red 9.20; amber 1962$; No. 1 Maryland —; No. 2 western white red $50 t 82c. bid. Corn, southern steady: white 56g.57; yellow 350.56.

NEW YORK, March 10—Flour, southern steady:

556-56.

NEW YORK, March 10—Flour, southern steady: common to fair extra $3.5665.40; good to choice $4.1065.00. Wheat, No. 2 red day 71.566975. June 90 15-166.91 3-16. Corn. No. 2 March and April 65.40 61; May 60 7-166-6074. Oats without quotable charge; mixed western 37-60-91. No. 2 May 3 73-28774. Hops dull: state 56-14; California 66-12.

ST. LOUIS, March 16—Flour quie*. Wheat closed %c lelow yesterday; No. 2 red; fail cash $25,478.1%; May $35,681. Corn closed lower; No. 2 mixed cash 464; May 47,6047%. Oats firm; No. 2 mixed cash 30,4; May 29,4. CHICAGO, March 10—Cash quotations were as follows: Flour stendy: winter wheat $3,90,681. The articles.

CHICAGO, March 10—Cash quotations were as follows: Flour steady; winter wheat $3.90@$4.55; spring wheat $3.40@4.25; spring patent $3.50@$4.50. No. 2 spring wheat 75.607; No. 3 do. -; No. 2 red 37.68.2 No. 2 cort 51.6. No. 2 onts 25.60.0; CINCINNATI. March 10—Flour in a dem in family $3.50@$8.50; fancy $3.70@$3.90. Wheat firm: No. 2 red 57. Corn. No. 2 mixed 50. Oats, No. 2 mixed 31@34%.

LOUISVILLE, March 0—Grainst adv. Wheat, No. 2 red 56; longberry — Corn. No. 2 mixed 5.; do. white — Oats, new No. 2 mixed 33.40.34; do. white —

Cois, new No. 2mixed 33-ye-34; dos. white—delivery 5 22-64, selicers; March and May delivery 5 22-64, selicers; March and March an Provisions.

8T. LOUIS, March 10-Provisions steady. Port $14.136 $14.25. Land 7.39-7.35. Dry sait meats, boxed lots shoulders 5.875; long clear 7.12; clear fibs 7.25; short clear 7.139-7.75. Bacon, boxed shoulders 5.875; long clear 7.12; clear fibs 7.25; short bas, short clear 7.125; clear steady. Parcon, clear rib sides 5; clear sides 8.25; shoulders 6.25; harns 10% 612.

LOUISVILLE, March 10-Provisions steady. Bacon, clear rib sides 5; clear sides 8.65; shoulders 6.25. Back sport $44.35; hams, sugar-cured 11½ 6125; Land, choice leaf 9½.

NEW, YORK, March 10-Port quiet: one vear-old mess 14 7569 15.25; new $15.006 $15.25; Middles nominal, Land, western steam spot 50; March -9.2; May 7.95-67.95; city steam 7.05; refined to continent 7.20. CHICAGO, March 19-Cash quotations were as follows: Mess pork $14.006/81 6. Land 1.65 7.65%. Shore ribs loose 7.17½. Dry saited shoulders boxed 6.006.61%; short clear sides boxed 7.006 7.65.

ATLANTA, March 10-The following are ruling eash prices today: Clear rib sides 8% 6. Sugar-cured hams 12% 613% c. Land -Pure leaf, tieroes 106; refined 9.

CINCINNATI, March 10—Pork $14.50. Lard firm-er7.6(ci.n.6.2). Bulk meats in fair demand; short ribs 7.45. Bacon quiet: short ribs—; short clear > ... Naval Stores. WILMINGTON, March 10—Turpentine firm at 354; rosun firm: strained 85; good strained 86; tar firm at $1.17; crude turpentine firm: hard $1.10; yellow dip $2.10; virgin $2.10. $2.10: virgin $2.10.

$AVANNAH, March 10—Turpentine quiet at $2;
sales — barrels; rosin quiet at $2;
$\frac{1}{2}$; sales — barrels,

CHARLESTON, March 1— Turpentine nominal;
rosin quiet: good strained $5.

rosin quiet: good strained 85. NEW YORK, March 10-Rosin dull at$1.29@$1.221/3 turpentine dull at $3@301/2 Fruits and Confectioneries.

ATLANTA, March 10— Apples—$4.75@$5.00 $
bbl, Lemons—$5.75@$1.25. Oranges—$2.26@$3.36
Cocoanuts—6c. Pineapples—$2.00 g doz, Bananas—Scleeted $1.75@$2.00; grates $7.30 $\times$ hrefFigs — 13@18c. Raisins — New London $3.25;
$\foxed{4}\times$ boxes $1.75; $\foxed{4}\times$ boxes $ Fruits and Confectionerie

Hardware.

FATLANTA, March 10— Market steady, Horse-shoes $4.156.$4.50; mule shoes $5.256.35.50; horseshoe nails 126.26c. Ironbound harves $5.50. Trace-chains 226.70c. Ames shovels $9.00. Spades $10.00. Well-buckets $5.5°6.$4.50. Cotton rope 156.15c. Sweed from 5c; rolled or merchant bar 2° c rate. Cast-steal 193. 12c. Nails, from, $2.50; steel $2.60. Gildden barbed wire, galvanized, $p$ $566.5c. Powder, rine $5.00; blasting $2.15. Ear lead 7c. Shot $1.00.

Country Produce.

ATLANTA, March 10 — Eggs —12½c. Butter—
Gilt edge 20c21/c; choice Tennessee edge; othes grades 10c15. Poultry—Hens 22c-6 your chickens large 1622c. Irish Potatoes—3.0ca.30.
Sweet Potatoes—3.0c. Honey—Strained 63cc.
in the comb 10. Onlons—$1.00c$4.25. Cabbage—1 33c.

ATLANTA. March 10 - Horses -- Plug 263690; good drive $1506$200; drivers $1256$140; fine 2596 $200. Mules-14% to 15 hands $115@$125; 15 to 15% hands $1366$160.

hands $135@$100.
CINCINNATI, March 10—Hogs strong: common and light $4.00@$5.30; packing and butchers $5.35 @$5.70. Whisky.

CINCINNATI, March 10—Whiskys'cady at $1.09. ST. LCUIS, March 10—Whisky steady at $1.00. CHICAGO, March 10—Whisky $1.14.

W. H. PATTERSON, Bond and Stock Broker, 24 SOUTH PRYOR STREET. FOR SALE.

Atlanta and West Point Laffrond stock. Atlanta City bonds,
Atlanta City bonds,
Americus, Preston and Lumpkin Railroad bonds.
St-te of Georgia Honds.
Atlanta Gas Light Comeany stock.

THE GATE CITY NATIONAL BANK Of Atlanta, Ga.

-UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.-Capital and Undivided Profits, $375,000.41

Issues Certificates of Deposit Payable on Domand witth Interest Three per cent per annum if left four

Four per cent per annum if left six months. 41 per cent per annum if left twelve

NORTH SIDE SAVINGS BANK No. 7 Pryor Street.

DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS, ACcounts of manufacturers, country merchants and farmers received. Accommodations extended as far as consistent to sound banking. We draw drafts payable in all parts of Europe, pay interest of special deposits and make collections on all parts of he United States and Canada. CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED

CAPITAL CITY BANK,

SOCIETY MELANGE

What the People of Georgia and Atlanta are Doing.

Some Talk About the Wearers of Dress Suits

Personals About People. All ladies, of any religious faith or denomi-

All ladies, of any religious faith or denomination, whose business engagements prevent their strending the meetings of the "Daughters of the King" during the week, are invited to be present in the Sunday-school room of the First Baptist church, corner aWalton and Forsyth streets, this (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when the object and spirit of the organization will be explained, and invitations extended to all who wish to join.

On next Thursday ** and Mrs. J. P. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, of Milford, Pa., will leave the city for a western tour. They will go via Kansas City to Los Angeles. After spending three or four weeks in southern California they will visit the Yosemite valley, and thence to San Francisco. They will return home via the Union Pacific, stopping at Salt Lake City, Pike's Peak and Denver, reaching Atlanta about the last of May.

Quite a pleasant and novel entertainment was given by Miss Tene Li tle, in honor of her eleventh birthday, on the 10th of March. During the evening a soap bubble contest was held, Miss Nellie Rosenfield being the fortunate winner of the prize. Those present were: Misses May Street, Sarai Dooly, Ray Klein, Ella Harper, Emma Bean, Pauline Emith. Lillian Franklin, Alma-Maier, Nellic Rosenfield, Daisy Collins, Letha Collins.

Miss Tene was the recipient of a number of beautiful mesents.

tiful presents. Mr. George M. McKenzie, of this city, was married to Miss Annie Lee Thrasher, of Gainesville, Fla., on Tuesday morning, the Rev. L. D. Gieger file, on I tuesday hothing, the profession of the amost beautiful and impressive manner. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie spent soveral days in the land of flowers, visiting St, Augustine, Rock Ledge and other noted resorts. The happy couple reached this city last night, and are receiving the congratulations of their new fiends.

A question often asked by gentlemen is,
"Just when shall I wear a dress suit and when shall I not." The latest writer upon the subject gives the following very reasonable advice: "Make it a rule following very reasonable advice: "Make it a rule to wear evening dress on all evening social occasions. Nothing is simpler than that. If you happen to be invited to an afternoon gathering, your Prince Albert is the proper caper; but, "whenever the candles are lighted," as the old song has if, and you have company at your own house, or you are some-body's "company," it is a safe rule to appear in evening dress. It is not an affectation, but a sound idea, based on a good idea—towit: Putting off the cares of business with your business clothes and putting on the amenities of social life with your dress suit, that is never in any way associated with the hard and sordid things of life. In England they have worked out this problem correctly. There no have worked out this problem correctly. There no centleman goes down to dinner in hisowal house and with only his own family present save in evening dress. There is rest in the very change. After ing dress. There is rest in the very change. After a day of toil a man feels all the better for getting into evening dress and giving his mind up to the lighter and pleasanter things that are invariably associated with it. To be sure, we Americans have not uniformly adopted the habit, but we are getting there at a good round pace. Indeed, we have advanced so rapidly and so far that the appearance of a gentleman in evening dress at the least formal of extherings no longer excites comment or wonder." tatherings no longer excites comment or wonder.

The Young People's society of the First Mr. Frank Logan during the week.

On last Tuesday evening a delightful "at home" was given by the Misses Johnston at their residence on Loyd street, in honor of Miss Viola Masters, who is their guest, and one of the most popular society ladies of St. Augustine. Their charming home, beautifully decrated as it was, with their events for year forms and mosses, can best be deice cut flowers, ferns and mosses, can best be de choice cut flowers, ferns and mosses, can best be deteribed as a poem of natural loveliness, mingled with artistic taste and simple elegance.

A dozen couples were present and enjoyed to the fullest measure the evening's entertainment. The fair hostesses were ceaseless in their efforts to entertain, as with graceful ease they moved from one circle to another, enlivening all, while contributing to the entertainment of each particular guest. At a late hour the merry vary dispersed, after having spent one of the pleasanest evenings within the call of memory.

A writer in a recent Detroit Fress Press gives "certain well defined laws governing one's conduct in respect of places of amusements." As usual, the writer in some instances gives what may appear to be entirely unnecessary advice, but in the main the following from his-or her-pen will be found of interest:

found of interest:

A gentleman inviting a lady to accompany him to the theatre or opera must send his invitation the day before, and if it be the first time he must invite another lady of the same family to accompany her. The lady must reply promptly, so that if she declines there will yet be time for the gentleman to secure another companion.

Always enter a place of amusement as quietly as possible, and be in your scat before the performance begins.

Always enter a place of amusement as quietly as possible, and be in your scat before the performance begins.

Never comment aside upon those near you.

A lady is not expected to bow to a friend across a theater or concert room, but a gentleman may recomize his lady friends.

It is excessively ill-bred for a gentleman to leave a lady alone in a public piace of amusement. It is an insult to a lady for a gentleman to visit the refreshment room between acts. This custem cannot be too strongly reprehended.

A gentleman must not give up his seat to a lady when escorting a lady; his duty is solely to the lady he accompanies.

During the internission at a promenade concert or opera, the gentleman may invite the lady to promenade. If she declines, he must remain with her.

or opera, the gentleman may mive the act to promenade. If she declines, he must remain with the r.

In such promenade friends may bow to each other the first time they rass only. A lady must on no ecount allow other gentlemen to join her, and no gentleman will stop a lady to speak to her.

The gentleman must secure a libretto or a programme before taking his seat that he may not be obliged to leave the lady's side.

A gentleman alone may join lady friends for a few minutes between the acts; but he should recollect that their escort has a prior claim upon their attention.

Never push violently through a crowd at a public place.

A gentleman will always find room made for a lady if he request it. A gentleman will always find room made for a lady if he request it.

A gentleman should call for his companion in a carriage if his means will warrant. This is especially necessary when the evening is stormy.

A gentleman may ask permission to call upon the lady the following morning or evening, which permission she should grant. She should take the opportunity to make him feel that he has conferred a real pleasure upon her by his invitation.

Gloves should be worn in all places of amusement and must not be removed to shake hands.

Never join a party about starting for a place of amusement, unless urgently invited. If there be two or three ladies in the party and but one gentleman, another gentleman, if well acquainted, may offer his service as escort to one of the ladies, but he must also offer to share the expense.

About the People.

Miss Miriam Price is visiting friends in Carters Professor Wm. A Arthur, of Clarkston, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Rosa Lee has returned from a six weeks' visit to friends in Nashville. Mr. Micollins N. Stow, from Gainesville, spent a few days in the city last week. Miss May Field, of Mississippi, is visiting Mrs. Charles Handy, at the Kimball. Mr. P. Corbitt, of New York, with his son, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. M. Holbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. McKinzie are stopping at Captain J. C. Bridgers', at 23 Luckie street. Miss Mamie Porsey, of Gainesville, Ga., is visiting ber aunt, Mrs. V. R. Thornton, at 262 West Peters

Mrs. R. B. Harrison, of 200 Capitol avenue, has re-hurned from a week's visit to relatives and friends in Lumpkin. Ga.

Messrs. Alton Angeir, Joe Thompson and Frank O'Bryan left via the East Tennessee last night for a abort visit to Florida.

short visit to Florida.

Miss Jennsella Spinks, one of the chriming young ladies of this city, and W. A. Halley, of Mississippi, are to be married soon.

Mrs. D. W. Appler has returned home after a pleasant solourn of several months with friends in fandford, Orlando and Kissimmee, Fla.

Mr. George Howard, the popular and efficient chief clerk of the Richmond and Danville railread, will leave this week for Houston, Texas, for a few weeks' rest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Leidy, of Memphis, Mrs. Frank Miller, Miss Bostick and Miss Powell, who went to Florida a short time ago, returned to Atlanta on Priday evening.

Miss Callie Saunders, a charming young lady, of

& CO

OHNSON & CO.,

IN, ETC. TION OFFICE, A. March 10,1533 Meal.

Beeth Sa.50; extra family $4.50; 4.50; extra family $4.50; 4.60; extra $3.75; a red boe. Brangell, 17. Corn Meal—90c. Grits—$4.25; bite Tennessee 72e; mixed 45e. Hay—$1 small bales $1.10; es $1.10; clover 95e; ock—$1.50; clover 95e; ock —
r steady and quiet:
ine$2.37@$2.75 ex; city mills super; Rio brands$4.50
miet; western niamber 14694; No.
inter red spot $5
inte 56.657; yellow r, southern steady: .0; good to choice my 1 (mail) June ch and April (b) @ it quotable change; 7 2 % 2 374. Hops He'. Wheat closed ations were as fol-$1.90@$1.55; soring $1.50@$1.50. No. 2 No. 2 red $1 @82 mixed : do white

Lower and Inigood
Prime 18c; good
Sugar — Cut loar nulated 73c; standxira C614c. 8)rups mine 36-5c; com60c; green 35-66c.
e 1214c. Cinnamon
Mace 60c. Pepon butter 8c; bearl
314c. Candy—Asxo. 3; bbis $15.00;
$2.006$x5.00 $2 100
11c. Matches
22.50; $2.50; $2.400
oxes 314c. Ringies
grinia 75c. Cheese fice lower: Rio car 1. 8u a quet kettl: choco

c; centrifugals
white 6; off white led 5%; prime do.
(6) 5-16. Molasses ice 3363; strictly prime 216.25; conordinary to prime ur Rio nominal a fairly active: No. 7 0.90; May 9.60@9.55; to good refining

ND SHOES

French Woo'ens, Table Linens, Wash mmense, comprising all the latest novelties Spring Millinery is now coming. Miss Hol. nr immense stocks this week

ET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

4 13-16; refined quiet; C 516; extra C 5%; white extra C 516,65%; yellow 516; off A 5.946,6; mould A 7; standard A 6 6; confectioners A 6%; cut loaf and crushed 77; powdered 7; granulated 34; cubes 7, which is a steady; 50-test 20-20 6. Rice firm; domestic 45600. Provisions. ST. LOUIS, March 10—Provisions steady. Pork 14.156-514.25. Land 7.33-67.33. Dry sait meats, boxed is shoulders 5.87½; long clear 7.12½; clear ribs 7.25; ort clear 7.35-67.37½; short ribs 5.; short clear 8.12½; short ribs 5.; short clear 8.12½; short ribs 5.; short clear 8.12½; short ribs 6.25; hams 10.26.12

10 Coll Nams 10: 412

LOUISVILLE, March 10—Provisions steady. Bacon, clear rib sides 8; clear sides 8.50; shoulders 62. Bulk meats, clear ribsides 7.40; clear sides 8.65; partly cured shoulders 62. Mess port 814.75. Hams, sugar-cured 11: 40:124. Land, choice leaf 94.

NEW, YORK, March 10—Pork quiet; one vear old mess 14.76. 13.25; new $15.00; $15.25. Middles nominal, Land, western steam spot $0.05; March 19.95 May 7.97. 42.99; city steam 7.65; refined to continent 7.90. CHICAGO, March 40—Cash quotations were as follows: Mess pork $14.00.6914 65. Land 7.65 27.674. Shore ribs loose 7.174. Dry salted shoulders coved 6.00.66 10; short clear sides boxed 7.600.7.65.

ATLANTA. March 10—The following are ruling cash pricestoday: Clear rib sides 84c. Sugarcured hams 124.69.32.c. Land — Pure leaf, tlerees 10c; CINCINN ATLANTAL In Orch 10.

Naval Stores.

ZWILMINGTON, March 10—Turpentine firm at $53/4 rosin firm; strained 85; good strained 90; tar firm at $1.1; crude turpentine firm; hard $1.10; yeilow dip SAVANNAH, March 10—Torpentine quiet at 38; sales — barreis; rosm quiet at 37½; sales — barrels. CHARLESTON, March 1—Turpentine, nominal; rosm quiet: good strained 85. NEW YORK, March 10-Rosin dull at$1.29@$1.22%

Fruits and Confectioneries.

ATLANTA, March 10— Appies — $4.75@$5.00 a
bbl. Lemons—$3.75@$1.25. Oranges—$3.25@$3.30.
Cocoanuts—6c. Pineappies—$2.00 glocz. Bananna—
Selected $1.75@$2.00; grares $7.50 g harrel.
Figs — 130 18c. Raisins — New London $3.25;
boxes $1.75; ½ boxes 90c. Currants—7½@$c.
Leghorn citron—27c. Almonds—19c. Pecans—100
idc. Brazil—106.11c. Filherts—12½c. Walnuts—13c. Dried Fruit—Sundried apples 3½@11c, studmed pecales 8½@10c; studried peaches pealed 11c.

Country Produce. ATLANTA, March 10 - Egys -121/c. Butter-filt edge 20/021/c; choice Tennessee 1820c; othes grades 10/015/c. Poultry-Hens 20/0-0-young chickens large 16/020. Irish Potatoes—80/00/03.50. Sweet Potatoes—60/0-0. Honey - Strained 6/08/c; in the comb 10. Onions—$1.00/081.23. Cabbage—1

ATLANTA. March 10 - Horses - Plug $65000; good drive $1506200; drivers $12565140; fine $2506 $200. Mules -14% to 15 hands $1156$125; 16 to 16% hands $1356$100. hands $135@$160. CINCLANATI, Murch 10—Hogs shope; common and light $4,00@$5,30; packing and butchers $5.33.

Whisky.
CINCINNATI, March 10—Whisky s'cady at $1.09.
ST. LCUIS, March 10—Whisky steady at $1.00.
CHICAGO, March 10—Whisky $1.14.

W. H. PATTERSON. Bond and Stock Broker. 24 SOUTH PRYOR STREET. FOR SALE.

Atlanta and West Point Sailroad stock. Atlanta City bonds.
Americus, Freston and Lumpkin Railroad bonds.
State of Georgia Honds.
Georgia Railroad bonds.

THE GATE CITY NATIONAL BANK

Of Atlanta, Ga. --- UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.--

Capital and Undivided Profits, $375,000. Issues Certificates of Deposit Payable on Demand witth Interest

Three per cent per annum if left four months.

Four per cent per annum if left six months. 41 per cent per annum if left twelve

NORTH SIDE SAVINGS BANK

No. 7 Pryor Street. DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS, AC-

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED

CAPITAL CITY

OF ATLANTA, GA., Capital and Undivided Profits, $452,000 A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

Collections made direct on all points in the United States and remitted for promptly. Particular attention paid to the business of correspondents. The business of Bankers, Serchants and Lanufacturers is repectfully solicited. Special feature made of the Savings Department. Interest paid on time deposits.

i HUMPHREYS CASTLEMAN Bond and Stock Broker,

12 East Alabama Street.

FOR SALE. 2,000 shares Tallapoosa Land, Mining and Manufacturing Com-

THE TOLLESON COMMISSION OO.

SOCIETY MELANGE

What the People of Georgia and Atlanta are Doing.

Some Talk About the Wearers of Dress Suits -Advice Upon Interesting Subjects
-Personals About People.

All ladies, of any religious faith or denomi ing the week, are invited to be present in king during the week, are invited to be picted to the Sunday-school room of the First Baptist church, sorner (Walton and Forsyth streets, this (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when the object and spirit of the organization will be explained, and layitations extended to all who wish to join.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Arm-of Milford. Pa., will leave the city for a western California they will visit the rosemite valley, and thence to San Francisco. They will return home via the Union Pacific, stopping at Salt Lake City, Pike's Peak and Denver, reaching Atlanta about the last of May.

Quite a pleasant and novel entertainment was given by Miss Tene Li tle, in honor of her sleventh birthday, on the 10th of March. During the evening a soap bubble contest was held, Miss the evening a soap bubble contest was held, Mis Nellie Rosenfield being the fortunate winner of the prize. Those prosent were: Misses May Street, Sarai Deoly, flay Klein, Ella Harper, Emma Bean, Pauline Smith, Lillian Franklin, Alma Maier, Nellie Rosenfield, Daisy Collins, Letha Collins.

Miss Tene was the recipient of a number of beau-

Mr. George M. McKenzle, of this city, was married to Miss Annie Lee Thrasher, of Gainesville, Fla., on Tuesday morning, the Rev. L. D. Gieger efficiating. The ceremony was performed in a most teautiful and impressive manner. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie spent several days in the land of flowers, visiting St. Augustine, Rock Ledge and other noted resorts. The happy couple reached this city last night, and are receiving the congratulations of their weavy friends.

Many friends.

A question often asked by gentlemen is,

Just when shall I wear a dress suit and when shall
I not.' The latest writer upon the subject gives the following very reasonable advice: 'Make it a rule to wear evening dress on all evening social occasions. Nothing is simpler than that. If you happen sions. Nothing is simpler than that. If you happen to be invited to an afternoon gathering, your Prince albert is the proper caper; but, "whenever the randles are lighted," as the old song has it, and you have company at your own house, or you are some-body's "company," it is a safe rule to appear in evening dress. It is not an affectation, but a sound idea, based on a good idea—towit: Putting off the rares of business with your business clothes and putting on the amenities of social life with your dress suit that is never in any way associated with it, that is never in any way associated with the hard and sordid things of life. In England they have worked out this problem correctly. There no gentleman goes down to dinner in his own! house and with only his own family present save in even-ing dress. There is rest in the very change. After a day of toil a man feels all the better for getting into evening dress and giving his mind up to the lighter and pleasanter things that are invariably associated with it. To be sure, we Americans have not uniformly adopted the habit, but we are getting there at a good round pace. Indeed, we have ad-ranced so rapidly and so far that the appearance of a gentleman in evening dress at the least formal of

The Young People's society of the First Methodist church are arranging to give a most unique and novel entertainment at the residence of Mr. Frank Logan during the week.

On last Tuesday evening a delightful "at home" was given by the Misses Johnston at their residence on Loyd street, in honor of Miss Viola Masters, who is their guest, and one of the most popular society ladies of St. Augustine. Their charming home, beautifully decrated as it was, with choice cut flowers, ferns and mosses, can best be de scribed as a poem of natural loveliness, mingled with artistic taste and simple elegance. A dozen couples were present and enjoyed to the fullest measure the evening's entertainment. The fair hostesses were ceaseless in their efforts to entertain, as with graceful ease they moved from one circle to another, enlivening all, while contributing to the entertainment of each particular guest. At a late hour the merry party dispersed, after having spent one of the pleasanest evenings within the call of memory.

to the theatre or opera must send his invitation the day before, and if it be the first time he must invite another lady of the same family to accompany her. The lady must reply promptly, so that if she declines there will yet be time for the gentleman to secure another companion.

Always enter a place of amusement as quietly as tossible, and be in your scat before the performance begins.

ossibly, and be in your seas before the periodinance begins.

Never comment aside upon those near you.

A lady is not expected to bow to a friend across a theater or concert room, but a gentleman may recognize his lady friends.

It is excessively ill-bred for a gentleman to leave a lady alone in a public place of amusement. It is an insult to a lady for a gentleman to visit the refreshment room between acts. This custom cannot be too strongly reprehended.

A gentleman must not give up his seat to a lady when escorting a lady; his duty is solely to the lady he accompanies.

he accompanies.

During the intermission at a promenade concert or opera, the gentleman may invite the lady to promenade. If she declines, he must remain with In such promenade friends may bow to each other the first time they pass only. A lady must on no account allow other gentlemen to join her, and no gentleman will stop a lady to speak to her.

The gentleman must secure a libretto or a programme before taking his seat that he may not be obliged to leave the lady's side.

A gentleman alone may join lady friends for a few minutes between the acts; but he should recollect that their escort has a prior claim upon their attention.

ention.

Never push violently through a crowd at a public A gentleman will always find room made for a dy if he request it. A gentleman will always find room made for a lady if he request it.

A gentleman should call for his companion in a tarriage if his means will warrant. This is especially necessary when the evening is stormy.

A gentleman may ask permission to call upon the lady the following morning or evening, which permission she should grant. She should take the opportunity to make him feel that he has conferred a real pleasure upon her by his invitation.

Gloves should be worn in all places of amusement and must not be removed to shake hands.

Never jom a party about starting for a place of amusement, unless urgently invited. If there be two or three ladies in the party and but one gentleman, another gentleman, if well acquainted, may offer his service as escort to one of the ladies, but he must also offer to share the expense.

About the People.

Miss Miriam Price is visiting friends in Carters Miss May Field, of Mississippi, is visiting Mrs. Charles Handy, at the Kimball. Charles Handy, at the Kimball.

Mr. P. Corbitt, of New York, with hisson, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. M. Holbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. McKinzie are stopping at Captain J. C. Bridgers', at 23 Luckie street.

Miss Mamie Dorsey, of Gainesville, Ga., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. V. R. Thornton, at 262 West Peters street. Mrs. Oliver T. Bacon leaves for South Carolina Philadelphia and New York in a few weeks on visit to friends. visit to friends, Mrs. R. B. Harrison, of 200 Capitol avenue, has returned from a week's visit to relatives and friends in Lumpkin, Ga.

Messrs. Alton Angeir, Joe Thompson and Frank O'Bryan left via the East Tennessee last night for a short visit to Florida.

Miss Jennsella Spinks, one of the chrrming young ladies of this city, and W. A. Halley, of Mississippi, are to be married soon.

Mrs. D. W. Appler has returned home after a pleasant solourn of several months with friends in Eandford, Orlando and Kissimmee, Fla.

Mr. George Howard, the popular and efficient chief clerk of the Richmond and Danyille railroad, will leave this week for Houston, Texas, for a few weeks rest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Leidy of Momphis. Mr. Search. win leave this week for ribusion, even weeks rest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Leidy, of Memphis, Mrs. Frank Miller, Miss Bostick and Miss Powell, who went to Florida a short time ago, returned to Atlanta on Friday evening.

his change of location.

The many friends of Miss Anna R. Howell will be pleased to learn that she has returned to the city after an extended visit to her-uncle, Mr. W. E. Fester, at Norfolk, V.n., and is now the guest of her brother, Mr. A. F. Howell. No. 197 East Hunter street. It is understood she will make Atlanta her home.

Albany.

The quiet of mid-lent is upon social matters in Albany. There have been no balls, dances, or similar entertainments.

On Thursday night Levy, the great cornetist, played to a large audie: ce at the operahouse.

On Friday evening a reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Folk, at the Artesian house, at which a large number of friends gathered and tendered congratulations.

On Saturday last about eighteen or twenty of the misses, who are pupils at the "Institute," held a pleasant little pienic near the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Tompkins, south of Alkany.

Horseback riding appears to be growing in popularity as an excellent exercise. A number of gentlemen and ladies were thus amusing themselves during the charming spring weather last week.

Misses Maud Crichton, Nannie and Johnnie Davis have been visiting Miss Mamie Crowe at Baconton.

Mrs. S. C. Moore, of Macon, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Oilver.

Hon. J. W. Griggs and Judge R. S. Simmous, of Dawsen, were in Albany on Monday.

Mr. N. I. Ragan was in Atlanta last week.

Captain Boynton, of Atlanta, was in the city last week.

Mr. Sid J. Cook, of Leary, editor of the Calhoun County Courier, was in the city on Tuesday. Like all good Georgians, Mr. Cook is in love with the beauty and progress of the gate city.

Mrs. F. R. Freeman and daughter, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. L. E. Welch.

Messrs. H. M. McIntosh and W. W. Parker returned on Wednesday from a successful ten days hunt in the vicinity of Leary.

Mr. A. Sterne and family left for Anniston, Alaman, on Wednesday. Mrs. Sterne is the founder of the popular Sterne institute, a well known female college in this city.

Mrs. D. Elias has returned to Thomsville after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Brown.

Mrs. D. Elias has returned to Thomasville after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Brown.
Mrs. E. Kuttner has returned from a ten days! visit to friends in Rome.
Mr. J. B. Lofton of Arlington, and Messrs. F. P. Griffin and Ed Blackburn, of Leary, were in the city

Mr. J. B. Lofton of Arlington, and Messrs. F. P. Griffin and Ed Blackburn, of Leary, were in the city on Tuesday.

Messrs. P. E. Boyd and B. F. Bray, of Leavy, were in the city last week.

Mis. Almos Tift and her daughter, Miss Annie, came up from Tifton on Wednesday. They are visiting Colonel Nelson Tift.

Miss Alice [Ranson, has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. S. Traver, of Baker county.

Mr. Jake Menko was in the city last week.

Rev. E. E. Folk returned from Nashville, Tenn., on Wednesday, with his bride, nee Miss Lizzie Handly, of that city. They were met at the depot by a large number of friends and conducted to their new home.

Mrs. Asher Ayres, of Macon, was in the city last week.

Mrs. T. M. Fleming and Miss Irene Quarterman, are visiting Jacksonville, Fla.

Miss Sophie Vasson, of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Greenfield.

Mr. Fred Fields, of Monticello, Fla., has removed to Albany.

Colonel W. B. Jones, of Atlanta, was in the city last week.

Hon. W. H. Felk, of Edgefield, S. C., is visiting Albany, and deriving much benefit from our mineral artesian water.

Mr. J. C. Lark has returned from a visit to friends in North Carolina.

Miss Ellie Oliver has returned from a visit to Miss Lena Haynes, of Americus.

Mr. Martin V. Calvin, of Augusta, was in the city on Wednesday. Mr. Martin V. Calvin, of Angusta, was in the city on Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Loew and her son, Master Harry, returned on Wednesday from a visit to friends in Macon.

There was a sensational elopement here; on Wednesday, but the friends of the young couple are keeping the matter quiet as yet.

Mr. T. M. Carter and his daughters, Miss Evs and Rea, returned from Virginia on Thursday night.

Editor Ike V. Ballard, of Harlem, Ga., is the guest of Mr. J. B. Gilbert.

Mr. J. Gessie Clark, of Brunswick, was in the city on Thursday.

Mr. T. M. Nelson spent a few days with Mr. W. S. Tarver, in Baker county, and then joined the party at Baconton.

Athens.

On Monday evening the clubhouse of the Athenaeuum was open, and a number of members and invited guests filled the ballroom to hear the lecture of Captain W. W. Thomas. The subject of the evening was the "Evolution of the Myth." The lecturer presented not only the views of the writers upon this and kindred subjects, but gave his own striking and original ideas in a foreible and attractive manner. He was listened to with close attention. The general discussion which followed was peculiarly interesting the chief participants being Dr. J. G. Armstrong, of Athonia; Professor C. P. Wilcox, Vice-Chancellor L. H. Charbonnier and Dr. H. C. White. After supper conversation, music, etc., concluded the evening. The members of the club are much elated at the great success attending the literary feature. The meetings continue to increase in interest, and Monday overlain is pronounced by many who were present the most enjoyable entertainment ever given by the club. It is said that Dr. Armstrong has consented to lecture at the next literary meeting and that he will be followed by Mr. Henry W. Grady, of

A writer in a recent Detroit Fress Press gives "certain well defined laws governing one's conduct in respect of places of amusements." As usual, the writer in some instances gives what may appear to be entirely unnecessary advice, but in the main the following from his—or her—pen will be found of interest:

A gentleman inviting a lady to accompany him to the theatre or opera must send his invitation the declined and if it is the the first time he must invite avenue. Among the ladies present, beside the disavenue. Among the ladies present, beside the disavenue. Among the ladies present, beside the disavenue. pitable home of Mrs. Mary A. Lipscomb, on Milledge avenue. Among the laddes present, beside the distinguished guests of the evening, were Mrs. E. T. Brown. Mrs. Woolley, of Atlanta; Misses Rutherford, Pope, B. bbinson, Walton, Smith, Charbonnier, Lucas, Willcox, Slusser and Moss.

Misses Armstrong and Strong, of Atlanta, spent a few days here this week, much to the delight of their many Athens friends.

Messrs. Hilburn and Penn, two of our live merchants, will visit Charleston, S. C., this week. Our town has additions every week. J. C. Prichard has moved here to send his daughter to school.

Mr. Henry Johnson has accepted a situation with Alexander & Co., of Chattamooga. Tenn.

Miss Mattle Lacy has returned to her father's after a stay in Calhoun.

Dr. Thomas Johnson and wife visited relatives at our sister town, Calhoun, this week.

Mrs. Lou Bearden has returned from Collinsville, Ala., where she went to be present at the marriage of her sister. Miss Ida Penn, to Mr. Walter Cain.

Mr. Joe Ward and his daughter, Miss Eugenia, visited his father's family, near Rome, last week.

Mr. Frank Willingham, of Atlanta, wasin our town last week.

Mr. George Veach has been to Rome since our last ast week. Mr. George Veach has been to Rome since our last communication.

Mrs. John Anderson, of Ringgold, was down to see her friends some days ago.

Mrs. Jane Johnson paid Cartersville a flying visit Mrs. B. W. Lewis entertained a few of her friends at a dinner last Tuesday. The table was rare and the entables wholesome.

Blakely.

Mr. Herace Johnson and wife, of New Haven, Conn., are spending a short time in our city, the guests of Dr. T. M. Howard.

Mrs. Abner F. Holt paid Albany friends a visit this week.

Heitor Josh Jones, of the Bluffton Springs, was seen on our streets this week.

Captain C. M. Craig, of the Central railroad engineer corps, spent Sunday last in Blakely.

Dr. T. M. Howard, after several weeks absence in Apalachicola, Fla., returned home Thursday last.

Mrs. A. E. Buesse and children, of Washington. D. C., are spending some time here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Butler.

Mr. Allen E. Chappell, a prominent business man of Macon, passed through Biskely this week en route to Blaffton, stopping over one night with friends here. to Blatfon, stopping over one night with friends here.

Hon. W. C. Sheffield, of Cedar Springs, spent Monday and Tuesday in Blakely, leaving on Wednesday's train for Atlanta.

Mrs. Richmond L. Bomer, nee Miss. Annie Buchanan, of Whigham, has been in the city several days, the guest of her sisters and brothers.

Mrs. R. W. Wade and children. Master Johnnie and Wilkie, and Miss Pearl and Miss Leone Robinson, after an extended Florida trip, returned home Saturday, having had a delightful time.

Representative R. H. Lanier, of Damascus, was in the city this week.

Dr. Frank C. Owens, of Savannah, autographed at the Livingston house Wednesday.

Mr. Frank Wakefield, of Apalachicola, Fla., arrived on Thursday's steamer, and will spend some time with friends and relatives here.

Colonel C. S. McDowell, a pleasant and afable gentleman of Eufaula, is in the city.

Miss Bines. of Rome, Ga., passed through the city last week an route to Elufton, where she is spending some time with the Misses Holmes of that place.

J. E. Martin. Jack Clayhorn and Waid H. Lester spending some time with place.

J. E. Martin, Jack Clayhorn and Waid H. Lester represented the "Central City" in Elakely this represented the "Centim City work.
Dr. J. H. Crozier, of Cedar Springs, was alsong the many visitors to Blakely this week.
Dr. M. T. Alexander, after several days' stay with old friends and relatives here returned to Appalachicola, Saturday, going via Columbus.
Mr. D. W. James paid Albany a business visit on Saturday last.

Barnesville.

Mr. R. L. Swatts visited Alabama this week. Colonel J. J. Rogers will attend the Sub-Tropical misses Ida and Lutle Tyler have returned home, after an extended visit to Brunswick and Columbus.

Mrs. Nettie Blaicek is visiting her daughter, Mrs.

M. T. Grace, of Hawkinsville.

Colonel Thad E. Murphey spent the week in urance company.

Mr. James M. Lambdin, of West Foint Military codemy, is in the city.

Clarksville.

The "Earnest Worker," a society composed of a number of ladies of the M. E. church of this place, gave a brilliant enfertainment last night at Spencer hail for the purpose of placing new seats in the M. E. church.

Everybody expected a success, for when the ladies of any community take hold of the world it must move; but no one expected such a grandsuccess, not only from a point of performance, but from a financial standpoint.

Cartersville.

on Friday evening was the sensation of the week.
"The Lucky Club," composed of seven entertaining young sports of the town, will soon have its elegant little steamer. "The Capitola," ready for the bosming Etowah river.

week.

Mr. Rawles, of Marshallville, spent a day or two in the city this week.

his heart.

Miss Emmle Jordan, of Georgetown, is visiting at Mr. W. E. Riordan's.

Mrs. Warnock, of Smithville, has returned home.

Mrs. Dr. Patterson, of Humber, Ga., is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. Homer Bell.

Miss Thite Prince, of Americus, hes returned home, and some of the boys have long faces.

Mr. Frank Beck, of Opelika, Ala., is visiting relatives here. Mr. Frank Beek of Openia, and Mr. Frank Beek of Openia, while with rives here.

Miss Sallie Ironmonger is spending awhile with relatives in Americus.

Dr. W. C. Kendrick has been appointed county physician of Terrell county.

Frof. M. A. Ware, of Macon, is spending a few days among old friends here. The professor was teacher of Dawson cornet band for several months and the boys are glad to see him.

Fort Valley. Mr. Will H. Carr, of Milledgeville, was mingling with friends here this week.
Mr. J. B. Easterlin, of Montgomery, visited relatives here last Sabbath, and Mrs. Easterlin who has been spending some time here, returned with him.
Mr. Tim Kirkland, of Kirkland, is spending some time here.

Misses Florrie and Emma Corner, two charming young ladies of Myrtle, twere in the city this week.

Mrs. D. J. Killen was called down to Perry last Tuesday, to the bedside of her sick daughter, Mrs. Henry Norwood.

Mrs. G. W. Garner, nee Miss Fannie Cherry, returned this week from a visit to her parents in turned this week from a visit to her parents in Macon.

Dr. A. C. H. Russell, of the United States navy is on a visition his father, Rev. T. B. Russell, of this place. Dr. Russell is one of the only three Georgia surgeons in the navy and Fort Valley is justly proud of him. of him.

S. C. Moore, Esq., of Macon, was here this week, Sam is now dubbed a "commercial angel."

Mrs. F. O. Miller, accompanied by Master Willie F, Miller, visited relatives in the central city this F, Attler, visited relatives in the central city this week.

Mrs. Thomas F. Pierce, of Austell, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. George P. Greene, of this place.

Miss Belle Damish, an attractive young lady of Augusta, is spending a few months here, the guest of Mrs. W. M. Kersh.

Editor W. T. Christopher, of the Montezuma Recorder, was in our city a short while this week, casting shy glances at some of our pretty young ladies. corder, was in our city a short while this week, casting shy glances at some of our pretty young ladics.

Mesdames J. O. Farrier, J. J. Murph and J. A. Edwards and A. P. Burr, of Marshallville, came up to hear the Till family.

Mrs. John P. Ross, of Macon, is here on a visit Wednesday to her parents.

Miss Hooks, of Montezuma, is with her sister, Mrs. T. B. Harris.

Miss Willie Holt, with Mr. Will McKenzie, of Montezuma, was here Wednesday and took in the Till family's concert, which played here that night for benefit of school fund.

Mr. M. Willard and wife, of San Francisco, Cal, are visiting Mr. Charles Brown's family here. After a short sojourn here they will sail for Europe and spend some months there.

Miss Mary Stewart has returned home, after an extended visit to relatives in Bulloch county, where she was considered a reigning belle.

Hom. E. Fagan gave an elegant dining to a large number of his farmer triends last Saturday. The dinner was an elegant one in every respect, and highly enjoyed by all. Mr. Fagan will give an occasional dining of this kind from now on, until he entertains all of his friends in the county.

Captain S. B. Brown, who has been spending the winter in Florida, is at home again.

Mr. H. C. Harris, general manager of the Atlanta and Florida railroad, visited his family here last Sabath.

Misses Nina and Nora Sanford, two charming and Florida initions, sabbath.

Misses Nina and Nora Sanford, two charmin young ladies of Everett's, are visiting friends here.

Mr. E. F. Hearlly has returned from a pleasur trip to Arkansas. Mrs. Willie Moore has returned to her home springfield, Mass, after a pleasant visit to friends n Springfield, Mass, after a preasant to our city.

Miss Pearl Dismuke has returned home after a pleasant visit to Dublin.

Mr. Jack Hewell, of Greenville, S. C., spent last week with relatives here.

Miss Blakey Sharp spent last Toesday in the gate ity.
Judge R. T. Daniel visited Atlanta last week.
Colorel and Mrs. E. W. Beek are spending some inne with friends in Monteaums.
Mrs. G. R. McCali has returned from a visit to Atlanta.

The music-loving people of Griffin are expecting a rate treat next Tuesday evening, at the grand concert to be given at the college chapel by Constantin Sternberg. It is given for the benefit of the Baptist church, and will doubtless be a success in Gainesville, Gainesville.

Our social club, known as the M. S. C's, met last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Starke on Main street, and it was an exceedingly interesting meeting in every respect, as the large membership present, will testify. Our young people were never in better humor for enjoyment and even some of our grave young business men were so completely wrapped up in the entertainment that we were reminded of Addison's remark, that "the grave abound in pleasuntries, the dull in repartee and points of wit." Mrs. Starke is an estimable lady and is the young people's friend. Her home inever open to their pleasures, and the knowledge of a meeting to be had at her home is al-

Mr. James Sims, of Covington, Ga., and Mr. Max Adams, of Atlanta, were guests of friends here this week.

Miss Hattle Peacock, a pupil of the LaGrange Female college, is at home on a short visit.

Miss Ida Williams, of the Mary Sharpe college, Winchester, Tenn., was at the home of her parents here this week.

Mr. Ed. L. Peacock, of Cartersville, was married, by Rev. Mr. Willingham, to Miss Annie McNeal, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Hugh McNeal, in Chattanooga, Tann., on last Thursday, at 2 p. m. The bridal party reschod Cartersvillers & p. m., and found many friends and an elegant reception at the home of Captain D. W. K. Peacock, the worthy father of the groom. Miss Hattle Peacock, Mr. Hugh Young and Mr. Robert Kirkpatrick attended the marriage at Chattanooga.

The entertainment on The day evening was largely attended by home and fareign belles. Delicious refreshments were served. The music by Mrs. M. K. McWhorter, of Atlanta, was numbered among the most charming features of the evening. I've Old Folkes, Grate Concerte at Ye Town Halle' on Friday evening was the sensation of the week. "The Lucky Club," composed of seven entertain-

On Thursday evening the young people of the city were elegantly entertained at the home of Mr. H. O. Eeall, the happy ocasion being presidad over by Misses May and Olivia, the charming daughters; of the host and hostess. During the eveningithe guests were invited into the dining hall where the choicest viands were served in "barbaric profusion." Among those present were: Miss Drie Harris and Mr. P. G. Marshall; Miss Cora Marshall, of Ohlo, and Mr. T. R. Harris; Miss Mary Lee Kiddoo and Mr. G. Toomber Miss Lillie Wurm and Mr. W. C. Russell; Miss Willie Kiddoo and Mr. F. H. George; Miss Index Baldwin and Mr. H. R. Redding; Miss Annie Barfield and Mr. D. M. Jacobs; Miss Lilly Brown and Mr. J. D. Green; Miss Lilly Brown and Mr. J. M. George; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Drewry; who have been spending several weeks in the city, have returned to Anniston.

An interesting missionary meeting will commence at the Methodist church here in a few days. A number of prominent ministers will be fin attendance. The Literary cube will hold its next meeting at the house of Judge Clark on next Tuesday night. Tennyson will be discussed. Mr. E. J. Hardim will read the essay.

Mrs. J. M. Chastain is visiting in Eufaula this ead the essay.

Mrs. J. M. Chastain is visiting in Eufaula this Dalton,

Bill Tibbs is out again.
It is now Dr. Glenn-McAfee.
Handsome Hal Russell was home Sunday.
Atlanta sent up Frank Reynolds and Tarver McAfee last Sunday.
Miss Henry, of Chatooga county, is visiting the ss. ttie Wells, of Calbonn, is taking a course of art at the Dalton female college.

Mrs. S. P. Evans, of West Virginia, has been at the durdoch house for the past week, also, Mrs. Deninski and family.

Miss Kate Cherry, of Tunnel Hill, was, in the city his week. Miss Rate Cherry, or Value of this week.

Miss Flemister, of Whitfield, spent Tuesday with her Dalton friends.

Dr. Groves, of Catoosa, was in town this week.

Our fellow-townsman John Townley, who has been seriously ill for some time, is slowly recoverable.

ing.

The lovers of literature spent a pleasant evening with Colonel T. R. Jones last Monday. Grave-problems were discussed and music's strains were gently felt—to conversation's aid.

Improvements are being added to the opera house. 6 Dawson.

Miss Katie Powell, of Bronwood, was in day.

Mr. A. O. Blalock and wife, of Fayetteville, were here Thursday.
Mr. Gus Morrow is in Barnesville. Kingston.

Lawrenceville.

Messrs. J. T. Olive and Z. H. Clark were n Montgomery this week
Mr. R. C, Latimer, of Athens, was down Wednes-Mr. R. C. Lannes, or death of the death and the death and Miss Mamie Cawley, of Oxford, visited Mrs.

M. RICH & BROS Will Show You this Week the Most Tasteful Selection of

Mr. C. M. Barnes went to Marietta during the week to attend to some business. week to attend to some business.

Mr. M. C. Brown, our popular young druggist, made a trip to Atlanta the past week.

Mr. C. D. Lee, Atlanta, was seen in the city a few last week.

Mr. J. R. Ware, of LaGrange, made our city a visit last last week.
Mr. C. C. McClain, Atlanta, was seen in the city a Hawkinsville.

Misses Ida and Lizzie Ashburn, two beautiful and accomplished young ladies of Eastman, spent a few days in our town this week.

Mrs. J. D. Peacock, a most estimable lady, left Hawkinsville Tuesday last to join her husband at their new home in Seville, Ga.

Mrs. W. E. Warren, of Powersville, accompanied by Miss Neta Allen, is visiting Mrs. W. L. Grice.
One of the events of the week was the delivering of an oration before the Public Library and Literary association, last Monday night, by Walter J. Grace, upon "The Men who Make a Country Truly Great." Grace is a pleasant and polished speaker, and his language shows a scholarly and cultivated influd.

Miss Alice Pendleton, accompanied by her nephew, Geo. D. Stanton, of Stonington, Conn., will spend several months with Mrs. C. T. Lathrope, Miss Pendleton tried our climate last year and found it beneficial enough to her health to come back this winter.

Dr. Shavers and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Slack, of Philadelphia, are wintering it with the excellent family of Mr. James Bohannon.

Mr. J. H. Kaul, of Philadelphia, came down this week to try the health of our section, and is stopping with Mr. Juo. L. Bohannon.

Through the kindness of Mrs. S. A. Turner the following ladies and gentlemen met in her elegant parlors on Friday night last: Miss Ludia Hunter and E. M. Mathews, Leary Kelley and Estele Cash, R. O. Ross, Myron Thompson, E. H. Young-kin, Miss Bostwick, Morgan county; Willie Hancock and Callie Watson, Theo. O. Ross and Bulah Williamson, Elear Williamson and Berta Thompson, Miss Sallie Barber, Atlanta, and Professor Walker Monroe, Grace Aiken, Oscar Aiken, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Atlanta, and Colonel T. H. Niblack: Stags, John Turner, Wm. Smith and Pierce Sheppard. The evening was spent in playing whist, draughts and music. The music furnished by Mrs. Clark was just chaming, especially that sweet old bellad Jonesboro.

Mr. Frank Holt, of Atlanta, was in town Sunday.

Miss Ruth Lewis, of Fayetteville, is visiting Misses Mary and Ella Milner.

Mr. Berry Burks, of Fayetteville, was in town last

Mr. Berry Burks, of Fayetteville, was in town lass Saturday.
Miss India Holt, of Macon, spent Sunday last with the family of Dr. D. S. Holt.
Mr. L. W. Gilbert visited Fayetteville Sunday.
Mr. William Tison, of Graysville, visited Jonesboro last Sunday.
Miss Cleo Camp is visiting relatives in Atlanta.
Miss Ophelia Adamson is visiting friends at Morrow's Station.

Mrs. W. A. Nelson is visiting friends at Turin.
Mrs. Florence Garrett, of Dadeville, Ala., has been visiting Mrs. W. T. Sims this week.
Professor Otis Ashmore, of Savannah, is spending a few days at this place.
Mr. Grant and Misses Adah Mansfield and Cora Lee, of Stockbridge, visited Jonesboro last Sunday. Lee, of Stockbridge, visited Jonesboro last Sunday. Mr. Hulz Ware, of East Point, was in town Sun

Mrs. Dr. C. N. Mayson has returned from a visit to relatives near Greenesboro.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Oglesby, of Snow Spring, are spending a week with relatives here.
Miss Mabel Oglesby left Monday for Adairsville, where she goes to receive instructions in music.
Miss Mary Puckett, of Stilesboro, attended the quarterly meeting of the Methodist church last saturday. She was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. White.
Miss Ada Beck left Saturday for Atlanta. She will remain till after Easter.
Miss Sofre, of Cartersville, the gifted and efficient music teacher in Mrs. Harris's school, is also teaching in Miss Howard's seminary, at Spring Bank. She comes up twice a week.
Miss Alice McKelry, of Cass Station, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Hargis.
Captain and Mrs. A. F. Wooley, of Rome, were up last Saturday attending the quarterly conference of the M. E., church.
Miss Ida Johnson, of Cartersville, visited her sister, Mrs. James Goodwin, last week.

ways a source of pleasures. The hours were whited away in varied ways, consisting chiefy of music, games, and private tele-a-tetes of "sweet nothings" that interested all parties. At a late hour refreshments were served and enjoyed, and when all departed for their several homes it was with the best wishes for the happiness of their popular hostess. The next meeting will be at Mr. T. H. Shelly's on Green street. Those present were: Miss Zoe Blackshear, Miss Claude Daniel, Miss Kate-Moreno, Miss Mattie Banks, Miss Minnie Stuart-Miss Minnie Moreno, Miss Lora Moreno, Miss Minnie Strown, Miss Maggie Starke, and Mr. S. C. Dinkins, Mr. A. B. Christopher, Dr. C. A. Ryder, Mr. Pat Parker, Mr. A. H. LaHatte, Mr. C. A. Moreno, Mr. L. W. Kimbrough, Mr. A. J. Jewell, Mr. Smillie and Mr. Crane.

days.
The meeting of the Hawthorne Circle at the home of Judge Rudolph was quite interesting last Priday evening.
Colonel H. H. Denn has been in Clarksville this week.

Miss Kate Morley left Thursday morning to visit relatives near Atlanta.

Dr. W. A. Palmour left last fuesday for New York, where he will take a post-graduate course in a medical college. where he will take a possess.

cal college.

Col. S. C. Dunlop went down to Atlanta last week.

Mr. F. C. Smillie, Cincinnati, was with his friends here during the week.

Mr. E. C. D. Crane spent a while in the city with Mr. C. D. Lee, Atlanta, was seen in the city a few days since.

Dr. A. J. Christopher, who recently graduated with honors at the Atlanta Medical college, spent a few days in the city last week with his brother, Mr. A. B. Christopher.
Miss Zoe Blackshear, in company with her mother, went down to Atlanta last week.
Miss Lula Castleberry, of Cumming, has been visiting her cousin, Miss Alice Castleberry at this place for some time.
Mr. D. C. Camp went to Atlanta last week,
Mrs. William Damoran, of North Carolina, is stopping at Dr. J. W. Bailey's.
Mr. H. F. Chandler, Elberton, was at the Hudson last week.

few days since.

Mr. R. B. Russell Athens, is at the Hudson.

Mr. M. F. Pitner, Dalton, was in our city last week attending to business.

Hawkinsville.

Jefferson

and music. The music furnished by Mrs. Clark was just charming, especially that sweet old bellad "Passing Through the Rye." The whole party lett at 12 o'clock, with grateful thanks to Mrs. Turner and her handsome daughter, Miss Fannie.

Miss Seymore, of Dowdy, Ga., and Miss Pittman, of Thomasville, Ga., are spending a tew days here at the Harrison house. The ladies will give a leap year party soon.

Mrs. Dr. C. N. Mayson has returned from a

Lawrenceville.

Miss Cora Spence, who is a student of LaGrange, is on a visit home. Miss Crawford, of Valdosta, accompanied her and is her guest.

Mr. Nat Hutchins, of New York, arrived at this place Thursday.

Sanders McDaniel, of Monroe, was the guest of Louis Hutchins during his stay at court.

Colonel B. E. Strickland, of Jackson, is visiting relatives. relatives.

The young people enjoyed an entertainment given by the Cooing club at the residence of Mrs. S. J. Winn Wednesday night, but are indebted to Miss Winn Wednesday highs, Sell for it.
Hon. B. B. Russell and Judge George N. Lester were with us this week.
Professor T. E. Simmons and Colonel James P. Simmons, of Norcross, attended court this week.

Madison.

Miss Mamie Cawley, of Oxford, visited Mrs.

M. A. ePteet Monday.

Mrs. Martha Woodson, Atlanta, visited Mrs.

F. C. Foster this week.

Miss Amandy Overby, after a long stay in Atlanta as the guest of Miss Ola Abbott, has returned home.

Colonel W. W. Addison Knowles; of the Herald and Journal, Greenesboro, was in the city this week, mingling among his many friends.

Mr. C. W. Nichols, representing the Banner-Watchman, Athens, was in the city last week.

Mr. A. K. Ackerman spent several days in the city last week.

Mr. J. M. High, of Atlanta, visited Mrs. J. R. High last week.

Hon. Thomas G. Lawson, Judge Columbus Hend, Greenesboro, Colonel Frank Walker, Atlanta, Mr. J. Conklin Brown, Judge, J. B. Park, Greenesboro, Colonel Hal Lewis, Greenesboro, and others, were among the visitors during court week.

Mrs. A. J. Foster entertained the members of the Presbyterian church at a four o'clock tea on Tuesday afternooh at her home on the hill.

The many friends of that popular young lady, Miss Rosa A. Stovall, will be pained to hear of her serious illness at her home in this city.

The Progressive Heart party given by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Foster to their young friends was a most delightful affair. Elegant refreshments were served. The party consisted of the following couples: Mr. J. H. Tunnell, with Miss Helen Wright; Mn Lee Tram-

YOU HAVE EVER SEEN, And Each Day They Will Open Fresh Beauties Among Them.

ALL the LATEST DESIGNS CARPETS

WITH BUTTONS,

PASSAMENTERIE

Latest and Most Exquisite Styles

TO MATCH.

THEIR STOCK OF

HAMBURG MULL SWISS,

Nainsook, Irish Point, Etc.,

In all widths is the most complete as well as the lowest in prices in

THEY HAVE JUST RECEIVED

The very Latest Foreign Novelties

If you are disposed to economize in time or labor look at their stock of

YOU CAN BUY THAN MAKE THESE GOODS.

Gowns as low as 50c

Chemises as low as 40c

Skirts as low as 50c

And as much higher in price as you may want them, while they can

SUIT THE BABIES

In Cambric Slips as low as 65 cents and Long Skirts from 60 cents up

PDON'T FORGET that you will soon need some some of their Ladies', Misses and Gent's

GAUZE, LISLE THREAD AND SIL

Underwear!

And this is your opportunity to buy

They invite your attention now to the com-pleteness in quantity and variety of their

Hosiery, Handkerchiefs

Gent's Furnishing Goods

Where every taste can be suited.

HOUSEKEEPERS
PRICE THIS STOCK OF

Towels, Table Linens & Napkins

And you will be delighted at the prices we can afford to sell these goods. Indeed if you will look at the goods we offer you you will find the greatest attraction is the prices we sell them at.

Piano, Dance and Vocal Music, all new and pleasing. Each book contains 10 pieces and costs only them! You will buy them!

SILK, - WOOL SPRING Wash Goods!

New Styles!

Elegant Designs!

Exquisite Colorings!

This is the most complete Carpet Stock we have ever displayed in Variety of Styles, Quality of Goods and Beauty of Designs. This is saying a great deal as it is a

That we carry the Largest and Axminsters! An Elegant Line of Superb Moquettes,

Exquisite Velvets,

in these goods. They cannot fail to captivate you. Call for them! See

TAPESTRIES

Our stock is simply unequalled. All the most desirable and pleasing patterns are private designs selected by our buyer, who is now in Europe, and these styles cannot be found and will aggregate in cost

OVER $5,000!

Churches,

Societies. Will find it decidedly to their interests to get our prices before

So don't fail to call on est music yet.

Best Selected Stock of Carpets to Beautiful Wiltons,

ATTRACTIVE

3-Plys, Ingrains, Hemps, Etc.

elsewhere. During the past week we have had an enormous carpet trade for a dull month, besides doing a regular trade. We have contracted for three of our finest residences entire. The carpets to be used in the contracts are to be only of Scotch Axminsters and English Wiltons,

Not a Bad Showing for Atlanta. Hotels,

Lodges,

10 cents. "Our Own" is the cheap- The Leaders of the Carpet Trade.

WE WANT YOU TO KNOW That we have Just Received 5,000 Music Books!

The Newspapers on Fanny Davenport in "La Tosca." The Lottie Church Company This Week

ews of Interest About Plays and Players, Etc., Etc. The theatrical season is nearing its end, and Atlanta theater goers will have the opportunity of seeing but a few more attractions. This week the Lottie Church company will present a variety of plays at popular prices. For next week "A Night Off," Joseph Jefferson and Langiry are billed. The Jefferson and Langiry engagements will doubtless be special attractions.

Mr. Bram Stoker, Mr. Irving's manager, says that Mr. Irving goes home without any idea of when he will return to America. It is thought that will not return before the fall of 1890.

All New York is talking about "La Tosca, All New York is talking about "La Tosca," Sardon's latest, as produced by Fannie Davenport. The play is described as conrae and vulgar, portraying vice in most hideous form. The papers talk of Anthony Comstock's aiding to advertise the play by setting some of his agents on it. The people are shocked, but they go to see it, all the same.

Maurice Barrymore has claimed all along Maurice Barrymore has claimed all along that Sardou plagiarized the leading situation "La Tosca" from Barrymore's "Nadjesda." Since the production of the Sardou play in New York, Mr. Parrymore has not only been more emphatic in his claims, but people are beginning to believe that he has some rights in the matter. It is said that those who have seen the two plays have certainly discovered a similarity in the incidents which needs something more than sneers to explain. While it is true that such a death scene had been utilized before either Barrymore or Sardou was plain. While its true that such a death scene had been utilized before either Barrymore or Sardou was born, the fact that Bernhardt received a copy of the former's play some time before Sardou wrote La Tôsea is certainly suspicious. The actor has retained Howe and Hummel to protect his rights.

The Giddy Gusher is always good, but here an extract from her criticism of "La Tosca"

The Giddy Gusher is always good, but here is an extract from her criticism of "La Tosca" which is positively delicious:

The third act I claimed as an infringement of a scene I enacted at Colton's Cooper Union Slaughter house, where I went with a friend to have fourteen teeth out. We neither of us took gas, and I praneed round a drawing room in a state of holy horror, while the shrieks of the woman loosing her old molars and extensors, incisors and outsiders, harrowed my sympathetic soul to madness. I clung to an attendant.

attendant.

'Oh, give ber gas, you're giving her ——'' well, I vised giving her anything, and all the while ria's howl tore up the carbolic laden air, and the endant mixed a dose of something to quiet my nerves.
So the third act didn't horrify me as much as it did others, because I've been all through it before. "But, oh! Great rip-snorting Scott, that fourth act paralyzed me! I got afraid. I looked round to see it could witness the rest of it in the company of so many strangers. I thought I might have enjoyed it if I'd been looking at it through a knot hole in a board fence. But to glance from the situation on the stage and meet the inquiring eyes of a lot of young dudelets left over from the season, who peeked out of a box to see how the women took it, was a little more than your rugged Gusher could stand."

By the way, the fact that the dramati papers and dramatic critics are unanimous in their condemnation of the morale of "La Tosca" seems to be pretty good proof that the lovers of the drama are the first to rebuke the unclean and the immoral

Miss Lottie Church is an Italian by parentage, both of her parents being from that sunny land. When they came to this country, they thought best to change the Italian Cheisa into its English equivalent, Church. The actress' right name, therefore, is Carlotta Church. Her father is dead, and her mother, who is in good circumstances, lives in Buffalo, where Lottie was raised. Her own home is at Bath, L. I., where she owns several lots and two cottages.

home is at Bath, L. I., where she owns several lots and two cottages.

Early in life, her father carried her south for her health. In New Orleans she met two friends, a gentionau and his wide, who were on the stage, and through that acquaintance she began her stage life in the ballet. The first time she went before the footlights, she met her future husband, John A. Stevens, the well known actor. She, for the most part has since continued on the stage. Miss Church is well known through the southern states, where both she and her company have won a reputation, which has brought her before the most critical of audiences. In New York city the drama of "United a successful run of four months warer press and public indorsed it as one of the greatest plays ever written. It is now in its eighth season and seems as popular today as when it was first brought before the footlights. The opening piece Monday evening will be a new four-act sensational comedy, entitled Pa-Pe-To. A whirlwind of laughter. The scene is laid in the Yellowstone regions and the play is filled with everything to make the audience laugh and edjoy themselves.

Theatricals Next Week.

Before speaking of the only attraction which will appear at the opera house next week, we must mention the advance sale of Mr. Joseph Jefferson, which will begin Thursday morning, March 15th, at Miller's book store. The great actor will appear only Thursday, March 22d, for one night, in his famous role of "Rip Van Winkle.

role of "Rip van Winkie."

This will be probably the last appearance in Atlanta of this distinguished artist, and it ought to be a crowning ovation. Those who have seen him before will want to see him a last time; those who have never seen him will not miss the opportunity. have never seen him will not miss the opportunity, America never had a greater actor than Mr. Jeffer, Bon, and never play was presented with more per-fection than his "Rip Van Winkle." The two names have become inseparable, and will pass both linked together in the history of the American stage.

Miss Lottie Church Will occupy the operations during the whole week, for six nights and two matinees, with change week, for six nights and two matinees, with enange of play every night,

The peculiar feature of the engagement will be the reduction of prices, which will be lowered to 50 cents, 35 cents and 25 cents. Miss church will open in a very anusing comedy, entitled "Pa-Pe-To," and will follow Tuesday in "Unkown." Miss church has been in Atlanta before, as the leading lady of John A. Stevens' company, and she will be remembered as a fine emotional actress, young, pretty, vivacious and always pleasing.

temembered as a fine emotional actress, young, pret ty, vivacious and always pleasing.

The New York Herald, when the play of "Pa-Pe-To," was given at the Windsor theatre, said of it: "Pa-Pe-To" was presented at the "Windsor theatre ast evening, and won the applause of a large audience. This is the best comedy that has ever been presented here, and it kept the audience in a continuous roar of laughter. The company is all that can be asked for and we predict large houses for this popular company. The New Orleans Item thus spoke of her performance: Miss Church is an actress whose bewitching charms, graceful acting and easy carriage made her a favorite wherever she appears. The lady is a success, and particularly in the great play "Unknown," in which she accepts the principal role.

The play needs no comment, for it is too well anown, and ranks foremost among the legitimate dramas of the dy. The various roles as interpreted by Miss Church and her excellent support bring out every line and situation with telling effect, thus making it extremely interesting. They handle the play in the manner that the author intended it to be.

The company is composed of performers of rare lalent and ability, no "sticks" appearing in the combination. The stage settings are first class's, in Yact, nothing is missing, sud the play runs smoothly, and both it and the acting gives satisfaction, and elicits applanse. Without doubt, there is not a traveling combination that gives a better representation of the "Unknown" than this company.

A Lament.

Prances Van Vetchen, in the Dramatic News.
I wish I were you, oh, indeed I do,
My asservation is strictly true.
My nights and days are one constant sigh
That instead of you I am only I.
I haven't a wish to be free with names,
So allude to you simply as Mrs. James.
How many things I could easily do
If I were only that fortunate you;
I could—Oh Moses, is it a dream!—
I could—Oh Moses, is it a dream!—
I could actually pull Recamler Cream.
I could, just by reciting "Osler Joe,"
Find the four winds of fame begin to blow;
Scattering my name through city and town,
If I only were you, Mrs. James Brown—
I could take a little trip across the pond,
And straight fall among the English beau mond
I could with awe—my language fails—
I could gather together gowns from Worth,
Whose like was never seen on earth,
If I only were—which, alas, I'm not—Thrice blessed love, Mrs. James Brown Pot—
With jewels and fabrics fit for a queen,
I could walk the boards with air screne,
All Gotham should jestle to hear the choice
And I should have that dear Kyrle Bellow—Oh raptuous thought—to make love to!
And—though it may sound extremely silly—
I could actually wex the Jersey Lily.
Oh why am I not, though I hadn't oughter
Mention the fact, Mrs. James Brown Potert!

Mrs. Potter had another quarrel with her menuser, H. C. Miner, in Washington, over a change in the bill. Barton Key, her personal representa-tive, quits the company, Lotta and Modjeska are two types of remarkably well preserved women. Mme Modjeska was forty when she began to study English. Miss Lotta is just that age now. Margaret Mather had a dispute with her manager, J. M. Hill, concerning her accounts for the last six years. The matter is in the hauds of thr respective lawyers for adjustment.

Joseph Jefferson's spring tour will last only eight weeks, during which time he will travel in his own private ear through Kentucky. Tenuessee, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and Alabama.

The directors of the Comedie Francaise have refused the request of M. Coquelin for an annual holiday of four months. M. Coquelin will make his farewell appearance in April, previous to his departure for America.

Creston Clarke has had so much success in "Hamle!" that he has decided to make an extended starring tour of this country next season, during which he will be seen as the melancholy Dane, and in one or two other legitimate parts.

The engagement by Abbey, Shoeffel and Grau of Coqueim, Jane Hading and Mr. Damaia, the husband of Sarah Bernhgrdt, was a stoke of managerial enterprise that will doubtless bring big results. Such a combination should prove a strong attraction in this country.

George H. Primrose has formed a Damon and Pythias alliance with Jack McAulitie, the famous lightweight. It is said to be so pronounced that "Jack" will hereafter black up when he enters the ring, and Primrose don the boxing gloves in the first part of his minstrel performance.

The salaries of the musicians, stage hands, and other attaches of the Union Square theater were paid by Maneger Hill on Saturday as usual. The company engaged to play "A Possible Case" have been notified that their contracts will begin on March 26, as originally intended.

Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett began a three weeks'engagement in SanFrancisco Monday night, and were enthusiastically received by the largest and most fashionable aidiences ever gathered in that city. Their engagement promises to be the best ever played in that city by any theatrical Mr. John S. Clarke closed his season at the Broad Street theater, Philadelphia, on Saturday last, and is waiting for someboly to take the house off his hands. He made an effort to produce old English comedies in that city, but the people did not care to pay to see them. There will be one less theater in Philadelphia for the rest of the season.

Nat Goodwin was the star at the Lee Avenue academy of music, Brooklyn, last week. He did not appear during the latter part of the engagement, his place being taken by Charles Coote, So cleverly did Coote imitate Goodwin that the majority of the auditors did not discover the substitution, but laughed and applauded, happily oblivious of the star's absence.

Off the stage Miss Ada Rehan, says a recent off the stage Miss Ada Rehmi, says a feed with a really handsome nor even a pretty soman. Her complexion is what some unkind peode would call "pasty." But her face shows a kindly lisposit on, strong character and abundant good ense. When seen walking down Broadway, as she requently is with Mrs. Gilbert, her stately physique ilways commands admiration.

always commands admiration.

Manager Joe Mack says that Robert Downing's gross receipts thus far this season are $18,000 ahead of last year, and that the handsome young tragedian is now in the front rank as a popular and profitable star. At present Mr. Eowning is acting in the large cities of New England to audience's limited only by the capacity of the theaters. Next season Manager Mack will inaugurate a new idea and has secure flour stars to support Mr. Downing.

The fastest railroad trip on record between San Antonio and El Paso. Texas, was made by the Edwin Booth-Lawrence Barrett company on their special train, which consisted of the private palace car, the "Junius Brutus Booth," a Fullman sleeper and a baggange car, with four relays of engines. The distance of 710 miles was made in fourteen hours. The train reached El Paso in time for the evening performance, which was witnessed by a packed house at $5 each for seats.

When Robert Mantell appears at the Fifth Avenue theater next Monday night, it will be in a work of the proper propers of the proper of the propers of the proper propers of the pr

Avenue theater next Monday night, it will be in a more robust and vigorous character than any he has ever before attempted in New York. This actor has been credited with being the best exponent of more robust and vigorous character than any he has ever before attempted in New York. This actor has been credited with being the best exponent of what is termed pantaloon perits, and has been pronounced by his lady admirers as "lovely" in an evening dress suit. It is, however, a curlons fact that before coming to this country, and during a long professional career in England, he had never appeared in a dress suit part, his work there having been principally in the legitimate and in romantic plays. "Mombars" is a dramatic drama in five acts, adapted from the French of D'Ennery by Louis Nathal. The scene is laid in France under the first empire, and the action takes place in Paris and St. Malo, a seaport town. The costuming is that of Directorie somewhat modified, and the handsome actor has had to sacrifice his mustache to the requirements of the cpoch. His lady admirers will next week have an opportunity of judging for themselves whether with his clean shaven face, and in the garb of a Franch gentleman, of the first empire, he is more attractive than in the sombre evening dress of today.

SOCIETY MELANGE.

Continued from Seventh Page. mell, with Miss Julia Culpepper; Mr. Bert Simmons, with Mrs. John S. Clark; Mr. Charlie Furlow, with Miss Dens Sanders; Mr. J. E. Martin, with Miss Carrie Hough; Mr. J. E. Godfrey, with Miss Mctie Pou; Mr. W. W. Blackburn, with Miss Ro-a Stovall; Dr. A. K. Bell with Miss Enma High, First prizes were won by Mr. Joe Turnell and Miss Rosa Stovall. Booby prizes were won by Mr. Lee Trammell and Miss Dens Sanders.

Miss Dena Sanders.

Mrs. J. S. Hogue entertained her Sunday-school class at her howe last Friday evening.

Colonel T. J. Thornton, Columbus, was in the city this week.

The Madisonian is now run by the "old man,"

Dr. J. C. C. Blackburn, alone.

this week.

The Madisonian is now run by the "old man," Dr. J. C. C. Blackburn, alone.
The music of the M. E. Sunday-school has been greatly improved by the sweet strains of the cornet, in the hands of Mr. Joseph Alexander.

Mrs. D. S. Johnston has a camelia, commonly called "japonica," tree in her yard which is over stxty years old which yet bears large numbers of the most beautiful flowers.

Last Thursday evening Foster's opera house was crowded to its utmost capacity with the elite of the city, to witness the presentation, by local talent, of that beautiful sacred opera, "Jephtha and His Daughter." From the time the curtain was first raised to grand finale this immense audience was held in raptuous wonderment at the perfection in which the most minute part was rendered. The troupe was under the musical direction of that accompished lady, Mrs. W. A. Broughton, and each member did credit to her training, as well as to themselves on this occasion.

The following is the dramatis persone:

Jephtha, Ninth Ruler of Israel—L. H. Foster.

Prophet—C. M. Furlow, Jr.

Eloni, Jewish Prince—A. W. Foster.

Izan, Jewish Prince—A. W. Foster.

Izan, Jewish Prince—A. W. Foster.

Rand, Guard, No. 2—F. D. High.

Jehns and J. S. J. High.

Jewish Soldier—W. F. Martin.

Arnold, Messenger—J. E. Martin.

Camp Guard, No. 1—J. E. Godfrey.

Camp Guard, No. 2—F. D. High.

H. Furlow,

M. W. B'ackburn, R. W. Andrews, E. G. Evans.

Plane accompanyment—Mrs. Leste Celdwall.

Jewish Southers V. B. Andrews, E. G. Evans.
H. Furlow,
W. W. B'ackburn, R. W. Andrews, E. G. Evans.
Plano accompaniment—Mrs. Jessie Caldwell.
Organ accompaniment—Mrs. W. A. Broughton.
Drummer—Winkfield Torbert.
Miss Mamie Hemphill, of Atlanta, visited Miss Drummer—Winkfield 1 Miss Mamie Hemphill, Dena Sanders last week.

Miss Alma Knox, of Duluth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. O. Mediock, at this place.
Mr. J. N. Hudgins, of Laurens, S. C., is visiting friends here.
Mrs. Julia McDaniel, who has been visiting relatives in Atlanta, has returned home.
Mrs. J. M. Holbrook and ner accomplished daughter, Miss Lula, will be up in a few weeks to spend the summer months.

the summer months.

Dr. J. B. Hawthorne visited his family here last Friday.

Quite a pleasant sociable was held at the residence of Mr. D. L. Barn one night last week.

Mr. R. O. Medlock, visited Atlanta one day last week.

The young people held a social at the residence of Mr. F. C. Dean last Friday night. It was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Colonel J. A. Hunt, visited our town on business last week.

Mr. Clarence Dean, of Atlanta, visited relatives here last Wednesday.

Roswell.

One of the most pleasant society events of the season was a dance given at the residence of Mr. C. M. Webb last Monday night. The spacious parlors were thrown open and all formed a scene that memory delights to dwell upon.

There was a pleasant sociable enjoyed by the young people at the residence of Professor R. N. Alken Tuesday night.

Miss Lizzie McCollum, of Atlanta, is visiting the Misses Garrison.

The brass band serenaded Roswell last Saturday Miss Katle King, a bright and charming young lady of Monticello, who has been spending the winter with Miss Anna Christopher, recurred home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Griffith have returned from a visit to relatives in Upson.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Robb, of Philadelphia, after spending the winter in California, Mexico and New Orleans are rusticating in our little village, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Robb will viit the Sub-Tropical exposition

Rockmart.

Mr. W. P. Davis spent Sunday in Atlanta.
Willie Terhune, of Chattanooga, visited his mother
at this place last Sunday.
Captain A. P. Blue and wife, of Atlanta, spent Sunday in town.
Mrs. J. R. Lovelace spent several days of last week very pleasantly in the gate city.
Mr. R. L. Kirkpatrick visited Cartersville and Chattanooga this week.
Dr. Green, of Cartersville, and Mr. N. W. MeBryde, of Kingsion, were in town a portion of this week.

Sylvania.

Miss Ellie Douglas has returned to her home asylvania, after an absence of some weeks in Mr. James L. Hull has returned home, having finished the first course in the Georgia Medical college at Augusta.

Hon. R. O. Lovet, of Waynesboro, was in our Hoh. R. O. Lover, of waynesbord, was in our town this week.

Mrs. R. L. Douglas has returned home from a visit to relatives in Charleston, S. C.

A dramatic club is one of the most recent social organizations in our village.

Mr. John O. Mathews, of Haides, was in Sylvania on Wednesday. Mr. John O. Mathews, or Haides, was in Sylvania on Wednesday.

The erection of a new Methodist personage will soon be commenced in Sylvania. It will be built next to the Methodist church.

Hion. John W. Johnson and wife, of Scarboro, spent a few days in Sylvania last week.

Mr. H. H. Chance, one of our most popular young men, was quite sick for several days this week, but is out again to the delight of his friends.

Mr. W. W. Drake and Charles S. Johnson, of Atlanta, were in town Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, of Atlanta, visited Mr. W. W. Veal this week.
Mr. Thomas P. Graham, after a short visit to his parents at Greenville, Ga., has returned home.
Mrs. Thos. Johnson and her daughter, Miss Annie, of Panola, spent Wednesday and Thursday with friends at this place.
Miss Minnie Winningham is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Lee, in Atlanta this week.
Mr. A. J. Goldsmith left last week for a three months' stay in Florida.
Dr. John L. Hamilton, the leading physician of Stone Mountain and state senator for the 34th senatorial district, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Mary Marbut, a daughter of the late John I. Marbut, of Lithonia. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. J. J. Marbut, at Edgewood, by the Rev. N. Keff Smith, of Atlanta.

Sandersville.

Mr. William Marseland, a former resident of Sandersville, is in the city, after an absence of twenty-three years.
Miss Eliza Martin returned from an extended visit to Augusta on Thursday.
Mr. E. M. Baum, of Toomsboro, spent Tuesday in the city.
Colonel John W. Lindsey and lady visited Mrs. V. S. Joyner the past week.
Messrs. Julius Cohn, Warren P. Lovett and I. W. Newman left on Sunday last for New York via Augusta. Mr. Burk Hood, of Augusta, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. C. C. Brown left on Sunday last for New York.

CDr. L. W.Weedon, of Tampa, Fla., after a brief visit to his father's family, has returned home.

Captain L. C. Perry, of Dublin, spent the past week in the city.

Mrs. M. Newman has returned from a visit to friends in Savannah and Americus.

Mr. Louis Neison, of Charleston, spent several days with his brother, Mr. C. D. Nelson, last week, returning on Monday.

Dr. A. T. Chesham and Rev. Dr. T. M. Harris, of Atlanta, both former residents of old Washington, were in the city during the past week.

Mr. Louis H. Patillo, representing the Augusta Chronicle, was in the city this week.

An enjoyable dance was attended by a number of the young ladies and gentlemen at the hotel Sandersville on Wednesday night.

A musical and dramatic entertainment will be given at Watkin's hall on Tuesday night for the benefit of the Christian church. Mrs. C. C. Brown left on Sunday last for New Senoia.

The Reading circle held its regular weekly meeting at the residence of Mr. S. O. Smith on last Friday evening. The study for the evening was Longfellow's Fyangeline. After the reading of the minutes, and the quotations having been recited, one of the number gave an historical synopsis of the poem, which was followed by a lively discussion of its merits and demerits. The flow of with and humor at this point was like sparkling meteors darting through ethereal space. The evening was one of much pleasure to all present. At 10:30 the circle adjourned until its next meeting, to be held at the residence of Mr. W. T. Arnall.

Several of Senoia's young ladies spent a most delightful afternoon recently at the residence of Colonel B. F. Cocke, three miles from Senoia, listening to words of "wit and wisdom" as they fell from the lips of General Morgan, of Albany, Ga. The words of Goldsmith seemed applicable in this case:

"And still theyigazed and still the wonder grew, How one small head could hold all he knew."

He recited for them selections from the best authors of the day, and also favored them with gems from his own repertoire; but the most delightful of all was his description of a "dinner" with nineteen New England celebrities. His graphic portrayal of those present made his hearers feel as if they had been among the number. The most distinguished personages present were Longfellow, Hoines, Fitz Green Hallack and Agassiz.

Senoia has enjoyed a se-son of gaiety for the past two weeks. Among the pleasant entertainments may be mentioned an oyster supper at Mr. J. W. Addy's, a juvenile at Mr. John Briscoe's and numerous riding and shooting parties. As the spring advances our old bachelors' smiles grow broader and they quote syring poetry on every occasion.

We have great hopes for one, who spends numerous Sabbaths in Atlanta. He believes fully that the better the day the better the deed.

Talbotton.

Alarriages do not occur very often in our little city, but when they do they are conducted in a manner and siyle that would do credit to the larger cities. At 8 o clock last Wednesday evening the Methodist church, which had been teautifully decorated, was well filled with stylishly dressed people, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the tridal party. At 8:30, Mr. E. H. Spivey stood before the altar with Miss Katie Leonard. An immpressive ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Felder in his usual happy manner. The bride and groom with their attendants, a few relatives and special friends, repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Leonard, who gave an elegant reception to the party.

M. E. Leonard, who gave an elegant reception to the party.

The groom is a rising young merchant of this place, and the bride is one of our most highly esteemed young ladies. The attendants were:

Mr. W. G. Oslin, Atlanta, Miss Mary McGehee, Col., Mr. R. S. Collins, Macon, Miss Electra Weckes,
Mr. Will McKee, Upatoie, Miss Lizzie Robbins,
Mr. John Martin, Miss Bertha Martin,
Mr. Jim Heath, Miss Lottie Willis,
Mr. E. O'Neal, Miss Lucy McCoy,
Mrs. W. H. Johnson, of Columbus, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Mary McGehee, of Columbus, is visiting Mrs.
E. H. Spivey.

Miss Bennie Odum and Mrs. E. T. Harris, of Columbus, are visiting friends in town.

THE WONDERFUL CARLSBAD SPRINGS. An Eminent Physician Reads a Paper of Great Interest Before the International Medical Congress.

Great Interest Before the International Medical Congress.

At the ninth International Medical congress, Dr. A. L. A. Toboldt, of the University of Pennsylvania, read a paper stating that out of thirty cases treated with Carlsbad Water and the Powdered Carlsbad Sprudel Salt for chronic constipation, hypochondria, disease of the liver and kidneys, jaundice, actiposis, diabetis, dropey from valvular, heart disease, dyspeysis, eatserhal inflammation of the stomach, ulcer of the stomach or spleen, children with marasmus, gout, rheumatism of the joints, gravel, etc., twenty-six were entirely cured, three much improved, and one not treated long enough. Average time of treatment, four weeks, In all of these cases no particular diet was prescribed. The doctor claims, in conclusion of his paper, that the Carlshad Mineral Water, as exported by the city of Carlst ad, being the natural product, is much to be preferred where the quantity of water is no objection, particularly in diseases of the stomach. Whenever the quantity of water cannot be taken (as when away from home) the Powder Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (senuine imported) will answer. He states that the effect of the Water and Powder Sprudel Salt is to be relied upon, independently of any adjuncts of treatment such as diet and exercise, whether taken hot or cold, claiming even an advantage when taken eold, as if acts more decidedly purgative, and that he has given cold the preference, only using the water hot when no I urgative action is desired. The dose of the water employed was two tumblerfuls before breaklast and one or two during the day. The dose of Salt is a teaspoonful three times a day dissolved in water. Whenever a stronger action is desired the Powder Sprudel Salt should be used in conjunction with the water. The GENUINE at cle is bottled under the supervision of the city of Carlsbad, and has the seal of the city and the signature of "Eisner & Mendieson Co.," sole agent for the United States, on the neck of every bottle. All others are worthless initiations. Th

T. I. N. C. is not a cure-all, but a quarter of a century of constant use has demonstrated that Tanner's Infallible Neuralgia Cure is the only infallible cure for all kinds of neuralgic and for nervous headache. 50 cents per boy, Rangum Root Med. Co., Nashville, Tenn. At wholesale by A. G. Candler & Co., Atlanti, Ga., and D. W. Curry, Rome, Ga. Retail at Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga.

PRICE'S BARING POWDER.

Its superior excellence is proven in milions of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Government. Enforsed by the heads of the Great Universities as the Strongest, Purest, and most Healthful. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Amonia, Lime or Alum. Sold only in Cans.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.,

SEW YORK. CHICAGO. ST. LOUIS

NEW YORK. CHICAGO.
5 or 8p fol and n r m last p wk.

SANITARY PLUMBING. Gas and Steam Fitting FINE CHANDELIERS. GLOBES & SHADES

-AGENTS FOR-

EUREKA GAS MACHINES 84 Whitehall St.,

ATLANTA, - GA G. W. Adair, Real Estate Agent.

I have for sale an elegant cottage on West Baker A large, comfortable residence on Whitehall Beautiful vacent lots on Smith and McDaniel An elegant brick residence on large lot on South A beautiful cottage, a model of architectural conrenience, on a nice lot on Highland avenue, close street cars; water, gas and sidewalk.

Four handsome vacant lots on Decatur street. A number of well shaded vacant lots, near the A beautiful 7-acre tract in West End, on Main street, near car line. A beautiful place for a home, or susceptible of subdivision. Also several beautiful building lots in West End, on car line. I have a large rent list of residences, stores, office

I give special attention to the rent departm collect rents promptly, look after projecty in the best style, and respectfully solicit the consignment of renting property.

G. W. ADAIR, 5 Kimball House, Wall street.

V. K. STEVENSON & CO., REAL ESTATE AND FINANCIAL AGENTS, BUY AND SELL REAL ESTATE, STOCKS
bonds, grain or petroleum for cash or margin.
Private wire to Boston and Chicago. Members New York Real Estate Exchange and the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange, Office 106
Broadway and 663 Fifth avenue, New York City.

THOS. H. WILLINGHAM & SON REAL ESTATE.

Fersons wishing to invest in real estate in Atlanta will find it to their interest to call and see our list at our office in James bank.

We have improved and unimproved property in large or small quantities in the most desirable portion of the city, to suit all classes.

We can place any quantity of money for parties wishing to lend, on the best security in the city or county. wishing to lend, on the best security in the city or county.

We have a splendid residence lot on West Peach tree near the Hilmonument, which we can sell a a bargain.

We have several small residence lots near Peach tree street, at prices which place them in the reach of all.

We have a nine room house on street car line, Jackson street, which we will sell for $4,000 well worth $5,000.

Call and see us, we know we can suit you either should you desire to rent or purchase.

Place all bargains you have for sale, or houses you have for rent in our hands and we feel confident you will be pleased with the results.

THOS. H. WILLINGHAM & SON, Office in James bank.

"WATER CURE."

134 CAPITOL AVENUE, ATLANTA, GATHIS INSTITUTION HAS, DURING ITS THIR Leen years of successful operation, restored thousands of people to health, and attained a national reputation. The problem of health, by living healthfally has been solved.

The universality of the results obtained is a marked feature of this Sanitarium. All are benefitednone are injured. All forms of chronic allment yield to its processes with surprising certainty and rapidity.

THE CRUDE COLD WATER CURE methods do not constitute any part of the treatment.

APPLIANCES INCLUDES BATHS OF VARIED FORMS, MASSAGE, SWEDISH MOVEMENTS, ELECTRICITY, MAGNETISM, HYGIERIC-DIETARY, PNEUMATIC AND VACUUM TREATMENT, ETC.

All applied on principles scientifically exact and 134 CAPITOL AVENUE, ATLANTA, GA

Errc.

All applied on principles scientifically exact and definite, which, together with pleasant home comforts and refined social surroundings, makes this, in every respect a perfect Sanitarium for those in quest of health.

Refers, with permission, to some of the most refined and intelligent people of this and other states of the union. U. O. ROBERTSON, M. D

ATLANTA, GA.

Our Tailoring Department booming with the This stock embraces all the leading varieties of Worsteds, Cheviots and Cloths, in the most carefully selected patterns, and well merit your early inspection. HIRSCH BROS.

42 AND 44 WHITEHALL STREET. GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES, ETC.

BROWN & KING,

MANUFACTURERS OF AND DEALERS

COTTON, WOOLEN AND GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES, MACHINERY AND TOOLS, LEATHER AND RUBBER

BELLTING, HOSE, PACKING, ETC., PORTABLE FORGERS, PRESSURE BLOWERS

AND EXHAUST FANS, WROUGHT IRON PIPE FITTINGS AND BRASS GOODS.

Send for Prices and S. BROAD STREET.

HOLLIS

Telegraph & Electrical Apparatus & Supplies,

Sole agents for the J. RANDOLPH HARD PATENT IM-PROVED ELECTRO MEDICAL APPARATUS, the most perfect and durable Battery in the market. Special agents, Georgia, Alabama and Florida for HESS ELECTRIC GUEST CALL and FIRE ALARM for hotels.

ELECTRO-PLATERS. Chandeliers and Brass Goods of every description, polished and lacquered equal to new.

Medical Batteries and other Electrical Apparatus preaired, and Electrical work of every description promptly attended to, in the city or out. Send for Illused Catalogue, "B," 42 North Broad Street,

> CARRIAGES! BABY

The Best Assortment for the Least Money in the City. Tile! Tile! Tile!

For Hearths. Facings and Vestibules at Factory Prices. Hard Wood Mantels, Oak, ash, Cherry, Mahogany and Walnut. Marbelized Iron and Slate Mantels. The Peerless Grate, the finest and best Grate in the market. Plain, Enameled, Nickel and Brass Trimmed Grates. The Monitor Wrought Steel Range-No better ever made, Over 300 sold here in city. Satisfaction guaranteed. GAS FIXTURES, Cut Glass and Colored Globes of the latest designs. Send or call for prices and save HUNNICUTT & BELLINGRATH, 10 to 20 per eent.

GENTS' FURNISHING COODS.

EISEMAN BROS

17 and 19 Whitehall Street.

$9.90 SALE! OVERCOATS,

SUITS! THAT HAVE BEEN $13.50, $15, $18 and $20

NOW AT THE UNIFORM PRICE OF

$9.90!

Special Bargains in Hats and Men's Furnishings. EISEMAN BROS.

and 19 Whitehall Stree

VOL. XIX.

Buying in large quantities, and for cash only, enables me to undersell any and all Atlanta competitors, and I invite comparison with the foremost houses of America, such Macy's, Stern's, Altman's, Wannamaker's, Shillito's and any others. Bring in your samples and I'll beat the prices every time.

HIGH'S Silk Department

IS THE LARGEST IN THE SOUTH.

Grand display tomorrow of Novelties and of India, Shanghai, Corah, China, Pongee Summer Silks. Also Motre Antiques and Moire Francaise in all the New Shades.

1,500 yards new, all silk Surahs at 35c a yard.

2.500 yards very fine, all silk Surahs at 65c.

All silk Rhadamers at 75c a yard.

New Plaid Surahs. New Changeable Silks.

34 shades of Moire Antiques at 75c a yard;

true value $1.25.

Will offer again this week fine colored Silk

Velvet at 65c a yard.

The largest and handsomest line of colored

Silks, in all the latest shades, with the proper trimmings to match, at prices that are bound to please. WONDERFUL BARGAINS In Black Dress Silks at 75c, 85c, 90c and $1.00, 10 pieces Rich, Black Rhadamers at $1.10; worlh $1.50. worth $1.50.

8 pieces extra fine Black Rhadamers at $1.49; worth and can not be bought under $2.25 elsewhere.

A number of fancy weaves in black Dress Silks at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00; worth much more money at any other store.

HIGH'S Colored Dress Gods Department

IS TRULY MAGNIFICENT. Is TRULY MAGNIFICENT.

It stands foremost and alone, having no equal in the Southern states, and but few in America. It contains all classes in French, English, German and American Dress Goods, from the cheapest to the finest that can be made, in all the new and lovely shades that will be worn this season. Parisian Combina-

Stronger Than Reason,

F. W. Robinson in Harpers.

VERYEODY said it was not likely to turn out well-but then everybody is so wise. And what everybody says must be true, especially when it is upon a subject which nobody understands and nobody takes to heart but the one poor biped who is principally concerned. Was everybody right in my case—and was I so egregiously wrong? So blind, so shallow, so vain? He who reads these lines shall judge for himself

I married Cicely Grey when I was 40 years of age and she was a girl of 19. An ill-matched pair, an ill-assorted couple, the beginning of the old story, May and December almost; th impulse of youth on one side, the glamour of the "well-off man" on the other. That is what the world said. My pretty little world! Yes, I was well-to-do. That is, I had attained a certain position in my profession, had made my mark as an engineer, had been successful in one or two important schemes, was speken of-a little-at home and abroad as a clever and rising man. Almost a genius.

I had studied hard all my life, it was asserted I had sacrificed everything to the pursuit of fame or money. I was a close, keen man of business and had let nothing stand between me and my profession. And then Cicely Grey stood between—took me into another world, changed the whole current of my life, made me a passionate lover in my middle age.

I met and loved her—loved her all the more passionately because I had not had the time to love before—had laughed at the romance of youth from the grim seclusion of my study wherein I had immured my better self. When the time came-when I was almost famous-When people pointed me out as Haviland the engineer, I found that I could love as deeply as other men, and be as great a fool in my own She was not then 20 years of age-"old enough to be my daughter," people said, of course. They always say that. And that was terribly near the truth. But Iwas not quite like other men, and this was my first love. I had had none other. It was a new life to me. Cicely Grey had been brought up in seclusion; she was the daughter of one of my own craftan engineer who had been knighted by his soveign. She had been left motherless at an early age, and girls who have grown up to womanhood without their mothers are to themselves and to other folks three parts a mystery. They are not always to blame, these motherless girls.

Was Cicely Grey to blame for marrying me. for not telling all the truth, for disguising from me the one remanceof her life in which no one had shared but the man who was the hero of it? The man of whose existence I had not dreamed and whose name had not passed her lips? Was her father to blame, who had some hazy notions of the truth and the mysery of a mesalliance, and had trusted to time and travel, and me-his old friend-to sink a past folly wholly out of her remembrance? I can not In latter days it was intimated to me that the father had left it to the daughter to

We were married in the early summer and picturesque portion of our native land.

It was a honeymoon that presaged much of early inspection.

OWN & KING,

ring Department booming with the aces all the leading varieties of Worsteds, s, in the most carefully selected patterns,

ACTURERS OF AND DEALERS
ACTURERS OF AND DEALERS
We are the only house in Atlanta that carry wire rope in stock, for general hoisting purposes. It is a proposed to power and guy ropes.

AND TOOLS, LEATHER AND RUBBER OSE, PACKING, ETC., PORTABLE FORGERS, PRESSURE BLOWERS ST FANS, WROUGHT IRON PIPE FITTINGS AND BRASS GOODS.

Telegraph & Electrical Apparatus & Supplies,

perfect and durable Battery in the market.

Special agents, Georgia, Alabama and Florida for HESS
ELECTRIC GUEST CALL and FIRE ALARM for hotels.

ELECTRO-PLATERS.

CARRIAGES!

ment for the Least Money in the City.

and Vestibules at Factory Prices. Hard Wood

herry, Mahogany and Walnut. Marbelized Iron he Peerless Grate, the finest and best Grate in the

ed, Nickel and Brass Trimmed Grates. The Monitor

-No better ever made, Over 300 sold here in tranteed. GAS FIXTURES, Cut Glass and latest designs. Send or call for prices and save HUNNICUTT & BELLLINGRATH, Tile! Tile!

19 Whitehall Street.

ALE!

RCOATS,

HAVE BEEN

$15, $18 and $20

THE UNIFORM PRICE OF

ial Bargains in

EMAN BROS.

Men's Furnishings.

19 Whitehall Stree

1 09.98

Chandeliers and Brass Goods of every description, pol-

VOL. XIX.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1888.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

__J. - M. - HIGH!__

The Regulator and Controller of Low Prices,

JUST BACK FROM NEW YORK.

Six Hundred and Thirty-Seven Cases New Goods Opened Last Week and More Yet to Come.

STOCK OF SPRING GOODS EVER OPENED

Buying in large quantities, and for cash only, enables me to undersell any and all Atlanta competitors, and I invite comparison with the foremost houses of America, such Macy's, Stern's, Altman's, Wannamaker's, Shillito's and any others. Bring in your samples and I'll beat the prices every time.

HIGH'S

Silk Department

Is the largest in the south.

Grand display tomorrow of Novelties and of India, Shanghai, Corah, China, Pongee Summer Silks. Also Morre Antiques and Moire Francaise in all the New Shades.

1,500 yards new, all silk Surahs at 35c a yard.

2,300 yards very fine, all silk Surahs at 65c.
All silk Rhadamers at 75c a yard.

New Plaid Surahs. New Changeable Silks.

High'S Creat Specialty at 25c a yard.

New Rilk Warp Henriettas and Silk Warp Drap DeAlmas, all colors.

2 cases, 46 inch Satin Stripes on woolen grounds. Small Checks and Stripes in endless variety. Easter will soon be here; buy now. Easter will soon be here; buy now. Street will soon be here; buy now. Easter will soon be here; buy now. Ea yard.

2,500 yards very fine, all silk Surahs at 65c.

All silk Rhadamers at 75c a yard.

New Plaid Surahs. New Changeable Silks.

3i shades of Moire Antiques at 75c a yard;

true value $1.25.

Will offer again this week fine colored Silk

Velvet at 65c a yard.

The largest and handsomest line of colored

Silks, in all the latest shades, with the proper trimmings to match, at prices that are bound trimmings to match, at prices that are bound to please.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS In Black Dress Silks at 75c, 85c, 90c and $1.00, 10 pieces Rich, Black Rhadamers at $1.10; worth $1.50.
8 pieces extra fine Black Rhadamers at $1.49; worth and can not be bought under

A number of fancy weaves in black Dress Silks at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00; worth much more money at any other store.

HIGH'S Colored Dress Gods Department

IS TRULY MAGNIFICENT. It stands foremost and alone, having no equal in the Southern states, and but few in America. It contains all classes in French, English, German and American Dress Goods, from the cheapest to the finest that can be made, in all the new and lovely shades that will be worn this season. Parisian Combina-

HIGH'S Black - Dress - Goods - Department,

652 pieces New Goods just opened.
Bargains that are worthy of your inspection:
14 pieces fine, all wool Cashmeres, 40 inches wide, worth at any other store 60c, on Monday only at 374c.

only at 37½c.
62 pieces Fine English Body Cashmere, 36 inches wide, at 25 a yard.
1 lot Fine Priestly's Silk Warp Henriettas at 85c a yard.
24 pieces, all wool English Serges at 29c a Hundreds of novelty weaves in Black and Mourning Dress Goods.
I'll show you the largest stock in Atlanta.
I'll save you money on them.

DRESS TRIMMINGS.

An elegant and large line just opened.
Gilt, Steel and Gold Passamentaries, Galoons, Braids, etc.
New Jet Passamenteries.
New colored Passamenteries.
Silk and Soutuche Braids in exclusive de-

HIGH Has accepted the agency for Demorest's Pat-terns. They are the best made. On sale to-morrow. Also Demarest's Fashion Book.

HIGH'S Wash - Dress - Goods - Department. Fine lace stripe Alcinnes at 4hc yard, worth

Striped Seers 1ckers worth 10c at 64c.
1,000 pièces new Ginghams and Chambrays.
No such assortment elsewhere.
1,220 pieces Satines in new and special pat-erns.

1 lot short length Satines at 8½c.
295 pieces fine French Satines at 12½c yard.
2 cases very wide crinkled Seersuckers at 10c

1,000 pieces new spring Calicoes, just opened.

HIGH'S
DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT
With offer Great Bargains in wide Sheetings and Pillow Casings; also, 25 bales fine yard wide Sea Island at 5c.
Fruit loom Bleaching at 8c yard.

HIGH'S LINEN DEPARTMENT Special sale of Napkins!

1 lot all linen Napkins, red borders, good size

1 lot all linen Napkins, red borders, good size at 5c each.
200 dozen 4-8 fine bleached Damask Napkins at $1 dozen.
173 dozen extra large dinner napkins, full 3-4, at $1.50 dozen.
Special sale all this week of Table Damask! 63 pieces fine Belfast Damask, 58 inches wide, true value 70c, at 49c yard.
27 pieces very fine German Damasks, new patterns, 60 inches wide, worth at least 85c, at 60c yard.

2 cases German Cardinal Damasks, a leader

A great opportunity to secure Linen Towels at a Big Reduction! 80 dozen crepe linen Towels, rich colored borders, 19 inches wide and 36 inches long. A borders, 19 inches wide and 30 inches long. A bargain at 10c each.

1 case bleached damask Towels, tied fringe, somewhat soiled, at 12½c.

200 dozen, all linen, Huck Towels, 19 inches wide and 45 inches long, at 17½c each.

1 case very fine bleached damask Towels, extra size and quality. The best ever sold, at 25c each.

Thousands of the very latest novelties in HIGH'S

Art Embroidery Department.
A few moments spent here will be pleasant and profitable. Special Tomorrow:
150 dozen stamped Tidies at 10c each.
Big lot Chinese silk Tidies at half-price.

Mammoth White Goods Department. Immense stock New goods. More White goods in this department than can be found in all others combined in the city.

White India Linens at 5c, 6½c, 7c, 8½c, 10c up.
White checked Nainsooks, 5c, 6½c, 8½c, 10c, 12kc up.

White checked Nainsooks, 5c, 6½c, 8½c, 10c, 12½c up.
White Victoria Lawns, all grades. French Organdies, French Cambrics, Persian Lawns, Mulls, Jones's soft finished Cambrics. In fact, every line of the most desirable things in white goods.
Tomorrow—1 lot fine lace checked and striped India Lawns, worth 20c, at 8½c.
10 cases fine white plaid Lawns, sheer and lovely quality, at 10c, 12½c and 15c.

Worth listening to! Indeed, it is the story of the completeness and cheapness of my colossal spring stock. Enthusiasm over it knows no bounds. It pleases everybody! Ecstatic exclamations greet the ear, and all are willing to proclaim the fact that the quality, styles and prices have no equal.

HIGH'S LACE DEPARTMENT. 800 pieces fine hand-made Torchon Laces at 5c, 6½c, 7½c, 10c, 12½c, 15c, 20c, 25c. 95 pieces Smyrna Laces, 10c, 12½c, 15c, 20c, 25c up.

Hand-made DeMedici Laces unequalled at 10c. 15c, 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c. Great and unusual bargains in black silk Chantilly Skirtings, all the week.

HIGH'S EMBROIDERY DEPARTMENT IIIII S LIDENTIDAT DETARLIBENT
Is far ahead. Others may attempt to follow, but it is useless. They haven't the stock.
Tomorrow—295 pieces wide Hamburg Embroideries will be slaughtered at 25c yard.
1 lot very fine Mull Skirting, deep embroidery, worth $1.50, at 75c yard.
The greatest bargains ever known in Hamburg Embroideries at 5c, 75c, 10c, 123c and 15c.
Fine mull and fine Swiss Embroideries, in beautiful and exclusive patterns, in all widths.
Elegant line of Baby Patterns.

HEGIPS VID CLAVE DEDART MENT

Just opened; the new spring shades, in our renowned Alexander 4-button, embroidered back kid gloves. Every pair fitted and warranted to be the best glove in America at $1 pair.

Coaded with new goods. Immense sales last week. Note the following bargains: The celebrated R and G French Contille

The celebrated R and G French Contille Corsets at $1 pair.
Thompson's celebrated R H Improved Cor-set on Monday at $1 pair.
Dr. Warner's Coraline Corset at $1 pair.
High's "Own" is a French woven 125-bone Corset, perfect fitting at $1 pair.
Job lots Corsets will be closed out at 25c, 35c, 50c, 65c and 75c.

Spring Novelties in Ribbons

Grand Opening of Them on Tomorrow!
Special bargains on Monday! Ladies White Aprons, French needle work embroidered, at 50c, 65c, 75c, 81.

1 lot white Laundried Shirts were 65c, slightly soiled, to be closed out at 25c each.
Men's fancy Percale Shirts, finest quality, reinforced, regular $1.25 goods at 50c each.

Men's Lulyanguid Shirts, fine light, good

Men's Unlaundried Shirts, fine linen, good domestic, reinforced at 33\frac{1}{3}c.

Men's Unlaundried Shirts, finest 1800 linen bosom, reinforced back and front, at 50c. each.

Utlea Nonpariel Shirts, best goods made, sold everywhere at \(\frac{5}{2}\)1.00, High's price 65c.

Job lot gent's fine silk and satin Scarfs, new spring shades, worth from 50 to 75 cents, on hargain counter at 10c.

spring shades, worth from 50 to 75 cents, on bargain counter at 10c.

Fine 4-ply linen Cuffs, slightly soiled, regular 25c. goods, at 15c. pair.

4-ply 2100 linen turn down Collars at 9c.

Men's Balbriggan Undershirts, can't be matched under 50c. at 25c.

Boy's Shirt Waists, small sizes, at 10c.

Boy's Shirt Waists, good quality. plaited back and front, at 25c.

Patent buttonless belt Shirt Waists, best

Patent buttonless belt Shirt Waists, best goods made, at 50c. goods made, at 50c.

New Lace Curtains, 100 pairs, real Notting-ham taped bordered, lace curtains full 3 yards long, at $1.00 pair.

Full and complete lines of Curtains at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00.

A GREAT DRIVE.

Guipure bordered Lace Curtains, 3½ yards long, at $2.50 pair.

250 pieces Scrim at 6½c. worth 10c.

1 case figured Scrim, worth 20c. at 8½c.
30 pieces tied thread Scrim worth 20c. at 8½c.
1 case Madras Drapery at 12½c.
90 pieces Belgian Scrim, interwoven with light blue, tan and cardinal threads. They make lovely curtains and are worth 37½c.

Will sell this week at 2½c. yard.

A SPECIAL BARGAIN.

HIGH'S CORSET DEPARTMENT Shawls, Scarfs and Jerseys. 100 lovely Cashmere Scarfs, beautifully embroidered, worth $1.75 at 75c. each.

Novelties in Cashmere Shawls and Scarfs.

Closing out the entire stock of fine Jerseys at half price.

SPRING NOVELTIES
HIGH'S
HOSIERY DEPARTMENT.
1 case ladies' French Ribbed Hose, fast black, fine quality, at 25c. pair.
Great bargains in ladies' fancy Hose at 15,
20, 25 and 35c.
Ladies' black lisle Hose, worth 75c. at 35c. pair.

20, 25 and 35c.
Ladies' black lisle Hose, worth 75c. at 35c. pair.
Ladies' fine silk hose at 75c. pair.
Best 10 and 12½c. hosiery in Atlanta.
Gent's balbriggan Socks, full regular, made on Monday, at 10c. pair.
Gent's English Socks, worth 20c. at 12½c.
Largest assortment children's hoslery in Atlanta.

Great bargains at 10, 121, 15, 20 and 25c. HIGH'S

Department Packed With New Goods. Ten inch bone Knitting Pins at 10c. Best mending cotton ic skein. Hair Pins, 100 in box, at 5c. French Hair Pins ic paper.

French Hair Pins 1c paper.

Spool holders 10c each.

Scarf holders 10c each.

Best patent cuff holders 20c.

Ladies' cuff buttons 25, 35 and 50c.

Ladies' tripled plated Cuff Buttons from 50c to $2.50 pair.

Ladies' solid pearl Cuff Buttons 25c pair.

Crochet needles, 3 sizes in case, all for 5c.

English Tooth brushes 10, 15, 20, 25, 30 and 55c.

Soc.

Enameled horn Darning Eggs 15c.
Great bargains in Web Elastics.

New line novelty, Ric Rack, Feather Edge
Ware, Medallion and all the new braids.
Toilet Combs 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 35 and 50c.
Round Combs 5, 10, 15, 20, 25c.
Full and complete lines of Colgate's soaps and perfumes.

and perfumes. Skirt Steels, elastic ends, at 10c.

Covered Stay Steels, all colors, at 10c. Imported Russian leather ladies long Purses, 3 apartments, 25c. High's imported English Book Pins 10c.

More new goods and rare novelties are already opened than can be found at all other stores combined, and every article may be classed as a bargain when quality and price

THE STONE BOUQUET, --OR-

The Consequences of a Love That Was

CHAPTER I. VERYBODY said it was not likely to turn out well-but then everybody is so wise. And what everybody says must be true, especially when it is upon a takes to heart but the one poor biped who is in my case—and was I so egregiously wrong? So blind, so shallow, so vain? He who reads these lines shall judge for himself. I married Cicely Grey when I was 40 years of age and she was a girl of 19. An ill-matched pair, an ill-assorted couple, the beginning of the old story, May and December almost; the impulse of youth on one side, the glamour of the "well-off man" on the other. That is what the world said. My pretty little world! Yes, I was well-to-do. That is, I had attained a cermark as an engineer, had been successful in one or two important schemes, was spoken of—a little—at home and abroad as a clever and rising man. Almost a genius. I had studied hard all my life, it was asserted. I had sacrificed everything to the pursuit of fame or money. I was a close, keen man of ness and had let nothing stand between me and my profession. And then Cicely Grev stood between-took me into another world changed the whole current of my life, made ne a passionate lover in my middle age.

I met and loved her—loved her all the more passionately because I had not had the time to love before—had laughed at the romance of youth from the grim seclusion of my study wherein I had immured my better self. When the time came—when I was almost famous when people pointed me out as Haviland the engineer, I found that I could love as deeply as other men, and be as great a fool in my own

She was not then 20 years of age-"old enough to be my daughter," people said, of course. They always say that. And that was terribly near the truth. But Iwas not quite like other men, and this was my first love. I had had none other. It was a new life to me. Cicely Grey had been brought up in seclusion she was the daughter of one of my own craftan engineer who had been knighted by his sov-eign. She had been left motherless at an early age, and girls who have grown up to woman-hood without their mothers are to themselves and to other folks three parts a mystery. They are not always to blame, these motherless girls. Was Cicely Grey to blame for marrying me, for not telling all the truth, for disguising from me the one romanceof her life in which no one had shared but the man who was the hero of it? The man of whose existence I had not dreamed and whose name had not passed her lips? Was her father to blame, who had some hazy notions of the truth and the mysery of a mesalliance, and had trusted to time and travel, and me-his old friend-to sink a past folly wholly out of her remembrance? I can not say. In latter days it was intimated to me that the father had left it to the daughter to

We were married in the early summer and went away for a long tour through the most picturesque portion of our native land. It was a honeymoon that presaged much of son that I have. Here we were to spend a quiet, halcyon week, surrounded by all the beauties of hill and dale, of forest and field, and intensely restful in our own society.

"I am sure I shall be very happy all my life," she had confessed to me, "for I know how well I can trust you."

She had put her hands into mine in saying this and looked at me unflinchingly and with all the clear depths which her great, gray, lucid eyes could express.

The emphasis struck me even then.

"Have you ever trusted in vain?" I asked, laughingly. For it did not seem possible that one could do anything to deceive her by word or deed.

"I have been too imaginative, that is all,"

she answered, "too sanguine, impulsive, hopeful."

"Good faults, one might call them all."

"I have expected too much—set my friends on too high pedestals," she said; "young people always do."

"And some of the idols have been top-heavy and tilted over," was my rejoinder. "Ah! never mind, child; they were not worth the trouble of putting back in their places."

"They were not," she said.

We were wandering in the gardens of this little town. It was our wedding eve. I have said Heathercombe was, to a certain extent, a show place, and in these gardens was one of the wonders of the country. It boasted a rocky mound over which trickled and spluttered a stream of water with properties of turning into stone anything exposed to its action for a certain period of months. Such wells are not uncommon in England or abroad, I believe, but it was a novelty to both of us, and there was a pleasant jesting over it and over the various attack which the various and the second of the country of the various and the second of the country.

uncommon in England or abroad, I believe, but it was a novelty to both of us, and there was a pleasant jesting over it and over the various articles which the preceding sightseers had left to be petrified—gloves, feathers, hats, and all kinds of odd tokens, suspended in such a manner from the rock as to bring them in contact with the stream.

"I know!" cried Cicely, clapping her hands. "Wait for me, Ulric; I shall not be a minute." But a minute out of sight then was an hour of suspense to a lovesick man. Where can she have gone, what can have happened, I was wondering five minutes afterward. Yes, she was impulsive at all events, and full of strange, odd conceits. Presently she returned from the hotel with her wedding bouquet that she had brought from London—that I had sent to her early that morning—a poem in fair white blossoms from a convent garden florist.

"This shall not wither away, Ulric, but be always with us—a memento, a record."

"Love turned to a stone," I answered, a little ruefully; "is it a good idea?"

"Yes; a proof of love that endures," she said. "That is what I mean."

It was a strange conceit, but I had no objection to urge. Let it be so. There was poetry in the fancy, looking at it in the right way. Love perpetual and that nothing should wither! So the boundet was left with the custodian of the dripping well, and no more was thought of it for a while.

That is the prologue to my story.

That is the prologue to my story.

That is the prologue to my story.

CHAPTER II.

They were twelve months of happiness which followed. There was not a cloud in our heaven; I studied every wish, and she was grateful for it. At times there came a faint, far-away doubt if she wore as happy as myself—might be only happy in the second degree, taking her life and lightness from me—conic at and at peace, seeing that I was content, but not the life and light natural to her young self.

There came no child to hallow our union, keep house for him, as in the old days, until I came back again.

The last night I spent in England was at a ball given by an aristocratic friend. I had not intend that it shoulded be spent in this fashion. I had thought there was a clear week longer for me at home, when a telegram arrived urging the necessity of my immediate departure.

It was a great ball in its way—that is, there were many guests, and the rooms were crowded with men and women of rank and distinction. After our first dance together Cicely was lost to me amid a host of partners, and I was left to discuss commonplaces with middle-aged contemporaries, to receive various congratulations on my appointment, to talk right and left of the very subject which I was trying hard to avoid.

Presently I found myself watching Cicely from the door of the ballroom; my eyes had wandered in search of her for some time in vain, and then I found her sitting on the recess wandered in search of her for some time in vain, and then I found her sitting on the recess of a window, whose heavy curtains almost concealed her from view. It was only by the fan, a large and heavy fan of ostrich feathers quaintly grouped together that I knew it was she. She was sitting with her back toward me, half hidden in the recess—it was only a half outline of her graceful figure that I saw there, bit I was sure it was Cicely.

That was the first heart-stab which I had ever had. On that night there seemed to open out to me by slow and sure degrees the consciousness that I might not have won the love of my wife so wholly and completely as to render us safe together or apart. My trust in her, my own self-esteem, had received no shock till that hour, but here was struck the first jaring note of a whole soul's discord. I woke as from a dream, and I was none the better for the waking. There came even then to me the consciousness that I might be a very "Othello" in my jealousy, if God so willed that an angel should prove false. My suspicion came from the man with whom she was conversing. I could see him plainly from my post of observation—a tall, dark man of three or four and twenty years of age, with a handsome and impassioned face and black e e; which seemed to flash like diamonds with the torrent of words which he was pouring forth to her.

My heart sank like a plummet in the sea. I was aware of danger to me, to Cicely—I hated him already. A friendly hand fell upon my shoulder and startled me. It was my host, Lord Sandbourne, who stood laughing at my surprise.

"Who is the good-looking young fellow talk-

"Who is the good-looking young fellow talk-ing to my wife?" I asked, very lightly—too lightly to be natural; but Lord Sandbourne was not critical. He put up his eye-glass and stored in my direction. stared in my direction.

"Gad, I don't know; I never saw him before," he said. "Lady Standbourne sows her invitations broadcast, and I leave the crop to her. This sort of thing is woman's business,

I walked away from him. I made my way I walked away from him. I made my way quietly and almost steadily toward the recess. I felt like a man playing the spy.

When I was close to them, the truth was close too. Neither had heard me approach; the whirl of the dancers past, the braying of a waltz from the orchestra, the place in which they were seems security itself, and these two did not take heed of me in their self-absorption.

"Why did you marry then? Why could you not wait and believe in me?" were the words which this indiscreet rayer uttered to my wife,

"O, indeed."
"Monsieur Danano-now of the French op-

"Monsieur Danano—now of the French op-pra—of whom you have probably heard, Ulric."

The name was not known to me.

"Yes, I have heard of Monsieur Danano."

"As I, sir, have heard of the name of Mr. Haviland, the famous engineer," he said, with a low bow and a smile which I did not return. a low bow and a smile which I did not reach.

He had recovered from the surprise of my appearance, the excitement of his own avowal;
whether I had heard any part of his conversation to my wife or not did not appear to matter to him. With perfect ease and self-confidence, he said:

"You have probably been familiar with my name, Mr. Haviland, before the Parisian world thought it worth mentioning above a whisner."

"No. sir."
"I was an old friend of madame's—almost an old schoolfellow—very nearly what you English call 'an old flame.' I was saying," he added, as he looked keenly and yet laughingly at us both, "when you did me the honor to arrive, that Madame Haviland might have waited a little longer for me. But I am vanquished," here he bowed again—"and you, sir, are the victor."

are the victor."
One could but try to smile at this bold, but good-humored explanation, and then, with a light word or two, I bore my wife away from him. She was anxious to get home, she said, and I took her at her word. Why should I doubt it rose? doubt it yet?

That ride home was very silent, and almost

That ride home was very silent, and almost solemn.

Suddenly, and when we were within a street or two of home, I said:

"You never mentioned this Monsieur Danano to me, Cicely."

"Never?" I repeated, almost evasively.

"Never," I repeated.

"But you had heard from father that—"

"I had not heard anything from your father.
What had he to tell me?"

"Nothing," she said, in a low voice.
This was all the conversation between us, until we were in our own dining-room, and were facing each other at an untouched supper. We waited till the servant had gone, having first placed on a side table a bulky packet that had been left at the house during our absence that evening. I rose and stood by the side table while I cut the strings of the parcel, which was heavy and unshapely, I remember. This gave me an opportunity of speaking in an unconcerned manner, which I thought might deceive her. As if she did not know my heart better than I did hers.

"Did he speak the truth tonight, that man?" I asked.

"The truth," she repeated, slowly.

"He said you were an old flame of his."

"I supposed he liked me a little at one time."

"You thought he did?"

"You thought he did?"
"Yes, I thought so," was the naive con "And he told you so?"
She looked at me steadily for a while. I was

She looked at me steadily for a while. I was sure that she was looking very intently at me, as I went on with my task.

"Yes. But—"

"And you loved him," I said, turning round and facing her with a darker face than she had seen before; "why, didn't you tell me all the truth? It is not too late to own it. I shall only be sorry that you kept it back from me all this while."

"Uiric don't ask me any questions. Can "Ulric, don't ask me any questions. Can hear?"

I had raised my voice now—what demon I looked like then, God knows—but she was huddled in the chair away from me, with her jeweled fingers held before her eyes. I had frightened her—as well I might have done—in my excitement. She could not answer me, and I went on.

"And you love him atill."

"And you love him still. You would have hissed at him with scorn had the Frenchman been as far away from your heart as I am. I understand it all."

understand it all."
"No—no. You understand nothing; you are not fair to me, Ulric. Why do you make a grievance of all this at last." she cried, "when you are going away from me! when you are leaving me alone!" eaving me alone!"
"That will be no grievance, only a relief," was my bitter answer, and she sprang up before me then, with her hands drawn from her face me then, with her hands drawn from her face and clinched together, with her eyes blazing with contempt for me, almost with hate. "You coward!" she cried; then there was a pause, a sudden change of feature, and she fell back in her chair and gave way to a torrent of tears, of passionate sobs, of strange, wild wail-ings that brought me to my kees and at her side in pity for her and the grief I had caused her.

ings that brought me to my kees and at her side in pity for her and the grief I had caused her.

"Forgive me, Cicely; think no more of it," I implored. "I was mad or jealous; I will ask no further questions. It is all past—vanished—dead!" And you are my wite."

She was moved at last, pacified by degrees; but she remained very white and sad. The look in her eyes haunted me for months, as she rested her thin, hot hands upon my head.

"My poor, foolish old Ulric," she murmured in a low tone, "who would have thought my strong, stern husband would have given way like this."

"Who would have thought—"

Then I paused—I was silent. I stooped and kissed her. I had no more to say. The grave, gray husband was almost himself again.

"There, there, compose yourself, Cicely; I will not say another word. This is our last night together for ever and ever so long; we must not look back upon it through our tears."

"Don't go," she whispered.

"O!—I must go. It is for the best," I answered, "it is too late to break my promise."

She did not speak again. Mechanically I turned to the parcel to give her time to recover from her sorrow, opened it and drew forth a dark, reddish, heavy mass of stone, at which I looked in amazement for an instant.

"It is the bouquet," I said at last. "See, it has come back—a peace offering, Cicely. We will take it as an omen."

Cicely glanced at it wonderingly, then shuddered.

Cicely glanced at it wonderingly, then shud-A stone bouquet! Its flowers roughly defined still but with all the poetry gone from it, a hard unmalleable, angular. Yes, it was an

CHAPTER IV.

CHAPTER IV.

When I was away from her, when we had said good-bye, when thousands of miles stretched between my wife and me, I thought of the last night—that miserable hour of our parting, that first sharp quarrel between us. I could remember too much, so much that was terrible and sad—and her troubled face was always before me. There were so many questions which I should have liked to ask her now, and her past was, after all, so unguessed a story. I was ignorant of it. was ignorant of it.

Every letter that I received from her became a time, and here was my wife's last letter of the same day, with the London postmark and dated from her father's house. They could not be together: it was all well then be together; it was all well then.

When Danano was not singing at the opera,
I began to fancy there came no home letters to me. This was pure fancy, dissipated very often by a missive from her, but it was a new torture while it lasted, and I grew more crazed upon it. Thinking it all over now in this seclusion where no face I love can look at me, unless it where no face I love can look at me, unless it is down from heaven in pity and forgiveness—and my mother's face, not hers—I feel sure that I was mad. After a sunstroke that I had had and recovered from, I was completely but quietly and unobtrusively mad, keeping my madness so completely to myself that those about me did not even dream that Haviland's brain was flawed by one idea. I was all business to them when business had grown a horror

There wandered into our camping-ground a There wandered into our camping-ground a new recruit—a man with high credentials from his government—a friend of Danano, the actor. It was this friendship between him and my wife's old friend that arrested immediately my attention, although that friendselp had not extended between them to implicit confidence. This was all the better, or all the worse, for me—I know not which—but it fixed my resolution

Throw not which—but it fixed my resolution to be gone.

Danano was the prince of good fellows, this man implied, a great genius—a fellow of infinite jest and infinite sentiment. He was the idol of the Parisian world, favored by the aristocracy, flattered by the women, altogether admirable.

"And so his head is turned by all this adulaadmirable. "And so his head is turned by all this adula-tion?" I inquired, after he tion?" I inquired, after he had come to the end of his own encomiums. "A Frenchman's head whirls round very quickly with the breatl "Ah, but I do not believe that. Danano is a man of the world, a sensible being, far-seeing and acute. He keeps out of mischief," added the new comer, with a laugh, "but then there has reserved."

the new comer, with a laugh, "but then there is a reason for it."

"Ay. Indeed."

"A grande passion which a melancholy Englishman would call an unfortunate attachment. A first love even, about which he raves—well, like a genius, cosably. That is his one weakness," added his friend, "but it keeps him steady and quiet and out of what you call the hurly-burly. It has that effect with great men sometimes."

"He is a sentimentalist."

"Yes, if you care to call him so."

"He is a sentimentalist."

"Yes, if you care to call him so."

"And a sorry one. And the lady's name?"

"O. I do not know," was the reply; "and, had I the honor of being acquainted with it, I should not have considered it my duty to communicate it to monsieur," he replied, with a low bow.

"No, no, of course you would not. And, of, course," I added, with a laugh, "the lady is married."

"O! that is the rule all over the world. One of the two is sure to be married, or where," shrugging his shoulders, "would be the inter-est of the story?" snrugging in Sadouters, weath 28 the interest of the story?"
"To a vile Frenchman," I answered, sharply; then I left him amazed and indignant and thinking of pistols.

That evening I was on my way to England, and soon I was in London again, and no one aware of my return. That was the grim hof it. I caught myself laughing at the more than once in my room at the Gr

Continued on Fourteenth Par

happiness for us both—all was so fair—life had changed for both of us so much, and all about our marriage in town we started from the church doors for the country. "I shall be always very obedient, Uric," she said to me, laughing, "and my clever old husband will always have his own way." I laughed too, but the word "old" jarred a little. It was not pleasant for me to consider myself old, or getting old, yet awhile, when I was beginning my real life. It was more unpleasant still that she should think so even in jost. The law reference the word side of the country will call life that she should think so even in jost. The law reference the man and will be always very bediened to make the more than twelve months after this proximity to her. He would be always have he word "old" jarred a little, It was not pleasant for me to consider myself old, or getting old, yet awhile, when I was beginning my real life. It was more unpleasant still that she should think so even in jost. The law reference the min and trembling and flushing, whose eyes were swimming in hot tears. A little more than twelve months after this twise of swill to bless us thus. I think I see the mow; I feel it more acutely every day between this and the end of it. A little more than twelve months after this I was compleasant for me to consider my will all many have his own real myself old, or getting old, yet awhile, when I was beginning my real life. It was not pleasant still that she should think so even in jost. The law reflects the first look reflect a difference—the blinks in the home chain; such that the she show of the word will be always near her, the young in passioned hand of his proximity to her. He would be always near her, the young in passioned hand of his proximity to her. He would be always near her, the young in passioned hand of his proximity to her. He would be always near her, the young in passioned hand of his proximity to her. He would be always near her, the young in passioned hand the home. I am tired of this," she confes

BE SURE TO PURIFY YOUR BLOOD!

BUT BEWARE OF POTASH AND MERCURY!

S. S. S. IS THE BEST OF ALL BLOOD PURIFIERS! S. S. S.

The Infallible and Purely Vegetable Remedy for the Cure of All Blood and Skin Diseases. Read Carefully the Following Voluntary Testimonials:

BLOOD POISON.

Mr. J. H. Brown, Hornellsville, Steuben county, N. Y., writes: Duty to mankind and obligation to the manufacturers of the remedy demand that I acknowledge the wonderful results of using Swift's Specific.

Three years ago I was afflicted with that most horrible of diseases, blood poison. In vain I sought help from the medical profession, changing doctors two or three times. The mercurial remedies used soon put me on oruthes and brought on unteld pain. I could see myself failing every day. My weight was reduced from 150 to 117 pounds in six weeks. I could see no use of living situated as I was, and was so desperate at times that I felt like taking room life. taking my own life. Friends interfered, and nrged me to go to Hot Springs. I started, but on my way met a friend who persuaded me to stop with him, and to try Swift's Specific. I had no faith in patent medicines, and at first would not listen to such advice. But my sufferings were so intense I finally yielded. After the first bottle I felt a great change, and by the time I had used one dozen bottles I was like myself once more. I still felt some pains in my limbs, and so continued the use of the medicine, and today one would never think that I had been such a wreck and cured by that wonderful remedy. It stands at the head of all blood remedies, and is a blessing to all

Mr. D. K. W. Briggs, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: In 1864 I contracted blood poison. Since that time I have suffered tortures from an affection of the skin, rheumatism and ulcer ating sores. During those long years of dis-ease I underwent treatment at the hands of leading physicians in Norwich, Hartford, Providence, Boston and Chicago. Failing to get relief at one place I would go to another, but met with the same treatment and effect everywhere. The quantities of mercury and potash I have taken have not only done me no ood, but I believe it has done much harm. After taking S. S. S. six weeks, it is hard to believe my own feelings, though the fact that it has done more for me in that short time than all other medicines have in twenty years is plain and undeniable. Six weeks ago I was a total wreck, without hope. Now my rheuma-tism is among the things of the past, and the scars only show that I was diseased. When I began taking Swift's Specific there was a large eating ulcer over my right eye which alarmed me greatly, and no one who saw it thought I uld ever get well. Like the other it is gone, and thank God for the creation of the Swift Specific Co. and their great remedy.

Mr. Joseph Kern, 504 Brooklyn street, New York, writes: I contracted blood poison two years ago. I was treated with potash and mercury for over two months by physicians. I thought I was well, but the fires were only smouldering. The eruption came out anew more violent than before. A friend who had tested it was similar case suggested S. S. S. I'began its use, and commenced to improve left me with mercurial rheumatism as the result of taking the mercury and potash mix-tures. That is also yielding to the influence of Swift's Specific, and will soon be gone. To the afflicted I would say, give it a fair trial, and contracted that dreadful disease, blood poison.

I went under treatment of a physician at once. ed at the progress of the disease in my system, and abandoned the doctor. A friend told me of S. S. S. and its wonderful effects. I gave it a trial, and began to improve with the first bottle. I have taken ten bottles, and am today a well man. To all who are in need of a blood purifier I will say, by all means try Swift's Specific. It is the safest and best of them all.

Mr. S. W. McCarter, 76 Madison street, New York, writes: I have had blood poison ever since October, 1885, and obtained no relief from any treatment- and I tried several-until I enced taking Swift's Specific. In one month I felt as well as I ever had. I also had a good appetite, and was entirely free from the pains in my shoulder and head, which had tormented me so long. Now all the sores and wellings from my head are gone.

Colonel B. H. Kieser, editor and proprietor of the Opelika, Ala., Times, writes: While a young man I contracted a disease which stuck to me for years. For five years I walked with difficulty. Finally I tried S. S. S. After using half a dozen bottles I could walk seven miles iw a day, and I have not had a return of the old pains since. I am 68 years old, and, thanks to S. S. S., I feel now like a young man. Mr. Thos. J. Perry. Cuthbert. Ga., writes.

three years old, has been suffering with a fear ful hereditary blood taint from his early boy-hood. Mercurial rheumatism ensued, and he became almost helpless. I secured for him six bottles of the S. S. S., which has almost removed the poison from his system, and en-tirely cured the rheumatism.

Mr. T. E. Syphers, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
For the past two years I have been a great sufferer from ulcerated sore mouth, the result of blood poison. I have for months received treatment at Bellevue hospital, and by a physician on 12th street, New York city, as well as by one in Brooklyn. I received but little, if any, benefit from either. So I resolved to try S. S. S. I am thankful to say it has done me more good than anything else. I have been taking it but two weeks, and the improvement is very marked—in fact I am almost well, and believe I will be perfectly so in a very short

SCROFULA.

Dr. W. C. Parker, Bremen, Ga., writes: Willie White was afflicted with scrotula seven years. I was called to the case and prescribed S. S. S., and today he is a fat and robust boy. Mrs. Mary E. Holt, Concord, Pike county Ga., writes: For six years my boy suffered with scrofula Swift's Specific effected a per

Mr. Frank Gilger, Danville, Ky., writes: had scrofula eight years in the severest form. Eight bottles of Swift's Specific made an effectual cure.

Miss Tommie Embry, LaGrange, Ga., writes I had scrofula from infancy. In 1884, in desperation, as a last resort, I tried S. S. S., and I feel as well today as I ever felt in my life.

Mr. James A. Watson, Salt Springs, Ga., writes: A six-month-old baby of one of my It's head was covered with horrible sores, and the child's health was generally bad. I persuaded the mother to give the baby S. S. S. which she did, and in two weeks' time the sores were healed, and the baby was well. The medicine completely eradicated the scrofulous inheritance, and the baby is entirely well. I regard S. S. S. as the best blood purifier in the world, from my knoweldge of its wonderful efficiency.

Mr. B. Drake, Lithonia, Ga., writes: I have been afflicted with scrofulous symptoms all my life, and so bad did it grow that one leg had to be amputated to save my life. I took S. S. S. and am now a new man, weighing 170 pounds. Mr. D. R. Wagner, Water Valley, Miss writes: Our little girl, Jennie, had scrofula for six years. We tried the best physicians in New York and Philadelphia; also, Hot Springs, Ark., without avail. Swift's Specific

The following testimonial from Mr. Joe T Collier, Vienna, Ga., is a striking exhibition of the remarkable curative powers of Swift's Specific in scrofula. It cannot fail to impress the minds of parents who may have children troubled with this dangerous disease. Mr. Collier is a highly respected, popular and well-known citizen of Dooly county. He particularly requests the publication of his letter, so that other families, similarly afflicted, may learn, through his experience, how they can procure a remedy which will infallibly and permanently cure and eradicate hereditary scrofula:

DRAWER 3.

Three or four years ago my little daughter, six years of age, had very ugly boils, which, very soon after their appearance, terminated in running sores, all over her head and face. I tried all the known remedies, salves, healing washes, etc., but none seemed to do any good. Her scalp was in a bad condition, indeed. Finally, I sent her to Atlanta to have her examined, for I had become very uneasy about her. The doctors who examined her said she was badly afflicted with scrofula. About the same time my little son, aged four years, broke m the start. As the disease passed away, it out all over the head and face with the same me with mercurial rheumatism as the reto sleep without suffering great torfure. His head was a solid mass of sores.

I began to use S. S. S. as soon as I was satisfied about the nature of the disease, and conyou will not be disappointed in results.

Mr. E. E. Black, 98 S. Fourteenth street,
Newark, N. J., writes: In October, 1885, I years since I have seen any signs of the disappeared. ease breaking out. Today they are as healthy looking children as can be found in the county. Before they began the use of S. S. S. they frail in constitution, but now they look strong and healthy. I did not give them any other kind of medicine to aid the S. S. S., but relied entirely on it, as I had seen some cases (and bad ones, too.) of blood piosoning cured in my neighborhood by the S. S. S.

bad ones, too.) of blood piosoning cured in my neighborhood by the S. S. S.

Mr. T. R. Crouch, the writer of the following testimonial, lives in Arkadelphia, Ark. This poculiar case again emphasizes the almost miraculous power of the Swift Specific in the relief and cure of the most dangerous forms of blood disease. He writes:

Few have experienced so great an affliction as myself. For the benefit of the afflicted, I make, for publication, a statement of the wonderful benefit which I experienced from the use of your providential remedy. I have suffered for sixteen years from this affliction, of which also my father and elder brother died. Hereditary scrofula attacked me first at the age of twelve years, rapidly increasing till it reached its severest form. During all this time I tried the vatious remedies which I could hear of, and consulted various physicians, with no effect. I was pronounced incurable.

After the use of the first bottle of S. S. S., I experienced a decided benefit. At times I had as many as half a dozen of those terrible cancerous ulcers on different parts of my body, and the palate of my mouth was almost eaten away. I have used the S. S. S. with continuing benefit. I was in an almost hopeless condition, and could not rise from my bed without help. I now have only one of the sores and a stifness in my left foot and legs, and can get about very handily with the help of a crutch. I have full faith that it will, in a reasonable time, restore me to perfect health. I used your remedy by direction of one of the most prominent physicians of the state.

We, the undersigned, take pleasure in stating that we are personally againstine with the ment physicians of the state.

We, the undersigned, take pleasure in stating that we are personally acquainted with the above Thomas R. Couch; and certify that his statements are true: Dr. H. H. Arnold, Major J. A. Ross, M. L. Langley, M. D., Arkadelphia, Ark.; R. H. Ethride, drnggist, J. D. Carglie, Okolona, Ark.; N. L. Moore, M. D., Hollywood, Ark.: Rev. G. M. Shaw, Prof. R. P. Peeples, S. P. Kirkham, W. P. Barton, Clear Springs, Arkanass.

The statement made by Mr. Cronch is reliable and entirely correct. All the persons mentioned are prominent citizens, and any statements they make are trustworthy. Yours truly,

STEWART & BRO., Druggists.

Arkadelphia, Ark.

Mr. W. M. Green, Five Points, Jones

believe I will be perfectly so in a very short time. I heartily recommend it to all who suffer from blood poison.

Mr. F. Woehl, No. 211 North avenue, Chicago, writes: "I doen it my duty to thank you for the cure I received from your excellent medicine. I contracted a severe case of blood poisoning about two years ago. Hearing of your medicine I went to a drug store, the proprietor of which persuaded me to buy a preparation of his own, which he said was a sure cure. I used six bottles of his stuff and grew worse all the time. At last I got disgusted, and despaired of a cure. I met a friend who told me that your medicine had cured him. I went to the same druggist again, and demanded your medicine. He reluctantly sold me twelve bottles, and I am now perfectly cured. I write this for the benefit of sufferers, to prevent their being deceived by false representations. Thanking you again for the benefit received from your medicine, I remain respectfully yours."

Mr. George O. Wellman, Jr., of Salem, Mass., writes: "I was suffering with blood disease which badied in a very large ulcerated and ugly looking running sore on one of her limbs, which was the last four years, discharging quantities of pus or matter, and was so reapidly undermining her health that I almost despaired of effecting a the sarsaparilla and potash mixtures and prescriptions of the best physicians, with no benefit received from your medicine, I remain respectfully yours."

Mr. George O. Wellman, Jr., of Salem, Mass., writes: "I was suffering with blood disease which badied in a very large ulcerated and ugly looking running sore on one of her limbs, which was so repaidly undermining her health that I almost despaired of effecting a the sast our years, discharging quantities of the last four years, and take, and a short time in creased in flesh and strength, and the sore, which had been growed to see the sast par

A WORD OF CAUTION.

It may be well to state here that, like all other great discoveries calculated to benefit the human race, the unprecedented success of S. S. S. has aroused the envy of rivals who have sought to take advantage of its popularity by imposing upon the public counterfeits or worthless imitations of the genuine article. These quackeries are harmful, made poisonous by the use of mercury and potassium, whereas Swift's Specific is absolutely vegetable. It is nature's pure remedy, and not the dangerous product of the chemist's retort. We caution the public against these counterfeits and imitations. Be sure you are buying the real S. S. S.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD!

$1,000 Reward will be paid to any chemist who will find, on analysis of one hundred bottles of S. S., one particle of Mercury, Iodide of Potassium or any mineral substance.

VOLUNTARY TESTIMONIALS FROM THE PEOPLE!

The annexed certificates are taken at random from thousands of letters in possession of the Swift Specific Company, and presented simply as samples. They are voluntary statements, giving facts and results of the case. Their accuracy and genuineness are beyond question. A valuable Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

> THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

LABORATORY:

Corner Butler and Hunter Sts., ATLANTA, GA.

Eastern Office: 756 Broadway, N.

European Office: 35 Snow Hill, E. C., London, England.

DEPOTS IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

CANCER.

Mr. H. L. Middlebrooks, Sparta, Ga., writes: My wife was troubled with cancer of the tongue near the throat, causing incessant pain and nervous prostration. She also had rheumatism. She suffered dreadfully. By the use of half a dozen bottles of S. S. S. she was entirely restored to health. There has been no return of the disease.

Mr. J. T. Batts, Columbia, Tenn., writes: My wife has been down two years with an abscess in her side. Last December she com-menced using S. S. When she began its use she was nothing but a skeleton, had no appetite, and was feeling weak and very miserable. Today she is a new woman. Her appe-tite is good, her spirits revived. She is as stout as she was before she was taken sick, two years ago. She can eat anything, and she today thinks S. S. S. the greatest medicine on earth. It has simply lifted her from a two years' sick bed, put flesh on her bones and life in her heart.

Mr. T. S. Maben, Dublin, Texas, writes: About two years ago a cancerous sore made its appearance on my face, and, as my ancestors on both sides had been afflicted with cancers, I was filled with gravest apprehensions. My attention was called to Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) I concluded at once to test it, and did so with the happiest results. The sore disappeared, and my face is well. My mother also had a cancer on the nose, and it was eating away that organ with alarming rapidity. I sent her one dozen bottles of Swift's Specific, which she used according to directions. The sore soon ceased to eat, and all inflammation disappeared, and the great hole made by the cancer closed up and healed over completely.

Mr. W. M. Stanfield, of Hampton, Henry county, Ga., was cured of one of the most violent and remarkable cancers in the history of this terrible disease. He had an "eating cancer" on his face for twelve years, and it was about to destroy his eye sight. Numbers of doctors waited on him without helping him.

About a year ago he began taking a regular

Wheeling, West Virginia, writes, October 25th,
1887: "Having used S. S. S. for the blood, I doctors waited on him without helping him. course of S. S. S. The result is stated in his own words: "In six weeks I felt greatly improved. The cancer was arrested in its progress and has gradually healed and is today entire well, the destroyed tissue having been restored and the face filled in with new flesh up to the very margin of the eyelid. For several months I have considered myself sound and well, and today physicians pronounce me well. My case has been a matter of astonishment to my friends and neighbors, who witnessed my wonderful cure. The doctors who know of my case admit the extraordinary power of the Swift Specific on this dreadful and seemingly incurable disease—cancer."

Mr. B. H. Byrd, the Post Master at Lady Lake, Fla., writes that S. S. S. cured him of cancer of the face, which he says would no loubt have hurried him to the grave. Three skilled physicians treated his case, but gave him no relief. He writes of S. S. S.: "I do think it is wonderful and has no equal."

Another remarkable case is that of Mr. A. R. Shands, of Spartanburg, S. C., who was troubled with a sore on the left cheek, con-stantly growing worse. He consulted many physicians, but none of them could do him any good. A short time after he began taking S. S. S., the sore disappeared. He writes: "I have every faith in S. S. S. It has done me more good than all the doctors and other medicines I ever took."

Mr. B. F. George, the writer of the following certificate, is a reliable and prosperous farmer, living in Hill county, Texas, his nearest postbeing Milford, Ellis county. His case and its remarkable cure attracted much attention in his neighborhood. Any one wishing further particulars can write to Mr. George, or to Dr. T. B. Bond, the druggist at Hillsboro, through whom Mr. George got the medicine, and who furnishes an endorsement of Mr. George's statement:

"This is to certify that I had a cancerous wart or mole on my eyelid, as large as the end of my thumb, which had the appearance of cancer, causing me much pain and inflamma-tion, from which I suffered a long time. Seeing the S. S. S. advertised I commenced using it, and after the use of a few bottles the sore dropped out, my cancer gone, and I was entirely relieved. This has been several months ago, and I have felt no symptoms of a return, and believe I am entirely well."

Mr. Bond, the druggist referred to, writes:"I am familiar with the case of Mr. B. F. George, who is one of the most reliable citizens of Hill county, and bear witness to the correctness of the above statement.

T. B. BOND, Druggist.

Miss Margaret S. Guin, Harrison, Washing. ton county, Ga., writes: "Over nine years ago a cancer developed on my nose. Its course ran steadily until the septum was entirely destroyed, and the disease had nearly eaten through the upper lip. The cancer had a surface on my nose and lip of about four inches. I had two doctors attending me all the time, but they were unable to arrest the progress of the malady. My lungs were affected, I had a terrible cough and a number of hemorrhages. I inherited consumption, that evil having father had hemorrhages and affected lungs, and he was cured by S. S. S. His cure suggested that may be S. S. S. would do me some good. About a year ago, I began taking the Swift's Specific, and I have taken now only about thirty bottles. The effect of the medicine was to stop the sloughing of the cancer and to very much improve the condition of my lungs. The cancer has gradually yielded to the S. S. S. until now the lip is entirely healed, the nostrils are filling up and the cartilage is the nostris are fining up and the cartilage is being renewed rapidly. Persons who saw me a year ago are surprised to see how greatly I have improved, and how great that improve-ment is. I am delighted at the result. general health is good, and I feel like a different woman to what I was a Mrs. D. D. Ware, of Keene, N. H., writes: "In 1863 a cancer developed on my lower lip.

I went under treatment at once, and from time to time since that have had medical aid in New Orleans, Boston and New York, with no benefit at all. It has progressed right along, and now involves my jaw and cheek. One thousand dollars would not cover the loss sustained through the medical and surgical

RHEUMATISM.

Mr. W. F. Daley, advertising agent of the Brooklyn Elevated railroad, writes: "In-flammatory rheumatism swelled my legs and arms to twice their natural size. I suffered excruciating pain. Your wonderful S. S. S. made a complete cure."

Major Sidney Herbert, editor of the Southe ern Cultivator and Dixie Farmer, Atlanta, Ga., writes . I have fully tested the virtues of Swift's Specific, both as a rheumatism cure and a tonic. It has done even more than its preprietors claim for it."

A. S. White, the famous writer on stenography, writes from 102 Washington street, Chicago: "Your remedy has done wonderful service for me. For the past five years I have been troubled with rheumatic pains. My right hand has become almost useless, and I was gradually losing speed as a short, hand writer. A friend of mine, Dr. Dederich, advised me of your remedy. I used a dozen bottles of S. S. S., and am now entirely recovered. I shall never cease to commend your excellent medi-cines, and wish you much success."

System Invigorator.

Mr. C. E. Mitchell, W. Twenty-Third street, (Ferry) New York, writes: "I weighed 116 pounds when I began taking your medicine, and now 152 pounds. I have an appetite now like a strong man. I would not be without Sa S. S. for several times its weight in gold."

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a well known practicing physician of Ellaville, Ga., writes: n my judgment, prevent summer dysentery, if one will take a few bottles in the spring, thus preparing the bowels for the strains of

Mr. W. J. Pollard, Augusta, Ga., writes? 'I regard S. S. S. not only as the best blood purifier, but also as the finest tonic for reduced constitution or general debility that I know

Mrs. Scott Liston, 116 Zane street (Island) can safely say that it beats anything I have used to cleanse the blood and make a new being out of a person." Mr. James E. Collier, Petersburg, Va.

writes: "The want of appetite and the horri-ble dyspepsia from which I suffered have entirely disappeared, and today I have as good a digestion as any man in the state of Virginia." Mrs. R. W. Wilson, Hopkinsville, Ky. writes: "When I began with Swift' Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S., I was strong and buoyant and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most valuable medicine for ladies in week, delicate health. It is a household medicine with me

Miscellaneous Diseases

Mr. Arthur W. Wright, of Nashville, Tenn. who was afflicted with poison oak, writes: My case was a perfect test of the power of S. S. S. as a blood purifier. A friend of mine had been cured of similar poison by S. S. S., and it was through his recommendations that I took it. Mrs. B. F. Lightfoot, Fort Gaines, Ga., who was cured of dyspepsia of ten years standing, writes: My husband was cured of a twenty. years' case of this disease by S. S. medicine is a household remedy in my family, and I would not be without it for more than it costs. It would be hard to tell which has most faith in it, me or my husband: but we both regard it as the greatest of all medicines.

Mr. Charles H. Pratt, Palatka, Fla., who suffered four years from ringworm, writes: Three years ago a large sore formed on the back of my neck that became the size of a silver dollar. It finally spread all around to my nose and would not dry up. Last summer I took several bottles of S. S. S., which soon permanently dried up the sore, and I have had no eruption since.

Mr. S. H. Whitthorne, editor of the Saline Courier, Benton. Ark., writes: Last spring I was dangerously afflicted with erysipelas, and my life was despaired of by my physicians. As a last hope I tried S. S. and soon found relief, and in two weeks I was able to attend to my business.

Mr. R. C. Walker, Jesup, Ga., writes: As far back as I can recollect I was subject to boils. They would break out every spring and off and on during the year. There are scars all over me now from virulent boils. Several years ago I took a few bottles of S. S. S., and B, am now entirely free from boils and I have been ever since I finished taking your valuable blood purifier, now several years ago.

blood purifier, now several years ago.

Col. E. B. Cryers, of Treuton, La., superince tendent of the Ouachita line of steamers, writes:

I have been using Swift's Specific in my family for the past two years as an antidote for malaria, and also as a blood purifier, with the most satisfactory results. I live on the banks of the Ouachita river, in what is called the swamp country. Myself and family enjoy as good or even better health than the average people who live in the hill country. I am confident that S. S. has banished the malarial poison from our systems, and consecuently poison from our systems, and consequently given us good health. I use it at intervals dur-ing the spring and summer, when the system indicates being charged with poison, and it in-variably drives it out.

Mrs. E. Hearn, 36 East Ninth street, New York, writes: "I had been troubled with ecze-ma of my face for the past three years and a half. My entire face was covered with it, and ma of my face for the past three years and a half. My entire face was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleasant to appear in public. I consulted the ablest physicians in the city, among others a celebrated specialist in diseases of the skin, who treated me during the first winter without the slightest perceptible benefit. I then tried the sulphur treatment and various advertised medicines with little or no effect. I visited several springs, including the Hot Springs, of Arkansas, during the succeeding two years. At the latter point I placed myself under treatment of one of the leading physicians. Although my general health was greatly improved, the springs failed to accomplish the object of my visit. The eczema still clung to me, and was a great source of inconvenience and discomfort. After returning east fully convinced that I would find no remedy, an acquaintance, who said that she herself had been raised from bed and cured of scrofula by S. S. S., so strongly advised me to try it that I began, with little faith on my own part and little encouragement from others. I have taken it for two or three months, and the result is that the disease is practically cured, there being but slight traces of it left. Swift's Specific is certainly a wonderful remedy, and I feel very grateful that I ever found it."

aid I have received. I have certainly tried everything and was benefitted by nothing until I took S S. S. It has done me more good than all else put together, and I will soon be sound and well. Swift's Specific is certainly a great boon to humanity."

Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Strobridge Lithographic Co., Cincinnati, O., writes: "I suffered for two years with a terrible itching and painful sores on my neck, arms, hands and ingers. No physician could help me. S. S. relieved me perfectly, and I feel like a new man."

THE PROSPECT AHEAD. The Probability of Controlling the Senate. A Bill to Forfeit Unearned Land Grants-Georgia Senators at Lunch-Per-sonal Topics - Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—[Special.]—If the democratic party elect their ticket in the next presidential election, and there now seems no doubt that they will again be victorious, the party will be in a stronger position than in many years. For instance, they will not only have the executive and the house, but, in all probability, the senate, too. The senate now stands thirty-nine republicans (including Riddleberger) to thirty-seven democrats. All the states which elect senators for 1889 are strongly one way politically except New Jersey, Virginia having already elected Barbour, a democrat, to succeed Riddleberger. If New Jersey continues democratic this will make the senste, evenly divided and the vice-president will deciding vote. The situation will make the legislative contest in New Jersey this autumn peculiarly important, and may throw upon the people of that state the responsibility of deciding not only whether the senate shall be democratic or republican, but whether or not it shall be in accord with the esident and house of representative. On yesterday Messrs. Lamar & Zachry got a judgment in the court of claims for their client in the case of Perry vs. the United States for $54,000. This firm is among the lawyers who have located here during the present administration and one of the most prosperous in

Mr. Lamar is a son-in-law of Justice Lamar of the supreme bench.

Mr. Zachry will be remembered as a Georgian and a former member of the Atlanta bar.

It is said this firm makes an income of at least $1,000 a month, which news will be received with pleasure by the many friends of the young men in Georgia.

As the national exposition of the colored race to be held in Atlanta next fall is attracting considerable attention throughout the south, the people will probably be interested In the following bill recently introduced in the senate by Senator Blair, of New Hampshire, providing for an appropriation for the same. This bill will be reported favorably with an amendment added to make the appropriation $400,000 instead of the amount specified in the bill. Here is the bill in full:

$400,000 instead of the amount specified in the bill. Here is the bill in full:

A bill to encourage the holding of a national industrial exposition of the aris, mechanics and products of the colored race throughout the United States of America, to be held in the years 1888 and 1889. Whereas, it is desirable to encourage the colored people in their efforts to promote the industrial progress of the race by the holding of a national industrial exposition in the years 1888 and 1889, in the city of Atlanta, Ga., to be held under the joint auxifies of the United States, the Colored World's Fair as sociation of America, an institution for the public weifare, incaprorated under the general laws of Georgia, and of the city in which it may be located, and in which the works of art, field produces, live stock, manuactures, machinery, and other articles raised, fabricated, produced, or owned by colored people throughout the United States of America, will be the chief exhibit, and which is designed to cultivate a thorough knowledge of the arts and trades among the colored people, create among them a stimulus to industry, and show the results of their progress in educational, and industrial progress of its Colored people, create among them a stimulus to industry, and show the results of their progress in education and industrial progress of its Colored delizens; and Whereas, Suca an exhibition should be national in its character, and should have the sanction of the congress of the United, therefore,

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United therefore,

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United therefore,

Be it enacted by the resident of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States of America in congre directors of the Colored World's Fair association of America, appoint eleven coambisceners, who shall industrial exposition of managemen of a national industrial exposition of the arts, mechanics and products of the colored race throughout the United States of America, to be held in the years less an 1 1889, under the auspices of the Colored World's Fair association of America.

See. That the president of the United States may, upon the recommendation of the board of management of said national industrial exposition, appoint one commissioner and one alternate commissioner for each state and territary, whose functions shall be defined by the said board of management.

See. 3. That all of said commissioners shall be appointed within three months after the passage of this act.

Sec. 4. That said board of management shall hold its meetings in the city of Atlanta, state of Georgia, and that a majority of said loard of management shall have full power to make all needful rules and regit atlant for its givernment.

Sec. 5. That said board of management shall report to the president of the United States a suitable date for opening and closing the exposition, a schedule of unpropriate ceremonics for opening or dedi port to the president of the United States a softable date for opening and closing the exposition, aschedule of appropriate ceremones for opening or dedicating the same, and such other matters as in their judgment may be deemed intrortant.

See. 6. That no compensation for services shall be paid to the commissioners or other officers provided by this act from the treasury of the United States.

See. 7. That whenever the president shall be informed by the said be ord of management that provision has been made for suitable buildings, or the erection of the same, for the purpose of said exposition, the president shall, through the department of state, make proclamation of the same, setting forth the time at which the exhibition will open and the place at which it will be held.

See. 8. That the sum of six hundred thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, as a loan to the said national industrial exposition, to be used and employed by the board of management thereof to Augment and management may determine, and in accordance with the provisions of this set: Provided, That the sum shall be paid by the secretary of the treasury of the United States on the drafts of the president and serves a yof the board of management and serves and the success of this act: Provided, That the sum shall be paid by the secretary of the treasury of the United States on the drafts of the president and serves yof the board of management of the national industrial exposition authorized by order of setil board, one-third of the amount immediately after the passage of this net upon being satisfied that twenty thousand dollars has been contributed and pid into the said board for the purposes of the exposition by the contributors to and shareholders of the national industrial exposition authorized by order of setil board one-third of the amount immediately after the passage of this net upon being satisfied that twenty thousand dollars has been contributed and pid into the said board for the purposes of the exposition by the con upon being satisfied that twenty thousand dolars has been contributed and puid into the suid board for the purposes of the exposition by the contributors to and shareholders of the national industrial exposition, and the remainder in two monthly payments thereafter upon being satisfied that each of the prior payments has been faithfully applied as required by this act, and for this, purvose he shall have free access to the accounts and all transactions of said board: Provided further, That no greater amount shall be expended, or liability or indebtedness of any kind incurred upon, buffaines, grounds, and preparations than the aggregate sum that may be paid in by the subscribers to the captal stock and by donarions, and the amount of the loan provided herein: And provided further, That in the distribution of the amounts that may remain in the treasury of the board of management after the payment of the current expenses of administration the amount of the appropriation hereinbefore made shall be paid in full into the treasury of the United States before any dividend or peacetage of profits or as seets shall be paid to the holders of said took or contributors: Provided further, That the government of the United States shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any debt or obligation created or neutral by the national industrial exposition or of the United States shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any debt or obligation created or incurred by the national industrial exposition or its board of management, or for any sum whatever in addition to the amount appropriated by this act; and that relegate space for such exhibits as the government of the United States may see proper to make at said exposition shall be furnished free of charge by said board: Provided further, that no sum shall be paid to the said board of management of said exposition until after the president and secretary and a majority of the members of said tourd shall have executed a bond, with good and solvent security, to be approved by the secretary of the treasury, in the sum of $60.00 to suitcientity secure the safe keeping and the fatthful disbursement of the sum hereby at propriated, and for the fatthful disbursement of the sum hereby at propriated and for the fatthful of the treasury in the payment to the government of the United States of the streams of progression said expositions remaining.

tures and liabilities as fixed herein, and for the payment to the government of the United States the striplus of proceeds of said exposition remaining after payment of the current expenses of administration, said repayment in no case of administration, said repayment in no case of exceed the loan. The receipt of the loan herein made or any part thereof, by said board of management and by the corporation created under the laws of the state of Georgia, and designated as "The Colored World's Fair Association of America."

As stated in

As stated in a previous dispatch from here the bill will probably pass, and Atlanta will get the exposition, but the people will hardly expect as large an appropriation as that recommended by the committee. THE PUBLIC LANDS. Representative Payson, of Illinois, has a bill which will be reported by Monday, providing for the forfeiture of all lands heretofore granted to any state or corporation to aid in the construction of a railroad opposite to and co-ter minous with the portion of any such railroad, not now completed and in use, for the construc-tion of which lands have heretofore been granted, and restores all such land to the public do-

ERS! S. S. S.

a. Ga., writes nucer of the enn., writes

er she com

n, had no ap taken sick

ng, and she

from a two sore made its

my ancestor

ith cancers,

Specific (8. 8

it, and did se

ther also had

I sent her

The sore

nade by the completely

of the most in the history

ars, and it was

Numbers of helping him.

elt greatly im

led and is to-tissue having in with new e eyelid. For myselfsound

s who witness-ors who know nary power of dreadful and se Jeancer."

Post Master at Lady

S. cured him

that of Mr. A.

ft cheek, con-

dd do him any

the following erous farmer.

His case

ne wishing

at Hillsboro. ent of Mr.

g time. See

ttles the sore

veral months

s of a return,

izens of Hill on, Washing.

r nine years

er had a sure all the time,

cure suggest-

ver the loss

se. Its cours

gan taking S e writes: "I has done me

C., who was alted many nounce me

Mr. W. F. Daley, advertising agent of the Brooklyn Elevated railroad, writes: "In-flammatory rheumatism swelled my legs and arms to twice their natural size. I suffered excruciating pain. Your wonderful S. S. S. also made a complete cure." Major Sidney Herbert, editor of the Southern Cultivator and Dixie Farmer, Atlanta, Ga., writes I have fully tested the virtues of Swilt's Specific, both as a rheumatism cure and a tonic. It has done even more than its preprietors claim for it."

RHEUMATISM.

preprietors claim for it."

A. S. White, the famous writer on stenography, writes from 102 Washington street, Chicago: "Your remedy has done wonderful service for me. For the past five years I have been troubled with rheumatic pains. My right hand has become almost useless, and I was gradually losing speed as a short, hand writer. A friend of mine, Dr. Dederich, advised me of your remedy. I used a dozen bottles of S. S. S., and am now entirely recovered. I shall never cease to commend your excellent medicines, and wish you much success."

System Invigorator.

Mr. C. E. Mitchell, W. Twenty-Third street, (Ferry) New York, writes: "I weighed 11d pounds when I began taking your medicine, and now 152 pounds. I have an appetite now like a strong man. I would not be without Sc. S. S. for several times its weight in gold."

Dr. J. N. Cheney, a well known practicing physician of Ellaville, Ga., writes: in my judgment, prevent summer dysentery, if one will take a few bottles in the spring. thus preparing the bowels for the strains of

Mr. W. J. Pollard, Augusta, Ga., Writes? I regard S. S. S. not only as the best blood purifier, but also as the finest tonic for reduced constitution or general debility that I know

Mrs. Scott Liston, 116 Zane street (Island) Wheeling, West Virginia, writes, October 25th, 1887: "Having used S. S. S. for the blood, I can safely say that it beats anything I have used to cleanse the blood and make a new being out of a person."

Mr. James E. Collier, Petersburg, Va. writes: "The want of appetite and the horri-ble dyspepsia from which I suffered have en-tirely disappeared, and today I have as good a digestion as any man in the state of Virginia."

Mrs. R. W. Wilson, Hopkinsville, Ky., "When I began with Swift' Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S., I was strong and buoyant and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most valuable nedicine for ladies in week, delicate health. It is a household medicine with me.

Miscellaneous Diseases

Mr. Arthur W. Wright, of Nashville, Tenn., who was afflicted with poison oak, writes: My case was a perfect test of the power of S. S. S. as a blood purifier. A friend of mine had been cured of similar poison by S. S. S., and it was through his recommendations that I took it.

Mrs. B. F. Lightfoot, Fort Gaines, Ga., who was cured of dyspepsia of ten years standing, writes: My husband was cured of a twenty. years' case of this disease by S. S. S. Your medicine is a household remedy in my family, and I would not be without it for more than it osts. It would be hard to tell which has most gard it as the greatest of all medicines.

Mr. Charles H. Pratt, Palatka, Fla., who suffered four years from ringworm, writes: Three years ago a large sore formed on the back of my neck that became the size of a silver dollar. It finally spread all around to my nose and would not dry up. Last summer I took several bottles of S. S. S., which soon permanently dried up the sore, and I have had no eraption since

Mr. S. H. Whitthorne, editor of the Saline Courier, Benton. Ark., writes: Last spring I was dangerously afflicted with erysipelas, and my life was despaired of by my physicians. As a last hope I tried S. S. S., and soon found relief, and in two weeks I was able to attend to appearance of and inflamma-

d I was en-Mr. R. C. Walker, Jesup, Ga., writes: As far back as I can recollect I was subject to boils. They would break out every spring and boils. They would break out every spring and off and on during the year. There are scars all over me now from virulent boils. Several years ago I took a few bottles of S. S., and B, am now entirely free from boils and I have been ever since I finished taking your valuable blood purifier, now several years ago.

Col. E. B. Cryers, of Trenton, La., snperintendent of the Ouachita line of steamers, writes:
I have been using Swift's Specific in my family for the past two years as an antidote for malaria, and also as a blood purifier, with the most satisfactory results. I live on the banks of the Ouachita river, in what is called the swamp country. Mysolf and family enjoy as good or even better health than the average people who live in the hill country. I am confident that S. S. S. has banished the malarial poison from our systems, and consequently given us good health. I use it at intervals during the spring and summer, when the system indicates being charged with poison, and it invariably drives it out.

Mrs. E. Hearn, 36 East Ninth street, New emorrhages, evil having eople. My cted lungs, the suggestmay me some a taking the an now only of the medition of my yielded to irely healed, cartilage is the saw me y greatly I at improve the result.

d. and I it improve the result.

d. and I first was a greatly in proved, the estail was a greatly in general health was greatly in general health was greatly in general health was greatly in growd, the estail was a greatly in general health was greatly in growd, the springs failed to accomplish the object of my visit. The eczema still clung to me, and was a greatly in growd, the springs failed to accomplish the object of my visit. The eczema still clung to me, and was a greatly in growd find no remedy, an acquaintance, who said that she herself had been raised from bed and cured of scrofula by S. S. S., so strongly addition my own part and little encouragement from others. I have taken it for two or the remonths, and the result is that the disease is practically cured, there being but slight traces of it left. Swift's Specific is certainly a wonderful remedy, and I feel very grateful that I ever found it."

Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Strobidge the variably drives it out.

Mrs. E. Hearn, 36 East Ninth street, New York, writes: "I had been troubled with eczema of my face for the past three years and a rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the exist in the city, among others a celebrated meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the sake with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was covered with it, and rendered meso conspicuous that it was unpleas, and the scale was not was until to appear in public. I consulted the ablest past an taking the

Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Strobridge Lithographic Co., Cincinnati, O., writes: "I suffered for two years with a terrible itching and painful sores on my neck, arms, hands and fingers. No physician could help me. S. S. S. relieved me perfectly, and I feel like a new man."

THE PROSPECT AHEAD. The Probability of Controlling the Senate.

A Bill to Forfeit Unearned Land Grants-Georgia Senators at Lunch-Personal Topics - Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—[Special.]—If the lemocratic party elect their ticket in the next presidential election, and there now seems no doubt that they will again be victorious, the party will be in a stronger position than in many years. For instance, they will not only have the executive and the house, but, in all probability, the senate, too. The senate now stands thirty-nine republicans (including Riddleheren) to thirty-new republicans. dleberger) to thirty-seven democrats. All the states which elect senators for 1889 are strongly one way politically except New Jersey, Vir ginia having already elected Barbour, a demo-crat, to succeed Riddleberger. If New Jersey continues democratic this will make the senate, evenly divided and the vice-president will have the deciding vote. The situation will nake the legislative contest in New Jersey this autumn peculiarly important, and may throw upon the people of that state the responsibility of deciding not only whether the senshall be democratic or republican, but whether or not it shall be in accord with the president and house of representative.

On yesterday Messrs. Lamar & Zachry got a ludgment in the court of claims for their client in the case of Perry vs. the United States for $54,000. This firm is among the lawyers who have located here during the present adminision and one of the most prosperous in

Mr. Lamar is a son-in-law of Justice Lamar, of the supreme bench.

Mr. Zachry will be remembered as a Georgian and a former member of the Atlanta bar. It is said this firm makes an income of at least $1,000 a month, which news will be received with pleasure by the many friends of the young men in Georgia.

As the national exposition of the colored race to be held in Atlanta next fall is attracting considerable attention throughout the south, the people will probably be interested in the following bill recently introduced in the senate by Senator Blair, of New Hampshire, providing for an appropriation for the same. This bill will be reported favorably with an amendment added to make the appropriation $400,000 instead of the amount specified in the Here is the bill in full:

bill. Here is the bill in full:

A bill to encourage the holding of a national industrial exposition of the aris, mechanics and products of the colored race throughout the United States of America, to be held in the years 1888 and 1889. Whereas, it is destrable to encourage the colored people in their efforts to promote the industrial progress of the race by the holding of a national industrial exposition in the years 1888 and 1889, in the city of Atlanta, ta., to be held under the joint antifices of the United States, the Colored World's Fair a sociation of America, an institution for the public welfare, incorporated under the general laws of Georgia, and of the city in which it may be located, and in which the works of art, field products, live stock, manufactures, machinery, and products, live stock, manufactures, machinery, and other articles raised, fabricated, produced, or owned by colored people throughout the United States of other articles raised, fabricated, produced, or owned by colored people throughout the United States of America, will be the chief exhibit, and which is designed to cultivate a thorough knowledge of the arts and trades among the colored people, create among them a stimulus to industry, and show the results of their progress in education, art, manufactures, the science of forestry and horitculture, and furnish to the government information as to the educational and industrial progress of its colored citizens; and whereas, Suca are sublittion should be national in its character, and should have the sanction of the congress of the United; therefore,

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress asembled, That the president of the United its states of the United Sta exposition of the area throughout the United of the colored race throughout the United America, to be held in the years 1888 and ler the auspices of the Colored World's Patr der the auspices of the Colored Holds ion of America.

That the president of the United State of the board of marag-ment of said national industrial exposition uppoint one commissioner and one alternate commissioner for each state and territory, whose functions half be defined by the said board of management. Sec. 3. That all of said comm.ssioners shall be appointed within three months after the passage obisis act.

4. That said board of management shall hold ule of appropriate ceremonies for opening or dedicating the same, and such other matters as in their ladgment may be deemed invortant.

See. 5. That no compensation for services shall be paid to the commissioners or other officers provided by this act from the treasury of the United States.

See. 7. That whenever the president shall be informed by the said to rid of management that provision has been made for suitable buildings, or the rection of the same, for the purpose of said expression, the president shall, through the department of state, make proclamation of the same, set the purpose of said expression, the time at which the exhibition will open and the place at which it will be held.

See. 8. That the sum of six hundred thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the public treasury not otherwise appropriated, as a loan to the said national industrial exposition, to be used and employed by the board of management thereof to Augment and enhance the success of the national industrial exposition in accordance with the provisions of the management of the sunctional industrial exposition in authorized by order of said board, one third of the amount immediately after the passage of this act: Provided, That the sun shall be paid by the secretary of the United States will undoubtedly demand reparation and apology, and also the prior payments has been faithfully applied as required by order of said board, one third of the amount immediately after the passage of this act: Provided further. That no provided herein; And provided further, That in the dastribution of the amounts and all transactions of any kind incurred upon buildings, grounds, and preparations that the aggregate sum that stock and by donations subsected to the accounts and all transactions of the provided further. That in the dastribution of the amounts many mental that the provided further, that in the dastribution of the amounts that may remain any the provided further. That in the dastribution of the amounts that amount immediately after the passage of this act, upon being satisfied that twenty thousand dollars has been contributed and pud into the said board for the purposes of the exposition by the contributors to and shareholders of the national industrial exposition, and the remainder in two monthly payments thereafter upon being satisfied that each of the prior payments has been faithfully applied as required by this act, and for this purpose he shall have free access to the accounts and all transactions of said board: Provided further. That no greater amount shall be expended, or liability or indebtedness of any kind facurred upon buildings, grounds, and preparations than the aggregate sum that may be paid in by the subscribers to the capital stock and by donations, and the amount of the loan provided herein: And provided further, That in the distribution of the amounts that may remain in the treasury of the board of management after the payment of the current expenses of administration the amount of the appropriation hereinbefore made shall be paid in full into the treasury of the United States before any dividend or peccentage of profus or as acts shall be paid to the holders of said stock or contributors: Provided further, That the government of the United States shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any detit or obligation created or incurred by the national industrial exposition or its board of management, or for any sum whatever in addition to the amount appropriated by this act; and that dequate space for such exhibits as the government of the United States shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any detit or obligation created or incurred by the national industrial exposition or its board of management of said exposition whatever in addition to the amount appropriated by this act; and that dequate space for such exhibits as the government of the United States may see proper to make at said exposition shall be furnished free of charge by said board of management of the sum hereby appro that may be paid in by the subscribers to the capital stock and by donations, and the amount of the loan provided herein: And provided further, That in the distribution of the amount of the appropriation hereinbefore made shall be paid in full into the treasury of the United States before any dividend or peccentage of profits or as before any dividend or peccentage of profits or as the properties of the United States shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any debt or obbligation created or incurred by the national industrial exposition or its board of management, or for any sum whatever in addition to the amount appropriated by this act; and that edoquate space for such exhibits as the government of the United States may see proper to make at said exposition that after the president and secretary and a majority of the members of said board shall have executed a bond, with good and solvent security, to be approved by the secretary of the treasury, in the sum of 8100.00 to sutificiently secure the safe keeping and the arithful disbursement of the sum hereby appropriated and for the fultiful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditures and liabilities as keeping and the arithful disbursement of the sum hereby appropriated and for the fultiful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditures and liabilities as keeping and the arithful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditures and liabilities as keeping and the arithful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditure and liabilities as keeping and the arithful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditure and liabilities as keeping and the arithful observance of this act with regard to the limitation of expenditure of the sum herein made, and the proper limitation of expenditure that the so-called pure land might also be compounded with dead hog grease.

During the course of the experiment, the committee of the sum herein made, and obligations

Representative Payson, of Illinois, has a bill which will be reported by Monday, providing for the forfeiture of all lands heretofore granted to any state or corporation to aid in the construction of a railroad opposite to and co-terminous with the portion of any such railroad, not now completed and in use, for the construction of which lands have heretofore been granted, and restores all such land to the public do-revised statutes providing for commutation of homestead. The bill does not contemplate the forfeiture of the right of way and necessary depot grounds that have heretofore been granted. It will provide that all actual set-tiers on lands at the date of the passage of this act, who shall make due claim within six months, are entitled to preference rights to main. These lands are to be open to home stead entry, except under that clause of the enter under the homestead law, and shall be regarded as actual settlers from the date of occupation. The idea is to make of occupation. The idea is to make the roads disgorge that part of the public domain acquired by building part of their lines on paper. The southern roads affected by the proposed bill, with the amount of land, are as follows: Atlantic, Gulf and West India Transit, of Florida, 310,000 acres; Mobile and Girard, 536,000 acres; Gulf and Sheep Island, 650,000 acres; Selma, Rome and Dalton, 95,000 acres. If the bill is passed, the amount of land that will be reclaimed will be about ten million acres to be returned to the public domain.

The Star this evening, in writing of senators at lunch, says of the Georgia senators: "Senator Brown is as regular as time, and enjoys hearty lunch, generally beginning with a raw oyster. Senator Colquitt is very abstemious in eating, as well as in drinking, and is not often seen in the restaurant.

Harry E. Griswold, of Georgia, was today transferred from the interior department to the postoffice department, at a salary of $1,200. Hugh H. Colquitt and H. S. Fellows, of Atlanta, are registered at the Metropolitan.

On Monday, a delegation from the grand army posts of Philadelphia will arrive here with the finest floral tribute that can be procured in that city, to be presented to Senator Blackburn, as a testimonial of his complete annihilation of Senator Ingalls. The fact that Senator Ingalls was, on Thursday night, blacklisted and not allowed admission to the order of the royal legion has created no end of talk, and by it the senator is very much like a man with "heart bowed down." Though the members of the loyal legion are extremely reticent on the subject, there is no doubt that the cause of the rejection of Senator Ingalls is wholly due to the unwarranted assault he made upon the fair names of Generals McClellan and Hancock, and Horace Greely. Ingalls has lived to see and within a very few days, that he is hated and scorned worse than any other man in the United States, and by that element he thought he was pleasing—the Grand Army of the Republic. As the sarcastic senator now passes upon the street, he is hissed at by the old veterans who followed McClellan along the banks of the Potomac, and waded in trenches of blood with Hancock at Gettysburg. The general disapproval and condemnation of the speech, which comes in by the thousand letters in every mail, has made Ingalls an absolute object of pity in conversation. Senator Allison today, while walking through the grounds of the capitol, practically acknowledged that Ingall's "greatest effort" was a mistake, and that he had so offended the Grand Army people that his standing in his own state would be seriously affected. In truth and in brief, Senator Ingalls has healing army grant and teday is redealed to dug his own grave, and today is so dead at the capital that the corpse emits an odor stifling to respectable and honorable people. His being blackballed by the loyal legion is looked upon as a justification of the theory that there is punishment after death.

E. W.B.

ANOTHER ROW WITH MEXICO. United States Marshals Arrested While Pursuing Train Robbers. Washington, March 10.—Late this evening Congressman Springer, chairman of the committee on territories, received the following telegram from Hof. William H. Barnes, justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Arizona:

Arizona:
TUCSON, ARIZONA, March 10—Information is received that a marshal, his deputy and Deputy Sheriff Shiball, in hot pusuit of the train robbers, were arrested and imprisoned at Janos, Chihuahua. Bail and communication with friends prohibited.
W.-H. BARNES,

Mr. Springer at once transmitted telegram to the president of the United States explaining in a note the geographical situation of Janos, etc. The following telegram was sent by Mr. Springer to Judge Barnes in response to his message:

To Hon. Wm. H. Barnes, Tucson, Arizona:—Your telegram rec. ived and immediately laid before the president. I presume he will act promptly and advise you.
W. M. Springer.
Mr. Springer expressed the opinion that the United States marshal of the territory of Arizona doubtless had a writ issued, from Judge.

A PRACTICAL TEST.

SULLIVAN MATCHED.

The Contest Between the Sluggers Yesterday.

THIRTY-NINE ROUNDS AND A DRAW. Mitchell Stands Up Well Before the Ameri can—Boston Disconsolate Over the News—The Fight in Detail. CHANTILLY, March 10 .- The Mitchell-Sullivan fight took place on the grounds of Baron Rothschild, near Criel. Sullivan was out of ondition when he entered the ring, and Mitchell had the best of the fight. Mitchell's friends assert that he would have won the fight had it been continued. The fight lasted a little over three hours. Up to the end of the eighth round Sullivan appeared to have the best of the fight, but the fact that he could not knock Mitchell out seemed to discourage him, and after that he fought with little spirit. Mitchell showed great pluck throughout and his friends are jubilant, as the result is virtually a victory for the little Englishman. At the end of the fight both men were in poor shape, and Mitchell's backers finally consented to a proposition made by Sullivan's backers, that the fight be declared a draw. The American crowd is blue. The fight was a desperate one; both received fearful black

The great fight ended as not one in fifty expected it would. After thirty-nine rounds, in which the lighter man fully used his advantage under the London prize ring rules, the referee declared the fight a draw.

The arrangements made last night for the fight were chaotic. Mitchell's agent, who was sent over ten days before to secure the ground, was obliged to confess that he had failed to procure a suitable spot, whereupon a wrangle ensued, and the Sullivan party, rightly or wrongly, charged Mitchell with trying to wriggle out of the fight. Finally the Mitchel party left the choice of ground to Sullivan's backers, who appointed Mr. Gideon, of the Sportsman; Mr. Dunning, also of the Sportsman, and Mr. Ory, the Sportsman's Paris reporter, to select the battle field. The trio left Amiens avenue for Creil, the pugulists arranging to follow today. Early this morning the two parties proceeded to Baron Rothschild's grounds at Apremont, where the ring was pitched in a quiet spot on good ground. Mitchell talked as much as usual, and though pale declared himself confident. Sullivan looked determined, but was somewhat thin in the face. When the combatants reached the ring forty spectators were present. McDonald and Jack Ashton seconded Sullivan and Boldock and Kilrain seconded Mitchell. Mr. Argle, of the London stock exchange, was referee. Jack Bennett umpired for Sullivan and Charley Rowell acted in a like capacity for Mitchell. Sullivan entered the ring at 12:25 and Mitchell followed. Five minutes later, at 1: :3), the fi; h' began.

In the first round everything favored the American. Both opened cautiously, but Sullivan soon landed a heavy blow on Mitchell's left jaw. Mitchell retaliated with a light blow on Sullivan's chest, whereupon Sullivan sent in a crasher on Mitchell's head and knocked him clear off his legs.
Second round—After half a minute's interval, Mitchell came to time. The Boston boy twice cornered Mitchell and landed his pile-twice cornered Mitchell and landed his plledriver on his chest. This was a crusher for Mitchell, who tried to run out of harm's way, but he caught a blow on the head from Sullivan's right that downed him like a log.

Third round—Mitchell come up for the third round, but ran all around the ring, closely followed by the American, who finally sent him sprawling with a right-hander.

Fourth round—Sullivan was blowing on account of running after Mitchell and although he finally caught Mitchell and authough he finally caught Mitchell and cyunished him lightly, the Englishman continued to pursue the same tactics.

Fifth round—Mitchell, seeing a powerful right-hander coming, dropped to the ground to right-hander coming, dropped to the ground to avoid punishment, whereupon the referee cau-tioned him against breaking the ring rules.

tioned him against breaking the ring rules.

In next three rounds Sullivan was kept busy chasing Mitchell around the ring. Mitchell landed a blow or two, slightly reaching Sullivan's face twice. At this time rain began falling heavily and the ground was swampy. Sullivan was nearly breathless from chasing Mitchell, but both pegged away. Little harm was done after the first four rounds, Mitchell continuing keeping out of harm's way and Sullivan's blows losing their force.

In the thirty-second round Sullivan was at-In the thirty-second round Sunivan was attacked with ague. The rain was falling in torrents. The character of this round may be imagined from the fact that it lasted twenty-seven minutes.

The thirty-fifth round lasted fifteen minutes.
Sullivan was unable to approach Mitchell.
Both men seemed weak and their blows were light.

The thirty-ninth round lasted half an hour.
Boldock now said that no definite result could be reached, and he suggested that the fight be declared a draw. The principals agreed to this and the two fighters shook hands, after battling three hours and eleven minutes.

Mitchell showed considerable punishment There was a great lump on his jaw, his left eye was bunged up and his body bruised. At the outset Sullivan offered to back himself for the outset Shinvan offered to back himself of $2,500, but the offer was declined. His back-ers then offered three to one on Sullivan, but found no takers. The partry returned to Paris after the fight.

It is reported that Sullivan and Mitchell, and thirteen other persons have been ar

BOSTON DISCONSOLATE. BOSTON DISCONSOLATE.

Boston, March 10.—Sporting men were thunderstruck today, when they heard the news of the great battle on the other side of the water. They considered it beyond belief that Sullivan had faced the Englishman for more than two hours, and not knocked him out. It was pathetic in the extreme to hear some of the expressions of sympathy for the American champion. He was expected to win and the fact that he did not was received in the same manner as the news of his defeat would have been. It was the unanimous opinion of all been. It was the unanimous opinion of all Sullivan's warmest friends in Boston that the result of this battle would discourage the champion. It confirms them that the champion's fighting days are practically ended.

EARTHQUAKE IN CHINA.

Whole Towns Destroyed-Fifteen Thousand Lives Lost.

San Francisco, Cal., March 10.—The Hong Kong Mail, copies oflwhichlweie received here by last night's China steamer, gives a description of the earthquake in the province of Yunnan on December 15th, and is indicative of frightful mortality. The Mail says: In the interior department of Chieng Chau, the disturbances were extremely violent, being continued at irregular intervals for four days, when they ceased entirely. The departmental city is said to have been reduced to a mass of ruins, scarcely a house escaping the danger, and over five thousand persons are reported to have been killed by failing buildings. Many of them were buried under the ruins, while the number of injured is too large for computation. At Lo Chau, in Chuen, striking changes have been caused in the appearance of the country, large tracts of land being swallowed up and the surface changed into a lake. At Lo Chau more than ten thousand persons are said to have perished.

San Francisco, March 10.—Advices received by the steamer City of Sydney, which arrived last night from Hong Kong and Yokohoma, says the imperial commissioner who was especially appointed to investigate the loss of life in the Yellow river inundations, sends a report to the emperor of China that the total number of persons drowned is over 100,000, and the number destitute is 1,800,000. Part of those flooded out have been driven into other countries. Terrible Loss of Life ln China

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 10.—Colonel E. B. Cash died this morning at his home in Chesterfield county of apoplexy. He will be buried tomorrow. He was the last of the duelists of his state

THE ENGINEERS' STRIKE. General Managers Considerably Exercise Over the Trouble.

Over the Trouble.

CHICAGO, March 10.—It is stated that the grievance committees of the Pan Handle and Fort Wayne roads which were called here yesterday to settle the matter of handling Chicago, Burlington and Quincy cars and freight have, after a conference with the superintendents of their respective roads, decided to do work as heretofore. The superintendents took the stand that their lines could not be used like the western roads to help the Burlington as they were in totally different territory. If the Burlington, however, was able to get through freight to Chicago from some western point it could not be refused. As soon as it came on their tracks it became their freight and ceased could not be refused. As soon as it came on their tracks it became their freight and ceased to be Burlington freight. It would also be a source of revenue to Pennsylvania roads. The to be Burlington freight. It would also be a source of revenue to Pennsylvania roads. The men adopted the views of the superintendents. Both sides in the Burlington strike were apparently resting on their oars today. Railroad officials think the strike is weakening and the boycott broken, while the men say the brotherhood are undaunted and will fight all the summer if necessary. There were no new features developed today. Burlington rallway officials say that the Lake Shore, Union Pacific, Atchison, Missouri Pacific, and Fort Scott and Gulf all continue to take freight from the Burlington road.

A local paper says the general managers of westerns roads are considerably exercised over the criticisms brought out by the policy which they have pursued in reference to the Burlington strike, and are inclined to take issue with current opinions. One of them yesterday, in discussing the matter, said:

with current opinions. One of them yesterday, in discussing the matter. said:
"It is true that the road I represent and

"It is true that the road I represent and others have considered it for our best interests to disregard the interstate law, but we have adopted the wisest course and one which the outcome will justify us in taking. It was right to avert a general strike by any and all means. No one has yet measured the full extent of such a calamity. It is all nonsense to say that our attitude has embarrassed the Burlington in the slightest degree. Let me say a general strike would not be declared off in a moment, and it would ring the death knell of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. There would at once be brought about a common understanding among railway managers, and its pith and point would be that no engineer would be placed in charge of a locomotive on any line as a brotherhood man. You can see you death what the issue maches. any line as a brotherhood man. You can see very clearly what the issue means. The men very clearly what the issue means. The men would not yield in a week or in a month. A prolonged and desperate struggle would ensue, which, until the final breaking up came would utterly stagnate the railroad commerce of the country. That is what, by a conservative and possibly law-breaking course, the western lines have so far averted. It is a wise and sensible policy. A little patience and the strike will be over without spreading. Gradually the strikers will yield a point here and another there. The conservative element will more completely assert itself and the danger will be over. Nothing could be more foolish than to precipitate a catastrophe which by the exercise of diplomacy can be averted." THE SUGAR TRUST.

A Witness Asserts That It Cheapens the Price of the Article.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Henry O. Havemyer, of New York, was the only witness heard by the house committee on manufactures today regarding the sugar trust. Much of what he said was in corroboration and amplification of the testimony of Witness Parsons, who had been on the stand during the two previous days. The effect of the trust in witness's opinion had been to make sugar cheaper to the consumer than it would otherwise have to the consumer than it would otherwise have to the consumer than it would otherwise have been. Sugar was a lc. per pound higher than a year ago, but it would have advanced a cent per pound, as it did in London. but for the trust. Raw sugar was also higher not a year ago. Formerly, the witness said, considerable sugar was exported, but the treasury officials had kept reducing the amount of drawbeak to be allowed on imported materials. backs to be allowed on imported materials, used in the manufacture of refined sugar until they had got it down so low that the expert trade was destroyed.

Question—"If all kinds of sugar were on the free list, could the United States compete with toxics. countries."

free list, could the United States compete with foreign countries?"

Answer—"The sugar industry could not exist without protection, because of the higher price paid to American labor. Sugar refiners were discriminated against under the present tariff, the advalorem duties being greater on raw than on refined sugars. The Mills bill made things even worse."

The investigation at this point assumed somewhat the nature of a tariff hearing, and in reply to Representative Breckinridge, wit-chair. We would like to have it like the stable."

Witness further said that the drawback had been 2.81 prior to November 1, 1886. The drawback had formerly been greater than 2.81, but it had been at that rate until November 1, 1886, and ever since.

HEADED BY A SOCIALIST.

The Germans of Birmingham Deeply Excited. The Germans of Birmingham Deeply Excited.

Birmingham, Ala., March 10.—[Special.]
The Germans of the city are stirred up by the discovery that the president and a prominent member of their society are anarchists or socialists. Last night a meeting of the German society was held to pass appropriate resolutions on the death of Emperor William. The resolutions were bitterly opposed by E. Lesser, president of the society, who is a Russian, and Professor Leon Landsberg, teacher of German in the high school, who is also an ex-subject of the czar. Lesser denounced the late emperor as an enemy of the socialists of Germany. The resolutions were passed, and Lesser resigned as president of the society. Today a prominent German published a communication in a local paper, accusing Lesser and Landsberg of being anarchists. The article led to a personal difficulty and more trouble is expected. A meeting of the German society has been called for tomorrow, to ask Lesser and Landsberg tto withdraw. The board of education has taken the matter up, and will ask for the resignation of Professor Landsberg. The Germans of the city say they do not indorse any of the socialistic utterances of the two men.

nces of the two men Fight at a School.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 10.—[Special.]—In Rutherford county, a school teacher, Lloyd Early, had a school examination, which terminated in a fight. Edley Hunt and Sammy Hunt had a desperate combat with the Black boys. Thomas Mode, a magistrate, at first commanded peace, but soon joined in the fight, which became general. J. C. Blake's head was broken. Hunt got reinforcements and returned to renew the combat. He overtook the magistrate, Mode, who was assalled with a sling shot, knocked down and left insensible. I. T. Mode, a brother of the magistrate, received severe wounds in the breast. The women were so alarmed at the desperate fight that they field, leaving their children behind. The whole neighborhood is in a commotion and the people are armed. It is thought a renewal of hostilities may be precipitated.

Death of Dr. Charles Martin. Fight at a School. Death of Dr. Charles Martin

Death of Dr. Charles Martin.

DANVILLE, Va., March 10.—Dr. Charles Martin, cierk of the United States disrict and circuit courts for the western district of Virginia, died here today from paralysis, aged 75. The deceased was a prominent man in his day. He entered the army on the southern side at the outbreak of the war and remained to fix close. He was a professor in Hampden, Sydney and Blacksburg colleges. At the close of hostilities, and under the restored government of Virginia, he was a prominent candidate for superintendent of public instruction.

The Pope is Sick.

The Pope is Sick.

Rome, March 10.—The pope has been slightly indisposed for the past two days. No serious symptoms have manifested themselves, but a certain degree of apprehension exists in consideration of his age and the lassitude caused by exertions he was subjected to during the jubilee festivities. A consistory to nominate a number of bishops is announced for the 19th inst.

DRAPED IN MOURNING.

Expressions of Grief for the Dead Emperor.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUNERAL. Frederick III. Leaves San Remo for Berlin

His Meeting With King Humbert-Affecting Incidents, Etc. Berlin, March 10 .- The funeral services were held over the remains of Emperor William in the mortuary chamber in the palace last evening. The chamber was profusely decorated with flowers. The Dowager Empress Augusta, the grand duke and grand duchess of Baden, the crown prince and the crown princess of Sweden, and other royal personages attended the sercives. The body of the emperor lay in the same position which the monarch occupied when he expired. A crucifix lay on his breast and an ivory cross was in his right hand.

Chaplain Voegel, in his sermon alluded to the moment when the Empress Augusta held the hand of her dying consort. After the service the late emperor's aide-de-camps, Lieutenaut-General Von Lehndorff and Lieutenaut-General Von Waldersee, acted as guards of honor at the dead monarch's couch. The Militair Woeneublatt, in an article on the death of the emperor says:

Militair Woenelibiatt, in an article on the death of the emperor says:

The army has lost its leader in arms, its commander-in-chief, its exemplar and its best friend. Our hearts are sorrowful and cureyes are tearful. May God hear the wishes the great emperor cherished for his people.

The decree of Emperor Frederick in regard to retirely manufacting in universally approved.

The decree of Emperor Frederick in regard to national mourning is universally approved. Newspapers say they hope the theaters and other places of amusement will, of their own-accord, observe the first week after the emperor's death as a period of mourning. The municipal authorities will wear mourning for six weeks. All newspapers, with the single exception of the Volksblatt, are published with deap horders of black. with deep borders of black.

with deep borders of black.

The SERVICES TODAY.

The body of the emperor will remain in the mortuary chamber until the requiem service in the flag-room today, which will be attended by members of the royal family and their suites, Prince Bismarck, Count von Moltke and chief court officials. The embalming of the body will be begun at 1 o'clock. Later the body will be asken to the cathedral, where it will lie in state, by Emperor Frederick's order will lie in state, by Emperor Frederick's order and in accordance with the desire of the depeased ruler. The body will be clad in the uni ceased ruler. The body will be clad in the unform of it e first regiment of guards and will be enveloped in a military cloak. The guard of honor will be relieved every six hours. Adjoining the mortuary chamber, the chamberlain of palace, two jaegers and several servants are constantly in attendance.

are constantly in attendance.

BISMARCK SPEAKS AGAIN.

Before the reichstag opened today the bundesrath met. Bismarck, with great emotion, alluded to the death of the emperor in terms similar to those which he used in the reichstag yesterday. He specially confirmed the statements made yesterday in regard to the emperor's dying allusions to Russia and Austria. In referring to Emperor Fraderick's actria. In referring to Emperor Frederick's accession to the throne and to the transfer of the cession to the throne and to the transfer of the imperial dignity connected therewith, Prince Bismarck said that the new emperor, like his late father, would take as his guiding principle the conscientious maintenance of the constitution of the empire and the treaties on which it is based and on which Emperor Frederick will count upon the proper support of his allies.

BERLIN, March 10.—The court has gone into mourning for three months, commencing yesterday.

Court Chaplain Koegle conducted the ser-Court Chaplain Koegle conducted the service at the palace at 10:30 o'clock this morning. All prominent persons in the government were present. The anthems "Be Faithful Unto Death," and "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" were sung. It is said that Emperor Frederick's reply to the message of condolence sent by President Carnot, of France, was very cordial, and that he expressed the hope that the relations between the two countries might continue friendly.

The Russian court will go into mourning for six weeks and the military for one month out of respect for the late Emperor William. The government organs concur in the opinion that government organs concur in the opinion that Emperor William's death is hurtful to the unity and international preponderance of Ger-somewhat the nature of a tariff hearing, and in reply to Representative Breckinridge, witness said that he was discriminated against in the matter of drawback, when the treasury department, on November 1, 1836, fixed the rate at 2.60.

Question—"How much does it discriminate against you?"

Answer—"There draw the line, That would disclose my business to my competitors and would do me more injury than the allowance of no drawback whatever."

Question—"Is there any remedy you would like congress to provide to protect you?"

Answer—"The drawback on sugars should be fixed by congress and not by the secretary of the treasury, who may be an able man, and may not be. We don't want our interests disturbed by whoever may get in the secretary's chair! We would like to have it fixed and stable."

Witness further said that the drawback had a death of Emperor William is somewhat eclipsed by the carbed that the carry will attend the funeral of the emperor in person. No service will be held in the cathedral tomorrow. Preparations for the lying in state of the body began tonight. Many strangers are africing in the city. It is expected the nublic many.

It is officially announced that the Austrian

The party remained at Marbordigh house half an hour. On their return they were again heartily cheered. The gloom caused by the death of Emperor William is somewhat eclipsed by the royal wedding festivity and the German embassy is forsaken.

The Cologne Gazette states that the czar will attend the funeral of the emperor in person. No service will be held in the cathedral tomorrow. Preparations for the lying in state of the body began tonight. Many strangers are arriving in the city. It is expected the public will be admitted to view the obsequies. The interment will take place Thursday unless Emperor Frederic alters the present arrangements. The emperor, in his reply to the pope's message of condolence, expressed the desire for the continuance of existing good relations between Germany and the vatican.

THE SILENT EMPEROR. Frederick III.'s Departure From San Remo —Met by King Humbert.

San Remo, March 10.—Emperor Frederick III. passed a good night. He feels extremely well. He drove to the station at 9 o'clock this morning, accompanied by Empress Victoria to take a special train in waiting to convey him to Berlin. The largest crowd ever seen in San Remo gathered to witness his departure. The new emperor was enthusiastically cheered by the crowd and he repeatedly bowed his acknowledgements of their greetings.

cally cheered by the crowd and he repeatedly bowed his acknowledgements of their greetings.

Emperor Frederick entered the railway cars without assistance and then turned and assisted Empress Victoria to enter. The municipal authorities and a number of civilians were on the platform. Large crowds surrounded the station and the emperor raised his hat in response to their salutations when he reached the platform. His hair is very little changed. He looks well with the exception of his complexion, which is somewhat yellow. He shook hands with German Consul Syndic, of San Remo and others. As the train left the station the emperor was heartily cheered. Rome, March 10.—King Humbert traveled from Rome to San Pierd Arena to meet Emperor Frederick. When the train reached the station King Humbert entered the coach occupied by the emperor and embraced him. The scene at their meeting was a touching one. The emperor was voiceless owing to his disease, but he wrote many notes, in one of which he thanked the Italian parliament for the honor and respect it had paid his father and himself. The Empress Victoria translated to King Humbert the signs made by the emperor was suffering from fatigue, but otherwise was in his normal condition. His throat was closely muffled, and he wore a hooded cap and heavy surtout. The silent parting between the two rulers was affecting. King Humbert's suite were impressed with the emperor's comparative robustness.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

The Emperor William's Last Recognition of His Wife.

(Copyrighted, 1888, by the N. Y. Associated Press.]

Berlin, March 10.—To the details of the emperor's death already telegraphed to the Associated Press, it is almost impossible to add. But an incident, at once notable and reliable, is the story of the emperor's last recognition of his family. About 7 o'clock the doctors succeeded in restoring a moment's animation by giving him a glass of wine. After swallowing the wine he stroked his mustache, as it was his custom to do, and tried to raise himself in bed. He turned his head toward his daughter, the duchess of Baden, and said:

"Where is the empress?"

The appearar modded his head, intimating messages coming from the emperor to officials here, his son. Prince William, is studiously ignored and his name is not mentioned. Among the orders issued today is one directing that the eath of allegiance be taken by the troops without delay; that ministers of state proceed to Bettenfeld tomortow to receive the emperor and that no reception be held until after the funeral.

and that no reception be held until after the funeral.

The aspect of Berlsn tonight is more and more indicative of national mourning. The rain has ceased, and the streets are filled with young and old in mourning garb. Officers and soldiers all wear crape on their uniforms.

A dense crowd assembled in the Unter Den Linden, watching court carriages conveying persons of high rank to and from the palace. Windows and balconies throughout the city are draped, and most of the shops are closed. Mourning wreathes are displayed everywhere. The will of the late emperor will not be read until after the arrival of Frederick III. It is already known that Emperor William directed that his remains be interred at Charlottenburg, where preparation to receive the body are now in progress.

Emperor Frederick's order, empowering Bismarck to close the session of the reichstag, was shown by the chancellor to members of that body yesterday. It has been copied by the imperial press, and copies have been distributed among members of the reichstag and bundesrath.

Dr. Bergmann has arrived here. He says the imperial press, and copies have been distributed among members of the reichstag and bundesrath.

Dr. Bergmann has arrived here. He says the emperor is attended by Drs. MacKenzie and Krause, and that he is safe, and will reach Berlin in fairly good condition.

Emperor Frederick, In his reply to President Carnot, alludes especially to the marks of sympathy shown him by the numerous French visitors at San Remo, and expresses the hope that the relations between France and Germany may soon be friendly. This response was sent direct from the emperor without consulting with Bismarck.

During his interview with King Humbert at the railway station at San Pier dArena, this morning, the emperor exhibited unusual animation. Several times he tried to speak, but failed, but he kept up conversation by means of small slips of paper, upon which he wrote with a pencil. On one of these which escaped destruction the emperor says he hopes to show himself equal to the work before him and thanked the government officers for helping Bismarck in his present trials. Since parting with him, King Humbert has wired to Berlin that the emperor looks surprisingly well.

The regent of Bavaria has received this message from Emperor Frederick:

In this moment of my deepest sorrow, I trust to your friendship to assist me and relieve the heavy cares now devolving upon me.

To this Prince Luithold responded:

I am deeply moved by your touching telegram. I hasten to express my heartfelt sympathy with an assurance of continuance of our faithful triendship.

To this Prince Luithold responded:

I am deeply moved by your touching telegram. I hasten to express my heartfelt sympathy with an assurance of continuance of our faithful friendship. The accession of Frederick William to the imperial throne tends to strengthen the hopes that peace will be maintained. Both yesterday and today Berlin operators have been buying on Vienna and Paris bourses, causing a fractional rise in prices.

The lower house of the Prussian diet sat this evening to receive the formal announcement of the accession of Emperor Frederick to the throne. The sitting was held mainly at the instance of the conservatives in consequence of throne. The sitting was held mainly at the instance of the conservatives in consequence of the failure of Herr Von Putkamer, vice president of the ministerial council, to note the event at the meeting of the house yesterday, when he announced the death of Emperor William. The whole cabinet except Bismarck were present. The president read a letter signed by the ministers announcing the death of Emperor William and the succession of Emperor Frederick and also a letter from the latter to Bismarck thanking ministers for their devotion and fidelity to his father, and hoping for their support in the various tasks which now devolve upon himself. The president then stated that he would, as soon as possible, express to Emperor Frederick The president then stated that he would, as soon as possible, express to Emperor Frederick the fidelity and devotion of the house. The sitting closed with cheers for the emperor.

Today's newspapers are almost completely taken up with reports of expressions of sympathy, some from abroad. The rain is again falling, which has the effect of reducing the crowds in the streets.

Judge Palmer Dead.

Augusta, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—News has been received here of the death in Jacksonville today of Judge E. C. Palmarangusta, who went to Florida a few weeks ago for his health. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Carrie Palmer, and his remains will be brought back to his home in Summerville, near Augusta, for interment.

Judge Palmer was a man of large wealth.

Judge Palmer was a man of large wealth, having made a fortune in real estate in St. Paul, Minn. His investments in Augusta are large. His son has been telegraphed for to St. Paul, and will come out to the funeral.

A Musical Prodigy. A Musical Prodigy.

OXFORD, Ala., March 10—[Special]—Oxford comes to the front with a musical prodigy in the person of Ione Mathis, a little three and a half year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Mathis, who has composed a piece of music, which has been christened, Ione's First Thoughts, which has just been published by Messrs. Ludden & Bates, of Savannah, Ga. Musical critics pronounce the production wonderful. History falls to record an instance of one so young composing and having published one so young composing and having published a piece of music.

A Boiler Explodes.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 10.—[Special.]—At Scotland Neck last evening, there was an explosion of a boiler in Gardner & Hassell's machine shop. There were only two men in the shop, Henderson Purse, fireman, and John Scott, both colored. Purse had his leg broken, and is badly scalded and bruised, he will probably die. Scott was badly scalded. The boller was blown nearly out of sight. It fell back and crushed through the roof of the shop and lodged on the second floor.

Hanged from a Rafter. Hanged from a Rafter.

TRENTON, Ga., March 10—[Special.]—Tom Roof, the negro arrested in Chattanooga Thursday for assaulting Mrs. Joe Morrison, at this place, was taken from the jail here and hung from a rafter of the shed over the wagon scales in the public square. Sheriff Byrd resisted the mob to the last, but he was overpowered and was compelled to surrender the keys of the jail. Roof confessed the crime just before he was lynched. The mob consisted of forty men.

Imprisonment For Life. Anniston, Ala., March 10.—[Special.]—A verdict of guilty was returned in the rape case of Joe Meyers and wife late yesterday, and the punishment was fixed at imprisonment for life. An appeal will be taken for a new trial. The court will adjourn this afternoon.

Lon Hefferman, the man who shot at Jack Bent Wednesday night, is still at large. Warrants under three heads have been issued for his arrest. If caught, it will go rather hard with him.

Racing at New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 10.—First race, four s.d. a half turiongs, Ocean Wave won. Pell Mell second, Argenta third. Time, 53 seconds. Second race, five-gights of a mile, skobeloff won, Joshua second, Duhme third. Time, 1.04.

Third race, three-quarters of a mile, Persimmons won. Endeavor second, Glenhalthird. Time, 1.17.

Fourth race, seven and half furlongs: Bankrupt won, Carus second, White Asse third. Time, 1.37.

Weather warm track. Assetting good.

Weekly Bankrupt assetting good.

ing today rve decrease.....

A Dull Day in the House bed. He turned his head toward his daughter, the duchess of Baden, and said:

"Where is the empress?"

The duchess replied, "Emma is sitting by you."

The omperor nodded his head, intimating that he understood the duchess.

Court interest is becoming centered in the question of the toronation; ad position of the WASHINGTON, March 10.—In the house the dependent pension bill was received from the senate, and referred to the committee on invalid pensions. The day's business was of mitterest to the general reader, being entirely of a routine character—committee reports, and the discussion of a bill granting lands in severalty to some western Indians, but no vote was reached. The house adjourned at 4:45 p. m.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION Is delivered by carriers in the city, or malled postage free, at $1.00 per month, $2.50 for the month, or $10.00 a year.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION (Circulation over 110,000) is mailed, post-paid, for $1.25 a year, or for $1.00 in clubs of five of more. Address all letters to THE CONSTITUTION,

A. J. J. Flynn, General Eastern Agent, Park Row, New York City.

ATLANTA, GA., MARCH 11, 1888.

A Question and Its Answer. On last Tuesday Senator Ingalls delivere on the floor of the senate a long advertised

He quoted extracts from a speech delivered by me at the unveiling of the Hill monument, in which I eulogized ex-President Jefferson Davis. Against these, he quoted extracts from a speech delivered by me before the New England society, in which I attested the devotion of the south to the union. He then asks:

"When was that orator sincere? When did h speak the feelings, the sentiments and convictions of the southern people? When he delivered that oration on the 1st day of May in Atlanta, in the presence of applauding thousands, or when he went up to the New England dinner in December and led oil and wine all over the American people.'

I have nothing to do with the senator's speech. But a plain question deserves a plain answer. And I answer the senator's question, especially as it involves broad and essential issues, reaching beyond his personality or mine.

I was sincere when I spoke in Atlanta. I was equally sincere when I spoke in New York. Barring certain phrases in the first speech, the questionable taste of which the enthusiasm of the occasion may have excused, there is not a word of either, assuredly not a sentiment, or conviction, that I do not now deliberately repeat and reaffirm. In both speeches there is deep and reverential love, earnest and outspoken, for every man who died or suffered for the southern cause, and based upon this, and stronger and better because of it, full and perfect loyalty to the reconstructed union. Let me say one word just here about the ovation to Mr. Davis. I do not hope that Senator Ingalls will comprehend its true meaning. A man shameless enough to slander his own dead in partisan rage, vandal enough to write traitor on the tomb of Mc-Clellan, who first gave victory to the union armies, and cowardly enough to denounce as an ally of the enemy (while the widow in her weeds sat almost in the sound of his voice) Hancock the Superb, who, on the heights of Gettysburg, saved the union cause; such a man cannot understand, or understanding honor, the devotion that twenty years after defeat is still constant and unshaken. But let others know that from Beauvoir to Atlanta Mr. Davis representing a cause that brought only sacrifice and suffering and ended in disaster, rode amid the unbroken shouts of a devoted people. From ploughshare and shop they came-from hut and mansion-from city and country side-thronging that they might look into his face, or have him lay his hands on the heads of their children and bless them. For twenty years unexampled prosperity had led the south to material things. Further and further had we drifted from memories fraught with tender and heroic lessons. A growing generation driven early to school and shop and store, lost sight of the graves and monuments of its fathers. An old man in his lonely home, poor and uncomplaining, looked wonderingly on his people gone mad with trade. but here in silence their neglect. At last he was called forth, and trusting came. Then the south took "a day off." And a manly, self-respecting day it was-the most nseful, as it was the most beautiful, day in her history. Filled with love without disloyalty-with joy without rancour-smiling through a mist of tears-loving every soldier better that she loved her soldiers sotouching every grave in America with the flowers that decked her own-baptizing her heart anew in waters without bitternesshonoring the union most in respecting herself. Never were we better Americans than fresh from the signing of a treaty of peace at Washington. What is it Mr. Ingalls would have? Is It possible-amazing, incredible, is it possible-that he would demand as proof of our sincerity, that we should denounce, or in silence hear others denounce, our own people, living or dead? Would he measure our loyalty to the union by our treachery to our comrades or our fathers? Would he stop our widows as they go to honor their husbands' graves, or have us teach our children that the monuments that glorify our land from Virginia to Texas, teach a lesson at which they must look askance? Would he have us come to our brothers late estranged, holding out one hand in friendship while the other faltered in the defense of our comon that day. Never did our hearts beat truer to the republic than when, gathering together our broken swords and tattered flags, we consecrated them anew in the ter than inconstancy—that defeat hallows, as victory glorifies, a cause honestly engaged in and bravely fought, can do less than honor the south in that, two de-would have been his had he returned

If so, he shall be disappointed. The south is back in the union in perfect good faith, willing to bear her part of its burdens, ready to work out her share of its glory and prosperity—but she uncringing and frank, yielding nothing of the love and reveren in which she holds those who fought her cause in field and forum. Were she craven enough to come otherwise she would be unworthy the welcome of brave men. The south has accepted as final the results of the war. Not one man in ten thousand of her people would reverse those results if they could. Every point at issue has been settled and the verdict imbedded in our constitutional law. The south admits this and is glad of it. More than this, generous men could not ask or brave men concede. To the north she says, as brother to brother, 'We shall honor Davis as you honor Lincoln; Lee as you honor Grant; Jackson as you honor Hancock. We shall find constant and deepening inspiration in the 26th of April as you in the 30th of May. Our dead are as dear to us as yours to you-our graves as sacred, our monuments as stainless. But when danger threatens our common republic, when the future incites or the present warns, we shall be found shoulder to shoulder to you in perfect loyalty and in perfect love."

It is of interest to know if any considerable fraction of the northern people indorse the hatred and intolerance of Senator Ingalls. Upon this knowledge the future largely depends. It is not enough to know that Mr. Ingalls has long been recognized as the most unwholesome and malignant character in public life, and that by this last and most indecent speech he has, by the confession of his friends, placed himself beyond the pale of presidential possibilities. It is interesting to know how many people in the north will demand with him that to be accredited as sincere the south must forsake her own memories and traditions; how many will appland when he pronounces it treason to eulogize a leader of the cause to which we were all committed, or when he villifies Judge Lamar for having defended that leader in the senate? Or how many of his people will go so far in sectional hate as to stain the memory of two distinguished union soldiers whose lives were stainless? If Mr. Ingalls is not literally driven before the storm of indignation at the open ascription of treachery to Hancock and McClellan. whom he calls "the allies" (not of the confederates, but) "of the confederacy," the north will confess to an apathy that is amazing, or to a sectional hatred in which all hetter and finer sentiments are overwhelmed.

As to high-minded lovalty to American intitutions, and a pride in the fair name of the republic that subordinates party or personal rancor, the south has nothing to learn from the north, if Mr. Ingalls's unspeakably coarse and brutal attack on President Cleveland finds in any nook or corner the faintest echo of applause or approval. The south has not yet developed a congressmanmuch less a president of the senate-so un mindful of personal or official dignity, and of the expressed sovereignty of the American people as to say in deliberate speech:

Personal allusions to myself I will pass by with Personal allusions to myself I will pass by with but one single observation, and that is, that the nomination and election of Grover Cleveland have made the pretensions of any American citizen to the presidency respectable. There is no man in this country whose ignorance is so profound, whose obscurity is so impenetrable, and whose antecedents are so degraded that he may not justifiably aspire to a presidential nomination—by the democratic party. [Appleuse and laughter in the galleries.]

One word more. Senator Ingalls implies. if he does not assert, that the sentiment of what I said in New York differed from the ent of what I said in Atlanta. As I had much rather be considered to have been imprudent among my own people than cringing among strangers, let me quote the following sentences from the New England banquet speech. I quote from the pamphlet issued by that society: This is said in no spirit of time-serving or apology The south has nothing for which to apologize. She believes that the late struggle between the states was war and not rebellion; revolution and not conspiracy, and that her convictions were as honest as yours. I should be unjust to the dauntiess spirit of the south and to my own convictions, if I did not was the this tracks that the interest of the south and to my own convictions, if I did not make this plain in this presence. The south has nothing to take beek. In my native town of Athens is a monument that crowns its central hills—a plain white shaft. Deep cut into its shining side is a name dear to me above the names of men: that of a brave dear to me above the names of men: that of a brave and simple man, who died in brave and simple faith. Not for all the glories of New England, from Plymouth Rock all the way, would I exchange the heritage be left me in his soldier's death. To the foot of that shaft I shall send my children's children to reverence him who ennobled their name with his heroic blood. But, sir, speaking from the shadow of that memory, which I honor as I do nothing else on earth, I say that the cause in which he suffered and for which hegave his life was adjudged by higher and fuller wisdom than his or mine, and I am glad that the omniscient God held the balance of battle in His Almighty hand, and that human slavery was swept forever from American soil, and the Am union saved from the wreck of war, [Loud ap-presence of our leader and our children. No man who believes that steadfastness is bet-This message, Mr. President, comes to you from This nessage, Mr. Frestaent, comes to you from consecrated ground. Every foot of soil about the city in which I live is sacred as a battle-ground of the republic. Every hill that invests it is hallowed to you by the blood of your brothers who died for your victory, and doubly hallowed to us by the blow of those who died hopeless, but undaunted, in defeat—sacred soil to all of us—rich with memories that make us purer and stronger and cades after her overthrow she gave to him daunted, in defeat—sacred soil to all of us—rich with memories that make us purer and stronger and better—silent but staunch witness in its red deso-lation of the matchless valor of American hearts and the deathless glory of American arms—speaking and eloquent witness in its white peace and prosperity to the indissoluble union of American states and the imperishable brotherhood of the American people. Itempense cheering: who laid down her broken sceptre a grander and more heartful triumph than Assuredly, no stronger words were sublimated in the applause at Atlanta than those which were met with equally as earnest applause in New York. Soldiers who fought harder in war than Mr. Ingalls has fought in peace, and civilians, wiser and more patriotic than he, rose to greet these sentiments with generous approval. The ovation to Mr. Davis meant no more than these words frankly declared to be the fixed, inflexible temper of the south. To honor to the full, now and forever, the soldiers who fought her battles, and her leaders in field or council; to bring her children up in their loving reverence-to do this, freely and openly and in all hazard or despite-and to abate not one jot or tittle of this right at any time or in any place—this the south must do that she may command the respect of the world, and, more important, preserve her selfrespect. Above this, and based upon this, she is loyal and devoted to the union, which shall find in peace or war no more zealous ers than her sons. And this declaration, comprehending all that honest men should demand or concede, may be delivered "in sincerity," whether in Atlanta or New HENRY W. GRADY.

As to Hedging. The Albany News and Advertiser is anxiously waiting for the time when THE CON-STITUTION will "hedge" on the tariff. This condition of expectancy appears to be chronic with Editor McIntosh, so much so that it gives an air of anxiety to everything he writes, and the result is that he is frequently restive and sometimes irritable. We have observed that it is not the policy of our esteemed Albany contemporary to do any "hedging," even when such a policy would add to the information of its readers. Not very long ago, it became the wet nurse of a statement to the effect that duties are levied on over four thousand articles. This sad mistake gives the News and Advertiser a very fine opportunity to "hedge," for customs duties are levied on only nine hundred and eighty-two articles.

Instead of hedging, however, our contemporary is looking for THE CONSTITUTION to hedge. Well, THE CONSTITUTION will hedge whenever it finds that it is wrong, and it will hedge, also, to some extent, whenever it finds that by doing so it can se cure harmony among democrats, and bring success to the democratic party.

The trouble is that the free-traders, under the leadership of Mills and J. S. Moore, the Parsee merchant, are determined to carry out their own individual views, even if they wreck the democratic party.

In other words, Mills and Watterson, and the Parsee merchant, are of the opinion that the success of their free-trade ideas is of vastly more importance than the success of the democratic party. On the other hand, THE CONSTITUTION, Mr. Randall, and every democratic protectionist of whom we have any knowledge, are of the opinion that the success of the democratic party this year is of more importance than any question of free-trade or protection.

We believe that the Mills tariff bill is a piece of humbuggery, pure and simple, which will lose us New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, and cause serious defections in Louisiana. We believe, moreover, that the Mills internal revenue bill will hurt the party in Virginia and North Carolina. The only question we are considering here is, how often, and in how many states, the democratic party can afford to be hurt. And, if Editor McIntosh will consider the matter seriously, he will perceive that it is very HENRY GEORGE, the great American free-trader, is heartily in favor of the Mills bill, because it "strikes a blow at the ugly fetich of protection." Mr. George evidently wants to see the democratic party wrecked at the north. He has found it mightily in his way.

After the Newspapers.

The postoffice committee of the house seems determined to worry both the public and the newspapers. It has a bill now pending which declares that "no package weighing more than eight pounds shall be received for conveyance by mail, except books published by order of congress."

The law as it now stands limits the weight of mailable packages to four pounds, but this limit applies to matter of the third class. The proposed change ought also to apply to matter of the third class, but it is a new enactment, separate from the original law. and it will undoubtedly give the postoffice officials an opportunity to continue the law to suit themselves If it be construed so as to include second class mail matter, it will cause great inconvenience to newspaper publishers, and give postoffice employes a good deal of unnecescompelled to break their large packages into innumerable small packages, a proceeding from which the public would fail to derive the slightest benefit.

There is nothing cheaper than useless legislation, but it costs a good deal in the long run. It is said that Ingalls is very sorry about his speech. There is a suggestion of India rubber in this. A man who could prepare and deliver such a speech could not by any possibility be sorry for it.

A contemporary calls attention to the fact that out of 1,000 graduates from our colleges only seventy-five make for them selves a name and prominence in their call-

This is not a bad showing. The prizes of life are so few that the members of any class should be congratulated upon their prospects, when fortune and fame reward he efforts of one in every thirteen.

We have only to look around us in order o see that the percentage of successful men is still smaller among those who have been compelled to make their way without the advantages of what we call higher education. As a rule seventy-five out of a thousand business men, framers or artisans, do not become notably wealthy and distinguished.

Exceptional success is the lot of the few. It takes brains and pluck to achieve it, and sometimes the worthiest meet with failure. College men have no reason to be depressed by the statistics concerning their success or failure. They are not lagging behind.

THE New York World is disposed to make fun of "the old whig element," but what will the World do with the old whig element in the south? This is a very interesting question.

The New Emperor and His Son. Some of our readers are doubtless under the impression that the late Emperor William's grandson is the regent, and that the new emperor Frederick III., is a mere fig-

This is a mistake. On the death of William the imperial title at once vested in his son Frederick. Under the law, if the emperor is disabled and incapable of assuming the royal state a regent must be appointed, and in such cases the next person in line of succession is generally chosen. In emergencies such as the present it is the custom to appoint some one to sign documents and attend to routine business for the emperor. Some time ago an imperial decree vested these powers in Frederick's son, but the death of William made the decree void, and the new emperor has the right to make his own appointment. It is thought that he will select his son, and if his malady takes a more serious turn the young man will then

EDITORIAL POSTSCIPT.

THE EFFORT TO secure pensions for the Bosn police has failed.

CUBAN LADIES DO not talk to each other when they go shopping. They do not regard a store as the proper place in which to entertain their friends EDITOR BAUM, OF the Potttstown, Pa.,

News, aged thirty-five, died of heart disease while writing an editorial the other day. The case is considered remarkable because the victim was a young man, and apparently in the enjoyment of good health. CHARLESTON PEOPLE WONDER why northern ourists do not stop in their city on their way outh. Public meetings have been held to consider the matter, and the railroads will be asked to make it more convenient for through travelers to stop in the historic city by the sea. 'WOMAN," THE NEW magazine published in

New York and edited by Miss Beatrice Press-wood King, now ranks with the best in this untry and England. The contributions are able and will please all who have a taste for the erudite or the beautiful. The charming sonnet from Judge John Erskine to his daughtor, published in another column, is from the March number of this attractive monthly.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

The Prince of Wales. EDITORS CONSTITUTION: Was the prince f Wales ever in the Uhited States? If so, when?

He visited this country in 1859, and came as far south as Richmond. Not being favorably impressed with this region the prince and his party turned

Seating Capacity of Promiuent Edifices. EDITORS CONSTITUTION: In your paper of last Monday, the 5th inst., I find:

"The following is the seating capacity of the eight largest churches of Europe: St. Peter, Rome, 54,000 persons: Milan cathedral, 37,000; St. Paul, Rome, 25,-Paris, 21,005; Fibelice cathedrai, 20,005; Fisa cathedrai, 13,000; St. Mark, Venice, 7,000."

Now, for the benefit of students, allow us to run the matter a little further with some changes from your figures. The comparison will be of interest, as it shows that the figures are compiled from different tables.

tables. We find in Crane's tables: St. Peter, Rome, 58,000; Cathedral, Milan, 40,000; St. Paul, Rome, 38,000; St. Paul, London, 31,000; St. Petromia, Bologna, 26,090; Cathedral, Florence, 23,500; Cathedral, Antweep, 25,000; St. John Lateran, Rome, 23,000; St. Sophia, Constantinople, 23,000; Notre Dame, Paris, 21,500; Cathedral, Pisa, 13,000; St. Stephen, Vienna, 12,400; St. Domini, Bologna, 12,000; St. Peters, Bologna, 11,000; Cathedral, Vienna, 11,000; St. Mormon temple, Salt Lake City, 8,000; St. Mark, Venice, 7,500; Spurgeon tabernacle, London, 6,000; Talernacle i Talmage, Brooklyn, 5,000. Brooklyn, 5,000.

This gives what we consider the most accurate figures. The Coliseum of Rome seats 87,000 and the Theatre of Pompey, Rome, 40,000, and Gilmore's Garden, New York, 8,443.

The Divining Rod.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: Can the claim made by some persons, that by means of a forked stick held in their hands they are able to determine the location of water and the depth at which it will be found, be substantiated or satisfactorily explained upon scientific grounds? READER. The foundations of such a belief are laid in super sition, not science. The delusion is as old as the fabled wand of Mercury. The divining rod is in Britian, a torked branch of the rowan tree; in this country the witch hazel is usually preferred, but i has been found that a similar rod of any wood, if i is supposed by the diviner to be a hazel, act equally well in his hands. Of late years rods of metal, iron, brass; and copper have been used, under the idea that the movement was due to mag netic action, to which the metallic rod must be pe culiarly susceptible. It must be admitted that i previous centuries persons with some pretensions to cientific knowledge have been believers in the oc cult power of this magic wand. But the scientist day, especially those who have studied nat ural phenomena most closely, regard the whole power of the rod as an unconscious delusion. That the mere presence of water has no effect upon wood or metal, can be readily proved by experi-ment; such effect in the hands of a human being must therefore be referred to some caus acting in or through the human being. The solu tion of the mystery is probably found in Dr. Carpen-ter's explanation of the phenomena of mesmerism or hypnotism. This explanation shows how the condition of concentrated and expectant attention of the mind acts to temporarily paralyze the will and affect the nerves and muscles, often most power-fully, in the line of the dominantidea. The diviner walks along, holding the rod between his thumbs, n a position in which his slightest, muscular move must affact it. His entire attention is five upon the stick, expecting it to move. What is more natural then, than that a wholly unconscious move-water will surely be found at last. Anti-Poverty Society For the South. EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I propose for the south an anti-poverty society that will forever eclipse Henry George, Dr. McGlynn, and all that ment on his part should cause the rod to twitch and then, its center of gravity being displaced, it lies the whole surface of the globe at a greater or less depth, is found near the surface, the magic of the rod is supposed to be proved; if it is not found, it seasy to claim that the movement was caused by metallic vein in the earth, or—quite safe assump class of anti-poverty inventors. I take out no pat-ent, for the principle is 4,000 years old. No certifi-cate of moral character is required for membership: no initiation fee; no passing around the plate. It is open to all, without regard to age, sex, race, color, or previous condition. And yet, if membership in this society is persisted in and its rules are obeyed, you are necessarily and infallibly on the road to wealth. Archimides said 2,000 years ago, that if he had a fulcrum, or standpoint upon which to rest his lever, he could move the world. The fulcrum of the anti-poverty society I propose is the hitherto despised American cent—we cannot get along without it—and the lever is interest.

To retain membership in this society each one must save every day of the 300 working days in the year such small definite sum as his means will allow, put it at interest and compound it every six months, adding every working day continuously without break or failure, the exact sum fixed upon. This brings wealth, sooner or later, just in proporno initiation fee; no passing around the plate. It is large or small.

To show what a mascot the cent is and what a magician interest is, let the member save and put aside in this way one cent a day—is there anybody who is earning auything who is not able to do this much? Put it at interest at 8 per cent per annum and compound it every six months. Let us see what will be the result.

At the end of the first six months there will be At the end of the first six months there will be saved one cent for the 150 working days—$1.50. Up to this point the magician interest does not appear and of course the game is very dull. But be patient. At the end of the second six months $1.50 more is added to the first, and interest enters with a meager six cents, making $3.06, and so it goes on accumulating very slowly for the first five years, as the tollowing table shows:

The years, as the tollowing in a find of first six months.

End of feecond six months.

End of third six months.

End of fourth sixth months.

End of fifth six months.

End of sixth six months.

End of seventh six months.

Aha! At the end of five years you see the magician begins to get in his work. Now follow up the same computation and you will see that at the end of ten years the $30 you have put into the magician's hand becomes $44.87. At the end of twenty years the $60 you have trusted to him has become $141.88. At the end of forty years the $120, you have put under his magic wand becomes $21.87. In forty-two years and a haft for the $127.50 you have placed in his hat he pours into your lap $1,005.69.

This, remember, is the result of saving and steadily reinvesting one cent a day—the smallest amount pours into your lap $1,005.69.

This, remember, is the result of saving and steadily reinvesting one cent a day—the smallest amount possible. Now, how many could save ten cents a day instead of one? The result would then be, in forty-two and one-half years, ten times as much—$10,056.90. But, suppose, as many might afford, $1 a day is saved and thus treated. The result in forty-two and a half years—the ordinary business lifetime of a man—is the enormous sum of $100,569. Now, who says the cent is not a mascet, and interest a magician? But, it may be objected, while judicious loans upon real estate would doubtless yield a rate of interest as high as $per cent, it would not be practicable for many of the common people to thus invest their savings very well. The introduction of the cent in the south will be the forerunner of savings banks. They will be as sure to follow as "flowers that bloom in the spring," and by a judicious investment of the people's savings they can hardly fail in the next fifty years to declare a dividend of 2 per cent every six months, or 4 per cent per annum. Even at this low rate of interest one cent a day put in a savings bank would yield in forty-two and a half years $56.60. Ten cents a day would yield $5,660.00.

put in savings banks at 4 per cent per an-wery inhabitant of Georgia, young and old, ing them now number to 1,800,000 should join this anti-poverty society and without increasing in population put in an faverage of lone cent oppulation put in an faverage of lone cent a day each for forty-two and a half years, what do you think the aggregate of their savings would then amount to? $1,019,880,000. One billion nineteen million eight hundred and eighty thousand dollars! This is 35 per cent more than all the savings banks of New Eigland now hold and 80 per cent more than the savings banks of all the middle states now hold. Bring south cents by the carload and let us all join this "Anti-Poverty Society."

C. M. CADY.

BIRDS OF PASSAGE.

COLONEL WILLIAM C. GLENN, Dalton: "I am not well. I got out of a sick bed to come to At lanta. I was honored by the Philosophic society by being invited to prepare a lecture on the Kantonian theory, and I determined not to disappoint those theory, and I determined not to disappoint those who expected me to discharge the duty assigned me. I was ill-prepared for the task and am not wholly satisfied with my performance, but I did the best I could under the circumstances. Learne say a word about the Philosophic society. I esteem it an honor to be a member of that completion. It is early honor to be a member of that organization. It is an admirable institution, and will soon become a power in the community. I think any man should feel honored by 14; membership in the Atlanta

MR. DAVE FLANNMAN, Wilmington, N. C. "The best fishing I ever enjoyed was at Wacamaw lake last week. This body of water is only a sher distance from the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroad, and is easily accessible. I went with a party of friends, and we spent three days at We carried our tent and cooking utensil The lake is about five miles wide and twelve miles long. The water is as clear as a crystal and very deep. I was in the middle of the lake, where the water was forty feet deep, and I could see the botom distinctly. It is a beautiful lake. But the fish ng! You never saw such sport in your life. We caught more fish than we could use, and they were reauties. Until you go to Wacamaw lake you will never know what good sport is."

Mr. John H. Inman The following from the New York Journal f Commerce, the most conservative of bus urnals, bears testimony to the influence of Mr ohn H. Inman in cotton circles in New York. It is doubtful if one man ever exercised more power in staying the rolling waves of panic than did Mr.

inman on this memorable day. Had the cotton market continued its downward plange a general panic might have ensued, but the simple amouncement of one man checked it."

Yesterday's business on the cotton exchange was larger than that of any other day since the exchange has been in existence, the option sales amounting to 411,300 bales. The crop estimate of last week, which was much larger than had been anticipated, had a depressive effect upon the mertal from the opening. as represents than had solve antispated, and a corresponding off-ct upon the market from the opening. The reference the decline had gone very far Mr. William King announced his mability to meet his enagements. Mr. King was carrying a great deal of outon for greatomers mostly southern huvers who ton for customers, mostly southern huyers, who is falled to make their margins good. Messrs, John Garrison and George T. Dixon were greatly emrassed by Mr. King's failure, and very soon afternxon were greatly em-ure, and very soon afterbarrassed by Mr. King's failure, and very soon aner-ward found it necessary to announce their own inability to pay. The three failures following so closely one upon another very naturally caused great excitement upon the exchange, and for a while it looked as it a panic must ensue. In fact, the determination of Mr. John H. Inman not to sell any cotton while the excitement co any cotton while the excitement continued and his prompt announcement of that determination is probably all that saved the Exchange from very serious trouble, and accordingly Mr. Inman is the recipient of unstituted praise on all sides. Mr. King states his liabilities at $20,000. Many brokers are of the opinion that he (and possibly the others as well) will be able to meet his obligations after a few days with margins said to be on the way from the south. The decline in cotton during the day was from 27 to 31 points.

Publishers' Announcement. In next Saturday's Constitution (twelve pages) will be commenced a new story by Robert Louis Stephenson, author of 'Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde," and "Treasure Island," entitled "The Outlaws of Punstall Forest." This story was purchased by THE CONSTITU-TION and will be published in no other paper. Besides this intensely interesting serial, next Saturday's issue will contain book reviews, complete stories, poetry, humorous articles, and sketches from numerous correspondents in addition to the current news. Be certain and purchase next Saturday's paper and get the first chapters of the greatest story ever printed by a newspaper.

THE FLOWERS OF SPRING.

From the Hawkinsville, Ga., News.

The picnic and tick season will soon be

From the Pickens, Ga., Herald.
Flower gardens are being overhauled and front yards beutified. From the Griffin, Ga., Sun.

Fruit trees are beginning to put forth their blossoms. A large crop is anticipated if "jack frost" will only say away.

From the Covington, Ga, Enterprise.

Armed with an old linen duster and a small amount in hard cash, our editor struck a bee line for Florida, Wednesday. From the Brunswick, Ga., Breeze Flowers in the park are beginning to bloom. From the Fairburn, Ga., News.

When spring opens fairly, if the council will provide the ways and means, M will put our streets in tip top order. From the Savannah, Ga., News.

From the Savannah, Ga., News.

Kite-flying seems to have become epidemic, Even grown men have caught the fever, and the park extension and the plaza along Bay street had some very high fivers yesterday.

From the Sylvanfa, Ga., Telephone.

The pestiferous English sparrow has at last invaded our town. They have put in an appearanc for the first time in these parts, and the town council should give the small boys the liberty to shoot them, and give a reward for every one killed. They should be exterminated before they get too numerous to tackle.

Useless Personal Exertion.

That Bradford man who jumped over a bank counter, shot a cashier and another man and finally killed himself was evidently income What is th monopoly and then inducing the victims to join in A Healthy Country.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch

From the Chicago Tribune.

"It is so healthy here," writes a settler in a Southern California town, "that the only physician in the place will go two blocks out of his way rather than meet the undertaker whose sad, re gaze haunts him like the memory of a day spent in reading one of Howell's novels." DON'T BE RATTLED.

Governor Martin, of Kansas, is charged with the grave offense of having used "have saw" Henry Surington was killed by raiders in Brownsville, Ala., in the spring of 1865. His body was properly buried, but three times since it has een washed from its grave by spring freshets, much o the alarm of the superstitious of the place The Genoa, Nev., Courier tells of a tough footed the other day when the thermometer was eight degrees below zero. She turned up her toes a little to keep them out of the snow, but otherwise paid no attention to the cold. "Dear Mr. Shinner: Please excuse my leaving without giving the usual fortnight's notice, but I have received a peremptory summons to go to heaven to set the title page of the "Book of Life." This is the note that H. G. S. Agnew, a compositor in Cassell's London printing house wrote to the foreman just before going out and committing swidtle. A ranchman at Dayton, Nev., found one of his cows choking on a potato, He thrust his arm into her mouth and pushed the potato down her throat, but when he tried to withdraw his arm she set her teeth in it and kept them there until her laws were pried apart with a crowbar. The am was so badly crushed that it was necessary to ampu-Minister Taylor, of Liberia, who is opposed a black man being termed "colored," adds: Black is the absence of color. If we are anything we are negroes. I am a negro and don't wish any man to call me colored. I was born a slave and accd as a bootblack."

Rider Haggard, in a note in the March num ber of the Young Man, says: "I write my books in the same way that people do any other work— namely, by sticking at them. Making books, like everything else, becomes a question of taking pains and assiduous, unsparing labor."

Ernst von Wechmar, of Berlin, claims to have invented a flying-machine that will make it perfectly possible for humanity to compete with the birds. The apparatus is very ugly, the wings being about thirty feet by two, and the body supported by air-cushions as well as by the wings themselves.

SENATOR INGALLS'S TEXT.

A Verbatim Extract from His Speech in the United States Senate.

We print herewith a verbatim extract from enator Ingalls's speech delivered in the United Senator ingans sspeech denvered in the United States senate on last Tuesday. We reproduce that part of the speech which deals particularly with Mr. Grady's Atlanta and New York speech. It is taken from the congressional Record:

But I am not quite through with this aspect of the question yet. In 1886, on the first day of Mayof that year, less than two years ago, there was in the city of Atlanta, in Georgia, a great historic occasion. A statue to one of our former associates in this body was to be unveiled, a man whom I hon-ored, and whom we all respected. Upon that occaon the venerable ex-president of the Con soft the venerate ex-position of the confederacy was invited to be present. It was a day that never will be forgotten in the annals of the south. They flocked to that city as men go to a banquet or as oves flock to their windows. They Came as the winds come, when Forests are rended: Came as the waves come, when Navies are stranded,

The city was decorated with the confederate emblem brought out to make a confederate holiday, and an orator was selected to give voice to the sentiments of the inhabitants of the lost confederacy. not in 1866, out in 1886, twenty years after the sur-render at Appomattox, and twenty years after we had been told that the south in good faith had accepted the results of the war, and desired to come in under the old flag and obtain the necessary appropriations. [Laughter.] propriations. [Laughter.]

I have the oration delivered by the speaker upon that occasion, not a garbled and mutilated extract printed in a northern paper, but the corrected copy printed in the paper that the orator himself edits. I believe. Therefore it is entitled to credence; it is authentic and authoritative. It may be, perhaps, instructive and entertaining, in view of what we hear about the reconstruction of the certification. hear about the reconstruction of the so pentance, their destre to co-operate with the north n accomplishing the great results of our destiny der the constitution of the union, to hear w he says; and at the risk of trespassing upon your pa-tience I will, with as little abbreviation as I can, repeat the oration delivered on that said, it was to unveil a mon Hervey Hill. The orator said: monument to Benjamin

Had the great man whose memory is perpetuated in this marble, chosen of all men one witness to his courage, he would have chosen the honorable statesman whose presence honors his platform today. Had the people of Georgia hosen of all men one man today to aid in his acced duty, and, by the memories that invest him highly the give decore sanctification. about, to give deeper sanctily to their work, they would have chosen Jefferson Davis first and last president of the confederate states. I do not blame him for that, Mr. President. I can derstand it; in a certain sense I honor it, because he snoke what I believe were the hor and courageous sentiments of his heart, as I believe the senator from Kentucky and the senator from Missouri have done in this debate. It is good, sir-

(turning to Mr. Davis) for you to be here. Other leaders have had their triumphs. Conquerors bave won crowns, and honors have been piled on the victors of earth's great battles; but never yet, sir, victors of earth's great battles; but never yet, sir, came man to more loving people. Never conqueron were prouder diadem than the deathless love that crowns your gray hairs today. Never king inhabited more splendid palace than the millions of brave hearts to which your dear name and fame are forever enshrined. Speaking to you, sir, as the son of a confederate soldier who sealed his devotion with hairlife—holding kinshtp through the priceless heritage of his clood to you and yours—standing midway between the thinning ranks of his old comrader, whose faltering footsteps are turned toward the grave, and the new generation thronging eagerly to whose faltering footsteps are turned toward the grave, and the new generation thronging eagerly to take the work that falls unfinished from their hands—here in the auspices present, across which the historic past salutes a glorious future, let me piedge you that the love we bear you shall be transmitted to our children and that generations yet unborn shall in this fair land hold your memory sacred and point with pride to your lofty and stainless life.

My countrymen—

our fort and the following the following to the crowd let us teach the lesson in this lid man's life, that defeat hath its glories no less han victory. Let us declare that this outeast from the following the following the unstantial that the second content of the than victory. Let us declare that this outcast from the pivileges of this great government is the unscrowned king of our people, and that no southern man, high or humble, asks greater glory than to bear with him heart to heart the blame and the burden of the cause for which he stands unpardoned. In dignity and honor he met the responsibilities of our common cause. With danniless courses he faced its charges. In description of recent age he faced its charges. In obscurity and poverty he has for twenty years berne the represent of our enemies and the obloquy of defeat. And as if this were not enough, as if eulogy had not been exhausted, he rises to the height of the occasion; and coming nearer, I think, the frentier of sacrilege, the boundary line of blesphemy, than ever man came before, he said:

ever man came before, he said:

This moment—in this blessed. Easter week—that, witnessing the resurrection of these memories, that for twenty years have been buried in our hearts, has given us the best Easter we have seen since Christ was risen from the dead. This moment finds its richest reward in the fact that we can light with sunshine the shortening end of a path that has loug been dark and dreary. Georgians, countrymen, soldiers, and sons of soldiers, and brave women, the light and sonl and crown of our civilization. solutions, the light and soul and crown the light and soul and crown the light and give your hearts voice as we tell Jefferson Davis that he is at home among his people.

Davis that he is at home among his people.

I do not propose to rehearse what that distin-guished representative who had just been eulogized said in his reply, except in one single sentence. 1 will quote one paragraph in which he refer to the services rendered him by that illustrious man whose statue was that day being unveiled in a somewhat memorable debut heng unverted in congress. He said—

He had nothing to ask, but he had much to give and when I was the last from the south who could excite any expectation of benefit, it was Hill whom to color rose triumphant in the senate and mashed Referring, I suppose, to our friend who is now it

Yet, Mr. President, before the lilies of that Easter were faded,

The tuneral baked meats
Did codly furnish forth the marriage tables, in New York or Brooklyn, and in this same year of our Lord, 1886, this same orator, who declared that Jefferson Davis was the uncrowned king of the outhern people, and that no more glorious Easter had arisen since Christ died on Calvary than that which gave them the opportunity of renewing their devotion to him and the ideas he represented, made a pilgrimage to the north, and at the New Engla er in the city of New York poured out his tre acle, cold cream, honey and maple syrup all over the north, declaring that the south had been warn dering in a far country, that they were anxious to return to the home of their fathers, and the whole democratic party rose and fell on his neck, and pal shoes on his feet, and a ring on his finger, and said! "Lo, this my son that was lost is found." But some protested, in the language of the Scripture, as the elder son who had not wasted his sub stance with harlots complained that the father had killed the fatted calf, although "Thou never gaves me a kid that I might make merry with my friend When was that orator sincere, Mr. President When did he speak the sentiments, the feelings and convictions of the southern reople, when he delivered that oration on the 1st day of May, 1886, in All anta, in the presence of applauding thousands, when he went up to the New England dinner, in December of the same year, and spilled oil and wind all over the American people?

People Forget This. From the Fortnightly Review.

It is a matter of common observation that any effort to direct the emotions to order has a tent dency to produce the opposite effect to the one in tended. To challenge a man to be brave is to make him nervous; to bid him admire a person or a worl of art is to suggest to him to be critical; to command of art is to suggest to him to be critical; to command a young man or woman to love the elect of their parents is to chill any nascent inclination in the desired direction, and to make it a duty for Mon tagues to hate Capulets is to start the loves of Romed and Juliet. We must give the feeling we desire. We can not possibly impose it.

"The Rev. E. D. Huntley, of Washington has delivered a lecture on "The Girl to Love and How to Treat Her." The how to treat her depend

To My Daughter. John Erskine, in the M When first thy mother took thee to her heart, Entwining thee in her white arms' embrace, And through her tears of joy smiled on thy face, And prayed the sovereign Lord to give thee grace And sweetest purity of soul impart,
A ruby morn lit up the curtained room,
Thy nut-brown eyes peeped forth in beauty bloom-The prayer was heard; God blessed thy path of life From childhood's dawn till thou becom'st a wife.

Crowned with content, no shadow intervenes
To cloud the brightness of domestic scenes. But she, the one most worthy of our love,

TWO RUNAWAY GIRLS

Cause Two Cases to Be Made in

Police Court. Josie Jones Leaves the City, and Josie Hall

Arrested - The Officers Pull a Broad Street House, The detectives and members of the police department are still searching for the man wearing the light colored overcoat who conducted Josie Jones to Josie Hall's bagnio, No. on Bell street, Friday night. The girl, however, has gone away. Early yesterday morning when Chief of Po-lice Connolly reached his joffice and received the report of the affair made by Captain Couch, he decided to ascertain, if possible, the true inwardness of the entire matter. He to Hall's home and bring her to police The officers found the woman adquarters. at her home, and in a short time were en route ters the chief held a conversation with Hall. and the woman repeated the same story she gave Captain Couch Friday night. against the woman and instructed the tationhouse keeper to enter on the books a stationhouse keeper to enter on the books a charge against her of occupying a portion of a house used as a house of ill fame, and to require a two hundred dollar bond for her appearance Monday morning. The case was made and the woman put up two hundred dollars in money in lieu of a bond. The detectives who were instructed to work the case called at the boarding house where Captain Couch had left the ing house where Captain Couch had left the girl and found that she had gone. Their in-vestigation disclosed the fact that a man had called at the hotel and paid her fare to Chat-tanooga. The man who called at the hotel answered the description given of the man who was seen with her Friday night.

The Dunaway Rescue.

The Setela Dunaway story of Thursday night presents another chapter. During the day yesterday, Chief of Police Connolly called upon Captains Couch and Connolly called upon Captains Couch and Wright for a full report of their work in rescu-Wright for a full report of their work in rescuing the girl from Lou Bailey's bagnio, on Broad street. In their reports the captains made full reference to the opposition with which they had met in the house, and the chief ordered them to make cases against all the parties. In compliance with the orders the captains, with patrolmen, visited the house and made a case against Will Siff, the man who threatened the officer, and one against the woman. The man is charged with keeping a house used as a house of ill fame. The woman appears on the docket as Lou Bailey, and is charged with occupying a portion of ley, and is charged with occupying a portion of that house The cases will be disposed of in

A MATTER OF JUSTICE.

The Truth and the Whole Truth About the Disappearance of the Simmons Child. Owing to the thoughtless words of a little edrl, as quoted in a recent article in THE CON-TRUTION, great injustice seems to have been me a very estimable lady.

The article referred to was that concerning the disappearance of little Missie Simmons. In the statements of that little girl and of her brother there were some carelessly spoken words which, if taken in connection with the article which appeared in an evening contemporary the evening before, might seem to impute to Mrs. Martin motives other than those of a friend. To those people who enjoy the friendship and acquaint ance of Mrs. Martin, no explanation or refutation is necessary; for with them any such imputations would have no weight whatever. But it is more than unfortunate that there

But it is more than unfortunate that there But it is more than unfortunate that there should be the possibility of anybody believing much imputations, and that any such idea may be dispelled, it will not be amiss to refer again to the facts in the case.

Briefly told, they are these: The little girl, who is only 13 years of age, took it into her head that she would run away from home, and leaving her bed early in the morning, went to the home of Mrs. Martin. The families had been neighbors, and little Missie had formed an attachment for Mrs. Martin, who had always been kind to her. Missie often visited Mrs. Martin, who took a kindly interest in her, at times teaching her and comforting her in all her imaginary troubles.

in her, at times teaching her and comforting her in all her imaginary troubles.

It did not surprise Mrs. Martin very much, therefore, when little Missie came to her house so early in the morning. When asked why she was there so early in the day, the child said she had run away from home and would not go back.

Mrs. Martin's first impulse was to send her back to her mother, but realizing that she might wander off to where she would not he

When breakfast was served. Missie was asked to join the little family, and it was while they wereat breakfast that the child's brother came, and they all succeeded in inducing her to go home with him.

That is the whole story. It is most unfortunate that the child's talk should have made might wander off to where she would not be possible the existence of even the slightest doubt of the motive of Mrs. Martin's kindly action toward her.

THE PHILOSOPHERS. The Meeting Last Night-Able Papers Read by Colonel Glenn and Mr. Han The regular fortnightly meeting of the At-lanta Philosophic society last night was large-ly attended, and the exercises were exceedingly entertaining and instructive.

Mr. William Hanson, who was appointed to read an original paper embodying his conceptions of the Supreme Being, discharged his task in a manner which elicited the applause of his andience. of his audience.

Colonel William C. Glenn came all the way

Colonel William C. Genn came at the way from Dalton to read an original paper on the Kantonian theory of time and space. He handled this question with great ability.

A vote of thanks was given these two gentlemen for their valuable contributions, and it was ordered that both papers should be preserved in the archives of the society.

These papers were freely discussed, the dis-Served in the archives of the society.

These papers were freely discussed, the discussion being participated in by six or eight members. At the meeting two weeks hence Captain

Welborn Bray will be the reader, and Mr. Bamuel Barnett will read an original essay. A COMMISSION Appointed by the Governor on Furniture

Governor on Furniture for the New Capitol.

Governor Gordon yesterday appointed a commission composed of Messrs. G. D. Harrison, W. J. Speer and W. H. Harrison to report to the next legislature in itemized form the quality and quantity of furniture necessary for the new capitol. The resolution under which this commission has been gented award.

for the new capitol. The resolution under which this commission has been created appropriates $100 for advertising purposes.

As yet no appropriation has been made for furniture. Should an appropriation be made early in the session by the next legislature, the probability is that the state house officers will be in their new quarters by April, 1889. The legislature will probably meet at the new capital, for the first time, in the summer of 1889.

THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

Meeting Yesterday at 781-2 Decatur Street-County Convention March 27th. The Fulton County Republican committee held a meeting at 78½ Decatur street yesterday morning, with Moses H. Bentley in the chair It was decided to call the county convention to meet in Atlanta March 27. Delegates will be elected to that convention at a mass-meeting to be held in Atlanta at the court-houstone the night of the 20th of March. The East Tennessee's Packet Line. The East Tennessee's packet line from fork to Brunswick will soon attract marked atten portant ports on the Atlantic coast. The packet "Keniin" will leave New York for Brunswick on the 15th instant, which will afford merchants a good chance to order freight.

The Delightful Liquid Laxative Syrup of Figs is a most agreeable and valua ble family remedy, as it is easily taken by old and young, and is prompt and effective in curing Habitual Constination and the many ills depending on a weak or inactive condition of the Kidneys, Liver, and Bowels. It acts gently, strengthens the organs on which it acts, and awakens them to a healthy activity. Sold by all druggists. Fran rather s at DeGi "Mardo but it g ing gale

Harr

The The

With

Let me say a . It is an n become a man should the Atlanta ton, N. C.: at Wacamay nly a shart ce of Mr

on (twelve

Ill Forest. CONSTITU rial, next s articles, certain and story ever printed PRING.

> vill soon b rhauled and of a tough

village bare-mometer was up her toes a out otherwise down her v his arm sh sary to ampu-

e my books in other work— ng books, like of taking pains

SENATOR INGALLS'S TEXT. Verbatim Extract from His Speech in the

A Verbatim Extract from His Speech in the United States Senate.

We print herewith a verbatim extract from Senator Ingalls's speech delivered in the United States senate on last Tuesday. We reproduce that part of the speech which deals particularly with Mr. Grady's Atlanta and New York's speech. It is taken from the congressional Record.

speech. It is taken from the congressional Record:

But I am not quite through with this aspect of the question yet. In 1886, on the first day of May of that year, less than two years ago, there was in the city of Atlanta, in Georgia, a great historic occasion. A statue to one of our former associates in this body was to be unveiled, a man whom I bonored, and whom we all respected. Upon that occasion the venerable ex-president of the Confederacy was invited to be present. It was a day that never will be forgotten in the annals of the south. They flocked to that city as men go to a banquet or as doves flock to their windows. They

Came as the winds come, when Navies are stranded.

The city was decorated with the confederate emblem brough out to make a confederate emblem brough to to make a confederate for the inhabitants of the lost confederacy, not in 1866, but in 1886, twenty years after we had been told that the south in good faith had accipted the results of the war, and desired to come in under the old flag and obtain the necessary appropriations. [Laughter.]

I have the oration delivered by the speaker upon that occasion, not a gariled and mutilated extract printed in a northern paper, but the corrected copy printed in the paper that the oration had been told the trace of the war, and desired to come in under the old fast and obtain the necessary appropriations. [Laughter.]

I have the oration delivered by the speaker upon that occasion, not a gariled and mutilated extract printed in a northern paper, but the corrected copy printed in the paper that the orator himself edits. I believe. Therefore it is entitled to credence; it is authentic and authoritative. It may be, perhaps, instructive and entertaining, in view of what we hear about the reconstruction of the south, their repentance, their destre to co-operate with the north in accomplishing the great results of our destiny under the constitution of the union, to hear what he says; and at the risk of trespassing upon your patience I will, with as little

Hervey Hill. The orator said:

Had the great man whose memory is perpetuated in this marble, chosen of all men one witness to his constancy and his courage, he would have chosen the honorable statesman whose presence honors this platform today. Had the people of Georgia chosen of all men one man today to aid in this sacred duty, and, by the memories that invest him about, to give deeper sanctity to their work, they would have chosen Jefferson Davis first and last president of the confederate states.

I do not blame him for that, Mr. President, I can ur derstand it; in a certain sense I honor it, because he spoke what I believe were the honest, truthful and courageous sentiments of his heart, as I believe and courageous sentiments of his heart, as I believe the senator from Kentucky and the senator from Missouri have done in this debate.

It is good, sir—
He continued—
[turning to Mr. Davis] for you to be here. Other leaders have had their triumphs. Conquerors have won crowns, and honors have been piled on the victors of earth's great battles; but never yet, sir/came man to more loving people. Never conqueron wore prouder diadem than the deathless love that crowns your gray hairs today. Never king inhabited more splendid palace than the millions of brave hearts to which your dear name and fame are forever enshrined. Speaking to you, sir, as the son of a confederate soldier who sealed his devotion with his life—holding kinship through the priceless heritage of his blood to you and yours—standing midway between the thinning ranks of his old comrades, whose faltering footsteps are turned toward the grave, and the new generation thronging cagerly to take the work that falls unfailshed from their hands—here in the auspices present, across which the historic past salutes a glorious inture, let me picigo you that the love we bear you shall be transmitted to our children and our children's children, and had generations yet unborn shall in this fair land hold your memory sacred and point with pride to your forly and stanless life.

My countrymen—
He continued—

My countrymen—
He continued—
(turning to the crowd) let us teach the lesson in this old man's life, that defeat hath its glories no less than victory. Let us declare that this outcast from the privileges of this great government is the uncrowned king of our people, and that no southern man, high or humble, asks greater glory than to bear with him heart to heart the blame and the burden of the cause for which he stands unpardoned. In dignity and honor he met the responsibilities of our common cause. With dauntless courage he faced its charges. In obscurity and poverty he has for twenty years berne the reproach of our chemies and the obloquy of defeat.

And as if this were not enough, as if eulogy had not been exhausted, he rises to the height of the

and the manusted, he rises to the height of the occasion; and coming nearer, I think, the frontier of sacrilege, the boundary line of blasphemy, than of sacrilege, the boundary line of blasphemy, than ever man came before, he said:

This moment—in this blessed. Easter week—that, witnessing the resurrection of these memories, that for twenty years have been buried in our hearts, has given us the best Easter we have seen since. Christwas risen from the dead. This moment finds its richest reward in the fact that we can light with sunshine the shortening end of a path that has long been dark and dreary. Georgians, countrymen, soldiers, and sons of soldiers, and brave women, the light and soul and crown of our civilization, rise and give your hearts voice as we tell Jefferson the light and soul and crown of our civilizatios, rise and give your hearts voice as we tell Jefferson Davis that he is at home among his people.

I do not propose to rehearse what that distinguished representative who had just been eulogized said in his reply, except in one single sentence. I will quote one paragraph in which he refers to the services rendered him by that illustrious man whose statue was that day being unveiled in a somewhat memorable debut that occurred in congress. He said—

He hed nothing to ask, but he had much to give and when I was the last from the south who could excite any expectation of benefit, it was kill whose voice rose triumphant in the senate and mashed the injurious Yankee down.

Referring. I suppose, to our friend who is now in Referring, I suppose, to our friend who is now in Yet, Mr. [President, before the lilies of that Easter were faded,

The funeral baked means
Did coldly furnish forth the marriage tables, in New York or Brooklyn, and in this same year of our Lord, 1886, this same orator, who declared that our Lord, 1886, this same orator, who declared that Jefferson Davis was the uncrowned king of the southern people, and that no more glorious Easter had arisen since Christ died on Calvary than that which gave them the opportunity of renewing their devotion to him and the ideas he represented, made a pilgrimage to the north, and at the New England dinner in the city of New York poured out his tradele, cold cream, honey and maple syrup all over the north, declaring that the south had been want, dering in a far country, that they were anxious to return to the home of their fathers, and the whole democratic party rose and fell on his neck, and pushoes on his feet, and a ring on his finger, and said "Lo, this my son that was lost is found."

But some protested, in the language of the Script

"Lo, this my son that was lost is found."

But some protested, in the language of the Scripture, as the elder son who had not wasted his substance with harlots complained that the father had killed the fatted calf, although "Thou never gaves me a kid that I might make merry with my friends.",

When was that orator sincere, Mr. President When did he speak the sentiments, the feelings and convictions of the southern reople, when he delivered that oration on the 1st day of May, 1886, in AB lanta, in the presence of applauding thousands, of lauta, in the presence of applauding thousands, of when he went up to the New England dinner, in December of the same year, and spilled oil and wine all over the American people?

People Forget This.

From the Fortnightly Review.

It is a matter of common observation that any effort to direct the emotions to order has a tendency to produce the opposite effect to the one in tended. To challenge a man to be brave is to make him nervous; to bid him admire a person or a worl of art is to suggest to him to be critical; to command a young man or woman to love the elect of their parents is to chill any nascent inclination in the desired direction, and to make it a duty for Mopi agues to hate Capulets is to start the loves of Rome tagues to hate Capulets is to start the loves of Romet and Juliet. We must give the feeling we desire. We can not possibly impose it.

From the Richmond Dispatch,
"The Rev. E. D. Huntley, of Washington has delivered a lecture on "The Girl to Love and How to Treat Her." The how to treat her depends

When first thy mother took thee to her heart,
Entwining thee in her white arms' smbrace,
And through her tears of joy smiled on thy face,
And prayed the sovereign Lord to give thee grace,
And sweetest purity of soul impart,
A ruby morn lit up the curtained room,
Thy nut-brown eyes peeped forth in beauty's bloom—

bloom—
The prayer was heard; God blessed thy path of life
From childhood's dawn till thou becom'st a wife.
Crowned with content, no shadow intervenes
To cloud the brightness of domestic scenes.
But she, the one most worthy of our love,
Before the eve of age was called above:
And I am hastening to our loved one's tomb. And I am hastening to our loved one's ton

TWO RUNAWAY GIRLS

Cause Two Cases to Be Made in Police Court.

Josie Jones Leaves the City, and Josie Hall Arrested -- The Officers Pull a Broad Street House.

The detectives and members of the police department are still searching for the man wearing the light colored overcoat who con-ducted Josie Jones to Josie Hall's bagnio, No. 100 Bell street, Friday night.

100 Bell street, Friday night.

The girl, however, has gone away.

Early yesterday morning when Chief of Police Connolly reached his loffice and received the report of the affair made by Captain Couch, he decided to ascertain, if possible, the true inwardness of the entire matter. He instructed Detectives Bedford and Cason to go to Hall's home and bring her to police headquarters. The officers found the woman beadquarters. The officers found the woman at her home, and in a short time were en route to the prison with her. At police headquarters the chief held a conversation with Hall, and the woman repeated the same story she gave Captain Couch Friday night. The chief finally decided to make a case against the woman and instructed the against the woman and instructed the stationhouse keeper to enter on the books a charge against her of occupying a portion of a house used as a house of ill fame, and to require a two hundred dollar bond for her appearance Monday morning. The case was made and the woman put up two hundred dollars in money in lieu of a bond. The detectives who were instructed to work the case called at the boarding house where Captain Couch had left the girl and found that she had gone. Their investigation disclosed the fact that a man had called at the hotel and paid her fare to Chattanooga. The man who called at the hotel answered the description given of the man who was seen with her Friday night.

The Dunaway Rescue.

The Setela Dunaway story of Thursday night presents another chapter.

During the day yesterday, Chief of Police Connolly called upon Captains Couch and Wright for a full report of their work in rescuing the girl from Lou Bailey's bagnio, on Broad street. In their reports the captains made full reference to the opposition with which they had met in the house, and the chief ordered them to make cases against all the parties. In compliance with the orders the captains, with patrolmen, visited the house and made a case against Will Siff, the man who threatened the officer, and one against the woman. The man is charged with keeping a house used as a house of ill fame. The woman appears on the docket as Lou Bailey, and is charged with occupying a portion of that house. The cases will be disposed of in police court tomorrow.

A MATTER OF JUSTICE.

The Truth and the Whole Truth About the

The Truth and the Whole Truth About the Disappearance of the Simmons Child.

Owing to the thoughtless words of a little girl, as quoted in a recent article in The Constitution, great injustice seems to have been done a very estimable lady.

The article referred to was that concerning the disappearance of little Missie Simmons. In the statements of that little girl and of her brother there were some carelessly spoken words which, if taken in connection with the article which appeared in an evening contemporary the evening before, might seem to impute to Mrs. Martin motives other than those of a friend. To those people who enjoy the friendship and acquaint ance of Mrs. Martin, no explanation or refutation is necessary; for with them any such imputations would have no weight whatever. But it is more than unfortunate that there should be the possibility of anybody believing such imputations, and that any such idea may be dispelled, it will not be amiss to refer again to the facts in the case.

Briefly told, they are these: The little girl.

be dispelled, it will not be amiss to refer again to the facts in the case.

Briefly told, they are these: The little girl, who is only 13 years of age, took it into her head that she would run away from home, and leaving her bed early in the morning, went to the home of Mrs. Martin. The families had been neighbors, and little Missie had formed an attachment for Mrs. Martin, who had always been kind to her. Missie often visited Mrs. Martin, who took a kindly interest in her, at times teaching her and comforting her in all her imaginary troubles.

It did not surprise Mrs. Martin very much, therefore, when little Missie came to her house so early in the morning. When asked why she was there so early in the day, the child said she had run away from home and would not go back. Mrs. Martin's first impulse was to send her back to her mother, but realizing that she might wander off to where she would not be properly cared for, said she might come in. When breakfast was served Missie was asked to ioin the little family, and it was while they when breakfast was served Missie was asked to join the little family, and it was while they wereat breakfast that the child's brother came, and they all succeeded in inducing her to go home with him.

home with him.

That is the whole story. It is most unfortunate that the child's talk should have made possible the existence of even the slightest doubt of the motive of Mrs. Martin's kindly action toward her.

THE PHILOSOPHERS.

The Meeting Last Night-Able Papers Read by Colonel Glenn and Mr. Hanson.

by Colonel Glenn and Mr. Hanson.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Atlanta Philosophic society last night was largely attended, and the exercises were exceedingly entertaining and instructive.

Mr. William Hanson, who was appointed to read an original paner embodying his conceptions of the Supreme Being, discharged his task in a manner which elicited the applause of his andience. of his audience.

Colonel William C. Glenn came all the way

Colonel William C. Glenn came all the way from Dalton to read an original paper on the Kantonian theory of time and space. He handled this question with great ability.

A vote of thanks was given these two gentlemen for their valuable contributions, and it was ordered that both papers should be preserved in the archives of the society.

These papers were freely discussed, the discussion being participated in by six or eight members.

At the meeting, two weeks hence Captain members.

At the meeting two weeks hence Captain
Welborn Bray will be the reader, and Mr.

Samuel Barnett will read an original essay.

Appointed by the Governor on Furniture for the New Capitol.

Governor Gordon yesterday appointed a commission composed of Messrs. G. D. Harrison, W. J. Speer and W. H. Harrison to report to the next legislature in itemized form the quality and quantity of furniture necessary for the new capitol. The resolution under which this commission has been created approfor the new capitol. The resolution under which this commission has been created appropriates $100 for advertising purposes.

As yet no appropriation has been made for furniture. Should an appropriation be made early in the session by the next legislature, the probability is that the state house officers will be in their new quarters by April, 1889. The legislature will probably meet at the new capital, for the first time, in the summer of 1889.

THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

County Convention March 27th.

The Fulton County Republican committee held a meeting at 781 Decatur street yesterday marning, with Moses H. Bentley in the chair It was decided to call the county convention to meet in Atlanta March 27. Delegates will be elected to that convention at a mass-meeting to be held in Atlanta at the court-housione the night of the 20th of March.

The East Tennessee's Packet Line.
The East Tennessee's packet line from New York to Brunswick will soon attract marked attention. It establishes Brunswick as one of the important ports on the Atlantic coast. The packet "Kealin" will leave New York for Brunswick on the 18th instant, which will afford merchants a good chance to order freight.

The Delightful Liquid Laxative Syrup of Figs is a most agreeable and valua ble family remedy, as it is easily taken by old and young, and is prompt and effective in curing Habitual Constipation and the many ills depending on a weak or inactive condition of the Kidneys, Liver, and Bowels. It acts gently, strengthens the organs on which it acts, and awakens them to a healthy activity. Sold by all druggists. WALKS AND TALKS.

Frank Frayne presented "Si Slocum" to a rather small, but decidedly enthusiastic audience at DeGive's last night. Of course the play, like "Mardo," is beneath criticism as a dramatic effort, but it gives the numerous animals an opportunity to display their artistic abilities. There was shooting galore and the galleries went wild with enthusiasm. The company is hardly mediocre.

Colonel H. C. Hamilton, clerk of the United States district court, has brought his family from Dalion to Atlanta, and is now a full fledged citizen of the mile. of the gate city. Colonel Hamilton was for sixteen years clerk of the appearlo gourt of Whitfield county and has made for himself a record as an officer of which any man might be proud. He has many warm friends in Atlanta and adds to the number every day.

"Cap" and Mrs. Joyner, accompanied by Councilman G. H. Tanner and wife and Councilman J. M. Stephens, left last evening for an extended tour through the north and west. They will visit New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati and other places, and much time and attention will be devoted to the examination of the fire escape systems of those cities, with a view to providing Atlanta with an efficient system. During the absence of Chief Joyner Foreman Jacob Emmel will act as chief;

verman is going to try an experiment in At anta which has never been tried before, on the scale which it is now proposed to establish. Said Harry Silvernan yesterday, as he showed letters from large Havana cigar establishments: "These are in reply to our orders for eigars from Havana. We are going to import them direct, and are looking for large custom house invoices very soon. We will deal in the finest slock of cigars ever handled in Georgia, and will make our place the headquarters for the south for Havana cigars, bought directly

A gentleman said yesterday: "The surplus in the United States treasury is grand indeed, but the government officials in Atlanta are not getting any of it just now. The appropriation bill is swing-ing between the two houses of congress like a pen-dulum, while the offices down here in Atlanta are being run without money. It is absolutely pathetic to see witnesses, scores of miles from home, sign the pey roll and then go off and sell their certificates at a big discount.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. J. A. Lambert, of Columbia, South Car-olina, is in the city looking around with a view to locating permanently. Mr. Lambert is a young man well known in the Palmetto state, and will make a good Atlantian.

railroad conductor, is nursing a sore hand. Mr. Hill's train, the Atlanta and West Point cannon ball, is the fastest in the south.

Harry Hill, the well-known and popula

Mr. James Lynch is now having prepared one of the largest and finest oill paintings ever seen in the south. The work will be a surprise to his friends when completed. The rain yesterday brought out the rubber coats and umbrellas, which have been on the shelf for a week past. The day altogether was extremely disagreeable.

The gentlemen having in charge the spring races at the Piedmont park are working zeal-ously to make the meeting a grand success. The dates have not been definitely fixed, but will be between the Memphis and Nashville races. It is thought that some of the finest horses in the country can be induced to come.

The board of police commissioners will meet tomorrow night. Both Mr. Stephens and Mr. Brown have qualified and will be on hand, the one to succeed himself, and the other to succeed Dr. Goldsmith. The first thing will be an organization. The present chairman is Captain J. W. English, and the present secretary is Dr. Goldsmith. The indications are that Captain English will be re-elected chairman and Mr. Walter Brown secretary.

It is a year off yet. However, Mr. E. W. Martine It is a year off yet. However, Mr. E. W. Martins successor in the board of police commission is being talked of. So tar, only one name has been mentioned, Dr. Amos Fox. The doctor says, "I have been elected several times without asking for it. This time I am going to ask for it and make the race for all it's worth."

Within the past few days several young Atlantians have returned from eastern schools with diplomas and entered upon professional careers. Among the number are Dr. D. B. Smith, eldest son of Dr. D. Smith, the well known dentist. The young gentleman is well known in Atlanta, where he has many friends. He has just graduated from the Pennylvania. He has just graduated from the Pennsylvania Dental college with distinction—coming within one point of attaining the highest honor. He attended the University of the South at Suwanee, Tenn., where he made a most inviable reputation. The young doctor's pleasant, genial manners, together with his thorough knowledge of his profession, will soon make him a reputation in Atlanta.

Mr. Chaney's course of sermon's on Christian belief and trust will begin today. He will preach in the morning on "God" and in the evening on "Christ." People wishing to know what Unitarians believe may learn by heaving these learnings. hearing these lectures.

HE BURIED THE CHILD

And Then Sanitary Inspector King Four the Grave and Made a Case.

George Adams, a negro man well known in the western portion of the city, was arrested yesterday by Sanitary Inspector King and booked at police headquarters for "removing the body of a deceased person who died in the city, beyond the limits thereof, without a permit from the board of health or from a person designated by that body."

The case will be tried in police court tomorrow morning.

designated by that body."

The case will be tried in police court tomorrow morning.

Adams lives in the western portion of the city, and on the twenty-first of February last lost a small child. That day he carried the remains to Westview cemetery and instead of interring in the cemetery dug a grave in an old field near by and laid the body in it. A few days after the child was buried the grave was discovered by some one and reported to the board of health and the board instructed Sanitary Inspector King t investigate the matter. The inspector opened the grave, and finding that a child was buried in it, had the remains intered in the cemetery. He then began searching for the parties who had violated the law in burying the child outside a cemetery. The work was necessarily slow, because the parties had left no clew. Yesterday morning, however, he received information which induced him to believe that George Adams was the man for whom he was looking. The inspector found George Adams on Mangum street and clarged him with the offense. Adams acknowledged that he had buried the child, but said that he did not know that he was violating the law. The negro was conducted to police headquarters where the case was booked. Adams talked freely about the matter, saying:

"It was my child and I went out to Westview cemetery to bury it, but the place was closed, and I paid a man to bury it. The man buried the child in the field near the cemetery. I did not know that I was violating any law." tery. I did not know that I was violating any law."

Georgia Patents,

The following is a complete list of patents granted patentees in Georgia in the issue of the week lust past, and is especially reported for The Constitution by Albert A. Wood, solicitor of American and foreign patents, Atlanta:

John Richardson, St. Mary's, propellor-shaft bearing; J. T. Smith, Coffee county, antidote.

This issue comprises 429 patents, twenty-eight of which are to foreign subjects. The southern states take precedence as follows:

Louisiana 4, Texns and Kantucky 3, Florida, Georgia and North Carolina 2, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee 1 leach.

Foreign: Belgium 1, Canada 8, United States of Colombia 1, England 13, France 1, Germany 3, and Switzerland 1.

When you feel depressed don't dose yourself with mean bitters. Hodges' Sarsaparilla renovates and invigorates the system, and cures all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood. $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5. Rangum Root Med. Co., Nashville, Tenn. At wholesale by A. G. Candler & Co., Atlanta, Ga., and D. W. Curry, Rome. Retail at Jacobe' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga.

RAILROAD RATTLE.

Cheap Rates Secured for Excursions to the South.

A Progressive Man-Conductors Discharged -Employees Get a Genuine Surprise-The Loomis Case.

The LaSalle, Ill., Republican, of February

5th, 1889, has the following deserved compliment 25th, 188, has the following deserved compliment to a Georgia railroad man:

Some people may think all the progressive people have gone west, but it is a mistake. Joseph M. Brown, of the Western and Atlantic railroad, of Georgia, is a progressionist down south. He recently sugineered a reduction in passenger rates on this road that makes the tariff practically two cents a mile. However advanced the western railroad magnates may be they will have to promptly emulate the example of this railroad leader of the south if they expect to keep up with the procession.

The Loomis Case. Judge Maxwell, in the suit of Loomis against Judge Maxwell, in the suit of Loomis against the directors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, granted an injunction preventing the defendants from voting or transferring the preferred stock: but as to the common stock, it was tacitly admitted that it was legal, and the injunction as to it was refused.

As the preferred stock has up voting power, the hey expect to keep up with the pro

As the preferred stock has no voting power, the injunction preventing it being voted amounts to practically nothing. The question as to the legality of the five thousand shares of common stock of the Ciucinnatt H unition and Dayton, issued when Ives had control of the property, will come up for hearing at some future time. Cheap Rates to the South. By the action of the Central Traffic association in Chicago the recently cheap rates southward secured by the interstate committees of the society of immigration and development from southern passenger agents at New Orleans in February, are passoner agents at New Orleans in February, are established over the greater portion of the country. John T. Graves, of Rome, chair of the interstate committee, has just preceived an official telegram from Commissioner Daniels, of the Central Tradic association, announcing the concurrence of the railroads represented in that association in the dates established by the southern roads.

Turned Out. Considerable stir was created in railroad circles in Xenia, O., Thursday, over the discharge of Passenger Conductors Charles Meider, of the Richnond branch, and Mike Holland and Warren Welsh, of the main line of the Little Miami railread. Their places were filled by extra Conductors Lewis Brose, Isaac Hedrick, and Freight Conductor David Bowsman. No reason is assigned for the dis-charge of these men, and it is thought that there are

Got the Bounce. The employes of the Pan-Handle shops at Dennison, O., were treated to a genuine surprise Thursday when ill of them were presented with tickets of indefinite suspension. No reason is assigned for the suspension other than a curtailing of expenses. The suspended men are principally single men, heads of families receiving the preference.

Mr. William B. Kinskern, assistant general passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern road, with headquarters at Chicago, is in the city. President Samuel Thomas, of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia system, Vice President Henry Fink and Secretary L. F. Brown arrived in Atlanta last night in a special car from New York. They are on a tour of inspection of the road. Jay Gould's private car passed through the city on the East Tennes ee last evening for Jackson-ville, where its millionaire owner has been recreat-

Mr. Alton Angier, assistant general passen-ger agent of the Western and Atlantic, took the East Tennessee train last night for Jacksonville. Alton always takes the shortest and best route, ex-cept when he goes north.

The New Orleans Cotton Report. NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—[Special.]—The market opened and closed at nearly the same figures, and about six points lower than closing in New York and five lower than closing here last night. Liverpool closed two to three points lower than last night. The bureau published today makes the total amount marketed from plantations to February Ist 92 per cent as an average of all the states. The amount of cotton in sight, including the overland amount of cotton in sight, including the overland movement for January, was on the 1st of February 5,940,000 bales. Therefore, if that figure represented 92 per cent, the balance of the crop will be made, of course, by the 8 per cent on plantations and the stock at unenumerated towns at that date, less what is held of those stocks by the local southern mills. The receipts at ports today were 7,100 bales, of which Galveston received 2,400, nearly sail of which was through cotton. The estimate this week of receipts here is 20,000. Interior receipts today at Memphis, St. Louis and Augustias show a marked falling off as compared with last week. Spots dull and unchanged. Sales, 1,600. Futures closed; January, 3,16; March, 2,48; April, 9,50 (9,51; May, 2,58(9,59; June, 9,67(9,68; July, 9,766) 9,77; August, 9,77(9,74; September, 9,34(9,95; October, 9,14(9,915; November, 9,76(9,8; December, 9,8(9,9).

Jewish Prophesy and Provid This will be the subject of Dr. McDonald's seture at the Second Baptist church at 7:30 this vening. It is the fourth in his Sunday night series discourses on the evidences of the truth of the lible. The discourse tonight will be interesting.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

The rainfall yesterday was remarkably

Night service at the Central Baptist church will bereafter begin at 7:80 o'clock.

Many people in the eastern part of Atlanta declare they felt an earthquake shock about 9 o'clock night before last.

A large number of fieet-footed mules have been put into service on the Capitol avenue branch of the Atlanta street railway. This service has been very much improved lately. The drivers make good time and close connections, and are civil and accommodating. The Old Kind the Best.

A passenger on a Missouri train was shot at by a citizen and saved by a plug of tobacco which stopped the bullet. Still there are people who will insist on using fine-cut. What good would a wad of fine-cut in the vest pocket do while passing through Missouri?

See notice of A. J. Haygood's auction of the stock of Mr. C. P. Johnson, beginning on Monday night.

Merchants should attend it. They will get bar-

PERSONAL.

M. M. MAUCK, wall-paper and paint dealer PAPER hanger, house and sign painter FRESH Strawberries at Hoyt & Thorn's. tf MR. J. W. Schley, of Savannah, is at the

MR. A. L. Wood, of Macon, is stopping a MR. W. S. Dowdell, of Opelika, was at the MR. R. R. HARGIS, of Bartow county, is regstered at the Markham. MR. R. H. HIGHTOWER, of Dublin, Ga., MR. JOHN WARE, of Gainesville, is stopping

JUDGE JOHN I. HALL, of Griffin, is registere

MR. T. R. JONES, of Cartersville, is regis tered at the Kimball house MR. E. H. KINGSLEY. of Tallapoosa, was a Mr. T. J. THORNTON, of LaGrange, is registered at the Kimball house.

MR. JAMES K. PADGETT, of Legansville, Ge., is stopping at the Markbam house.

STAMPS of all denominations for sale at Constitution business office. Open until 9.p. m. if MISSES EUNICE ELDER and Estelle Fowler have returned home, after a delightful visit to relatives in Marietta and Acworth.

ives in Marietta and Acworth.

MRS. N. N. Archer has returned from Florida, after an absence of two weeks, having visited all the points of interest while there.

Mrs. W. B. Mulligan, late proprietress of the Atlanta house, has taken rooms at Mr. Fred Young's residence, 35 Courtland street.

Mrs. L. W. Thomas, after an absence of LANGE & BUSHNELL, interior decorators, dealers in wall papers, window shades and room mouldings, 42 Marietta street, Atlants, Ga. All work executed with neatness and dispatch. Samples sent free. It proves its wondrous worth—Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 26 cents a bottle. ABOUT THE CROPS

ount of Cotton Raised and Marketed
—The Grain Crop.

Washington, March 10.—The monthly summary of the agricultural bureau, issued today,

The Grain Crop.

Washington, March 10.—The monthly summary of the agricultural bureau, issued today, says:

The report of cotton marketed was complete from eight states a mouth ago, but deferred for returns from the Carolinas and Texas. The apparent proportions forwarded from plantations on the 1st of February were as follows: Virginis, 20 per cent; North Carolina, 20; Massissippi, 30 per cent; Florida, 57; Alamana, 22; Massissippi, 30; Louistana, 39; Texas, 34; Arkansas, 30; Tennessee, 39; Missouri and Indian Territory, 22. General average is 22 per cent. This indicates an increase of 3 or 4 per cent on the agreeate of the country and limits of the first of October, although February returns of the estimated product, compared with that of 1886, were nearly identical with the November returns.

This furnishes a further Illustration of the local tendency to underestimate production. It was suggested in the November report that it might be assumed that deep-rooted and early and well-developed plants would produce better than is expected in their apparent loss of condition and that if the outcome shound surpass this first estimate the excess might be due to this cause. This view was correct. An allowance for the depressing effect of the panic in local returns, so stoutly opposed by speculators, is again proved to be necessary.

The quality of fibre is superior, the condition clean and the yield of Ilm a little above 32 per cent. The value of seed a verages 16 cents per bushel on the Allamic coast; 18 in Mississippi, 14 in Tennessee; 13 in Louisiana, and 14 in Texas.

The average close of picking is as follows: North Carolina, December 12; Toxas, November 2; The date was later than last year on the Atlantic coast; 63 cents per bushel on the value of seed a verage of picking is as follows: North Carolina, Proportion of merchantable average. Statistical returns of the department of agriculture for March relate to the cistribution and consumption of wheat and corn, stock in famers hands; proportion of merchantable ave

$100,000 DEAL.

sumption.

Hon, H. I. Kimball, General Manager of the "Refrigerating Construction Company" Closed contract yesterday with Perkins Machinery company, of this city, general southern agents for "Erie City Iron Works," of Erie, Pa., for one hundred steam boilers, aggregating in cost nearly one hundred thousand dollars. A Constitution reporter heard the rumor of this immense deal and called on Mr. S. F. Perkins, president of the Perkins Machinery company, and made inquiries as to the correctness of the report, and he said:

"Yes, you are correctly informed, I closed the contract with Mr. Kimball yesterday." "How came you to get the order?" 'Well, I'll tell you, Mr. Kimball, you know, requires that work done under his management, or goods sold him, must be the best. He knew the superior quality of the work our Erie City Iron Works turn out, and their promptness in filling orders, and he, not knowing that we were the agents, wrote direct to the company. Being a personal friend of twenty years' standing of the president of that company, who informed him that they had special arrangements with us, and that he could make a better deal through us, as they had to protect their agents, we can afford." "Why do you suppose Mr. Kimball contracted for so many boilers at once?

He gave this reason: He has much work mapped out to be pushed through at as early date as possible, and it was necessary to facilitate matters to make one deal for boilers settle that part of his work, so as to relieve his mind of that feature connected with his enterprise. He, therefore, turned it all over to us and all he has to do is to specify what his requirements are for each plant and we order same promptly while we are at liberty to quote any prices that and superintend locating, etc."

"Mr. Kimball's successful handling of large enterprises is due largely to his systematic management, and you bet we have to 'pick up our feet' pretty lively owing to such heavy competition, but we get there.

"We are selling machinery cheaper than any concern in the country, and our business is more than double what it was a year ago. We can give you a number of instances proving this fact, but we will just mention the On yesterday we took an order from Mr. John Chatelin, formerly of Indiana, now locating a Stegall's, on the Western and Atlantic railroad country, and got best prices he could while in Cincinnati, before coming south, and we had no trouble to book his order for entire planing mill outfit, including engine and boiler, which we will soon locate at Stegall's station. By the way, that place is on a boom. I am told that the mineral interest there is exceptionally The reporter thanked Mr. Perkins for the information and wished him continued suc and took his leave with a more exalted opinion of Atlanta's fine facilities.

The Great Anti-Malarial Luxury, the Hygeia The world moves, and moves fast, too. Generally speaking, huxuries are not the panagess of the ills of life, but nature, with the work of man, has produced a real luxury, and that luxury is a sure cure of malaria. The article about which we write is the now famous Hygeia to tacco, manufactured by Thomas C. Williams & Co., Richmond, Virginia. A CONSTITUTION representative met Mr. W. E. Lundy, general southern and western agent of this great house, yesterday, and asked the history and saccess of this medicated to hacco.

"The 'Hygeia' tobacco," said Mr. Lundy, "when introduced to the public, was taken by many as a novely, and without any great faith in the permanency of the demand for it. We are pleased to state that, almost without expition, the first bu excit have become regulars customers, and they unite in praises of its excellence as a chew and of its selling qualities. The demand for it continues to increase, and on sales of it have largely exceeded our expectation." The world moves, and moves fast, too. Gen

"How were you led into the preparation of the "Haw were you led into the preparation of the Hygeis?"

"Having been besought by the consumers of tobacco, in the malarial districts, who could not use it as usually manufactured without unpleasant sensations, such as nervousness, heartburn, indigestion, etc., we employed a distinguished chemist to prepare for us a formula to be used in the preparation of a tobacco that all could chew without these unpleasant effects, and, if possible, also, that would counteract the effects of the climate. After months of laboratory work and exhausting various formulas in practical tests at our factory. Dr. Mallet, of the university of Virginia, reached a formula which accomplishes the results aimed at."

"I presume you use the best material that can be found in its manufacture."

"Yes,' the Hygeia is made of the finest selected leaf, and the addition of its medicinal properties does not in the least impair its excellence as a chew. This tobacco has been on the market but a short time, yet wherever tried we have the highest commendations of its superiority as a chew, and duplicate orders are being daily received from dealers, who have had it on their shelves for only two or three weeks."

The Constitution representative, who has ruined many a nine, sampled this Hygeia and found it a

THE CONSTITUTION representative, who has ruing my a plug, sampled this Hygeia, and found it I article. Go thou and do likewise. Silver Ore Discovered. RALEIGH, N. C., March 10.—[Special.]—It is claimed that valuable silver one has been discovered on the lands of Riley Williams, New Mills Springs, Polk county. LARGE FIRE IN LOUISVILLE.

A Six-Story Building Destroyed-Losses and Insurance.

LOUISVILLE, March 10 .- A destructive fire broke out at 1:30 o'clock this morning in a five and six-story building occupied by Stanton & Co., stove manufacturers, on Portland avenue. The fire was discovered in the third story, which was used as a polishing department, where fire mantels and gratings were stored. From the third floor the flames spread all over the building and burned their way to two floors above, used for storage purposes. The roof succumbed first and fell. Soon the flames sprang through the roof all along the front of the building and the three upper stories were gutted. Efforts of the firemen soon got the fire under control, but not until the front part of the building had been gutted and all materials stored therein badly damaged or destroyed. Total loss, $65,000, two-thirds of which is thought to be covered by insurance. The fire was discovered in the third story,

THE EDITORS WITHDRAW.

The Birmingham Herald Undergoes thange.

Birmingham, Ala., March 10.—[Special.]—

Birmingham, Ala., March 10.—[Special.]—Rufus N. Rhodes, one of the organization bas been editor-in-chief, will resign tomorrow. He states in his resignation that W. P. Pinchard has obtained a majority of stock of the company, and as there are irreconcilible differences between them, he resigns. Rhodes is resognized as one of the leading spirits of the paper, is a large stockholder and vice-president of the company, and his resignation will create great surprise. He will start an evening paper in a few days, being assisted by several members of the Herald force, who withdraw with him.

To Have Eggs in Winter.-The hens must have samething more than corn or any other kind of grain; grain alone in winter will not meet all the re-quirements for the production of eggs. Many sup-pose this enough, but in summer hens eat grass and a great many insects. When hens are fed all the grain they can eat they often get too fat, and will not lay on this account. The supply of the summer must be made up as far as possible in winter. Any kind of unsalted meat is good, and it should be placed where they can pick at it; in fact, we think come kind of meat is possible in such as the sum of ome kind of meat is necessary, and also lime in some form. A variety of fruit is healthful, and tends to stimulate the hens toward the production of eggs. Oyster shells are the best form of lime, and we pre-fer to char them in the stove so that they will crack prendity and finely. Coal shes are excellent to dust themselves in, and the charred bits will be eaten with avidity. Coal ashes will do very well as a substitute for oyster shells, but are not so good. Green food of some sort is necessary, and may be given in the form of apples, cabbage or beets, chopped up. We save and chop up all of the cabbage stems and poor cabbages. Water every day and

When to Bathe. - A is best to bathe just before go ing to bed, as any danger of catching cold is thu avoided and the complex fon is improved by keeping warm for several hours after leaving the bath. A couple of pounds of bran put into a thin bag and then in the bathtub is excellent for softening the skin. It should be left to soak in a small quantity of water several hours before being used.

From the Sylvania Ga., Telephone.

One day last week Dr. G. L. Mills, Messrs. Charlie Haddon, Robert Brannen and William Lee went on a deer hunt in the Savannah river swamp, on the plantation of Mr. Hall Haddon, and killed two fine bucks and a yong doe. Dr. Mills killed the old ones, and the whole party took a hand in killing the small one. One of the bucks killed had only one hind leg, the other being gone from the thigh down. It is supposed that it had been shot off by some hunter a long while before, as it had healed up and appeared to have been lost some time. The party w ni on a hunt the day previous and jumped six, but killed none. The high water in the river had run the deer out to the high ground in the swamp. From the Sylvania Ga., Telephone.

Rockdale county's boom has actuated her grand jury to recommend that the Conyers papers be paid five dollars each for publishing presentments that would have amounted to twenty dollars each, had living advertising rates been paid. "Boom! boom!!" Hand us the camphor, Robert, ere we faint.

AMUSEMENTS. OPERA HOUSE!

A Liberal Grand Jury. From the Covington, Ga., Enterprise.

One Week, Commencing MATINEES
MONDAY, MARCH 12. Wednesday & Saturday Engagement of the Favorite Actress,

LOTTIE CHURCH Supported by Walter Fletcher and a strong cast, in a series of Comedies and Dramas, beginning Monday night by the latest Whirlwind of Comedy, the Laughing Sensation of the Age,

PA-PE-TO! Followed Tuesday night by the popular play, UNKNOWNI

By John A. Stevens Change of programme every night.

People's Popular Prices: 25c, 35c, 50c. Reserved seats at Miller's.

Thursday, March 22d, MR. JOSEPH JEFFERSON

WILL APPEAR IN RIP VAN WINKLE

The sale of seats begins Thursday morning, March Prices, $1.50, $1.00 and 50 meh11 12 13 14 15 18 20 21

Hammond, Ga., September 15, 1887.
Canadian Catarth Cure Co.:
Gentlemen—My wife was a great sufferer with Catarth for over two years. She has been a little iroubled eyer since she was a child with the disease. About two years ago we were in Mississippi, and while there she was taken down with catarthal fever; we had three of the beat physicians we could get. They broke the fever and left her the worst case of catarth of the head I ever saw. Her nose ran profusely, and for a year I despaired of her ever getting well. I tried several doctors and they could not cure her, and used every catarth remedy I could hear of. I spent over $50 the past year for ramedies, and all to no effect. At last it became so offensive that you could hardly remain where she was. I offered $1,000 to any doctor who would cure her land that would have left us homeless), but I would not bave cared for that if she could only be cured. We saw an advertisement in the Atlants Constitution of "Canadian Catarth Cure," and thought we would try it, and went to your office, when you gave my wife a small sample bottle of your remedy, and told us to come and get a large bottle when that was out. I bought the large bottle, and before she had used all of the bottle she was entirely well, and her health fully reshered, and now does more work than any woman I know. She used the medicine over six months ago, and there has not been the slightest return or the disease. I hope everybody that has catarrh may find you and be ctred. I am a traveling man and have told a great many of your wenderful cure. Your strily, Dr. J. W. Oslin & Son, druggists, of Gainesville, Ga., on September 16, 1887, writes: "Send by ex-press one dozen Catarrh Cure. Two bottles cured a case of fifty years standing.

We have hundreds of testimonials like the above Send for our book of information.
Large size bottles, $1; small, 50c.
If your druggist does not keep it send direct $2
CANADIAN CATABBH CUBE CO., M. E. Hunter Sirect,

ATLANTA, GA.

57 If you will call at office we will size you no bottle

BOYAL BARING POWDER.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary that, and ratinote sold in dempetition with the multitude of low test short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in caust Royal Baking Powder Co., 108 Wall St., New York.

At Wholesale by Wyly & Greene, Atlanta, Georgia.

SECOND QUARTER, 1888,

NOW READY

The society has received a vast number of com-mendations, from all sections of the country, of its Sunday-sehool Papers and Lesson Heigs. The best commendation is the fact that the schools called for an aggregate of TWENTY-SEVEN MILLIONS of copies of these publications in the course of the last year.

This success stimulates us to do our utnest to provide the very best series of graded Helps that can be made, in the confident assurance that the Baptists of our whole country will still give them the prefer

THIRTEEN GRADED HELPS.

PRIMARY GRADE. PICTURE LESSONS,—Beautifully printed in colors. Published quarterly. No subscriptious taken for less than five copies, and are furnished only in packages of five sets—as 5, 10, 15, etc. TREMS.—Five sets for one quarter, 15 cents for 60 cents for one

OUR LITTLE ONES. — Published weekly.
TERMS:—Single copy, 10 cents per year. Fourcopies and upwards to one address, 25 cents per copy.

PRIMARY QUARTERLY.—TERMS:—Single copy, 5 cents. In packages of five and upwards, 21/2 cents per copy for one quarter, or 10 cents per year.

INTERMEDIATE GRADE. INTERMEDIATE QUARTERLY.-TERME Single copy, 5 cents. In packages of five and ap-wards, 21/2 cents per copy, for one quarter, or 10 semi-monthly. TERMS:—Single copy, semi-month-ly, 50 cents per year. Five copies or more to one address, monthly, 10 cents per copy for one year. Semi-monthly, 20 cents per copy for one year.

ADVANCED GRADE. ADVANCED QUARTERLY, TERMS.—Sin-gle copy, 5 cents. In packages of five and upwards 5 cents per copy for one quarter, or 12 cents per year. BIBLE LESSONS.—TERMS.—100 copies for one month, 50 cents; for three months, $1.50; for sime months, $3.00; for one year, $6.00.

THE YOUNG REAPER.—Published monthly, and semi-monthly. TERMS:—Single copy, semi-monthly, 50 cents per year. Five copies or more to one address, monthly, 10 cents per copy for one year. Semi-monthly, 20 cents per copy for one year

SENIOR QUARTERLY. — TERMS: — Single copy, 7 cents. In packages of five and upwards, 5 cents per copy for one quarter, or 24 cents per year, OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.—Published monthly.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.—Housed menings TERMS.—Single copy, 50 cents year. In clubs of four and upwards, 25 cents per copy for one year. THE WORKER.—For Adult Class and the Family.—Monthly. In packages of ten jand up-wards, to one address, 6 cents each per year. Sin-gle copies, 15 cents. The cheapest paper pub-lished. TEACHERS. BAPTIST TEACHER.—A monthly journal for Sunday-school workers. TERMS:—Single copy for one year 75 cents. Fire or more copies to one ad-dress, 50 cents each per year. The Teacher contains fully one-fifth more reading matter, exclusive of advertisements, than any simi-lar denominational publication.

SUPERINTENDENTS bi-monthly journal, designed exclusively for super-intendents. TERMS:—25 cents per year. No aub-

American Baptist Publication Society,

EXIT Paper Cigarettes Cigarros.

Absolutely pure, hand-made and all tobacco of choicest quality. For sale everywhere. Five in a package for 5 cents. Try them. J. STEINHEIMER & CO., Wholesale Agents, Atfanta. Ga.

The Gallantry of Georgia's Congressional Delegation.

The A. T. O. Meeting-Got a Move on Them A Thief Arrested, Etc.

MACON, Ga., March 10 .- [Special.]-Much comment has been made here on the woful mistake made by the Washington correspondent of the Macon Telegraph, in the recent letter, wherein he stated that only five members of the Georgia delegation in congress were confederate soldiers. The well informed correspondent assumes to give the names of these gallant officers. They were Congressmen Crisp, Barnes, Candler, Stewart and Grimes. These "sought the bubble reputation at Troupartillery; Lieutenant-Colonel Blount, who has never yet surrendered; Captain Norwood, who organized and commanded more than one fine company? Captain Turner was also in the army, and won much renown. The truth is, every Georgia congressman was a con-federate soldier. Carlton was notably conspicuous for his reckless courage, and with two pieces of artillery, unsupported by infantry, fought a desperate battle with a division of lought a desperate battle with a division of federal infantry at Fredericksburg, when Lee was fighting at Chancellorsville. This battery fired the first gun in the great artillery duel that opened the fatal day at Fredericksburg.

MACON, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—On Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. E. Winship, the Alpha Tan Omega Social club held a most delightful meeting. Mrs. Winship's hospitable parlors were thrown open to the young people, and although very commodious, they were filled before 9 o'clock. Every one seemed to have come for the purpose of enjoying themselves, and this they proceeded to do to the fullest extent until a few minutes before 10. At this time, Mr. Turell, the president, called the club to order, and announced a declama ion by Mr. Rcb Hesier. Mr. Hester's selection was an extract from Virginius, and he delivered it in a most entertaining manner. The president then announced The A. T. O. Meeting. Hoster's selection was an extract from Virginius, and he delivered it in a most entertaining manner. The president then announced "Wolsey's Solid pquy," by Mr. S. G. Born, wo fully sustained his repulation as a graceful and eloquent speaker. "Hagar in the Wilderness" was then most charmingly rendered by Miss Hattie Clair Mulally. The president then announced the name of Miss Ida Mangham, who, in her usual graceful and interesting manner. recited "Putting the Little Ones Happy to Bed," during which she held the undivided attention of all present. Conversation was then engaged in until a late hour, when the couples reluctantly dispersed, expessing to Mr. Winship their intense enjoyment of the evening. Thus the A. T. O. scored another grand success, and the occasion will be long remembered with pleasure by those present. The following were in attendance: Miss Lama Cook with D. T. Crosland: Miss Minnie More with J. D. Klipatrick; Miss Lilly Willis with J. W. Overstreet; Miss Ruby Jones with C. W. Steed; Miss Kate Martin with Robert Hester; Miss Hattie Clare Mulally with J. Carrol Carrol; Miss Idah Mangham with Howard Bun; Miss Sadie Orman with E. M. Fort; Miss Ella McAndrew with H. L. Jones; Miss Lizzie Lauton with A. D. Williams; Miss Enma Wise with J. Randall Terrell; Miss Charlie Conner with J. C. Curd; Miss Amebelle Tenville with M. G. Odger; Miss Courtny Chestney with Sydney Mays; Miss Bessie Walker with G. P. Kilpatrick; Miss Mary Ar ope with F. D. Freeman; Miss Mary Patterson with M. D. Jones. Stags: Messrs. Willie Martin, Charlie Martin, Blarton Winship, S. S. Bennett, C. Whitehurst, S. A. Roddenburg, Emory Winship.

A Thief Arrested—Is He a Fire Bug?

Macon, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—This morning about 90 clock Officer Hutchings arrested a negro named Jim Mitchell on suspicton—Jan had two cowhides in his possesston and acted ra if he desired to be heard and not to be seen with thera. He attempted to sell them to Messrs. Bernd & Co., harness makers; but to the question put to him as to their ownership, he appeared confused, first stating that they were his, but being pushed too closely, said that he was selling them for a friend. under the circumstances they were not pur-

Under the circumstances they were not purchased of him, and his conduct on the streets made the vigilant officer doubt whether they were lost, strayed or stolen, but concluding that they were stolen, he proceeded to haul Jim up to the barracks.

The readers of The Constitution will remember that on last Thursday evening.

ning two butcher pens that are located in the swamps were entirely burnt. The origin of the fire has been looked into, but nothing definite has been found out. And so connecting this with the two hides, it naturally appears that the fire was of incendiary origin, and the hides were no doubt stolen by the person or persons connected with the burning. The circumstances strongly point this way.

In Justice Freeman's Court.

Macon, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—The audience at Justice Freeman's court was larger than it has been in some time. Most of the cases were peace warrants; others were of the every-day description.

Sam Price vs. Bryant Woods; peace warrant. Dismissed.

Lizzie Cummings vs. Charlie Cummings; peace warrant. Charles was placed under a $100 bond to behave himself.

Fannie Jackson vs. Mary James; peace warrant. Fixed Mary up in the same way.

State vs. Mary James, charged with adultery and fornication. Held under a $100 bond to appear before the next term of the city court. Several other cases of minor importance were tried, but most of them were dismissed.

Got a Move on Them.

Got a Move on Them.

Macon, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—The congregation of Mulberry street church has been on the move this week. On Wednesday night they had a regular old handshaking at the church, and as it was so successful, they decided to continue it, but at different places, so each evening since then they have been held at different places in the city. On Wednesday and Thursday night the chapel of Wesleyan Female college was well filled, and on the noxt evening a large number of them met at the college corner and went out to the church in Vineville, a distance of two miles. It is very probable that the church will be kept on wheels all next week.

A Card Party in Vineville.

Macon, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Last evening Mr. Star Rogers entertained a large number of his friends with a card party at the residence of his father in Vineville. A large number of games were played, and the even-ing was very much enjoyed by all.

Ang was very much enjoyed by all.

Personal Paragraphs from Macon.

Macon, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Colonel
E. C. Machen has returned from an extensive visit up the Macon and Covington railroad.

Mr. W. H. Archer, represening the Hartford Life
Insurance company. is stopping at the Hotel Lanier, and will be in the city several weeks.

Mr. W. E. Klichens, of Richmond, Va., is at the Hotel Lanier for a few days.

Mr. Charles Walker and lady, of Philadelphia, are at the Hotel Lanier.

Mrs. W. T. C. Fellows, after a pleasant visit to her parents in Augusta. has returned home.

Miss Nipsy Clay is expected home in a few days, returning from Missispip and Tennessee, where she has been on a delightful visit.

Major J. F. Hanson has returned from his northern visit.

Mr. H. S. Edwards has gone to Sparle in recovery

anta.

Messrs. J. Bayard Backus, C. H. Stone, also Mrs.
L. S. Gould, of New York, returned last evening from a delightful trip up the Covington and Macon

Mr. John D. Tard, of Bermuda Park, is in the city Lieutenant W. A. Wylle has returned from a short rist to Atlanta. While there he was highly enter-ained by the boys. Mr. C. S. O'Gorman is expected home this even-ng. He has been in New York buying his spring dock of dry goods.

Six Thousand Pieces.

From the Canton, Ga., Advance.

Mrs. W. H. Dean has just completed a pretty bed-quilt, which contains six thousand pieces and consists of two colors only, white and red.

A SUIT FOR SLANDER. A Verdict Found for One Dollar and

CLARKSYILLE. Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—
The superior court, which is being held here, has passed off, so far, without much business of interest, with the exception of one case which has caused no little excitement. Special interest has been manifested by the friends of each party. This is the case of T. H. Martin vs. W. D. Young, for slander and damages.

In the fall of 1885, while Mr. and Mrs. Young were away from their home, at Tallulah Falls, by some means their hotel, what was known as the famous Young house, was laid in ashes. On their return Mrs. Young, seeing the ruins, publicly remarked that she believed, for several reasons, that Martin was the one who committed the deed. Martin becoming indignant, instituted a suit claiming $5,000.

On last Wednesday the trial commenced and was pressed vigorously until Friday evening at eight o'clock, when Judge Weilborn commenced his charge to the jury. At nine o'clock the jury retired to their room, and at 12:30 this morning brought in their verdict: "We, the jury, find for the plaintiff $1 with cost of suit." The plaintiff was represented by Colonel Claud Estes, of Macon; W. T. Crane, of Clarksville; Geo. D. Thomas, of Athens; W. S. Erwin, of Clarksville, and W. S. Paris, of Clayton. Defendant was represented by Colonel J. B. Estes, of Gainesville; C. H. Sutton, of Clarksville, B. Jones, of Clarksville, and H. S. West, of Clarksville.

TWO FUGITIVES CHASED. One of Them Caught, and the Other

NEWNAN, [Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—This morning Conductor Croft, on the Griffin and North Alabama railroad, telegraphed Marshal Robinson from Senoia, that he passed a couple of escaped convicts about three miles southeast of Newnan. The marshal, accompanied by J. J. Keith, armed and mounted, went in pursuit of the fugitives. Near the water tank, a few miles below town they discovered them in suit of the figitives. Near the water tank, a few miles below town, they discovered them in a negro's house, but they broke and ran through the woods, followed by the marshal and his aid. One of them had a breech loading shot gun, filled with cartridges, which he threw down. When hotly chased they pulled their pistols on him and while Robinson kept him under fire, Keith secured him. While doing so the other field through the thicket, and made his escape. They brought their prisoner to town, and put him in jail, and spent the rest of the day in the rain hunting the other without avail. The captured negro says he belongs to the gang that escaped from near Carrollton, last. Tuesday off the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus railroad.

Excited. COLUMBUS, Ga., March 10 .- [Special.] - For Columbus, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—For some time past negroes in the neighborhood have been considerably excited over the sudden disappearance of the wife of Anthony Graham. The general impression was that she had been murdered by her husband, butlathorough search was made and the body could not be found. The husband also disappeared from the community and it was thought that he had fied to avoid punishment. The negroes who came in from Marvyn today, brought the report that the missing woman had been heard from in Tallapoosa county, where he went to visit relatives. It is thought by some that this report was circulated by the friends of Anthony, in order to stop the search for the body and to quiet the suspicions against for the body and to quiet the suspicions against him until he could get out of the reach of the law.

They Were All Captured.

They Were All Captured.

Buchanan, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Six negro convicts got away from the guard at work near Captain Hammond's camp, four miles north of Buchanan, Tuesday. Just before dark they were returning from work, and the guard getting too close to them, they turned suddenly, caught and choked him, took his gun and left, and were able to clude dogs and men until Tuesday night, when Mr. W. W. Williams, a farmer, saw them and reported the fact to Captain Stancil, when the dogs were put on the track and all of them captured.

The News From Decatur County. Bainbridge, Ga., March 18.—[Special.]—
The Musical League is a now institution organized here in social circles. Mrs. John E. Donalson, Mrs. W. M. Blount and Miss Cen-Donalson, Mrs. W. M. Blount and Miss Cen-illa Bower, all accomplished musicians, are in the lead of it.

The Presbyterians are getting up a Jarley wax work show for next Friday night.

An excursion of rich northern people will be over here next week to look at our town, with a view to making investments in real estate.

Last week there were shipped from this place, mostly to Jacksonville, over 3,000 dozen eggs.

The Specific Tax Ordinance.

ATHENS, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—The specific tax ordinance, which has caused so much excitement here for the last few days, has been revised, and appears in full in the Banner-Watchman tomorrow morning. All objectionable parts have been remedied and the amount cut down considerably. It is thought now that the ordinance will pass the council without any great opposition from the citizens. The tax is to take effect on the 1st of April next.

of April next. GREENESBORO, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Mr. Charles A. Davis, of Atlanta, is erecting for himself a magnificent residence on Main street, which he will occupy at an early date. Mr. Padgett, of Griffin, is the contractor, and is doing himself credit as usual. The citizens of Greenesborolare proud to haye Mr. Davis with them again, as he is a thorough business man; and his marked success is largely due to his untiring energy.

ARATHENS Family Reunion.

ATHENS, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Today the Cobb, Rutherford and Lipscomb families held a reunion at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, on Milledge avenue. Mrs. Glenn, of New York; Mrs. Whitner and Mrs. Johnson, sisters of Prof. Rutherford, were present, as also many other connections of the family. The reunion brings to our city representatives of three generations. The reception this afternoon at Mrs. Lipscomb's was most elegant and enjoyable.

Hon. R. A. Denny Announced Rome, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Hon. R. A. Denny is announced for solicitor-general of the Rome circuit. Mr. Denny was an efficient member of the last legislature, and introduced a number of important measures, notably the "Denny school law." He is a lawyer of fine ability, has many warm friends throughout the state, and will receive an enthuslastic support.

A New Jail For Early County.

BLAKELY, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—A committee appointed some time since to report upon the advisability of remodeling or rebuilding our county jail, submitted their report at the last session of the county commissioners. They recommend that the legislature be asked to authorize the issue of $5,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a new jail. Politics in Houston

FORT VALLEY, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Politics is still quiet here. Candidates for county offices will be many. They are whispering and button-holing friends, but as yet not ve.y outspoken. I learn that three candidates will be in the race for solicitor-general of the Macon district, to-wit: W. H. Fulton, of Bibb, and W. C. Winslow and H. A. Mathews, of this county.

A Fine Teacher.

GREENSBORO, IGA., March 10.—[Special.]—
Although Greenesboro is badly in need of a sclool building, she can boast of one of the most thorough teachers in middle Georgia in the person of Prof. W. E. Reynolds, who has a select school here at this time. But from the efforts being made ere long she will have a company of the company of efforts being made ere long she will have a d'ositively the best remedy ever discovered for all diseases of man and beast that can be reached by an external medical application is Rangum Root Liniment. One trial will convince. Rangum Root Med. Co., Nashville, Tenn. 50 cents per bottle. At wholesale by A. G. Candler & Co., Atlanta, Ga., and D. W. Curry, Rome, Ga. Retail at Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga.

RWEGLAR'S ABROAD. The Second Burglar Caught in Austell-An Atlanta Darky.

Austrill, Ga., March 10.-[Special.]-The AUSTELL, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—The second burglar for the present month now languishes in the guardhouse of our little city. About the time the cracksman made his unsuccessful drill on Perkinson, Moore & Co's. safe, a burglar broke the locks and entered the house of Henry Edge, colored, and stole a number of articles, such as dresses, pictures, etc. The matter was kept quiet and our vigilant town marshal, S. D. Hirst, has been constantly on the watch for the light fingered gent. This morning it was learned that a suspicious darky was concealed in a car by his fellows of color on the work train of the East Tonnessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad working here. The marshal at once set out to capture him. The darky fled from the train and made a break for the nearest wood, the marshal in pursuit. Seeing his man was gaining ground, he fired several shots at the swift-footed fugitive, which caused everyone to come from their fired several shots at the swift-footed fugitive, which caused everyone to come from their houses to ascertain the cause of the shooting. The darky, in his wild effort to escape, ran into the yard of Marshal Hurst, and to his surprise met Mrs. Hurst, who ordered him to surrender or sure death was his. He did so, and Mrs. Hurst held her prisoner until her betterhalf came and took him in charge. He gives his name as Charlie Ford alias John Patterson, and says he has been in and around Atlanta five or six years. He is a dark ginger cake color, 18 or 20 years old, weighs 145 or 150 pounds, 5 feet 4 to 6 inches high. Some of the stolen property was found on his person. He also had two cases full or nearly full of eigarettes and says he bought them on Decatur street yesterday. He says he lives at 155 Hilliard street, Atlanta.

THE CANDIDATES IN CAMPBELL.

THE CANDIDATES IN CAMPBELL. Dr. H. L. Johnson Likely to be in the Race for the Legislature.

FAIRBURN, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—We are informed that there is a strong probability of Dr. H. L. Johnson, of Palmetto, entering the race for the legislature from this county.
Dr. Johnson is one of the most enterprising and thorough going business men in Palmetto, and is very popular wherever known. Whenever the doctor undertakes to accomplish a thing, he throws his whole soul into the work, and never gives up while there is hope, and if he does enter the field he will, without doubt, make it exceedingly lively for the opposition, if he does not get the "persimmon."

we also learn that there is a strong probability of Mr. J. N. Robinson, a prominent farmer of Goode's district, entering the race.
So it is very evident that Campbell will not be "short" on candidates for legislative honors by the time the election comes off.

Savannah Man Makes Two Efforts to

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Alcoholic hallucination induced Joe Heany, a young white man, to cut his throat this morning with a razor. He may recover, but his condition is critical. Last week he attempted self-destruction with laudanum, but ipeca disappointed the effort. He gashed himself terribly with two strokes. One partly severed the windpipe, the other severed two branches of the external carotid artery, the jugular vein being exposed by the wound. One wound was four inches and the other one inch in length. Dr. R. Norton attended the unfortunate man. He caught up the windpipe and arteries with catgut sutures, and sewed up the severed skin, and the doctor says he will recover. Heany has been drinking a good deal, and was suffering with alcoholic hallucination. Leave the World.

He is Found Guilty and Promptly Sentenced to Hang.

Rome, Ga., March 10. —[Special.]—The Pope case at Summerville went to the jury on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock The first ballot showed the jury divided even on conviction and acquittal, which caused apprehension of a mistrial, and a threat of lynching. The jury this morning at 9 o'clock rendered a verdict of guilty. Judge Maddox sentenced Pope to hang on Tuesday, May 8th. Poke protested his innocense to the last and some few people believe him, but the verdict satisfies a large majority.

A Mixed Case. A Mixed Case.

ADAIRSVILLE, Ge., March 10.—[Special.]— Mrs. C. W. Crow was acquitted of the murder of Mr. Roe yesterday, although he has not been accounted for. All the evidence was circumstantial. One witness swore that Mrs. Crow proposed to him if he would marry her daughter, that she would kill old man Roe, and then they would run things to suit themselves. Mrs.
Crow says now the letters signed by Sam
Brown and Mr. Roe's sister, were forceties to Brown and Mr. Roe's sister, were forgeries to hide old man Roe out, as he was wanted by revenue men for handling bad whisky. Our people are not satisfied, but our judge could not do otherwise, and no blame is attached to him. The body of Roe was not found, but it is still thought to be buried in the neighborhood. It is a mystery that will be followed to the light, and justice will be done.

The Irish Representatives.

The Irish Representatives.

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 10—[Special.]—Tonight Hon. Henry R. Jackson is dining Sir Thomas Esmonde. This afternoon the guests of the Irish national league were driven to Bonaventure. No programme has been arranged for tomorrow, the Sabbath, and each visitor will exercise his own choice in his religious exercises. Mobile and New Orleans are the next objective points of Sir Thomas Esmonde and Secretary Sutton. Monday evening Mr. Robinson will probably return to New York on the Nacoochee. Monday morning the other guests will leave for Mobile.

The Governme of Savannah.

The Germans of Savannah. The Germans of Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., March 10.—[Special]—At a meeting of the Germans of Savannah, Ga., held this evening at the office of the German consulate, the following cablegram was prepared and forwarded to Empress Augusta:

"The Germans of Savannah, Ga., assembled at the imperial consulate, beg to convey to your majesty the expression of their deepest sympathies."

Money for the Exposition. COLUMBUS, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—Columbus held an election today and voted an appropriation of $10,000 for the exposition to be held next fall. Only twelve dissenting votes were polled in the entire city.

Burglars in Greene.

GREENESBORO, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—
Last night the town was infested with a burglar or burglars. Mr. W. G. King retired early, hanging his clothes on a chair near his bed. This morning he awoke and his clothes were gone.

FORT VALLEY, Ga., March 10.—Our people are moving for a new schoolhouse, and a savings bank. The Mirror suggests a big barbecue when the Atlanta and Florida railroad is completed. We will feel nearer to Atlanta when the iron is all down.

In the Eighth District. BAINBRIDGE, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]—
This is the 5th senatorial district, and not the 9th. Miller county claims the senator this time under the rotation plan. At this writing John S. Clifton and C. C. Bush are in the field for the nomination.

A Beauty, Indeed.

The LeConte pear trees, with their bright green foliage and wealth of blooms, present a beautiful appearance. Tall, symmetrical and graceful in outline, they attract very general

Odd Paragraphs.

From the Irwinton, Ga., Southerner.

We would like to remind our subscribers who owe us that we have to go to bed while our whie patches our pants. Will you please take heed therefrom and smile on us when you come to town? From the Dalton, Ga., Citizen.

"A too rum hos for rent" are the mysterious words which appear on a sheet of paper tacked to a Dalton fence-pest. Blunders in orthography are bound to occur as long as newspapers are avoided and fence-posts, trees, etc., chosen as advertising mediums.

mediums.

From the Griffin, Ga., Sun.

We return thanks to one of our lady friends for a large stick of red-striped candy, which we enjoyed sucking very much. The only trouble with the candy, however, was owing to the fact that the grocery clerk wrapped it in a piece of printed paper and we were forced to chew up half a column of patent medicine advertisements before we could get to the candy. But we are grateful all the same.

THE STONE BOUQUET. Continued from Ninth Page,

but it was a laugh that told me I was unsafe, there was so wild a ring in it.

For days I watched the house of my father-in-law and paid others to watch picking my spies up from the street and rewarding them handsomely for any scraps of news they gave handsomely for any soraps of news they gave me, and they were not scraps which contained any news of her. She was away—or she was ill. A doctor's carriage at the door one morning set all my plots and plans flying to the ing set all my plots and plans rying to the winds. I rushed into the house, announced myself, strode past the servant into the drawing-room and when he had followed me would have caught him by the throat and squeezed the information from him had he not backed to the door in his alarm.

"Who is ill—is it Mrs, Haviland?—why don't you tell me? Don't you know who I am?"

am?"
"It is—Mr. Haviland—is it not?" gasped forth the old servant.
"Yes—yes—who is ill, I ask?"
"My master, sir."
"That's well. I am glad of that,"I said, to the man's further amazement. "She is safe, then. Mrs. Haviland is well, I mean? Quite well?"

"I—I don't know, sir."
"Where is she?"
"I say not say Mr. Haviland really. She "I can not say, Mr. Haviland, really. She is not staying here now."

I did not answer. Half stunned as I was by the information, I had expected it. I sat own.
"When the doctor has gone, tell Sir Wil-iam I shall be glad to see him for a few "Yes, sir."

But when the doctor had departed, when he But when the doctor had departed, when he was descending the steps to the carriage, and the footman was holding the open door and looking after him, I stole from the drawing-room and went with swift steps upstairs. The house was familiar to me, and I knew my father-in-law's room. In another instant I had father-in-law's room. In another instant I had entered unceremoniously and was standing by the sick man's bedside. Sir William stared at me as at an apparition. He was twenty years older than when I left him.

"Great heaven, Haviland! Is it you?" he cried; "what has happened? What is it?" He was very old and feeble, but I did not spare him. I had grown merciless.

"You can guess," I said.
"Cicely! My God—not Cicely. She—"
He stopped and waited for me to explain. And I was baffled,
"I have come to you to know what has hap-

"I have come to you to know what has happened, Sir William," I said; "it is I who should hear the news."

"Yes-but-"
"Where is my wife?"
"At her own home-your home-for what I know to the contrary. Haviland, have you not heard I have been seriously ill-that I am only just recovering? How strange you "Did she leave you because of your illness?"

I asked bitterly. He looked at me now in grave perplexity of mind. Did he see I was not as sane as when I had bidden him good-bye?
"Where is my wife?" I repeated, "why does she keep away from me?"
"She left here for the country a few weeks ago_''

"You said she was in her own home!" I shouted now.
"She will return tonight to it. That is, I understand she will."
"You do not know for certain?"
"Not for certain, Uiric. How should I know anything lying here? How inconsiderate you

"Yes, I am. Forgive me," I replied. "You are a sick old man and I have forgotten that In what part of the country is she?

"Folkestone. That is handy for France, Sir William."
"What do you mean?"

"What do you mean?"
"Is she going on the Continent?"
"I believe not. I do not even know for certain that she is in Folkestone."
"You do not correspond?"
"N—no, Ulric. Not just at present."
"Has she written to you?"

"Has she written to you?"
"No."
"No."
"Not since she has left this house?"
"Ulrio," pleaded the old man, "I am not strong enough to talk to you—to answer all your questions. Cicely and I have not agreed very well together of late—we have had a few words—not many," was the simple correction proffered here; "don't think, Ulric, it was anything like a quarrel between us. God forbid that. But she was unhappy here; she had grown use to a home of her own, to friends of her own, she said, since her marriage. She has outgrown my ways a little, that is all. And she thought it would be better—and that we should clash less—if she returned to her own establishment."

I could have shrieked to him a thousand establishment."

I could have shricked to him a thousand questions now, but I would not put one more to him. I had become full of a most merciful consideration for this father lying here sick I saw he was in trouble.
"I will find Cicely," I said, calmly, day or two, at any rate. Good-bye, Sir William, and better health to you."

CHAPTER V.

It was night when I went to my own home.

The servant who admitted me was the man I and left in charge. It was his turn to be sur-had left in charge. It was his turn to be surprised.

"Mr. Haviland!" he exclaimed.

"Yes. I have come back."

He looked out into the wet street—I remember it was raining hard—for a cab heaped up with luggage, or some sign of a traveler's return, and then at me, standing there in evening dress. I passed him and went into my own house. I looked very desolate.

"When does your mistress come back from—Folkestone?" I inquired.

"We expect her back by a late train, sir," he replied: "she sont a telegram to the house-keeper this morning."

"I should be glad to surprise her, Robert," I said, with a pleasant, hearty laugh—not one of the new laughs which made people turn white to listen to me!—"this must be a secret between you and me, and the housekeeper, if you will. No one else."

"Does not mistress know that —" 'Does not mistress know that -" "Does not mistress know that — mistress know that — i'I am supposed to be in South America," I interrupted, "so this will be an agreeable surprise for her. I rely on your confidence. Don't forget. I shall reward you presently and—handsomely."

and somely."

The man chuckled at my little plan. He was a dull fellow, without a grain of intelligence. On that night I was a better actor than Danano.
"Where shall I go?" I said, half thoughtfully.

'Your own study will be best, sir," suggested the man. "Yes, capital." "Mistress never goes into it," he explained.
"I don't think the room has been opened for three months, sir. I had better light a fire."
"No. Bring me a lamp, and leave it as it is. And take no further thought of me under any circumstances. You understand?"
"Yes, sir; I understand."
I passed up stairs into my old study it was

"Yes, sir; I understand."

I passed up stairs into my old study, it was thick with dust. No one had thought of it or attended to it of late days. It was like a dead room. Well, I was dead to her, and not expected back any more. And the servants had neglected it in the mistress' absence, and—like the mistress. On the mantel piece was the stone bouquet. It was a fitting emblem after all. I tool: it up and poised it in my hand. How heavy it seemed to have grown, or had I become weaker? It was like an ugly iron ornament rusting away, and felt like iron to my touch. When the servant had brought the lamp I locked myself in. I would not be surprised.

prised.

Presently—two hours afterward, it might be —there was a knocking and a ringing at the outer door. I unlocked my study and listened.
There was voices talking in the hall down stairs—men voices.

"She has not reached home yet?" I heard some one inquire."

"She has not reached home yet?" I heard some one inquire.;
"No, sir, not yet."
I knew the voice, and I came out on the landing place and craned my face over the balusters to look at him. Had he glanced up a face grinning out of a coffin would have dismayed him less.
"I will wait."
"But—"
"No—I will write a note. Please see that madam has it immediately upon her arrival."
I heard money clink in the servant's palm as Monsieur Danano was shown into a little room on the right of the door. I went back to the study and waited very patiently. I could be very patient when I chose. "Everything comes to him who waits." The line runs in that fashion somewhat.

Presently I heard the street door close after

Monsieur Danano, and the servant stood in the hall as if he were thinking, and with his fingernails pressed to his lips. When he went away I stole down stairs into the room wherein Danano had been shown. It was a favorite little room of my wife's, looking on the square. The gas was burning there. On the desk in the corner was a sealed letter. I dashed at it, tore it open, and read amid many wild words of affection and fool's rhapsody these words of warning:

JAMES PYLE'S

PEARLINE

BEST COMPOUND

WASHING AND CLEANING

IN HARD OR SOFT, HOT OR COLD WATER Without Harm to FABRIC or HANDS.

SAVES TIME, LABOR and SOAP
SAVES TIME, LABOR and SOAP value to housekeepers. Sold by all Grocers, but bee that vile COUNTERFEITS are not urred upon you. PEARLINE is the ONLY SAFE RIICLE, and ALWAYS bears the name of

Also at the same time and place, the following

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to-wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 46.7-10 feet on Fort street, between Wheat and Houston Streets, and running back .00 feet, more or less; said lot known as No. — on said street, according to the street numbers. Levied on as the property of Mrs. J. C. Jenkins to satisfy a fi fa in favor of the city 36. Atlanta, against said Mrs. J. C. Jenkins and said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

said Mis. J. C. Jenkins and said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 100 feet on Decatur street, between Butler and Calboun streets, and running back 180 feet, more or less; said lot known as No.—on said street, c. Cording to the street numbers. Levied on as the property of B. F. Langley to satisfy a fig at 1 favor of the city of Atlanta, against said B. F. Langley and said property for the cost of curbing and raving the sidewalk in front of said property. Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to-wit. A certain city let in the city of Atlanta, fronting 50 5-10 feet on Fort street, between Wheat and Houston streets, and running back 20 feet, more or less, said lot known as No.—on said street, according to the street numbers; levied on as the property of J. L. logan, sr., agent, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. L. Logan, sr., agent, and said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to-wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 100 feet on Simpse a street, between Spring and Williams streets, and running back 56 9-10 feet, more or less, said lot known as No.—on said street, according to the street numbers; levied on as the property of J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, and said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 55 9-10 feet on Williams street, between Baker and Sumpson streets, and running back 100 feet, more or less, said lot known as No. — on said street, according to the street numbers; levied on as the property of J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fl. fa. in iavor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, and the said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewatk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 50 feet on Decatur street, between Howell and Bradley streets, and running back 100 feet, more or less, said lot known as No. — on said street, according to the street numbers; levied on as the property of Mrs. Jane Shea to satisfy aif, fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Mrs. Jane Shea, and said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to-wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 210 8-10 feet on Jackson street, between Houston and Elam streets, and running back 200 feet, said lot known as No.—on said street, according to the numbers. Levied on as the property of Mrs. Sarah Towns to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta against said Mrs. Sarah Towns and said property.

JAMES W. LOYD, City Marshal.

March 5-4t monday

CEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO THE SUPE-

BORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO THE SUPE-Crior court of said county: J. C. Kimball, W. A. Hemphill, C. W. Hunnicutt, W. B. Lowe, J. A. Fit-ten, O. C. Fuller, D. M. Bain, H. W. Grady, A. E. Buck, H. I. Kimball, S. H. Phelan, P. H. Snook, Joseph M. Brown, John M. Green, Martin Amerous, and Hoke Smith, of the city of Atlanta, and state of Georgia, petition for themselves, their associates and successors to obtain a charter and organize a corporation to be known as the corporation to be known as the

"ATLANTA AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATING CO."
The principal office, place of business and residence of said corporation shall be in the city of Atlanta, but your petitioners desire for said corporation the privilege of transacting business in all parts of the state of Georgia, wherever it may be to the best interests of said corporation so to do; also to establish branch offices and to appoint such agents, attorneys and representatives as may be necessary to carry on the business of said corporation, and to confer authority upon them for that purpose.

necessary on the conference of the conference of laws of the state; to borrow money on real estate of personal property, and to execute such mortgages or transfers thereof as may be necessary for that purpose; to have and to use a common seal; to sua and be sued; to plead and be impleaded; to contract and be contracted with, and to have such other powers, and do such other acts, as are usual and proper to carry out the intent and design of said or-ganization.

proper to carry out the intent and design of said deganization.

Petitioners pray to to incorporated for the full term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of said term.

HOKE & BURTON SMITH.

Petitioners' Attorneys.

Filed in office February 28, 1888.

C. H. STRONG, C. S. C.

A true and correctcopy, as appears of record in this office, this February 28, 1888.

C. H. STRONG, C. S. C.

18w—4wkf eb29 wed

HINDERCORNS.

The only sure Cure for Corns. Stops all pain. Frigures comfort to the feet. Ide. at Druggists. Hiscox&Co., N.Y. ARE CONSUMPTIVE

Have you Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Indigestion!
PARKER'S CISICER FONLO without dela invaluable for all affections of the Throat and Br ing Organs, Colds, Exhaustion, and all pains and disof the Stomach and Bowels. So. and St., at Drus of the Stomach and Sowels. So. and St., at Drus

JAMES PY E, New Yorks

fection and root's rhapson; the warning:

"You must hesitate no longer. I will come at 12 for you, my beloved. It is too late for further deliberation. We must fly. Your husband is in London, and dangerous."

Dangerous! How did he know that I was dangerous?

Dangerous! How did he know that I was dangerous?

I put the envelope in another envelope, sealed it and left it on the davenport whence I had picked it up. It might be as well to see the end of this, the very, very end. I went up to my study again, and sat there with the stone bouquet clutched in my hands, as if some meed of comfort, or of self-restraint, might come from its cold touch.

There came another knocking and ringing at the door. It was she. She had come home at last. God! I could hear her voice in the hall. I stole out on to the landing again. I had the stone bouquet still in my hand, and that was very strange. The servant was speaking to her, telling her of the last visitor who had called.

"Where is his letter?" I heard her ask. "Where is his letter?" I heard her ask.

Thisbeit or regenerator
Made Expressly for the Gure of derangements of the generative organs. A continuous stream of Eleariofty permeating throw's the parts must restore them to healthy action. Do not confound this with Electric feats advertised to cute all fills, it is for the one specific purpose. For full informapurpose. For full informa-"Where is his letter?" I heard her ask.
"In the morning-room, madam."
She passed in, and the servant lingered in the hall. Once he looked up the well-staircase, but did not see me watching. I had lowered the gas outside the study door, and was standing somewhat back, wondering myself what I was going to do next.

Her voice in the hall once more recalled me from my half standard.

from my half-stuper.
"Don't remove the boxes from the cab," she was saying hurriedly; "leave all as it is. Robert—tell the man to wait. I—I am called away purpose. For full informa-tion address Cheever Electric Belt Co., los Washin ron St., Chicago, Ill. uethu sat She was coming up stairs towards me.

the second stair she paused and to the the servant.

"I have written a letter—give it to Monsieur Danano when he returns. He will understand."

No—he will never understand in this world. neither will Cicely Haviland, nor her mad husband. It is all left for the next. As she purpose. For full linformation address Cheever Electric Belt Co., 103 Washin ron St., Chicago, Ill.

MARSHALES SALES. APRIL, 1888—CITY MARSHALES SALES. APRIL, 1888—CITY MARSHALES SALES. APRIL, 1888—CITY MARSHALES SALES. APRIL, 1889—CITY MARSHALES, 1890—CITY M husband. It is all left for the next. As she came up stairs, I sprang forward and struck at her from the darkness of my lair, and she fell back, with one little cry, a dead woman, on the marble pavement of the hall.

I had killed her with the stone bouquet.

They do not know at the asylum that I am writing this. They will see it presently, and it may amuse them—or it may hang me; it matters not which. I suppose I am mad now—very mad. But it was not Cicely's death that turned my brain, or wholly wrecked it. That seemed just enough till I read the letter she had left for Danano, and which I had thought was her instructions where to meet thought was her instructions where to meet him. It was that letter which drove me rayriudgment day.

"I will not see you. Have I been hiding from you all this while and for so poor a sequel? I go away again to escape you—to wait fearlessly for my husband and to confess the truth to him. To confess that I was a weak, vain woman, yes; one who loved you, yes; but guilty, never. And so God will forgive us both in his cost time, nephans, and as my husband. will. I will pray for it very hard. Farewell, Louis, and forever. I begin my now life—my better life—from this night."

She was right. Before the ink was hardly dry she had begun life anew.

THE FRUIT CROP.

THE FRUIT CROP.

The Recent Cold Spell Favorable To It—The Prospects Better Than Ever.

From the Griffin, Ga., News.

Some people have bad an idea that the late cold snap, along with the present spell, would work an injury to the fruit. But the contrary is the case, as was learned last night by a brief interview with Mr. D. Wing, the proprietor of the evaporators. "The present cold spell," he said, "will just serve to keep the fruit back nicely, checked, as it was, by the recentsevere snap. A few trees in town had come out and these will not bear, but the orchards have not advanced far enough to be hurt. Some buds may have blackened, but the fruit will be found sound inside. Peach trees will hardly be in bloom to any extent now before the 15th, even if the weather should turn warm right away. Last year, you know they were blossening in February and then it was not until even if the weather should turn warm right away. Last year, you know they were blossoming in February and then it was not until the last of March that the fruit was killed. But I do not think there is liable to be any more severe cold weather this year; this spell having come at this time is probably the breaking up of the winter in this section. Of course, there will be frosts; but it will take a decided freeze to hurt the fruit. You may say that the prospects were never better, nor safer at this time of the year, than they are now for a good fruit year." If anybody knows anything about such matters, it should certainly be Mr. Wing, and he was sustained in his opinbe Mr. Wing, and he was sustained in his opin ion by a Virginia fruit raiser of twenty-two or twenty-three years experience, who happened to be present.

An Honest Man Found.

From the Jonesboro, Ga., News.

On last Monday a stranger stepped into J.

J. Hanes's store and asked to be allowed to pay up his account. Mr. Hanes did not know the man, but upon inquiry found that he was once a school boy here in Jonesboro, and claimed to have bought a suit of clothes from Mr. Hanes while but a boy and for which he had never paid. Mr. Hanes had no account of the clothes; in fact, the debtor stated that the clothes had been bought twenty-eight years ago, and then it was remembered that the books in which the account had been kept had been burned by Sherman's army during the war, but Mr. Hanes remembered the transaction, but told the gentleman that he could not now accept payment; but the debtor was persistent, said that he had come some little distance to pay that debt with interest, and must do so. Mr. Hanes agreed to accept the principal, which was paid, and today Uncle Josh is the proudest man you ever saw to know that there is a man in Georgia so honest as to insist upon paying a debt of so long standing as to be utterly worthless in the eyes of the law.

It Pleased the Editor.

It Pleased the Editor.

It Pleased the Editor.

From the Canton, Ga., Advance.

The Advance was recently presented a lot of as fine butter as ever mortal man spread on his bread. It came from the Etowah dairy, a few miles below Canton. Mr. E. E. Field, Jr., the gentlemanly and courteous manager of this dairy, tells us he now has fifteen cows which he is milking, and from which he gets about 100 pounds of butter per week. In a few weeks he will add about ten more cows and then expects to get nearly 200 pounds per week. The Etowah dairy butter is rich, of a beautiful natural yellow color, and Mr. Field tells us he finds no trouble in selling all he can make at thirty cents per pound. The Kennessaw house at Mariotta takes about forty pounds per week and the remainder is shipped to Atlanta. The buttermilk is given to several head of hogs which he has, upon which they fatten very fast. Mr. Field says that if more of our people would engage in the dairy business many of the poor hillside farms would be made to pay more handsomely than at present by raising grass and grazing the cattle upon them.

Gainesville's New Enterprise. GAINESVILLE, Ga., March 10.—[Special.]— The leading men of the city met Friday night in the courthouse, embracing all ranks and professions, and discussed the advisability of professions, and discussed the advisability of organizing an improvement association for the city. Mr. Oliver Clarke was called to the chair; J. T. Wilson acted as secretary. Speeches were made by Hons. S. C. Dunlap, H. W. J. Ham, Rev. Mr. Strickland and others, after which an organization was perfected as follows: S. C. Dunlap, president; J. T. Wilson, secretary; Z. T. Castlebury, treasurer, and an executive committee of twelve to carry out the designs of the body. The enterprise takes the name of the Gainesville Improvement and Immigration association. Many names were entered, a subscription book opened and a fine beginning made toward raising a fund to be expended in giving advertisement to the town.

From the Meriwether, Ga., Vindicator.

Mr. Thomas Mitchell, an add citizen of the Lutherville district, died lest week at the extreme age of eighty-six. He was a quiet citizen, and had lived in the county, we suppose, over half a century. From the Spring Place, Ga., Times.

Colonel H. Heartsill, of the village, passed his eighty-first birthday on last Friday, and bids fair to live several years yet.

Mr. Cooper, of Atlanta, who lived in this county a number of years ago, and who went through the bloody conflicts of the Mexican war with Colonel W. Lutiman, was in town last week. He and the colonel were as happy to meet as two brothers of long separation. From the Meriwether, Ga., Vindicator

BLOWING A SAFE

And Being Chased by a Detective and Blood Hounds.

The Police Have a Rainy Day, But Find a Burglar and Miss a Chicken Thief— Other City Matters.

Detective Bedford is near Barnesville with a pair of blood hounds chasing some safe-blowers, who were detected cracking a safe Friday night in W. G. Tyn's store at Milner.

The safe-blowers did not secure any money.

About 2 o'clock Saturday morning the night watchman in Milner detected a light in Mr. Tyn's store. The light at that hour of the Tyn's store. The light at that hour of the night was an unusual thing and the watchman proceeded to investigate. In a short time he discovered two men in a squatting position in front of the large iron safe. Both men were strangers to him, and, realizing that he had detected safe-blowers, the marshal left the window through which he had been looking and approached the door with a determination and approached the door with a determination to capture the men. Just before he reached the door, however, the two men, with a thud, broke through the door and skipped out. The marshal drew his pistol akipped out. The marshal drew his pistol and pulled the trigger, but the weapon would not go off. He then started after the two, but the pistol would not work and after a short race the marshal stopped. Early yesterday morning the authorities telegraphed to Atlanta for a good detective and the dogs. Detective Bedford was sent down and when he reached the place he made a thorough investigation. In the store he found that the safe blowers had drilled a hole in the safe, poured the powder in and placed the fuse. It is thought that the third man was standing at the door and discovered the marshal in time to give the alarm, third man was standing at the door and dis-covered the marshal in time to give the alarm, which prevented the marshal from securing the two he had found inside.

Two Old People Fight. Emory Peyton and Jane Bailey, two old, decrepid negroes, were arraigned in police court yesterday morning, charged with disorderly conduct and quarreling. The old man has passed his seventy-fifth year, while the woman is only ten years younger. The evidence passed his seventy-fifth year, while the woman is only ten years younger. The evidence showed that Peyton went to the woman's house Saturday night and raised a row because his supper was not ready. After a lengthy quarrel he picked up a stick and began beating the old woman, who grabbed an ax, with which she assaulted him. Judge Anderson fined Peyton twenty dollars and cost, and discharged the woman.

He Lost Some Chickens.

Mr. James Lynch is fond of fine chickens, and has a large lot full of the best breeds. Some time Friday night a thief entered the premises and carried away an even dozen. Among the chickens taken was some of Mr. Lynch's finest. Yesterday the poultry raiser bought a half dozen steel traps and as many varies cans, which he scattered about the lot spring guns, which he scattered about the lo

C. H. Parsons, a farmer whose place is near Smyrna, was in the city yesterday searching for a mule and wagon which were stolen from him Wednesday night. The thief found the mule in a lot around the barn, and after harnessing the animal hitched him-to the wagon and drove away. The theft was discovered early the next morning, and Mr. Parsons succeeded in tracing his property to the city. A description of the outlit was left at police headquarters.

George Pharr, a negro well known in police rcles, met Aun Scott, equally well known in the same locality, and gave her a most unmerciful beating with a heavy stick. Pharr was arrested and in police court was fined twenty-five dellars and cost.

AT IVY STREET HOSPITAL.

An Ambulance is Needed for the Use of the Patients.

An effort is being made by the officials at Ivy street hospital to raise by private subscriptions money enough to provide a hospital ambulance. The ambulance has been needed for a long time past, and the money given for this purpose would be well invested.

"Why," said Mr. Lowry, steward of the hospital, "as we are now situated we are obliged to haul people to the hospital in just any sort of carriage we can pick up, and as conveyance is needed at all hours of the day and night there is often delay, and in cases of accident delays are dangerous. If accidents would happen only in the daytime, and within hauling distance of the hacks at the dener, it would be between different different delays. the depot, it would be altogether different and better for us. But even if hacks were convenient always, why it is torture for a crippled man to ride in them. The other day, for example, a young man had his leg broken and foot crushed, and had to be carried with that foot outside the hack. Now suppose it had been raining or snowing, or sleeting. We would have been compelled to carry him the same way, unless we had let him suffer until we could have hunted up a suitable vehicle, and same way, unless we had let him suffer until we could have hunted up a suitable vehicle, and then often we are obliged to use open, carriages, and even if it was the nicest weather imaginable, they are often hurt so that part of the clothing must be removed, and ladies as well as gentlemen are exposed to the gaze of the curious. The present method is absolutely cruel, and the remedy is simple. We need an ambulance. It won't cost much, and would be a blessing to those who are compelled by misfortune and accident to come to us."

Those wishing to help buy an ambulance can send donations to Mr. M. C. Kiser. The cause is certainly a worthy one.

cause is certainly a worthy one.

HE ENTERTAINS THE DRUMMER, What the Man on the Road Eats For a Monday Morning Breakfast.

Henry Durand has covered his restaurant floor with a seamless oil cloth of a most beau-tiful pattern, and the place is now more attrac-tive than every tive than ever. Just as the work was being thrill pattern, and the place is now more attractive than ever. Just as the work was being finished, the restauranter remarked:

"I put this down today so that my drummer friends may see it Monday morning before they go out."

"What drummers?"

"Why, the Atlanta drummers, of course. Do you know there are few people who know how well Atlanta is represented on the road, and how many people are constantly singing Atlanta's praises throughout the south?"

"Are there many?"

"I don't know how many, but I do know that on every Monday morning between fifty and seventy-five come here for breakfast. The trains leave too early for them to have breakfast at home, and they come here to get it. They are good eaters, too. I mean they know what to eat."

"And what is it?"

"They generally take a boiled egg or poached egg, broiled fish, shad being the favorite, coffee, rolls and oatmeal. They are all easily attisfied, and appreciate little attention. They know what they want and ask for it. They never worry about trains, and ask mighty few questions."

The tortures of dyspepsia and sick headache the sufferings of scrofula, the agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, the disagreeable symp-toms of catarrh, are removed by Hood's Sar-tanarilla.

HE GOT THERE, ELL.

Colonel Sibley, the Insurance Man, Says a Word About Captain Joyner.

Colonel Sibley, the well known insurance man, was standing upon the corner of Alabama and Whitehall yesterday when Captain Joyner, chief of the irre departmant, went by Mr. Sibley looked at the gentleman a minute and then remarked to those about him:

"That is the best firendepartment on top side of the earth. About seven o'clock this morning I was in bed when my cook rushed in to tell me the house was on fire. That is always unpleasant news, but it is most unpleasant when you are getting your morning nap. Well, I jumped out of bed, sprang into my breeches and then my slippers, without my socks, and when I got to the door Joyner's red wagon was there and he was working on the fire."

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP of an excellent article for all diseases of children. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

JAMES PYLE'S

PEARLINE

BEST COMPOUND

WASHING AND CLEANING

IN HARD OR SOFT, HOT OR COLD WATER Without Harm to FABRIC or HANDS.

currong and paying the snewark in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to-wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 46 7-19 feet on Fort street, between Wheat and Houston streets, and running back .00 feet, more or less; said lot known as No. — on said street, according to the street numbers. Levied on as the property of Mrs. J. C. Jenkins to satisfy a fi fa in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Mrs. J. C. Jenkins and said property for the cost of curbing and paying the sidewalk in front of said property.

nting 56 9-10 feet on Williams described property, io wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, fronting 50 9-10 feet on Williams street, between Baker and Simpson streets, and running back 100 feet, more or less, said lot known as No.—on said street, excerding to the street numbers; levied on as the property of J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in iavor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, and the said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property. Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in savor of the city of Atlanta, against said J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, and the said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place, the following described property, to wit: A certain city lot in the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, and the said property for the cost of curbing and paving the sidewalk in front of said property.

Also at the same time and place to williams street, between Houston and property of J. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Jr. S. Mayson, trustee for Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, to satisfy a fi. fa. in favor of the city of Atlanta, against said Mrs. Jane Shea, and said property.

Also at the same time a

CEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO THE SUPE-trior court of said county: J. C. Kimball, W. A. Hemphill, C. W. Hunnicutt, W. B. Lowe, J. A. Fitten, O. C. Fuller, D. M. Bain, H. W. Grady, A. E. Back, H. I. Kimball, S. H. Phelau, P. H. Snook, Joseph M. Browu, John M. Green, Martin Amerous, and Hoke Smith, of the city of Atlanta, and state of Georgia, petition for themselves, their associates and successors to obtain a charter and organize a corporation to be known as the an spread on his wah dairy, a few
E. Field, Jr., manager of this en cows which he gets about
In a few weeks
was and then ay "ATLANTA AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATING CO."
The principal office, place of business and residence of said corporation shall be in the city of Atlanta, but your petitioners desire for said corporation the privilege of transacting business in all parts of the state of Georgia, wherever it may be to the best interests of said corporation so to do; also to establish branch offices and to appoint such agents, attorneys and representatives as may be necessary to carry on the business of said corporation, and to confer authority upon them for that jurpose. er week. The fa beautiful nat-eld tells us he he can make at Kennesaw house pounds per week to Atlanta. The to Atlanta. The idea of hogs hey fatten very lore of our people business many ald be made to present by raisle upon them.

kinds, and of selling and dealing in refrigeration produced thereby.

The capital stock of said corporation shall be one hundred thou and ($100,000 dollars, said stock to be divided into shares of five ($5.00) dollars cach; and the said corporation shall have the right to issue full paid stock for the purchase of real or person Alproperty of any kind necessary for the businea; os the corporation.

Pettitioners further pray for the right to make such by-laws and rules of government for said corporation as may be necessary and proper, and to enforce the same by such penalties, lines and forfeitures as may be agreed upon by a majority of the stockholders, provided all such rules and by-laws shall be in conformity with the laws of the state; to berrow money on real estate or personal property, and to execute such mortgages or transfers thereof as may be necessary for that purpose; to have and to use a common seal; to sue and be sued; to plead and be impleaded; to contract and be contracted with, and to have such other powers, and do such other acts, as are usual and proper to carry out the intent and design of said or ganization.

Petitioners pray to be incorporated for the full 10.—[Special.]— net Friday night
g all ranks and advisability of ssociation for the called to the retary. Speeches mlap, H. W. J. d others, after erfected as folt; J. T. Wilson, execution and execution of the second executio surer, and an ent to the town.

proper to carry out the intent and design of ganization.

Petitioners pray to be incorporated for the full term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of said term.

HOKE & BURTON SMITH.

Petitioners' Attorneys.

Filed in office February 28, 1888.

C. H. STRONG, C. S. C.

A true and correct copy, as appears of record in this office, this February 28, 1888.

Levinorial control of the HINDERCORNS.

The only sure Cure for Corns. Stops all pain. Ensures comfort to the feet. 15c. at Druggists. Hiscox&Co., N.Y. ARE CONSUMPTIVE Have you Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Indigestion I Use PARKER'S CHOOLE TO be without delay. It is invaluable for all advention, and all pains and Breathlay Greatmant of the Stomach and Bowels. So, and $1, as Drugges of the Stomach and Bowels. So, and $1, as Drugges.

"ATLANTA AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATING CO."

BLOWING A SAFE

And Being Chased by a Detective and Blood Hounds.

The Police Have a Rainy Day, But Find a

Burglar and Miss a Chicken Thief-Other City Matters. Detective Bedford is near Barnesville with a pair of blood hounds chasing some safe-blowers, who were detected cracking a safe Friday night in W. G. Tyn's store at Milner.

The safe-blowers did not secure any money. About 2 o'clock Saturday morning the night watchman in Milner detected a light in Mr. Tyn's store. The light at that hour of the night was an unusual thing and the watchman proceeded to investigate. In a short time he discovered two men in a squatting position in front of the large iron safe. Both men were strangers to him, and, realizing that he had detected safe-blowers, the marshal left the window through which he had been looking and approached the door with a determination to capture the men. Just before he reached the door, however, the two men, with a thud, broke through the door and skipped out. The marshal drew his pistol skipped out. The marshal drew his pistol and pulled the trigger, but the weapon would not go off. He then started after the two, but the pistol would not work and after a short race the marshal stopped. Early yesterday morning the authorities telegraphed to Atlanta for a good detective and the dogs. Detective Bedford was sent down and when he reached the place he made a thorough investigation. Bedford was sent down and when he reached the place he made a thorough investigation. In the store he found that the safe blowers had drilled a hole in the safe, poured the powder in and placed the fuse. It is thought that the third man was standing at the door and discovered the marshal in time to give the alarm, which prevented the marshal from securing the two he had found inside.

Two Old People Fight.

Two Old People Fight.

Emory Peyton and Jane Bailey, two old, decrepid negroes, were arraigned in police court yesterday morning, charged with disorderly conduct and quarreling. The old man has passed his seventy-fifth year, while the woman is only ten years younger. The evidence showed that Peyton went to the woman's house Saturday night and raised a row because his supper was not ready. After a lengthy quarrel he picked up a stick and began beating the old woman, who grabbed an ax, with which she assaulted him. Judge Anderson fined Peyton twenty dollars and cost, and discharged the woman.

He Lost Some Chickens. Mr. James Lynch is fond of fine chickens, and has a large lot full of the best breeds. Some time Friday night a thief entered the premises and carried away an even dozen. Among the chickens taken was some of Mr. Lynch's finest. Yesterday the poultry raiser bought a half dozen steel traps and as many spring guns, which he scattered about the lot to welcome the next thief who invades.

Hunting For a Mule and Wagon.

C. H. Parsons, a farmer whose place is near C. H. Parsons, a farmer whose place is near Smyrna, was in the city yesterday searching for a mule and wagon which were stolen from him Wednesday night. The thief found the mule in a lot around the barn, and after harnessing the animal hitched him to the wagon and drove away. The theft was discovered early the next morning, and Mr. Parsons succeeded in tracing his property to the city. A description of the outfit was left at police head-marters.

He Hit Her With a Stick.

George Pharr, a negro well known in police ircles, met Ann Scott, equally well known in the same locality, and gave her a most unmerciful beating with a heavy stick. Pharr was arrested and in police court was fined twenty-five dollars and cost.

AT IVY STREET HOSPITAL,

An Ambulance is Needed for the Use of the

An Ambulance is Needed for the Use of the Patients.

An effort is being made by the officials at Ivy street hospital to raise by private subscriptions money enough to provide a hospital ambulance. The ambulance has been needed for a long time past, and the money given for this purpose would be well invested.

"Why," said Mr. Lowry, steward of the hospital, "as we are now situated we are obliged to haul people to the hospital in just any sort of carriage we can pick up, and as conveyance, is needed at all hours of the day and night there is often delay, and in cases of accident delays are dangerous. If accidents would happen only in the daytime, and within hauling distance of the hacks at the depot, it would be altogether different and better for us. But even if hacks were and better for us. But even if hacks were convenient always, why it is torture for a crippled man to ride in them. The other day, for example, a young man had his leg broken and foot crushed, and had to be carried with that foot outside the hack. Now suppose it had been raining or snowing, or sleeting. We would have been compelled to carry him the same way, unless we had let him suffer until we could have hunted up a suitable vehicle, and then often we are obliged to use open, carriages, and even if it was the nicest weather imaginable, they are often hurt so that part of the clothing must be removed, and ladies as well as gentlemen are exposed to the gaze of the curious. The present method is absolutely cruel, and the remedy is simple. We need an ambulance. It won't cost much, and would be a blessing to those who are compelled by misfortune and accident to come to us."

Those wishing to help buy an ambulance can send donations to Mr. M. C. Kiser. The cause is certainly a worthy one. and better for us. But even if hacks were cause is certainly a worthy one. HE ENTERTAINS THE DRUMMER.

What the Man on the Road Eats For a Mon day Morning Breakfast. day Morning Breakfast.

Henry Durand has covered his restaurant floor with a seamless oil cloth of a most beautiful pattern, and the place is now more attractive than ever. Just as the work was being finished, the restauranter remarked:

"I put this down today so that my drummer friends may see it Monday morning before they go out."

"What drummers?"

"Why, the Atlanta drummers, of course. Do you know there are few people who know

"Why, the Atlanta drummers, of course. Do you know there are few people who know how well Atlanta is represented on the road, and how many people are constantly singing Atlanta's praises throughout the south?"

"Are there many?"

"I don't know how many, but I do know that on every Monday morning between fifty and seventy-five come here for breakfast. The trains leave too early for them to have breakfast at home, and they come here to get it. They are good eaters, too. I mean they know what to eat."

"And what is it?"

"And what is it?"

"They generally take a boiled egg or poached egg, broiled fish, shad being the favorite, coffee, rolls and oatmeal. They are all easily satisfied, and appreciate little attention. They know what they want and ask for it. They never worry about trains, and ask mighty few questions."

The tortures of dyspepsia and sick headache the sufferings of scrofula, the agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, the disagreeable symp-tems of catarrh, are removed by Hood's Sar-

HE GOT THERE, ELL.

Colonel Sibley, the Insurance Man, Says

Word About Captain Joyner.

Colonel Sibley, the well known insurance man, was standing upon the corner of Alabama and Whitehall yesterday when Captain Joyner, chief of the fire departmant, went by. Mr. Sibley looked at the gentleman a minute and then remarked to those about him:

"That is the best fireman in the world, and he has got the best fire department on top side of the earth. About seven o'clock this morning I was in bed when my cook rushed in to tell me the house was on fire. That is always unpleasant news, but it is most unpleasant when you are getting your morning nap. Well, I jumped out of bed, sprang into my breeches and then my slippers, without my socks, and when I got to the door Joyner's red wagon was there and he was working on the fire." Word About Captain Joyner.

An Excellent Article. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is an excellent article for all diseases of children. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE GREAT LECTURER. A Native of Jerusalem but Not a Jew-His Lecture Monday Night.

The eminent lecturer, Professor Peter M. Von Finkelstein, reached Atlanta yesterday morning and will remain here until Tuesday morning. Tomorrow night he will deliver a lecture in the large auditorium of Trinity church.

morning. Tomorrow night he will deliver a lecture in the large auditorium of Trinity church.

A reporter of Tar Constitution, in company with Dr. J. W. Lee, visited the distinguished lecturer at his room in the Kimball house. It is worth while describing him, for he is assuredly a fine specimen of physical manhood. He is about five feet ten inches in height; his head is massive and finely formed; his frame is herculeen, and his bearing is that of a cultivated gentleman.

He is of Slavonie parentage and was brought up in Jerusalem. Even as a lad he took great interest in the peasantry of Palestine. While still very young he entered the service of Sir Charles Warren, then chief director of the Palestine Exploration society's excavations, as interpreter, and thus daily came in contact with men of science and ability and with many of the common people throughout the country. In fact, he lived so much among the Fellaheen, Bedouins and city men that their manners and customs became to him almost a second nature. Later on he became interpreter to the United States consulate at Jerusalem, and in that capacity he formed the acquaintance of a number of Americans. This, and the fact that his brother had gone to the United States, pursuaded him to follow, and on his arrival in this country he engaged for some time in business pursuits. Then he entered the lecture field with his sister, Miss Lydia Von Hinkelstein, and though the story of the land and the book has been often told, ye tthey have never been excelled on the platform. The immediate object of their lectures was to refute the perversions and distortions of infidel lecturers in their attacks upon the veracity of holy scripture.

In conversation with the reporter Professor Von Finkelstein gave some interesting facts about Jerusalem, his native home. It is a city of about sixty thousand inhabitants, a large proportion being Jews. Within the past few years thousands of Jews have returned to Jerusalem. The authorities took action to check this immigration, and passed a open it certain restrictions. This was done to prevent the Jews from overwhelming the country.

The professor is a great conversationalist and speaks with a very slight foreign accent. This is his first visit to the southern states, but he has visited the north and west several times. He has traveled a great deal and has spent much time in England. In London he lectured before immense audiences. His most famous lecture was "The Homes and Haunts of Jesus." This was beautrully illustrated, and several native Turks were introduced. It produced a great sensation. This same lecture he will repeat tomerrow night, and he will have the assistance of several Turks. He brings a collection of the richest costumes. These alone, Dr. Lee says, are worth a dollar to see. The lecture will be the most unique ever heard in Atlanta, and it is probable it will draw an immense crowd. draw an immense crowd.

Governor Gordon Issues an Order of Pardon

Governor Gordon Issues an Order of Pardon for Mandy Riggins.

Yesterday Governor Gordon issued an order of pardon for a convict named Mandy Riggins. She was convicted of the crime of infanticide in the superior court of Pike county at the May term in 1874 and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. She was convicted on circumstantial evidence. The application for her pardon was signed by John W. Nelms, ex-principal keeper of the penitentiary, and John H. Tower, the present principal keeper. Good conduct and long service are two of the grounds upon which she was pardoned, but the chief ground was that the woman discovered and reported a conspiracy formed by the convicts in the camp where she was confined to murder the guards and escape. All this occurred at one of the late Benjamin G. Lockett's camps, in Dougherty county, during the administration of Mr. Nelms as principal keeper. Mr. Lockett petitioned for her pardon at that time. Mandy Riggins has served since May 3d, 1874.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Suit Involving Some Nice Points Heard By Judge Van Epps.

By Judge Van Epps.

Yesterday the case of Boyd & Co. vs. Ambrose Armstrong was tried in the city court before Judge Howard Van Epps.

A verdict for $138.90 was given in favor of the plaintiffs.

Briefly told, the facts are:

Last summer, Mr. Boyd suspected Armstrong of stealing meat from his store, and had him, by advice of his counsel, arrested for larceny. He was placed under $100 bond, and released. Afterwards he "skipped" his bond and fied the country. Mr. J. C. Jenkins, attorney for Boyd & Co. took out an attachment against Armstrong, claiming $138.90 as the value of meat stolen from time to time.

attorney for Boyd & Co. took out an attachment against Armstrong, claiming $138.90 as the value of meat stolen from time to time, and levied it upon a fine mule and dray belonging to Armstrong, and the case was tried yesterday, with the result stated.

It seems that Armstrong had bought the mule from a prominent colored individual on Peters street on time, and he was to pay for it according to evidence of his admissions while under arrest, by "jacking around;" that is to say, by stealing meat from his employer and letting the p. c. i. have it at half price.

Mr. Jenkins produced three receipts from the p. c. i. amounting to $69.45, and then showed by Boyd's clerk that Armstrong had admitted the receipts to be for meat at half its value. On this evidence the jury gave him a verdict for double the amount of the receipts to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the mule and dray. The sheriff sold the mule and dray for $150. Boyd & Co. are thus fortunate in getting paid for about 1,600 pounds of meat stolen at different times.

A Father's Protection.

A Father's Protection Father, it is as essential for you to provide a safeguard against that night fiend to your children, eroup, as to their hunger. Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein will cure croup, coughs and colds. A Family in Need.

Mrs. Robert Carmichael and her six children were left homeless by the fire on Peters street Monday night. The family lost nearly everything, and a little aid extended by our good people just now would be of great assistance. Mrs. Carmichael can be found for a few days at No. 67% South Broad street, up stairs. Any contributions left for her at this office will be sent to her.

What You Are Losing.

What You Are Losing.

Everybody in Georgia should send us a one-cent stamp for our April number of Table Morsels.

You do not know what you are missing when you do not buy Hoyt & Thorn's Regal Patent flour. We have just received another fresh car load, and will have another one here in ten days. Without any question, it is the finest flour in the world. Tomorrow, Monday, is our bargain day, and we will lose our profit and sell it by the barrel at $5.80, and if it is not the best flour you ever used we will take it from your house and refund your money. We will also sell you 1,200 dozen fresh country eggs at 11 cents per dozen, in every instance giving you your pennies in change. On Monday only we will sell 100 bars soap, 8 oz each, for $1.70. On Monday we will sell excellent ground Rio coffee for 20 cents, worth 30. Also, at same time and place, 5-pound buckets preserves, any kind, for 65 cents to close out. We will also sell small Dove brand hams for 13gents, just for this day, and the large ones for 12g. Also 10 bars 8 oz Colgate's new soap for 25 cents. You remember, a little over one year ago you only get 6 for 25, and a great many of you only get 6 now. We could write a week about our special Monday bargains, and if The Constitution Publishing company didn't charge so much we would write till midnight. Remember Monday, and the number of our store—90 Whitehall.

Union Sunday School Meeting.

If the weather is favorable this afternoon, there will be a notable gathering of the Sunday schools in the westhern part of the city at the Cen-

If the weather is favorable this afternoon, there will be a notable gathering of the Sunday schools in the westhern part of the city at the Central Baptist church, at 3 o'clock, to hear addresses from Judge Howard Van Epps, Rev. Dr. Thirkield, A. C. Briscoe and others.

The meeting is to be held under the auspices of Fulton County Sunday School association.

If it rains this afternoon the meeting will be postponed until next Sunday.

Judge James A. Anderson is the superintendent of the Central Expits Sunday school, and will give the association and visutors a right royal welcome.

All interested in the work are cordally invited.

FITS: All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No Fits after first day's use. Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 981 Arch treet, Philadelphia, Pa.,

COURT AND CAPITOL.

Happenings of a Day in the Departments of State and Government. YESTERDAY WAS A dull day at the capitol

YESTERDAY WAS A dull day at the capitol and customhouse.

THE GOVERNOR DREW his warrant on the state treasury yesterday for $1,870 which was paul to Mr. George Harrison, public printer, for making the tax digests and tax lists. There were 500,000 of these tax lists and 6,000 pounds of paper was used in making them. The cost of these lists, including paper and composition, foots up $1,084.40. There were 411 digests and the cost was $752.73.

COMMISSIONS were issued to Edmund Borders as notary public for the 973d district of Gordon county, and to William-M. Smith as notary public for the 874th district of Gordon county.

A COMMISSION was issued to John L. Ellis as a member of the commission of roads and revenues of Hall county.

IN THE COMPTROLLER-GENERAL'S office these items were recorded: General taxes—Stewart county, $50.12; Chattooga county, $1,019.22; Clinch county, $744.19; Putnam county, $34.79; Washington county, $900; insurance fees, 1,170.40; insurance agents' taxes, $350.

The County Courthouse. SATURDAY IS USUALLY DULL in the county courthouse, but yesterday a good deal of jus-tice was dispensed there.

In the superior court there was a largely attended bar meeting at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Nearly every law firm in Atlanta was represented. The dockets were sounded and enough cases were set for trial particular days next week to keep the court busy all the time. JUDGE MARSHALL J. CLARKE sat in cham-

JUDGE MARSHALL J. CLARKE sat in chambers about two hours hearing motions. He, however, rendered no decisions. The Schumann case had been set for a hearing, and the lawyers on both sides were present. A motion was made by Judge Hammond, attorney for Dr. Schumann, that the case be postponed until next Saturday. This motion was not opposed, and it was granted by the court.

IN THE CITY COURT, Judge Van Epps presiding, the greater part of the day was occupied with the trial of a case of Crowley vs. the May Utility works. The amount involved is about $1,000. The attorneys on both sides agreed that the case should be finished yesterday, and the court remained in session till a very late hour. The jury was requested to render a sealed verdict.

IN THE ORDINARY'S COURT, the regular March term, the following business was discharged:

C. J. Simmons administrator of May A charged:

C. J. Simmons, administrator of Mary A.
Hoyle, was granted leave to sell land.
Sallie K. May, widow of Edwin F. May, was

Hoyle, was granted leave to sell land.
Sallie K. May, widow of Edwin F. May, was granted twelve months' support.

A. J. West was appointed administrator on the estate of Rachel Mitchell.
Frank M. Potts, gnardian of Frank Potts and Fanning Potts, was granted letters of dismission.

Martha J. Mulligan was appointed administrative of William B. Mulligan.

E. M. Roberts was appointed guardian of the minor children of M. Finch.
William P. Little was appointed guardian of Mary P. Ashley, lunatic.
William F. Poole was appointed guardian of Nollie G. Avery, lunatic.

John M. Holbrook, guardian of James Holbrook, was granted leave to sell land.
The will of Elizabeth Biggers was proved in solemn form and was ordered to record, and Zack Martin was named as executor.

Reuben Arnold was vested with the guardianship of his minor children.
John B. Redwine was vested with the guardianship of his minor child, Bessie.
Frank Lester was appointed temporary administrator of Joe Morris.
Frank Dixon was appointed temporary administrator of Joe Morris.
Frank Dixon was appointed temporary administrator of P. H. Dixon.
The Grand Jury, at its recent session, appointed several committees to make inquiries into the management of the various county in-pointed several committees to make inquiries into the management of the various county institutions, and they have been diligently at work for several days. A report is now preparing, and will be submitted to the grand jury at its next session.

The Federal Courts.

IN THE UNITED STATES district court, yester-day, Judge William Newman presiding, L. R. Pitts was sentenced to one month in jail for urnishing raw material to a distillery.
The United States circuit court will meet on Monday (tomorrow), when the civil docket will be taken up and cases set for trial, begin-ning March 26th. DEPUTY HUNT BROUGHT in Marion Bradley from Madison county. He was arrested on a bench warrant.

The Beauty of Woman Is her crown of glory. But alas! how quickly does the nervons debility and chronic weakness of the sex cause the bloom of youth to pass away, sharpen the lovely feat emaciate the rounded form! There emactate the rounded form! There is but one remedy which will restore the faded roses and bring back the grace of youth. It is Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," a sovereign remedy for the diseases peculiar to females. It is one of the greatest boons ever conferred upon the human race, for it preserves that which is fairest and dearest to all mankind— the beauty and the health of woman.

THE LARGEST In the State of Georgia, W. L. Traynham's Lumber Business.

In the State of Georgia, W. L. Traynham's Lumber Business.

The At'anta of today dates from 1863. Out of the black midnight of war, through the bright, balmy morning of peace, she passed into a renewed maturity, happily not yet at its full meridian. Truly, at first the process of reconstruction, in the face of the general poverty, spirited though the efforts were to overcome all obstacles, was tedious. For some time the population and business exceeded the accommodations for them, because, of necessity, building operations were slow. Since then, however, Atlanta has been growing at a rapid rate, and we, willingly and unsolicited, make the statement that no man has had more to do with this great development than Mr. W. L. Traynham. He has been in the lumber business for some time, and few houses of any kind are erected in this city in which he does not have some part in their construction.

Mr. Traynham is ably assisted by Messrs. C. B. McGaughey and E. W. Hewritt, who are thoroughly skilled in the business. Mr. James S. Traynham, who has charge of the outdoor force, is the right man in the right place. Too much cannot be said of this house.

The quality of work turned out from this factory is equal to the best. Here you can purchase a mantel from one dollar, and fifty cents to three hundred and seventy-five dollars. The doors, blinds and sash made here range at prices to suit purchasers, while newels, balusters and mouldings, made in any style and finish you may desire, are in keeping with that of the finest northern factories, and at prices reasonable enough for anyone. Mr. Traynham makes a specialty of hard wood work and some of the prettiest houses in this country have been finished by him. His store and office fixtures here in this city give him a name that cannot be easily downed by any of his competitors. This firm sells their goods in every southern state and it keeps the large force hard at work to supply the demand. We recently saw in his large warerooms several thousand window sash with glass in them

President Cleveland.

A resident of Washington, D. C., was in the city recently, and in speaking of the president, said "he seems to bear up wonderfully well under the onerous duties pertaining to the executive office, yet it is a noteworthy fact that he is often seen of late wearing a pair of extra large, oval eye-glasses." This style, as well as a hundred other styles of Hawkes's crystallized lenses, kept constantly on hand at Hawkes's optical depot. They are the most perfect glasses made, giving ease and comfort to hundreds. They stand unrivaled in their splendid do well to call on Mr. Hawkes and have their eyes fitted with these wonderful lenses. Under Kimball house, 19 Decatur street.

Symptoms are nature's "red lights" of danger, and should never be neglected. Flushed cheeks, throbbing temples, nausea, lassitude, loss of appetite, sallow complexion, primples and blotches, are warnings that should have brompt attention. The blood is poisoned or impovershed, and unless immediately cleased and enriched by Ayer's Sarasparilla, the consequence may be serious in ed. Heed the red lights.

JEWELER,

We are Shipping

BABY CARRIAGES

all over Georgia, because our prices suit the people. Elegant assortment and new arrivals weekly.

J. H. NUNNALLY, 36 Whitehall un bev oys 7p

PURE BUTTER

All the Time at Donehoo & Phelps's-There is None Other Like It.

Js None Other Like It.

We desire to inform the public that we have been appointed agents in Atlanta for the Robin, Jones Dairy company, of Nashville. We are receiving every morning shipments of as fine Jersey butter as was ever sold in this market.

If Sufferers from Consumption,

Scrofula, Bronchitis and General Debility wil try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and permanent benefit. The Medical Profession universally declare it a remedy of the greatest value and very palatable. Read: "I have used Scott's Emulsion in several cases of Scrofula and Debility in Children. Results

most gratifying. My little patients take it with pleasure."-W. A. HULBERT, M. D., Salisbury, Ill.

Big Auction Sale at Chattanooga.

MY SPRING SAMPLES

55 WHITEHALL ST. SUITSTOMEASURE Reliable Goods, Fair Dealing. ARE NOW READY. Bottom Prices.

> Call and examine and leave order. I am selling Fall Goods at greatly reduced GEO. MUSE. 38 WHITEHALL ST.

CLOTHING, FURNISHING GOODS, ETC.

O WATCHES, JEWELRY AND

STERLING SILVERWARE. The latest Novelties for the Holidays. The best $5.00 Watch in the world. Watch repairing a J. S. DOYLE, Jeweler, 51 Whitehall Street.

HAVE YOU READ MISTER POTTER, OF TEXAS?

butter as was ever sold in this market.

Our Mr. Phelps has just returned from Nashville, where he inspected personally the making of this butter, and he stakes his reputation on its purity, cleanlines and uniform quality.

To the incredulous we would say that Professor John McCandlees made an analysis of butter from this dairy, and pronounced it absolitely pure. This is the same commenty that made bonehoo's ice cream last summer. We will deliver this butter fresh every day at your door atthirty-five cents per pound to families—special rates to large consumers—or you can get if at our store, No. 9 East Alabama street, telephone 266. We can refer to a large number of the best people in the city; who are using our butter.

We will some commence to deliver, our elections and the sealers are telephone. Well, if you have not, get a copy today. Price only 50 cents; for sale at THORNTON'S BOOK STORE. Telephone 236, and we will send you a copy. This book is decidedly the "Hit" of this year. We also have the following books, all of which are new "MR. BARNES, OF NEW YORK," paper edition, butter.

We will soon commence to deliver our celebrated lee cream, the popularity of which is well known. A good variety of cysters and fish always on hand. DUNEHOO & PHELPS.

Successors to E. F. Donehoo. Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Thront, etc., quick-ly relieved by Brown's Bronchial Troches. A simple and effectual remedy, superior to all other articles for the same purpose. Sold only in boxes.

"MR. BARNES, OF NEW YORK," paper edition, 50 cents.

"MARVIL." the Buchess' last, 25 cents.

"A LIFE INTEREST." Mrs. Alexander.

"A STORMY WEDDING," by Mrs. Mary E. Bryan. Paper 25 cents.

"ONLY A GOVERNESS." is the title of "ROSA N. ARY." just out, in paper 25 cents.

"PARADISE." is a new one just out, by Lloyd S. Bryan. This, like Mr. Potter, is having a large sale, and is very popular.

"FREE JOE" again, and other stories by Uncle Remus; cloth by mail $1.00, and a number of others which our space will not allow us to mention. We keep up with the new books as fast as out, and shall be glad to fill any order for same at all times. E. H. & J. R. Thoraton, Leading Art Dealers.

Fine Stationery, Steel Engravings, Proof Echings
Pastels, Photographs, Oil Faintings, etc.
We manufacture all styles of Picture Frames, at the very lowest prices. Our stock of Mouldings, in Bronze, Gitt, and Hand-carved is the largest south.
Crayon and Canyas Sketches for artist made to order by FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN ONLY

Send us your orders. We guarantee satisfaction Prices of artists' material given on application. Is, dies' fine Stationery and visiting cards, Menu, Cards etc. Stamping on Silk Plushes, etc., done free. Call and examine designs.

E. H. & J. R. THORNTON,
Telephone 236.

28 Whitehall street.

The East End Land company have secured the DR. BROCKETT'S DE-LEC-TA-LAVE Is the Most Efficient Preparation for Cleans-

The East End Land company have secured the services of Colonel George W. Adair, and will have a grand auction of lots in Chattanooga on Thursday, March 15, commencing at 10 o'clock. Eighty lots advertised. This is a rare opportunity to make investments in this growing city. The land is situated in the southeastern part of the city, and last year a half million dollars was invested in manufacturing enterprises in this plant. I rummy lines run through the land, and the Rome and carrollton railroad is already running trains through this property. Parties in Atlanta who desire to attend the sale can take advantage of the reduced rates on the East Tennessee and the Western and Atlantic railroads.

Mauek papers and paints houses and signs.

LEMON ELIXIR.

The best dressmakers use Domestic Sewing Ma-

Its Wonderful Effect on the Liver, Stomac h Bowels, Kidneys and Blood, As prepared by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga. A As prepared by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga. A pleasant Lemon drink, that positively cures all Biliousness, Constipation, Indigestion, Headache, Malaria, Kidney Disease, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Fevers, Chills, Blotches, Pimples, Pain in the Back, Palpitation of the Heart, and all other diseases caused by a disordered liver, stomach and kidneys, the first great cause of all fatal diseases. 50 cents and all ner bottle, Sold by duggists generally. 31 per bottle. Sold by druggists generally. Prepared only by H. Mozley, M. D., Atlanta, Lemon Hot Drops Cure all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung diseases. Price 25 cents. Sold by druggists! Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozley, "At-lanta, Ga. Have Mauck paper your rooms.

Mr. C. J. Daniel has opened an office for the sale f the celebrated Domestic Sewing Machines at hornton's Book Store, 28 Whitehall street. Spring Goods arriving every day at Fetzer & Pharr's, Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers,12 Whitehallstreet.

The Young Ladies' Mercer University Society of the First Baptist Church' will give a dime social Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. M. C. Kiser, on Peachtree street.

Sam'l Goode & Co's List of Auction Sales.

1st-Tuesday, March 13th, at 3 p. m., the Course ist—Tuesday, March 13th, at 2 p. m., the Coursey property, containing 66½ acres, subdivided into seven tracts of from 7½ to 10 acres each. This is located just one mile from the West End dummy line and between it and Mason & Turner's ferry road. See other column for particulars.

d—Tuesday, March 20th, at 11 a. m., a 5-room dwelling and store. No. 200 Decauur street, near Pratt street; splendid renting property. See our special column for particulars.

d—Wednesday, March 21st, at 11 a. m., 80 desiravacant lots near the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad shops on McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell streets. See our special column for particulars.

th—Thursday, March 22d, at 11 a. m., the Howard place, No. 179 East Fair street, between Crew street and Capitol avenue; handsome two story, 8-room residence. See our special column for particulars.

—Tuesday, March 27th, at 11 a. m., the Cum-

8-room residence. See Darticulars.
a—Tuesday, March 27th, at 11 a.m., the Cummings place, No. 64 Cooper street, beautiful 9-room residence on lot 112x216 feet. See our special column for particulars.
b—The Dr. Wilson property on the dummy line just beyond West End, will be platted and sold at auction at an early day.

Go to Kuhn's, 33½ Whitehall street, for the finest Cabinet Photographs. Highest award at Piedmont Exposition for Cabinets and 8x10s.

Have Mauck paper your rooms. Chang of Schedule.

Our Unqualified Challenge IS UNACCEPTED! REMINGTON

TYPEWRITER.

HOYT & THORN

CHEAP CASH GROCERS,

90 WHITEHALL ST. 90 We invite your inspection.

WHAT IT WILL DO. It will whiten the teeth.

It will purify the breath, It will prevent the formation of tartar, It will never the formation of tartar,
It will neutralize any acidity of the saliva,
It will aid in preserving the teeth,
It will cure tender and bleeding gums.
Those who have heretofore neglected the care and preservation of their teeth should begin this important work at once. For this you will find nothing so efficient as Delectalave. Price 50 cents bottle. For sale by all druggists, ASA G. CANDLER & CO., Wholesale Druggists, Gen'l Agts., Atlanta, Ga. febl2-dlý un thorat 7p

Our samples for Spring Suits have arrived, and we are now ready to take measures for same. We have a large selection of all the latest styles. We guarantee a perfect fit, at the lowest possible prices. We are also receiving in readymade goods a beautiful assortment of all the latest styles and of the best materials. Our styles embrace Men's and Youths' double and single Prince Alberts, one and fourbutton cutaways, round and square cut sacks, all the latest styles in Boys' and Children's Clothing. By examining our goods and prices you will oblige A. & S. ROSENFELD, 24 Whitehall, corner Alabama.

Something to Read. THE Dramatic News for this week is now out, containing as usual an article from Mr. Joe Howard, which ought to be read by everybody. It also contains a very interesting article on Lawrence Barrett's career. Don't fail to get this week's copy. For sale at Miller's news stand. False Alarm.

An alarm was sent in from Box 41, caused by a dense smoke at Jacob's Pharmacy. In four seconds time, chief Joyner, with the whole fire department was on hand. On investigation it was found that the smoke was caused by a number of gentlemen smoking Atlanta's fayorite, Yellow Label Cigars. What we have left in Winter Goods will be closed out regardless of price this week. From Bargains in store for everyone. Fetzer &

I now smoke "Yellow Label" cigars, and make good time.

"My dear, where did you get that nice, fragrant cigars" "Hushi It's the 'Yellow Label' Everybody sells them."

Congressman Barnes weighs 260 pounds He master, and repairing old slate roof a specialt anders "Yellow Label' cigars.

M. R. JONES & CO.

PRACTICAL SLATE ROOFERS
Plain and ornamental roofing done in the be master, and repairing old slate roof a specialt address, Box 318, Atlanta, Ga. Office 12 Loyd street Janib - d3m 7p

STANDARD

For Speed and Durability—UNRIVALVED.
For ease of Manipulation and Quality of Work
—UNRQUALED.
THE RIGHT-HAND OF STENOGRAPHERS.
THE BUSINESS MAN'S FRIEND.
Finest stock of typewriters and typewriter supplies in the South at No. 23 Marietta street.
W. T. CRENSHAW,
Exclusive Dealer for Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Florida.

Our Prices-Best Goods. 15 lbs Extra C Sugar.... 50 lbs Regal Patent Flour... 50 lbs Rese Patent Flour... 45 lbs Hudaut's Grits...

40 lbs Hudnut's Grits
Large Love Hams, per lb.
Smail Dove Hams, per lb.
Dove Break ast Eacon, per lb.
2 lb cans Tomatoes.
2 lb cans Tomatoes.
13 bars Glory Soap.
Preserves, pure fruit, per lb.
4 lbs, any kind Jelly.
Vermont Maple Syrup.
Parched Rio Coffee, per lb.
Imported Macaroni, per lb.
1 lb Royalor Dr. Price Bik'gP'd'r.
New Dates, per lb.
Large Fancy French Prunes.
3 lbs. new Turkish Prunes.
Fancy Raisins, L. Layer.

HOYT & THORN, SEEDS GIVEN AWAY! A package Mixed Flower seeds (500 kinds); with PARK's Floral Guide, all for 2 stamps. Every flower lover delighted. Tell all your friends. G. W. PARK, Fannettsburg, Ph. 43 Send at once. This notice will not appear again. again, maril
CEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY, ORDINARY'S Office, March 9, 1888.—George B. Nazarenus has applied for exemption of personalty, and I will pass upon the same at 10 o'clock a. m. on the '6th day of March, 1888, at my office. W. L. CALHOUN, mch 10 11 Ordinary.

BAILROAD TIME TABLE.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE

Showing the arrival and departure of all trains from this city-Central Time. EAST TENN. VA. & GA. R'Y ARRIVE,

From Montg'ry*...1 25 p m To Montgomery* 2 00 p m To Columbus*...* 6 40 p m To Montgom'ry*...1 25 p m To Montgom'ry*...1 20 p m

From Augusta* ... 6:30 a m | To Augusta* ... 8:00 a m |
"Covington*, 7:55 a m | To Decatur ... 9:00 a m |
"Decatur ... 10:5a m | To Decatur ... 9:00 a m |
"Decatur ... 10:5a m | To Carkston ... 12:10 p m |
"Clarkston ... 2:30 p m | To Augusta* ... 2:45 p m |
"Clarkston ... 2:50 p m | To Covington ... 6:15 p m |
"Augusta* ... 4:50 p m | To Augusta* ... 9:00 p m |
"Decatur ... 4:55 p m | To Augusta* ... 9:00 p m |
"Decatur ... 4:50 p m | To Decatur ... 4:00 p m |
"Decatur ... 4:50 p m | To Decatur ... 4:00 p m | Pharr, 12 Whitehall street, Clothiers and Clothiers and From Lula. 8 25 am *To Charlotte. 7 40 am *From Charlotte. 12 20 pm To Lula. 4 30 pm *From Charlotte. 12 20 pm To Lula. 4 30 pm *From Charlotte. 9 40 pm *To Charlotte. 6 00 pm GEORGIA PACIFIC RAILROAD. GEORGIA FACIFIC RAILROAD.

*From Starkville.6 15 a m To Briming m* ... 1 25 pm*
From Tallapoosa. 5 0 a m To Briming m* ... 1 25 pm*
From Birm g'm .5 45 p m To Tallapoosa. 5 0 cpm.

*From Birm g'm .5 45 p m To Starkville ... 11 00 pm.

CLARKSTON TRAINS—Daily except Sunday.

Ly. Atlanta ... 12 10 p m Ly. Clarkston ... 1 25 p m

Ly. Decatur ... 12 42 p m Ly. Decatur ... 1 45 p m

AT. Clarkston ... 12 77 p m Ar. Atlanta ... 2 30 p m

*Daily—†Daily except Sunday. Central time

*Daily—†Daily except Sunday. Central time

Furnishers.

MISCELLANEOUS

SPRING NOVELTIES In Richly Mounted Silver Handle

PARASOLS.

FREEMAN & CRANKSHAW

IMPORTANT to SMOKERS of FINE CIGARS BEERMANN & SILVERMAN,

To make room for our importation thirty thousand Cigars direct from Cuba, we offer our entire stock, consisting of over fifty thousand fine Key West Cigars, all noted brands, at cost. Our space is small and our room valuable. We will sell for 5½ cents a clear Havana Cigar, usually sold for 10 cts. Our entire stock positively at cost. Beermann & Silverman.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Indications for Georgia: Stationary temperature light to fresh; southerly winds; rain, followed by colder, westerly winds and fair weather, OBSERVER'S OFFICE, SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A., U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE, March 10, 9 P. M. Observations taken at 9 p. in., central time.

STATIONS.	Ba	Thermometer	De	W	IND	Rainfall	We
	rometer		Dew Point	Direction	Velocity		eather
Mobile	29.96				Clam	2.18	Cloudy
	29.94				8	.16	Cloudy
New Orleans	29,92	64	64	W	Light	.00	Clear.
Galveston	30.16	54	46	N	30 12		Clear.
Palestine	30.32	42	28	NW	12	.00
Pensacola	29,96	60	58	E	80	.40
Corpus Christi	30.20	50	44	N	30	.00	Clear.
Brownsville	30,12	70	58	N	18	.00	Clear.
Rio Grande	80.20	72	14	N	18	.00	Clear.
LOC	CAL	OF	SE	RV	ATION	S.
6 a. m	30.29	44	29	S	12 1	.00	Cloudy
2 p. m	30.18	48	47	E	6	.31	Lt Rafn
9 p. m	30, 49	49	48	SE	16	.38	Lt Rain
Maximum therm Minimum Therm Total rainfall	nome	ter.					51

W. EASBY SMITH, Sergeant, Signal Corps, U. S. Army. NOTE.—Barometer reduced to sea level.
The T indicates precipitation inappreciable.
Indicates trace of rainfall.

DILES, FISTULA AND ALL RECTAL DIS asses treated by a painless process. No loss of time from business. No knife, ligature or caustic. A RADICAL CURE guaranteed in every case treated. Reference given.

DE. R. G. JACKSON,

office 42% Whitehall Street, Atlanta.

UNDERTAKER. No. 62 South Pryor street. On call day or night. Telephone 780. ly FRANK X. BLILEY.

LARGEST STOCK LOWEST PRICES. IMPROVED

TIME PIECES. > J. P. STEVENS & BRO., 47 Whitehall St.

I have employed a first-class crayon, Indian ink and water color artist, and am now prepared to make life-size prtraits at prices that will astonish you. Do you want to give a large portrait of your-clef to your family? Call and and get may prices and see samples. Have you an old picture you wish enlarged? Bring it up and let me bid on it. Easy Terms.—To responsible parties I will make thee portraits on monthly payarties. The permanent bromide process is used excusively on these portraits. I can therefore safely unarance them to be as permanent as a free hand trawing; much more accurate and at half cost.

Respectfully,

W. T. FUIN,

In wea sun tue fri 334 Whitenall street.

The members of the Woman's Industrial union are requested to meet in their school building, on the borner of Ivy and Harris streets, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. MRS. R. M. CLAYTON, Secretary.
Atlanta, Ga., March 10, 1888.

THOMSON'S

CELEBRATED

More Popular

Than Ever. PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED.

THREE LENGTHS.
TWELVE GRADES.
Highest Awards Granted.

THE BEST GOODS and CHEAPIST for QUALITY. FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

Thomson, Langdon & Co, NEW YORK,

BOLE MANUFACTURERS and I can now doing mar 11 sun tues thus n r mlast page

THE TRUE REASON

Why John Wilkes Booth Shot President Lincoln.

He Was Hissed in Baltimore and Cheered i on of the Actor's Life, Etc.

"No, sir," said Mr. Edwin Hunter, the com-median, decidedly, "this story of a child of John Wilkes Booth, is a sensational lie. Aside from all the proof that could be brought, the story condemns itself. The idea of Booth's having a child ten years old at the time Lincoln Booth was brought up within three or four miles of Baltimore, and was sent to Leesburg to school. I was intimately acquainted with him at his home, and was with him at Leesburg. Afterward we were in the same profession, and at one time in the same stock company. We met frequently and were bosom friends, and I would swear that the story is

"You say you were in the same company with Booth?"

"Yes, that was in the old stock company of Kurkel, Ford and Maxley, all dead now except Colonel Ford. Ah, those were great days. Not long before that Booth made his debut in Baltimore and was hissed. He was Ascanio Petrucco and Ella Wrenn was Lucretia Borgia. When she asked him, 'Who art thou?' Booth was so nervous that he forgot his part. He stammered awhile and then broke out impulsively, 'Who am I, anyhow?' They hissed him off the stage, and to his dying day he felt it keenly. From there he came to Kurkel, Ford and Maxley in Richmond, and his success was phenomenal from the very start. This generous welcome, coming so soon after his rebuff in Baltimore, implanted in his heart a love for Virginia and the south that never waned. He was the pet of Richmond and led a very wild life there, being allowed to do almost as he pleased. He was the most magnetic man I ever saw. To was the most magnetic man I ever saw. To know him was to love him, and a true history of his life would read like a story of knighthood and chivalry. Then he was handsome, too, like his father before him. I have often heard him say: 'If only something would happen so I could prove my gratitude and love.' And when John Brown invaded Virginia John Wilkes was in a perfect feyer of delight. He joined company F, Richmond Volunteers, and took part in the hanging. He was almost a monomaniac. He had been hissed in Baltimore and welcomed in Richmond, and he never forgot it. To him it was a debt to the south that was worth more than his life. But the midst of his Richmond life he would tell me all, and I am certain that he would have told me voluntarily if there had been any foundation for this story of his marriage. But even if he hadn't I would have learned something of it, for I was with him almost constantly. And then it isn't like him. He didn't do things in secret, but was as open and honest as truth it-then it isn't like him. He didn't do things in secret, but was as open and honest as truth itself. But even it he had been married secretly, he must have told it afterwards. Impulsive as he was he could never keep a secret like that. Nonsense! Whoever started that ridiculous slander just relied on the general ignorance, and trusted that so much had been forgotten that the story would go. But to know Wilkes Booth and the facts connected with the story, why it must be false. Colonel John T. Ford and George Campbell, and possibly a dozen others, could prove the story a falsehood, and I do hope some of them will do so." "Well. Booth had an idea that Lincoln was "Well, Booth had an idea that Lincoln was personally a foe and a menace to the south, and about the time that Lincoln's first term expired Booth became very moody. I heard bim ask one day in Washington:

"Is there no way to prevent Lincoln's being oresident again?'
"'No,' he was told,
"'And he can be president as long as he ves, don't you suppose?'

"'Yes.'
"Afterward in speaking of this he became very much excited. 'There's no help that I can see as long as Lincoln lives,' he would say. About two months after that I was drivsay. About two months after that I was driving with him on Pennslvania avenue. He had sent an urgent invitation, and I knew something was wrong. He seemed to be watching for something, and suddenly pointing to a carriage drawn by two gray horses, he said to the driver: 'Now, follow that carriage.' "'Whose carriage is that?' I asked. "'That's Lincoln's,' he said. "'Just to shoot the president,' he said, and laughed.

laughed.
"I never dreamed until long after that the words might have been spoken in more than jest. He turned quickly to the driver and said: 'Now drive towards the capitol.' The esident was driving in the opposite direct "And what about the assassination?"

"That isn't the right word exactly. But the night before Lincoln was shot, Booth came in at the back door of the theater. The old door-keeper was very fond of Booth, and Booth was kind to the old man.
"Do you know, Mr. Booth,' the doorkeeper asked, 'that President Lincoln will be here to-morrow night?"

morrow night?
"'Are you certain?' Booth asked.
"And then the old man told him all about it.
Next night he came again in that same back door, went behind the scenes and entered at

Next night he came again in that same back door, went behind the scenes and entered at the private entrance to the president's box. I was in the audience, and if I remember correctly it was Laura Keene in 'American Cousin.' The first I knew was when a lady just in front of me moved to look at the president's box. I looked that way, and just in time to see the flash. Cool! Why he was the nerviest man I ever saw. He was standing in the back of the box when the shot was fired, and when he placed his hand on the cushioned railing of the box, next to the audience, five or six people might have touched him. If I remember rightly an officer in the army was next him in the box. You see a lot of bunting had been thrown around the box in honor of the president, and as Booth jumped from the box his foot caught. That's what broke his leg. "Sic Semper Tyrannis." That's all he said. But if poor Wilkes could have said what he thought it would have been: 'They hissed me in Baltimore, they welcomed me in Richamond, and I do this for the south.' Poor fellow! Poor fellow! Just to think of that long ride with the broken leg, and compelled afterwards to walk with it. If it had been my own brother I could not have watched the papers more anxiously. You know the rest of it. He died like a brave man, as I knew he would. And then to think that twenty years afterward a hideous story like this should be started. No, if Booth had been hissed in Richmond and welcomed in Baltimore, Jeff Davis might have been assassinated, but Booth would never have killed Lincoln."

Those who are trying to break up the baneful habit of intemperance will experience great benefit from the use of Prickly Ash Bitters. Liquor deranges the system. Prickly Ash Bitters will remedy the evil results and restore the brain, stomach and liver to healthy action, thereby strengthening the will power, thoroughly cleansing and toning up the system, and remove every taint of disease. It is purely a medicine and while pleasant to the taste, it cannot be used as a beverage by reason of its cathartic properties.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Interesting Exercises at Ira Street
Mission.

For the past two weeks a very interesting revival has been going on at the Ira street mission. This mission is under the direction of the Second Baptist church and is one of the most flourishing in the city. Rev. W. B. Smith, who has charge of it is an able and earnest workerjand is doing a great work in that part of the city. These revival meetings will continue during this week, and ever, body is cordially invited to attend. Go out today, If not today, some time during the week, and you will be greatly benefitted. Rev. John E. Morris, of Cincinnati, will preach today and tonight.

To Property Owners.

To Property Owners. I am doing an exclusive renting business, being the only exclusive renting agent in the city and I can do double the amount of business I am now doing; can satisfy the most particular. I want more business.

John J. Woonsrog.

20 North Broad. THE SCHOOL TEACHERS' MEETING

A Pleasant Gathering-Mrs. Bessie Oto Makes a Good Impression.

The regular meeting of the normal class, composed of all the white teachers in the public schools of Atlanta, took place vesterday morning in the Girls' High school. The exercises began at 11 o'clock and continued several hours. The meeting was one of the most interesting gatherings ever held by the teachers, and all who were present showed great earnestness.

Messrs, Blanchard, Mayer and Bray, of the board of education, were present, as were also about twenty visitors, who were specially in-vited.

A good deal of routine work, such as reading minutes, hearing reports, was discharged.

The amendments to rules Nos. 2 and 12 of the law governing the schools, were read and discussed. These amendments provide for the admission into the schools of children who are under six years old. The present rule is:

"No child under six years or over eighteen years of age shall be received as a pupil in the schools; provided, that pupils who shall attain the school age during the first term may be admitted at the beginning, but if they attain the school age during the second term, they cannot be admitted when new classes would be required for them; provided, also, that should any child already in the schools arrive at the age of eighteen years during a scholastic year, said pupil may continue in the schools until the close of said year."

This provoked discussion, which was participated in by the superintendent and by Mr. Blanchard and several of the principals of the school. A good deal of routine work, such as reading school.

The teachers were all paid their salaries in checks on Treasurer Lowry.

Mrs. A. H. Smith, of Fair street school, read a very interesting paper on "A Trip Through My Father's Library."

Mr. Bass, principal of the boys' high school, followed, in a very practical paper upon the duties and responsibilities of a teacher. Among very many other things, he charged teachers with not claiming their rights, and said that it was a thing unheard of for a teacher to aspire to a judgeship, but that he had witnessed a judge, ignorant of school teaching, aspiring to be the chief teacher in the state of Georgia, and his aspirations were approved by the gov-judge, ignorant of school teaching, aspiring to be the chief teacher in the state of Georgia, and his aspirations were approved by the governor, who granted that ambition.

At the invitation of Superintendent Slaton, Mrs. Bessie Otton, now so well known and appreciated as an elocutionist, appeared before the meeting and was received with applause. She began by giving a short talk about the importance of early training in the art of elocution. She said that elocution was not confined to recitations on the stage, but extended to reading, to conver ation, to the social circle, as well as the public gathering; that it was an accomplishment of which any one might be proud; that it was an art within the reach of any that would make an earnest effort to attain to it. She urged that it be taught more in the schools; that it should be begun as soon as the child lisps its mother's name, and should be continued to the last day of the college course. Mrs. Otton then spent half an hour in reading several of the most difficult and pleasing pieces in prose and poetry. She recited "Jimmie O'Neal" in a manner which carried her audience with her and impressed all deeply with her powers. Her mimicry of several characters which Jack saw in school was excellent, and kept the audience convulsed with laughter. She seems to command with equal ease the grave and the gay, the lively and the severe; and she received at the close of he unpromptu entertainment the highest compliments, some of the best critics in the room going so far as to pronounce her the finest elocutionist they had ever heard.

The superintendent, before the close of the meeting, complimented the teachers upon the smooth and efficient manner in which the meeting, complimented the teachers upon the school machinery is now running. He de-clared that during the past month he had not heard a single complaint in the parent or pupil. He said that the schools were never in a better ondition than now. ASCHMATIVETROUBLES and Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, are usually overcome by Dr Jayne's Expectorant, a sure curative for al. BRAZILIAN FLOUR CORN

The Flour of the Future, as it Contains Ingredients that Are Most Wholesome. We have heard a good deal of late of the Brazilian flour corn, and a Constitution representa-tive thought he would find out just what it was and its advantages over other varieties. He sought Cap tain N. C. Carr, manager of the Atlanta Seed com

"Do you sell the Brazilian flour corn?"
"Yes, we have a small quantity," said
Mr. Carr, "and it is the real Brazilian flour corn, too. It is not mixed, but the enuine article."
"You say a small quantity; is there not plenty of "No: it is very scarce, and that is the reason it seils so high. There is only a limited amount of this corn for sale, and the first come will be the first served."

"What about the merits of the corn of which you

"What about the merits of the corn of which you speak?"

"Well, sir, it is the best corn in America. It is going to be the salvation of the southern people, as it is the most productive grown, and at the same time far surpasses anything we know of for forage. From one grain a dozen to fifteen stocks come forth, and each stock bears from two to five years. What about the flour it makes?"

"The flour is the very best. In fact you cannot tell the flour made from it from that made out of wheat. It is more mutritious than wheat and is much richer in phosphates. On one acre of good land fifty to seventy-five bushels can be grown, and the flour it yields is immense."

"How do you sell the seed."

"Very cheap. We put them up in packages sufficeint to plant about 1,200 hills and send it, post paid, for one dollar. Of course we will soon run out, but we want to scatter it as well as we can this year."

This is indeed a great seed, and the people will do well to send to the Atlanta Seed company, of Peachtree street, and get a package before it is all gone.

Home testimonials are most reliable. Send your name and address and we will send statements of numbers of the best citizens of Nashville regarding the wonderful cures effected by the Ethiopian Pile Ointment. It never fails. 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Rangum Root Med. Co., Nashville, Tenn. At wholesale by A. G. Candler & Co., Atlanta, Ga., and D.W. Curry, Rome, Ga. Retail at Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga.

SENT FREE Samples Wall Paper, with prices and book on how to apply to M. M. MAUCK, Atlanta, Ga.

"Oh, Mrs. Smith, where did you get that beautiful pair of diamond car-rings you have on?"
"Can you keep a secret?"
"Yes."
"Pil tell you all about it. I got them at A. L. Delkin & Co.'s, 93 Whitehall street, for only $1 00, and they are solid gold."
"They are just lovely."

We noticed in P. H. Snook's furniture ware-rooms some of the most elegant antique oak and mahogany sideboards with tables, leather chairs manogany stdecoards with tables, leather chairs and lounges to match. These dining suits are beautifully carved with grotesque faces and figures, and finished in the very highest manner. His stock now being placed on his floors is simply elegant beyond description, and we advise our friends to go and see this elegant display. Many pieces are duplicates of those in the celebrated Ponce de Leon hotel at St. Augustine, Fla.

La Loma Plantation THE CONSTITUTION job office has recently turned out one of the most artistic and attractive pamphlets ever issued from a southern press. It is a thirty-two page pamphlet, beautifully illustrated, descriptive of La Loma plantation, one of the few of those famous old; estates that have been preserved and handed down from, former generations. served and handed down from former generations. The spacious mansion house and baronial domain suggest plea ant memories of old plantation life. This plantation lies within that district, extending into Gadstlen county, Florida, in which the culture of tobacco from Cuban seed has recently been revived under the most favorable auspices. It has been fully demonstrated that this district successfully produces the finest and highest-priced eigar tobacco grown on the continent, which has been pronounced by experts to be the equal of the best Havana, bo h in appearance and flavor when on a cigar. We have smoked one of these eigars, which certainly possesses the aroma and fragrance of the imported article. Northern capitalists have recently invested largely in the culture of tobacco in this district, and the country is be siming to experience a tide of prosperity. It is said that tobacco will here yield as much as $1,000 an acre, and the possibilities to be realized from its culture are hardly yet apprecated.

This favored region is also the home of the work.

cated.

This favored region is also the home of the wonderful LeConte pear, which is here entirely free from blight. Orchards a ound Thomasville last season netted $300 an acre. The pamphlet states that La Loma has thirty acres in LeConics.
Engiby located on a through railroad 1 nc. near Thomasville, this plantation must indeed be a charming and valuable place.

Salvation Oil has met with a cordial well come. Druggists sell stacks of it. Price 25c

Information recently received leads us to be lieve that the Salvation Army, whose funds and whose enthusiasm have both run low, as is well known, is about to disband. This will certainly take place if the proposition recently made by the Scotch Oats Essence Co., of New York, to deposit in the Chemical National Bank of New York, $250,000 for the benefit of the Salvation Army is not carried out. This is not, we believe, one of the stupendous advertising dodges so common at the present day, but the proprietors of this great remedy for nerve and brain diseases have reaped such a harvest from this remedy, and at the same time have done so much for the physical welfare of mankind, that they feel that it is but right that they should contribute a portion of their gains to the welfare of the souls of mankind. It is said that General Booth is now in communication with the president of the Scotch Oats Essence Co., and we are in daily expectation of hearing that the matter has been closed. THE SALVATION ARMY TO DISBAND

Mrs. Bernard nee Miss Berge is still in charge of our Dressmaking department and has just returned from New York after two weeks examining the designs and styles for Spring. Chamberlin, Johnson & Co.

Agency for the celebrated

"MILLER HATS."

Spring block. Entirely hand finished. The most attractive shape in the market, and just as good as a hat can be made. Price $5.00. Fetzer & Pharr, Hatters and Clothiers, 12 Whitehall street.

Suburban Farms at Auction. Tuesday next at 3 p. m., the Coursey proper, just one mile beyond West End dummy line even tracts of seven and a half to ten acres each even hacks from our office at 2:15 p. m. strmo

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: Please state that know nothing of the meeting called at the county ourthouse Tuesday night next, and that the use of ly name in connection with the meeting in any way is wholly unwarranted. Respectfully,
H. A. RUCKER.

Have Mauck paper your rooms. A CARD.

Mr. Perkins, of the Southern Dye House, has fitted up a very neat store at 24 Walton street, where ladies and gentlemen can get their cleaning or dyeing done in a first-clas manner at short notice. It leads—others follows, the Light Running Do mestic Sewing Machine, the best machine made.

The New Bank. Stock in the Merchants' and Mechani

ments.

An excellent investment for men on salaries to save money. The charter is a liberal one for capitalists' investments.

The incorporators are:

A4D. Adair,
Henry Walthers. AAD. Adair,
Honry Wellhouse,
Jos. F. Gatins,
A. G. Howard,
George A. Webster,
James L. Logan, Jr.

James L. Logan, Jr.

Opfice Henry P. Scales & Co., Atlanta, Ga.
To the Job Trade.—Having secured the entire con trol of P. B. Gravely & Co.'s celebraled brands of pure Henry county. Virginia, tobaccos, and especially their fine "Poyton Gravely Honey Dew," and "Double Sailor Knot," for this city and section, we refer with pleasure to the following letter:
Danville, Va., March 1st, 1888.—Messrs. Henry P.
Scales & Co., Atlanta, Ga.: Gents: We note with pleasure the great success that you, as our sole agents in Atlanta, are having with our fine goods.
Having fully ascertained the crop in the fine chewing belt to be a very small one, our senior, early in the season visited the famous Leatherwood section of Henry county, Va., purchased at the barns of the planters, the choicest selections of fine crops in advance of other dealers, besides making the best selections from the choicest lots afforded on our market.

We therefore have pleasure in assuring the trade that we can offer all our fine brands in greater perfection and purity than we have been able to do our the last fifteen years. As a fine sweet chew our stock cannot be axcelled. Three-fourths of the preent crop has already been marketed or gone into the hands of manufacturers or speculators, a fact never before known in the history of this market the remaining portion leaves but a limited quantity of fines to be obtained. Awaiting your usual irequent and valued orders, we are,
Yours very respectfully,
tue thur sun

The best is always the cheapest; the Domest FOR TWO DAYS ONLY!

Monday and Tuesday, March 12th and 15th.

A representative of the "C. F. Haviland" china ware manufactory of Limoyes, France, will place on exhibition in our salesroom, No. 45 Peachtree street his extensive collection of samples of choice and artistic china and porcelain.

We cordially invite our patrons and friends to call on either day and inspect these beautiful goods, and will be glad to receive any special orders for fall importation.

Boers, Wey & Co.

asia un mon sat sun mon

From our office Tuesday at 2.15 p. m., to sale ten acre farms one mile beyond West End dummy e—the Coursey property. su, mon

Advance styles of everything new in Derby Hats at Fetzer & Pharr's, 12 Whitehall street.

Have Mauck paper your rooms.

K. P. B. P. KUHN'S

Permanent Bromide Portraits, life size, finest made, easy terms, prices cheap.

You are being surfeited with emblazoned advertisements about "Full Spring Stocks" from all sources. Let us advise you not to be in a hurry. Our Mr. Dougherty wires from New York that he is selecting something to astonish everybody in the way of

SPRING GOO

It is too early to wear Spring fabrics and too early to buy them. We shall open up, though, in full blast next week, with everything that is novel. beautiful and desirable. Wait for us. We come with the green leaves and not with the buds.

In the meantime, if you want anything we have left from our winter stock, it is yours at your own price. Many lines we have are suitable for the early Spring, and they are going at ridiculous figures.

Remember the old motto, "Save the best for the last," and then come to see us in our new lines. There is no necessity for being in a hurry.

D. H. DOUGHERTY & CO.

PEYTON H. SNOOK

STILL ONE MORE WEEK OF

Cut Prices in all Grades of Eurniture.

The finest stock in the the south, and none finer anywhere in this country. The most artistic stock in Atlanta. Elegant Diningroom Suites, Side-boards, Tables, Leather Chairs and Lounges to match in Antique, Oak, Mahogany and Walnut; Magnificent Chamber and Parlor Suites at actual (actory prices.)

PARTIES CONTEMPLATING BUYING OUTFITS SAVING AT LEAST 10. PER CENT! Sideboards, Wardrobes, Book Cases, Office Desks and Chairs, hat Racks and one hundred of the Handsomest Chairs and Rockers ever shown in Georgia. Folding Lounges and Parlor Suites Lower than the Lowest.

Don't Buy an Article of Furniture Before Getting My Terms.

P. H. SNOOK.

For finest Cabinet Photos, go to Kuhn's, 33½ Whitehall street. Two medals received at Piedmont Exposi-

I Just Thought I'd Ask You If your watch, clock or jewelry needed any fixing, and if it does, I would be pleased to have you bring it to my place for repairs. Prices reasonable. Blue, 97 Peachtree.

A pair of solid Gold Rhine Stone Ear Rings for $1.00 at A. L. Delkin & Co.'s, 93 Whitehall street.

OFFICES FOR RENT TRADERS BANK BUILDING.

OFFICES AND BUSINESS ROOMS, SUITABLE of FFICES AND BUSINESS ROOMS, SUITABLE for physicians, lawyers, brokers, etc., can now be secured in the Traders Bank building, on Decatur street, opposite Kimball house. These offices will be ready for occupancy May 1st, and are fitted with every modern convenience and appointments—elevator, gas, electric lights, etc. A few offices can be finished at an earlier date if necessary. Desk room can be had in a large room on second floor at a low rental. For terms apply to

E. F. GOULD, Kimball House,

tf So or at building.

BUY

Coleman National Business College, Newark, N. J. Open all the year. Eest course of Business Training. Best facilities. Pleasantest location. Lowest rates. Shortest time. Most highly recommended.
write for Catalogue and be convince—
H. COLEMAN, Pres't. Miss Peebles and Miss Thompson's SCHOOL WILL REOPEN MONDAY, OCTOBER 31 82 and 34 East 57th Street, New York.

EMORY COLLEGE,
OXFORD, GA.

THE INSTITUTION ENTERS UPON ITS FIFTY first session October 12, 1887, with enlarged aculty and increased tacilities for catalogues and nformation write to culty and increased facilities. For catalogues and formation write to the standard of the stan

LAMAR & ZACHRY.

Washington, D. C. Refer by permission to Hons.
A.H. Colquitt, J. E. Brown, John D. St. wart, J. H.
Blount, C. F. Crisp, A. D. Candler. George F.
Barnes, T. M. Nerwood, H. H. Carlton, Thomas
Grimes and H. G. Turner.

PLANTS NEW ILLUSTRATED CATAding Plants, Roses, etc., is now ready. Our stock of plants, etc., is the largest and most extensive in the south. Catalogue mailed free on application.
Address
P. J. BERCKMANS,
Fruitland Nurseries, N. B. -We employ no agents. P. J. KENNY.

KENNY & WERNER NO. 40 DECATUR ST., ATLANTA, GA.

Agents for PICKWICK CLUB and J, W. HARPER WHISKIES and BUDWKISER BOTTLED BEER. Wholesale Liquor Dealers
Telephone No. 100. - - Goods Delivered.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to dec30—dtf 8thp un u o rob

IMPORTANT!

On Monday Night, March 12, commending at 7 o'clock, we will sell the stock of Mr. C. P. Johnson, 52 Decatur street, consisting in part as follows: Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Gent's Shirts and Underwear, Jeans, Domestics, Calicocs, Lawns, Hosiery, Notions, Jewelry and other goods too numerous to mention. Also, Show Cases, Counters and Store Fixtures, Merchants especially invited to attend this sale, as the autics stock will be sold without reserve.

the entire stock will be

A. J. HAYGOOD, GEO. H. PRATT, Auctioneem.

VOL. XIX.

THE DEAD EMPEROR.

Business Upsettled While Awaiting Events. WILHELM'S GREAT PERSONAL POWER

Of Itself a Great Loss to Europe—A More |Cheerful Feeling in the English Mar-LONDON, March 11 .- [Special.] - The death of Emperor William has had a depressing

sult being to check business, people being inclined to hold their hands until they see how events are likely to move. The Economist thinks that the only immediate change which the death of Emperor Wil-Ham will produce will be the removal of his great personal influence from European poli-This is without referring to remoter con effect on the money market, the immediate resequences, which are not unlikely to be great On the stock exchange, during the week, a cheerful feeling prevailed. Foreign securities were steady, being supported by purchasers of stock sold in anticipation of the death of Emperor William.

It is believed that the London advance is Hkely to be reflected before long in Paris and

THE EMPEROR'S ARRIVAL. Berlin, March 11 .- [Special.] -- Accounts received by members of the court circle concerning the meeting between Emperor Freder ick and King Humbert at San Pier d'Arena yesterday, represent King Humbert as being stricken by the ghastly aspect of the emperor After the departure of the imperial train, King Humbert covered his face with his handkerchief, and said several times:

"He is ill, ah, very ill." All the members of the ministry left here by special train at 3:15 this afternoon to meet Emperor Frederick as he returned from San Remo. The special train conveying the em peror and empress arrived at Munich at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Their majesties met with a sympathetic reception at the station The train arrived at the West End station near Charlottenburg, at midnight. Close to rails a tent-shaped pavilion hung with black cloth had been erected. through which his majesty, on alighting from the train, passed direct to his carriage, which conveyed him to the Cherlottenburg schloss. By the request of the emperor, there will be no reception of any kind at the station. The carriages on their way to the castle were preceded by a detachment of the guard corps. A company of the Second regiment of the guards marched into Charlottenburg this after-

The Dowager Empress Augusta last night received Prince Bismarck, who had previously passed some time by the side of the dead monarch. After the interview Prince Bismarck visited Prince William. Prince Henry, with the princess of Saxe Meningen, arrived in Berlin at 9 o'clock last night. They immediately proceeded to the chamber in which the emperor lay. A grand requiem service will be held in the cathedral on Friday. The remains will be conveyed, during the night following, to the Charlottenburg mausoleum The German theater will remain closed for a fortnight.

At the autopsy held yesterday the physicians

The whole Russian army, by special order of the czar, will wear mourning for four weeks. On the day of the funeral the whole army will wear full mourning, and the use of bugles will be prohibited. The St. Petersburg newspapers today agreed in expressing a wish that Emperor Frederick continue the friendly policy of the deceased emperor toward Russia.

The Journal de St. Petersburg says: "We learn from a good source that in the tele grams passing between San Remo and St Petersburg strong confidence is expressed on both sides in the continuance of the traditional friendship between the two countries and the

The dead emperor's body was removed to the cathedral at a late hour tenight after Emperor Frederick had viewed it. The dead entperor's will directs that he be buried in full uniform with all his decorations upon him.

The Prize Fighters Released. LONDON, March 11.-[Special.]-Sullivan and Mitchell, who were arrested yesterday, have been released from custody by the French authorities, and will arrive in Lon don, on Monday.

SUPERIORITY OF HANGING.

SUPERIORITY OF HANGING.

It is the Most Humane Way of Inflicting Capital Punishment.

New York, March 11.—The Society of Medical Jurisprudence met at No. 12 West Thirty-first street last evening to hear a paper by Dr. William A. Hammond entitled "The Superiority of Hanging as a Method of Execution." Dr. Hammond referred to the report of the commission recently appointed by the governor, and said that while it was an exhaustive discussion of the methods of capital punishment, he thought its conclusions erroneous and misleading. He said in part: "Hanging was one of the mest ancient methods of capital punishment. Its original intention was strangulation, pure and simple. The idea of breaking the neck is modern, and while the gallows was of very remote origin, having been used gulation, pure and simple. The idea of breaking the neck is modern, and while the gallows was of very remote origin, having been used by the Jews and pictured among the earliest sculptures on the walls of Ninevah, strangulation was accomplised in many ways." Dr. Hammond gave several reasons why death by attangulation is absolutely painless. It caused in instant congestion of the brain, which puts a step to the sensibility.

"Though life may not be extinct in less than seven or eight minutes in most cases of strangulation," continued the speaker, "the subject feels no suffering whatever. Such has been the evidence of several criminals who have been resuscitated after partial strangulation, and notably of an Englishman who was afterward known as 'Half-Hung Smith.' This man declared that he felt perfectly happy, until brought back to consciousness, and cursed the soctors for nor letting him die in peace."

In conclusion Dr. Hammond said that no manner of death was so free from suffering as hanging, and recommended the simple method adopted by the western lynchers of placing a allp-knot around the subject's neck and hoisting him off the ground by a pulley to be strangled by his own weight. Examples weregiven to prove that the strongest currents of electricity would not always kill, and that horrors more unspeakable than those of the scaffold might be seen if the recommendation of the commission should be enacted into a law.

In the discussion which followed the reading of Dr. Hammond's paper the merits of hanging were placed considerably above those of electricity, but Dr. N. E. Brell held that the guillotine was the most comfortable engine of tleath.